SHOWED GOOD FAITH

Senator Ankeny Explains the Stewart Affair.

FOSTER'S CHANGE OF FRONT

That Alone, He Shows President, Was Cause of Misunderstanding—Piles Will Be Copulsed and Stewart Not Confirmed.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Jan. 28.—Senator Ankeny made his promised call at the White House this morning and talked over with the President the Seattle postmaster and the circumstances which yesterday threatened to place him in a bad light before the Administration.

It is understood that Ankeny made no request for the withdrawal of the nomination of Stewart, but it is also understood that there will be no action by the Senate on Stewart's nomination until after Senator-elect Piles reaches Washington, some time next month.

Technically speaking, Piles has no say about this appointment until after March 4, but the fact that he falls from Seattle and will soon become a full-fledged Senator gives his preferences weight, and it is believed that if Stewart is not confirmed, it will be because of Piles' opposition.

As the smoke of yesterday's incident hangs about the Senate, it is in the position of having first opposed Stewart's nomination and then shifted and consented to his reappointment. It was an unfortunate method of shifting his base that came so near causing disaster for his colleague, who had all along been looking after his interests.
