Fifth-Street Annex—First Floor.
That again demonstrates mastery of markets. New Silks are in this sale, too—part of a lucky purchase. Yes, indeed, this is A GREAT SALE OF SILKS.
And Silks are to be largely worn—the very silks we are selling in this sale.
It is a silk season, but did you ever think you'd die of heatstroke while in the train awaiting signal to leave the shed? Five minutes; ten, maybe twenty, if awaiting a connecting train.

A Wonderful Sale of Silks and Dress Stuffs

Not long—but intolerable. Well, this is a silk season—silks will go as sure as the train; but not come due in the meantime and help has to be paid. Some heroic selling must be done. It is. Three mills sell large lots to us at a loss. That lets us sell to you like this:
"REMNANTS" the mills called them, but there's thousands of yards in the purchase. Among them some odd lengths, upon which we place "remnant prices."

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

GRAND INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION for 2 days, Monday and Tuesday only, of OVER 1000 SAMPLE DECORATIONS in a new family of aristocrats born to the famous HAVILAND PORCELAINS of Limoges, France. A splendid representative of the celebrated French factory will be here in charge of this almost priceless exhibit of the new 1905 patterns in the famous

Haviland Chinaware

The exposition will be held in a specially arranged space on the third floor. People wanting exclusive new things in Haviland ware, different from the lines shown in regular stocks or possessed by any family at present, will do well to see this wonderful exhibit and place orders that can be delivered in July in time for the dining tables around which your guests will gather during the 1905 Exposition days. Of course, no one store could even start to carry the lines represented in this great factory expose, and prices for direct import are lower than on goods in stock. Every piece included will be the factory's newest 1905 output. This famous line is conceded by all authorities to lead all makes, and this particular line represents a superior branch of the Haviland china family, handled only by superior stores of the Olds, Wortman & King class. Orders may be given for sets, or parts of sets, or any combination desired, and any piece can be replaced at any time by the factory. A grand chance for the lover of the exclusive and the connoisseur to select. An exhibit of art in beautiful Haviland ware of a superior make over the ordinary, and charming decorative work, worth coming miles to see.

SPECIAL NOTE.—In order that the representative in charge may keep an important engagement with a leading San Francisco house, the Exposition will close at 4 O'CLOCK sharp on Tuesday afternoon—3 large passenger elevators constantly in commission—Exposition on third floor.
