

NUSUALLY attractive theatrical events, many informal card parties and several dances made the past week go quickly. Mrs. B. F. Stevens entertained at bridge on Tuesday, and on the same afternoon Mrs. H. E. Judge and Miss Julia Coman en-tertained the Girls' Cinch Club at the beautiful and original curved and burnt home of Mrs. Judge. Dainty refresh- wood presents were received suitable for ments were served at tete-a-tete tables. Mrs. F. A. Nitchy gave a pleasant bridge party on Thursday. The Nineteen Hundred Club entertained on Tuesday evening at Parsons Hall, giving one of their most pleasant dances.

Oppneus Longe, No. 59, Krights of Pythias, was entertained at the Castle Hall in the Logus building on Thursday evening last, by Judge Mokanna Munz, P. G. C., of Chicago, H., who is making ant bridge party on Thursday. The and Wednesday evening the New Century Club entertained; on Thursday the "Ge-Lo-Rans," and on Friday the June class of the High School, who gave a dance at Larowe Hall for the Febru- that upon the conclusion of his address ary graduates. Very enjoyable affairs 34 members of Orpheus Lodge made appli-in church circles were the Japan after-cation to Captain Keating for admission noon of the missionary society of Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal Church, held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Beharrell, and the meeting of Trinity Auxillary on Friday afternoon at the Keating, the recruiting officer, will remain home of Mrs. A. G. Ott. Mrs. Belle in the city about ten days, during which Sellwood read a paper prepared by Mrs. Adrian Oakes on the subject of "What the Episcopal Church Is Doing for the Navajo Indians." At the close of this very interesting paper the of this very interesting paper the when she may go to Paris to visit relatives and continue her studies,

A theater party at one of the perform-ences of "The Darling of the Gods" and I luncheon given on Wednesday by Miss Dalsy Freeman, were two of the most recent affairs given in Miss Richett's

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd gave a juncheon on Friday, entertaining 14 of her friends most delightfully. The exquisitely ap-pointed table had for floral deceration a centerplece of maidenhair forn besides vases of lavender and white orchids. At the places of the guests were pretty bashets tied with lavender or green bows. and filled with lavender and green bows, and filled with lavender and green con-fections. Besides the hostess those pres-ent were: Miss Failing, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Warren Houghton Miss May Falling, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Harry Nonn, Mrs. R. L. Barnes, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. John Alusworth and Mrs. Arthur Minott.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Helen Bushnell, 2005 North Eighteenth street, the Philolexian Debating Society and silver, the colors of the society. High school fraternity and college bunners covered the walls. After the luncheon Miss. The Sur Vivian Place gave a reading, and Miss Ince Bushnell played several very beautiful flute solos. Miss Maude Cleveland sang with much, spirit one of the late football songs. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in telling stories and in singing high school and college airs. The success of the afternoon was due to the afternoon was spent in their beautiful new home at East Twenty-neventh and a few invited guests were delightfully entertained Thursday evening. January 26, by the first place of the laternoon was spent in their beautiful new home at East Twenty-neventh and the first place of the laternoon was spent in their beautiful new home at East Twenty-neventh and the place of the laternoon was spent in their beautiful new home at East Twenty-neventh and the place of the laternoon was spent in their beautiful new home at East Twenty-neventh and the place of the laternoon was spent in the life of the laternoon was due to the laternoon was spent in the life of the laternoon was due to the laternoon was in singing high school and college airs. The success of the afternoon was due to The success of the afternoon was due to the faithful and untiring work done by the chairman of the entertainment committee. Miss Florence Davis, and her assistants, Miss Frances Obertuffer and Miss and the consolatons falling to Mr. Bearle and Herisert Hill. After cards the guests Marion Cummins. The graduater were the Misses Bessle Dupee, Mae Zigler, El-canor Wesco, Dorothy Moore, Laura Harris, Eva Wentworth and Laliu Pratt.
Those present were: Bessie Dupee, Vallie
Collins, Mae Zigler, Florence Davis, Elcanor Wesco. Belle Cunningham, Lilah
Bodgers, Gladys Pilkington, Leila Stark,
Derothy Moore, Vivian Meickle, Ethel
Clarke, Bachael Mess. Clarke, Rachael Hess, Hazel Bradley, Maude Cleveland, Hazel Anderson, Vivian Place, Frances Oberteuffer, Ethel Habighorst, Genevieve McGowan, Isabel Beck-with, Florence Williamson, Alleen Broug, Lalu Pratt, Florence Jackson, Veruon Gradon, Laura Harris, Eva Went-worth, Irene Scott, Emily McElroy, Hazet Ford, Helen Bushnell, Incz Bushnell, Ruth Duniway.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Payne, of Fres-no, Cal., who have been visiting Mrs. Payne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Soloon Wirth, at Tualatin, were given delightful party on Wednesday ening by Mr. James D. Wirth. During their short stay in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Payne have made many warm friends, who regret seeing them leave so soon, but hope to have another visit from them next Winter. Among

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Wirth Mr. and Mrs. Albert, Payne, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Wirth, Mr. and Mrs. Quinten Keiling, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Galbreath. The Misses Phoebe, Louise, Leona and Susie Wirth, May Wheaton and Mattle Larson, and Messrs, Frank Lucas, George Jurgens, Jesse Wir'n, Frank Murray, L. J. Eddens, Fred Waesten, Leonard Larson, and Solo-

Mrs. F. M. Milbs entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club at her home, 253 Hancock street. The ladies were entertained at luncheon after which the study for the afternoon was taken up. Miss Vida Moore rendered a piano solo which was greatly enjoyed by all. Mrs. F. M. Madison's sub-ject was "Elaine." "Guinevere," was ject was "Elaine." "Guinevere." was discussed by Mrs. A. B. Manley, and comparative study of the Arthurian Legends in France was ably made by Mrs. A. J. Stiles, while Mrs. George Boynton, in an equally able talk, presented a comparative study of the Arthurian Legends in Germany. Mrs. J. D. Young recited Lowell's "Vision of Sir Launfal." The rooms were tastefully decorated with Oregon holly. ferns and violets, Mrs. F. A. Moore, of Salem; Mrs. Henry Autys, of San Francisco; Mrs. J. A. Christians, Mrs. W. H. Downing, and Miss Vida Moore, were guests. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Merwin Pugh, 169 Meade street. Tuesday, February 7.

A very pretty home affair was the cele-bration of the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, at their home, 284 College street, Friday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated-red and green predominating. Mrs. H. A. Fredrich assisted in receiving the guests present, who were entertained by a peanut hunt, prizes being won by Mrs. L. Bacon and Mrs. W. D. Allard.

The musical programme was very pleasing, including a duet by the Misses Wicke, a vocal solo by Miss Maude Disbrow, a reading by Mrs. J. A. Leas, plano selection by Mrs. David Campbell, and a vocal solo by Miss Lillian Walter.

Punch was served by the Misses Becker. An elaborate supper was served with many appropriate and merry toasts, Rev.

Orpheus Lodge, No. 59, Knights a tour of the United States in the interest of the Uniform Bank, advocating greater interest in this branch of the order. The advantages of membership as depicted by Judge Munz, were so clearly set forth to the rank, and as soon as they are passed upon by J. E. Hanna, surgeon-in-chief. Portland will have another semimilitary organization. Judge Munz and Surgeon Hanns, accompanied by Captain time they will visit all lodges of the

330 Thirteenth street, last Friday even-Miss Frankie Richet, who leaves tomorrow morning for New York City, to study art, has been delightfully entertained during the past few weeks by many of her friends, all of whom are going to miss her very much, while at
going to miss her very much, while at the same time they are glad that she is

The members of the Jolly Whist Club spent a delightful afternoon at the pretty home of Miss Harrison G. Platt, when Miss spent a delightful afternoon at the pretty home of Miss Helen Eller, 774 Johnson street, last Friday. The house was tastefully decorated and, as usual, an interfully decorated and daintity-served supper were much chosen for the none of Mr.

A Very
Medical And Inc ambition to develop at the best teachers

Miss Richet is a Western girl of decidedily attractive type, tall and with a great deal of style, and it is not at all and likely that the artists whom she meets will want her to pose for them. She exwell want her to pose for them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelly entertained is charming way on: Tuesday evening at their new home at Twenty-third and Kearney streets. Progressive whist was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. F. M. Graham, F. P. Baumgartner, D. J. Cauwell and Mrs. McLashen, Miss Roberts, Miss Westermire and Frank Kelley added to the evening's entertainment with some delightful music. At a late hour an elaborate supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Caswell. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Baumgariner, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Graham. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westermire. Captain and Mrs. J. P. Boone. Mr. and Mrs. McLashen. F. Wertheimer, M. Kelly, F. Kelly, Mrs. M. E. Boberts, Mrs. Kent. Miss Hezel Westermire. Miss Ethel Roberts and Miss

A pleasant event of the week in W. C. U. circles was the reception tendered T. U. circles was the reception tendered Mrs. Lucia Faxon Addition and Mrs. Whitesides, thate and county presidents, by Mrs. J. M. Donaldson, president of the Albina Union, at her home, 516 Fremont street, last Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance, every union in the city being fully represented. Mrs. Ada Unruh, state lecturer, spoke, and the success of homes were also bearing and the guests of honor were also heard. of the Portland High School gave a lunch-con in honor of their members who were graduated Wednesday evening. The place cards combined the designs of the Febru-ary class pin and the Philoiexian pins. The decorations of white ribbons red carnarooms were prettily accorated in cardinal Gons and Oregon holly were artistically

The Sunshine Club, Doof H., and a few presented a charming appearance were entertained with music and dainty refreshments were served at teteu-tote tables.

The music department of the Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. K. Daly, on Irving street, Taursday afternoon, The soloists were Mrs. George C. Flanders, who sang the "Holy City" in a highly pleasing manner. She has murvelous con-trol of her voice, which is a flexible soprano. Mrs. Frost sang in a dainty style, captivating her audience as usual. The chorus under the leadership of Mrs. Flanders, is doing very good work. Duinty refreshments were served by the bostess. A large attendance is greatly desired by the enthusiastic chairman of this talented organization at its next meeting.

The Indo League held an interesting meeting on Monday afternoon. As the les of castes and of religions were discussed. Mrs. Nathan Harris gave a brief outline of "orthodox Judaism." "Russian Peasantry," and the present revolutionary troubles in Russia. This was received with much interest, and to be present at 2 o'clock Monday, Feb-ruary 5, at the home of Mrs. Nathan Harris 722 Glisan street Harris, 729 Glisan street.

On Wednesday evening, Miss Nellie Douglass entertained at her home, 2051 North Eighteenth street. The parlors were prettily decorated with Oregon holly and ferns. Dancing and games occupied the early part of the evening, and a dainty supper was served later. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. George Manning, Mr. and Mrs. James Frank, Misses Enphemia Dynch, Har-riet Manning, Nellie and Marie Doug-lass, Mae McCarthy and Katherine Doud, Messrs, J. Kennedy, A. Lynch, J. Daly, W. Byrens, H. Manning and

The members of the First Cumberland The members of the First Cumberiana-leaston Presbyterian Church were delightfolly en-frank Nir'a. Allem on Friday evening at the manse. Frod The occasion was the 25th anniversary of the church's organization, and also the lith anniversary of the church in Portland. The day is observed regularly in some such pleasant fashion as on Fri-day evening. Mrs. B. L. Lucas read an original poem on the day celebrated, writ-ten by Miss Raney. The parlors were decorated with carnations and the diningroom with daffodits.

Miss Ethel Allison entertained the mem bers of Mr. F. S. Akin's class of Grace M. E. Church at her home, on Chapman street, on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour a delicious supper was served, after which Mr. Akin delivered an address. The members of the class who were present were the Misses Mary Miller, Ethel Mil-ler, Lou Carey, Lillian Bentzon, Emily Welch, Bernice Appell, Ethel Allison, Messrs, F. S. Akin, Walter Choun, How-ard Merritt, Jesse Tiffany, Claud Brown, Elma Wendling, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Al-

The William G. Eliot Fraternity, con prising the young people of the First Uni-tarian Church, held a musical and literary meeting on Thursday evening at the resi-dence of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Olds, on Russala street. The theme of the evening was "Mendelssohn and His Music." Readings, instrumental music torchestreile and piano), and vocal solos formed an interesting programme. This is the first of a series of residence meetings to be held by the Fraternity during the Spring months.

The graduating class of the Holladay School entertained a few of their friends Wednesday evening. The assembly hall was decorated with flags and Oregon holly. The Misses Viva McQuerrey, Mabel Ford and Winnifred Rankin sang for the entertainment of the guests, and dancing was enjoyed later. The members of the February class are: Misses Edna Murphy, Vera McQuerrey, Bessy Tuttle, Lella Davis, Winnifred Rankin, Mabel Ford, Murphy, Martine Grove, Gertrude Carr. Eunice Little, and Messrs. Ralph Withycombe, Donald Rowe, Edgar Shearer, Lynn Coovert.

George Wright Relief Corps No. held regular weekly meeting Friday evening. Mrs. Bestie Smith, depart-ment president, was present and gave a very pleasant talk on the Frater-nal building at the Fair, and on other subjects of interest in her line of work. Next Friday evening, after a short business session, the corps will give a reception to Mrs. and Miss Walgen. A full attendance is much desired by the president. Refresa-ments will be served.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ferrie Henshaw entertained a party of young friends in honor of Miss Dorothy Say lor, one of the graduates of the Feb-ruary Class, Portland High School. During the evening Miss Madeline Berry gave an instrumental solo and Forrie Henshaw rendered several selections on the mandelin. couple will be at home to their friends. At 10 o'clock the guests repaired to after February 25 in Dunsmuir. ing. The house was prettily decorated toe dining-room, where delicious re with Oregon kelly, pussy-willows and freshments were served.

The consolation prize was won by Mrs. David Campbell. The next meeting of the club takes place February 17, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Luckel, 535 Ninteenth street. . . .

The Oregon Grape Whist Chib was entertained last week by Mrs. H. Wise on Market street. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Morgan, Miss M. B. Zeller and Mrs. Cloyes. The score cards were dain-tily decorated with Gibson drawings. Oregon holly was used abundantly in all the rooms and in the dining-room the table was beautiful with smilax and white carnations. The place cards were prettily done in water colors. Music con-tinued through the afternoon.

An interesting event in church circles took place last Sunday at St. Mary's Church, when Frances Alieen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, and Harlan Wesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lance were haptized. Mrs. M. A. Milne, Miss Nell O'Burn and Hon. J. M. Clearin acted as morphers. Gearin acted as sponsers: After the cere-mony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Milne. Dainty refreshments were served, Mrs. Roy Doble pouring tea, as-steted by Miss Ann O'Burn.

The members of the Wishbone Whist Club spent a pleasant evening last Thursday at Miss Neil Baker's home. The tally cards hearts ciubs and spades, with gfilled wishbones fled to cach, were very artistic. The prizes were awarded to Miss Ruby Shearer and Mr. Jasman. Supper was serged after the game. The club will be given a Valentine party Weshesday, February 15, by Miss Cornella Wilson at her home, 229 Thirteenth . . .

The graduating exercises of the D. P. Thompson School were held in the assembly ball of that school on Wednesday afterneon. A fine programme was rendered after which D. A. Grace, principal of the Ladd School, made a very pleasing talk to the graduates and reconstitution. ing talk to the graduates and presented the diplomas. The members of the class were given a reception at the home of Principal G. E. Jamison on Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Miller were given a surprise shower party by a number of friends at their pleasant home on Van-couver avenue hast Tuesday evening, the Hayns and Mr. Lee capturing the prize. and Miss Burton and Mr. Burghe the con-

The Fortnight Club met with the Misses Broughton, at 451 Tenth street, Tuesday evening. An excellent musical programme was much enjoyed by those present. In addition to the regular programme Miss MacConnell favored the members with two delightful solos. The next meeting of the club will be at Miss Rockwood's home, 667 Everett street, on February 21.

Miss Trixi: Murphy gave an informal tea on Wednesday in bonor of her cousin, Miss Glendola Bernard, of San Francisco. The rooms were tastefully decorated. The color scheme in the parlor was pink and green and in the dining-room red. Miss Laurine DuBruille and Miss Mac Smith

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Walde Coe gave a most delightful matinee party Saturday near future. All interested are invited R. M. Tuttle. After the play the party

The friends of Mrs. Laura Lantz gave a pleasant surprise party at her home at 883 Corbett street, on Saturday evening, January 28, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in music, whist and dancing, after which supper was

A delightful surprise party was given in honor of Mbss Hope Rodgers at her home at Willamette, on Saturday evening, Jan-uary 28. The evening was delightfully spent in games and at a late hour dainty

An enjoyable social event of Monday evening was a daucing party given by the Shohaka Club at Hunter's Hall, Sun-nyside. There was a large attendance and excellent music was furnished by Fisher's Orchestra.

Mrs. Preston Smith entertained informally on Friday evening at her home on Market street, the guests greatly appre-ciating a musical treat she had for them, Miss Mary Case having graciously con-

WEDDINGS.

Dunham-Miller.

A beautiful and unostentatious wedding was that of Fred C. Dunham and Miss Mildred M. Miller, which took place Thursday evening at Trinity Presbyterian Church, Fulton Park, Besides relatives and members of the immediate family, there were many friends present at the Fred Miller, a brother of the bride, at-ended the groom, and Miss Florence Dunham, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Little Miss Frances Johnson was flower girl. The ceremony was per-formed by Rev. Abram H. Burkholder, paster of Trinity Church.

As the bride and groom entered the hurch, Mrs. Minnie A. Olson sang "Oh, Promise Me." It was exquisitely rendered, with the feeling and expression that are a part of the charm of Mrs. Olson's renditions. As they emerged from the church, Mrs. Fred Miller rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was elegantly gowned in white silk organdic over white silk, with yell held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds. bridesmald was attired in white organdie with a bouquet of pale pink carnations The flower girl was clothed in white organdle, wearing a wreath of rosebuds and carrying a basket of pink carnations After the ceremony there was a recep-tion at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Miller, of Fulton Park. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dunham.

Grimes-Beaton. The Sacramento Bee gives the fol-lowing account of the wedding of Mr. Eugene Louis Grimes, of this city, January 14:

A wedding of interest took place Wednesday evening, January 11, at Dunsmuir, when Miss Jessica, young-est daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beaton, of that place, was united in mar-riage to Eugene Louis Grimes, of Port-land, by Rev. William Trudgeon. The ceremony took place in the hotel par-lors, which were decorated for the occasion in pink and green. The bride wore a handsome gown of embroidered net over white satin and carried white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Fahy Anderson, was attired in white silk and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by Jay Gould, of Port-land. The wedding party entered the room to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march and during the cere-mony Miss Carrie Gill rendered "O Promise Me." A reception followed, after which a supper was served in the dining-roam, covers being Jaid for 25. Numerous beautiful presents of cut glass and silver were received from friends all over the state. The young marriage service, the bride being giv-en away by her father, George H. Durham. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas played the wedding march, and the bride's atendants were Miss Margaret Platt, Miss Helen Platt and Miss Jeanette Thomas, John K. Kollock was his brother's best man. The bride was very beautifully gowned in ivory crepe de caine and old lace, with bouquet of lilles of the vailey, and made a charming picture during the service and as she stood to receive her friends best wishes. The parlor, library and hall were tastefully deco rated with Oregon holly and by, and the dining-room with pale pink carda-tions. Mr. and Mrs. Kollock left on same evening for an Eastern trip and upon their return, about February 23, will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick N. Kollock.

Kollock-Durham.

Case-Linebaugh.

A very impressive and beautiful wed-ding ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Linebaugh, 780 East Salmon street, on Wednesday evening, January 25, when their only daughter, Miss Gertrude E. Linebaugh, was united in mar-riage to Walter F. Case. While the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was being played by Mrs. C. W. Linebaugh, the bridal couple, preceded by Miss Susie Fuson and George T. Bradshaw, entered the room and took their place under a canopy of white and green ribbons. Rev. Harold Oberg, of Trinity Methodist Church, officiated. Only near relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Case will reside at East Twenty-ninth street and Sandy Road, where they will be at home after February 15.

Reddick-Marks.

An impressive and beautiful wedding eremony took place at the home of Mr. ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Marks, hear Lebanon. Or., Monday morning, January 30, when their eldest daughter. Miss Josephine, was united in marriage to Charles Reddick. Dr. A. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony. The parlor was tastefully decembed in white and present the works. decorated in white and green. The wedding march was played by Miss Ila Marks, while the bride and groom entered and of took their position under a beautiful arch an- of trailing ivy and Oregon holly. The birde were a charming gown of white silk. Only the immediate friends and relaoccasion being the thirteenth wedding an-niversary of the host and hostess. The guests came "en masque." creating any amount of merriment. Music and whist dick left to take the 9:5 A. M. train for were the features of the evening. Mrs.

DeGrandpre-Tackabery.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. A very pretty wedding took place at St. Lawrence Church, Thursday morning, January 26, when Miss Emma L. Tackabery and Clarence E. DeGrandpre, both of this city, were married by the Rev. J. C. Hughes. The bride was given away by her brother, J. H. Tackabery. Miss Mary Washer was bridesmaid, and Harry Tackabery best man. Little Celonise DeGrandpre, sister of the groom, acted as ringbearer. The wedding march was ringbearer. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Kelly, and Miss Elizabeth Harwas sang an "Ave Maria" and "Salve Regina" during the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. DeGrandpre will be at home at $88 First street.

Lamkin-Sax.

The marriage of Dr. Edward E. Lam kin. of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Sereta May Sax took place in this city Tuesday evening, January 3, Rev. Pather Murphy, of St. Patrick's Church, officiating. The bride is a member of a well-known pioneer

LADIES' OUTFITTERS

SILVERFIELD'S

ODDS AND ENDS AT COST

We find that in order to make room for the new Spring stocks arriving daily we must offer the various odds and ends accumulated during our clearance sale at the greatest sacrifice—so that now you have an opportunity to choose from our Euits, Furs, Waists, Skirts children's wear and ladies' furnishings—left from the clearance sale, a the most unheard-of prices.

FEBRUARY SALE OF FUR JACKETS

In the midst of stocktaking we find we have too many Jackets on hand for this time of the year. We are therefore making some splendid reductions, and offer Fur Jackets at prices that should readily reduce our stock. A splendid assortment to choose from in the best styles.

cord and tassel. Regular $12.50; special....

Remodeling and Repairing of Furs at Reduced Prices

$7.50 Silk Skirts $4.15

We now give every lady in Portland the opportunity to procure a handsome silk Skirt, at a price lower than has ever been placed on garments of equal value. Skir, in a variety of styles, all of fine black tafstyles, all or the field feta. Regular $7.50 values for .....

$1.25 Kid Gloves 89c

The celebrated "Percy's Best" $1.00-$1.25 Glace Gloves, in all the leading shades and sizes. On

$1.50 Kid Gloves $1.25 The "Antoinette" Suede Gloves, in mode, black, gray and tan; regular $1.50 values.....$1.25

Suits and Cloaks

On our second floor we are offering a large number of our latest and most desirable ladies' Suits, at such low prices that you will have to see them for yourselves before giving credit to our statement. We quote a few prices below:

$60.00 Suits...$36.65 $45.00 Suits...$28.75 $50.00 Suits...$29.95 $40.00 Suits...$24.60 $15.00 Raincoats, $8.85.

50c WOOL HOSE 37c

Fine heavy woolen Hosiery, full fashioned in leg and foot, having no seams, made of the best merino wool; Hosiery that has always sold for 50c. On sale at, per pair......37¢

KNIT UNDERWEAR

Our department of Knit Underwear is offering some great inducements in fine wool goods, of which we have sold vast quantities during the clearance sale, and have a few broken lines left. Your choice at almost your own price.

Academy, of this city. The groom is a surgeon in the foreign service of the United States Army. The young couple left on Wednesday for San Francisco and Honolulu, where after a brief sojourn they will leave for their home in Ma-

Rand-Roberts.

A very beautiful marriage service was solemnized at the "Firs," at Hood River, at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when Miss Elizabeth Roberts was married to Delbert E. Rand. Rev. J. L. Hershner officiated. The impressive ring service of the Episcopal ritual was used. Lancheon was served after the ceremony, when Mr. and Mrs. Rand left on the evening train for a visit in Tacoma and Seattle.

Myers-Pascall.

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. P. B. Langdon, at Woodstock, when allss Gertrude Pascall was married to Robert E. Myers, Rev. E. N. Allen, of the First Cumberland Church, officiating. Thirty guests were present. Luncheon was served, after which the bappy couple departed for their new home in Nashville, where they will reside

Endicott-Howard.

On Wednesday evening, January 29, Miss Ossie V. Howard, youngest daughter of D. W. Howard, of 355 East Fifteenth D. W. Howard, of 555 East Fifteenth street, was married to Lemuel P, Endicott, of Harrisburg, Or., The bride has for some years been a successful teacher in Eastern Oregon schools. The groom is an enterprising young farmer. Their fu-ture home will be at Harrisburg.

Rose-Colvin.

. William Rose and Gertie Colvin were married at the manse of Calvary Pres-byterian Church, on Wednesday, Feb-ruary I, at 8 P. M. Rev. William S. Gil-bert officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Rose will live at Marshland, Or.

Clark-Adams.

Dr. Edward Clark, of Ontario, Or., was married Friday morning to Miss Vera Adams by Rev. Dr. Brougher, of the First Baptist Church. They will make their home in Buker City. Miss Adams is from New York City.

Frinell-Ehrenreich. E. F. Frinell and Miss Madge Ehren

reich were united in marriage January 28, Rev. William E. Randall officiating, at the Central Baptist Church parsenage. Their new home will be cetablished in Portland. ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander, of Pendle-on, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Stella Charlotte, to Elmer Perry Dodd. The wedding is to be sojemuized Tuesday, February 28. Mr. and Mrs. Watson H. Wyman announce the engagement of their daughter, isabel Louise, to Mr. Willard T. Lovell, of Kane, Wyo. The wedding will take of Kane, Wyo. The we place early in March.

Mrs. Ormond Fletcher announces the engagement of her eldest daughter, Diana, to Georgre Ared White. The wedding will take place the latter part of the

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mott, formerly of Portland, now of Beaverton, Or., an-nounce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn, to Daniel E. Brown, of this city

COMING EVENTS.

The Norwegian ladies of Portland are cordially invited to be present at he Alisky Hall, Third and Morrison streets, Saturday evening, February meeting is to get the lades interested in the work that the Norwegian Singing Society now has on hand, namely: To help make a success of the coming Singers' convention, to be held here during the Lewis and Clark Exposi-tion. A good programme will be given and refreshments will be served.
admission charged.

Professor and Mrs. I. W. Pratt ten-dered a reception to the February grad-uating class of Failing School on Wednesday evening, February 1. The Wednesday evening, February I. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing "pit" and other games. There was a short programme, as follows: Comic reading, Leah Richards; instrumental duet, Mary La France and Leoda Grebe; class noem, Frances Claggett; vocal solo, Anna Werren. At the conclusion of the programme light refreshments were served by Mrs. Pratt and Miss Gertrude Pratt.

Oregon Lodge, No. 111, Degree of Honor, announces an entertainment and recep-tion to the visiting grand lodge officials, to be held at the lodge hall in the Alisky building, on Wednesday evening, next. An excellent programme is in course of so soon. But hope to nave another was received with much interest, and a most delightful matinee party Saturday of St. Patrick's Church, officiating. The preparation and no effort will be spared to wisit from them next Winter. Among by request Mrs. Harris will give another talk on the same subjects in the "Darling of the Gods," in honor of Mrs. family and is a graduate of St. Mary's of the order and their friends are in-

The first social of the newly-formed Canadian Society of Oregon will take place at the Glendora, Nineteenth ami Couch streets, Tuesday evening, and a musical and literary programme is be-ing prepared for the occasion by a com-mittee consisting of Mrs. John A. Martin, Mrs. B. B. Bradley, Mrs. E. A. Tha-mer and Mrs. A. J. Baer. Refreshments will be served, and all members of the society and those wishing to become members are cordially invited to attend.

The Woman's Home Missionary ciety, of Grace M. E. Church, will entertained by Mrs. E. C. Frost at its regular meeting, to be held in the church parlors next Friday, February 10, at 2 P. M. The general topic for discussion will be: "The Burden of the City," and Miss Clara Webb will speak on this theme, giving personal experience in city mission work. Miss Anna Rankin will sing. All women interested are invited

St. David's Eniphany party will be giv. en on Tuesday evening at the home Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Berry. East Oak street. Miss Mary Case will sing and Miss Louise Forayth is to read, the members of the parish and their friends anticipating their programme with

The Forestry Association will have what promises to be a very interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon, February at the home of Mrs. H. M. Ogden, 627 7, at the home of Sirs. A paper on "The East Morrison street. A paper on "The Cottonwood" will be read by Mrs. Sarah Cottonwood" will be read by Mrs. Sarah 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Edgar E. Coursen is arranging a children's musicale to be given early this month. The songs, duets and trios will be sung by children, none of them being older than 16 years. The musicale promises to be unique from the fact that the children will play the accompaniments.

The Indo-American League meeting, which was to have been held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Nathan Harris, is postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Harris' father. Notice of the meet-ing will be given later.

FOURTH AND

Many Portland Elks are planning to attend the Elks' dance in Astoria on next Thursday night. Parsons' orchestra has been engaged to play for the event, which will be an elaborate affair.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Company H. Second Oregon Regiment of Volunteers. will meet at 2 P. M., on February 10, at the home of Mrs. J. McKinnon, 590 East Salmon street. An interesting programme has been prepared for the Woman's Cinb meeting Friday, February 10, under the direction of Mrs. Nina Larowe and the department

The regular business meeting of the Central W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Janney, 292 Clay street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock A dance at Larowe Hall on next Friday evening is being looked forward to with interest by the younger set in society. The Lettercarriers' Band will give its fourth dance at Woodman Hall. Sixth and Alder, Thursday evening. A dance will be given at Parsons Hall on Tuesday evening, February 21, by the Knights of Columbus.

The officers' hop of the Hill Military Academy will be given on February 19. Mr. Walter Beebe will give a dance at the golf links on next Thursday evening Knox Hats for Spring now on sale.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn are in New Mrs. H. A. Hidgeley is visiting in Spo-

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wagoner are visit-Miss Osborne, of Seattle, is visiting

(Concluded on Page 21.)

Discount

Will be allowed on all of our Fur Jackets

This week. This means $60.00 Jackets at ......$48.00 $50.00 Jackets at, ..... $40.00 $35.00 Jackets at.....$28.00 And lower priced goods in proportion. Every garment marked in plain figures.

Highest price paid for raw furs. 288 Morrison St., Portland, Or.

Exclusive Manufacturing Furriers, J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

ESTABLISHED 1870.

G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS FURRIERS

126 SECOND STREET Between Alder and Washington. ERMINE TIES, CHINCHILLA RICAS

MINK FOUR-IN-HANDS BEAVER STOLES SQUIRREL TIES ALASKA BEAR BOAS SABLE FOX BOAS WHITE FOX BOAS BLACK MARTEN BOAS

FUR COATS
In Alaska Scalskin, Persian Lamb,
Otter, Beaver, Astrachap, Near-Seal, etc.

FUR MUFFS FUR ROBES AND RUGS HIGHEST CASH PRICES

PAID FOR RAW FURS

LEADING AND RELIABLE FURRIERS