ETY work of the hostess, were the prizes won by the ladles. Those who won prizes were: Mrs. J. A. Pettit, Mr. S. C. Pier, Mrs. E. O. Woods, Mr. Stanhope

Pier, Mrs. S. V. Haskell and Mr. S. Friendly. A dainty luncheon was served, after which the guests de-parted, each carrying a water color favor that will ever recall one of the most pleasant parties of the season. guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. r. Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Haskell, Dr. The Pler. and Mrs. W. B. Enapp, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sawiell, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Beatty, Mrs. M. Darling, Mrs. J. C. Applewhite, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Pattit, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Me-Bride, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Friendly, Mr. and Mrs. Stanhops Pier, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Stanhope Pier, Mr. and Mrs. Sadie Nightingale, Josephine Beach, Irene C. M. Dilley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Daugher-Johnson, Schle Went, Schelton, Gladys ty, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Pettit, Mr. and Duckworth, Hazel McCielian, Mabel John-Mrs. A. P. Christensen, Mrs. H. I. Smith, Mrs. A. Kearney, Miss Noua Kearney, Miss Edith Darling, Miss Inn William Lear, Matthew Leach, John Citasimona Miss Hith Darling, Miss Inn Fitzsimmons, Miss Jean Milne, Dr. R. P. Robbins and Mr. M. B. Lankford, Mr.

and Mrs. S. C. Pler, Jr. The music department of the Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Katherine Daly, who entertained the de-Astnerine Daty, who entertained the de-partment in her usual pleasing manner. The programme was as follows: "At Eventide," from Falka, Mrs. F. M. Branch: "The Swan Song," Mrs. Carl Abendroth; piano solo (selected), Mrs. Thurston; "When Will the Birds Come Buck?" (Strause), Mrs. F. M. Branch and Mrs. Bert Dennison: "Two Loves" (De Koven), "Violets" (Wright), Mrs. George C. Flanders; piano solo, "Spring So (Mendelssohn), Mrs. Chester A. Wi White-(Mendelssohn), Mrs. Crester A. Walte-more; recitation, "Kentucky Belle," by Miss Mort, recently from the Sudlame School of Dramatic Art, of New Tork. Her selection was much enjoyed. Mrs. Sarah Evans, Mrs. Daulton, Mrs. Rapp and Mrs. Watson were guests of the department, and members present were: Mrs. George C. Flanders, chairman; Mrs. Katherine Daly, Mrs. B. S. Pague, Mrs. F. M. Branch, Mrs. P. R. Graham, Mrs. Bert Dennison, Mrs. John McRoberts ville was given at the Post Hall. Bert Dennison, Mrs. John McRoberts, Mrs. E. C. Runyan, Mrs. Charles Au-Vancouver Barracks, by the officers and indice of the garrison, on Tuesday and Wednerday evenings, for the benefit drews, Mrs. Carl Abendroth, Mrs. James Sweeney, Mrs. Chester Whitmore, Mrs. C. Avery, Mrs. Thornton and Miss Mort. of a fund to buy books for the seldiers in the Philippines. Both entertainments were a decided success. Mrs. James B. Mrs. M. A. Ogden entertained the For-Goe, Mrs. George B. Davis and G. Arthur estry Club at her pleasant home on East Morrison street Tuesday afternoon. This club is devoting itself to the Hadsell acted as managers, Chaplain Smith as treasurer and Lieutenant study of tree culture, and the paper of the afternoon was by Mrs. Sarah A. Evans on the usually despised cottonwood. Mrs. Evans told Dew and Lieutenant Tilloison as stage The orchestra of the Nineteenth Intantry played at intervals during the her audience that this tree belongs to the Populus or Poplar family, and is programme. Mrs. Kellond played the also so closely ailled with the willow that brilliant "Minuct," by Paderewski, Mathey are properly considered together. The cottonwood makes a quick growth jor R. K. Evans recited Bayard Taylor's "Song of the Camp," and Camplain Smith displayed some views of "The Nineteenth Infantry in the Tropics." and for that reason is especially desir-able for the plains country, Colo-rado and South Dakota being mentioned Smith displayed some views of "The able Nineteenth Infantry in the Tropics." as states having been vastly improved by the setting-out of cottonwoods. The Bosides these, there were several very creditable efforts in amateur theatriinterest of the programme was further cals, the first being "The Fatal Mesenhanced by a plano solo by Melvin Ogden and by a reading by Miss Sill, sage," by Jonn Kendrick Bangs; the cond. "Reverie of a Bachelor," and whose selection was Riley's "An Old the third a very clever takeoff on "The Tenderfoot," written by Lieuten-Sweetheart of Mine. The hostess served tea and wafers. There were present Messames Breymen, Orden, Evans, Dalton, Andrew. Fritchard. Daly, Howard and Miss Sill. Miss Katherine Woolcey and Miss Goodman, who is a very attractive girl and has been much admired since . . . At the Tuesday evening meeting of Lincoln-Garfield Bellef Corpe, Mrs. her arrival, took part in each performance, Miss Goodman appearing as the "Summer Girl Sweetheart," and Miss Ressie J. Shane resigned as corps press correspondent. Mrs Hattle V. B. Bel-"Summer Girl Sweetheart," and Miss Woolsey as the "Horsey Girl Sweet-heart," in the "Reverie of a Bache-lor." Captain Graham was the bache-lor. Evelyn Murphy the "Little Girl Sweetheart," Agnes Karowski the "Schoolgirl Sweetheart," Miss Budiong "Schoolgirl Sweetheart," Miss Budiong December 10 (201) Sweetheart," and Mrs. bett street. Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Baird gave one of the "Golf Girl Sweetheart" and Mrs. Graham the charming "Ideal Woman." Mrs. Hadsell and Mrs. Miller had in-teresting characters in the other little plays, in which the officers taking part were: Lieutenant Hadsell, Lieutenant Parker, Lieutenant Dew, Lieutenant Was not followed by the secretary was pre-sented last year, while Mrs. Williams was patriotic instructor. The corps presented an oleograph, framed handsomely, last year to the Portland Public Library, where it now hangs amo the many other historic things of that Institution. (a) (b) (b)

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, FFBRUARY 12, 1905

whist party Thursday evening at the hall, Mrs. G. M. Glines; "The Holy Grail." · b5 Mrs. A. A. Balley, and "Guinevere," by Mrs. J. Francis Drake. The general dis-Third and Morrison streets, the game be-ing followed by dancing and delicious recussion which followed was partici-pated in by all present, and was one freshments. There was a large attend-ance to enjoy an unusually pleasing proof the most interesting sessions of the gramme. . . . . series. The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. Crofton at the Brown, corner of Grand and Hawthorne avenues.

Straugh is noted for her charming hospitality, and her guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The house was very prettily decorated in Oregon holly, Ierus, pairos and callas. A fine musical pro-gramme was rendered, also several recitations from Shakespeare, which were ap preciated by all present. The prize win

A pleasant entertainment was given at

William Lear, Matthew Leach, John Chandler and Chester R. Clark, with a humorous recitation, after which

Buckwalter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ros-patronesses.

Brooklyn

The prizes

Wer

a dainty supper was served. The were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. E.

o'clock.

On Saturday evening Master Henry Clark and Miss Isabel Clark entertained their graduating classmates of the Will-lams-Avenue School at their home on Sellwood street. Refreshments and games were highly enjoyed by the guests. The East and West Side Lowis and Clark Whist Club was entertained by Mrs. W. L. Straugh on Monday evening, which was Mr. Straugh's hirthday. Mrs.

A birthday party was given Mrs. F. C. Werling on February 5, at 55 Sayler street, by her sister. Miss Bertha Niche. About 40 people were present. Songs and recitations were given throughout the evening.

A "China shower" was given recently to Miss S. B. Packer by Miss Funk and Mrs. Gorman, in honor of Miss Packer's approaching marriage. Many beautiful pleces of china were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Stuart entertained informally on Friday evening in hosor of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, who came to Peninsula Hall by the young ladies of the Portland recently and who will live in charming new home at Mount Tabor. Arbor Lodge Presbyterian Church, for the benefit of Mrs. Beresford, of Willamette Station, on Saturday evening. An inter-osting programme was given, those taking part including: Mrs. Foster, the Misses

The A'Volante Club gave a very plea ant dance at Parsons Hall on Tuesda; evening. Parsons' orchestra gave an es cellent programme of 18 dances, whi were enjoyed by about 150 guests.

WEDDINGS.

Jaggar-Neuburg.

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Clark ontertained at pedro Friday evaning at their home on East Taylor street. After the game Miss Dorris Clark delighted the guests with a human street. Neuburg. A very pretty wedding took place at 568 East Couch street on Wednerday evening, February & when Miss Minnie F. Neuburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Neuburg, was united in marriage to Samuel C. Jaggar. While the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was being played by Miss Jennie Gray, the bridal were won by air, and are, J. E. Wer-ielo. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Mrs. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Malchester, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Werieln, Mrs. W. G. Espey, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lambert and Mr. L. McNary. couple, preceded by Miss Bessle Jaggar, sister of the groom, and Eimer Maxon, entered the parlor and took their place under an arch of Oregon holly, dotted with dozens of electric lights. The Rev. Mr. Kerr officiated. The bride looked very charming in gown of white crept de paris over white taffeta, with bouquet of white rosebuda. Mrs. Fred McMonles entertained at five hunded last Thursday evening. After a number of games supper was The bridesmald was beautifully dressed n ctamine and carried pink carnations. After the ceremony an elaborate supper was served. Miss Louise Hagner and Miss Laura served, the table being beautifully dec-oraled with crimson hearts. Folded hearts also made pretty score cards. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Rossiter and Mrs. I. Turpps. Among Much entertained the guests with plano solos and Messers. Alex Samuels, Gus those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Fleming and Clifford Forus with songs. Mr. and Mrs. Jaggar will reside at 568 siter, Mr. and Mrs. Sahlstrom, Mrs. I. Turppa, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Malchester and Mr. Will Travis. East Couch street.

Powell-Roderick.

The marriage of Frederick S. Poweji, formerly of Benzie County, Michigan, and Miss Leonetta Roderick was solemoized Miss Maxon gave a very pleasant dance at the Western Academy of Music on Saturday evening, the party being en-joyed by the members of her dancing Wise, D. D. April 2: -- Volumenty One-dience." Mrs. George E. K. Fichtner, May 4-- "The Value of Table Talk," Mrs. Daniel L. Rader, May 11-- "Mis-takes of Mothers," Mrs. C. M. Wood, May 18-- "Guiding a Child in Compan-ionship," Mrs. R. E. Bristowi, May 26 "Wome Optimization and Armise Wednesday, February I, at 5 P. M., at the residence of the bride's mother, the cere-mony being performed by Rev. Alfred H. class and numerous friends, about 100 people being entertained. Mrs. R. H. Guthrie, Mrs. C. L. Mastick, Mrs. J. Ad-Haines, pastor of the Presbyterian Church H. P. Bunch, of Vancouver, was best rian Epping and Mrs. T. L. Perkins were man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Ross Schobert. The bride was daintily attired in a beautiful cream silk gown, and she carried bride roses. The bridesmaid wore George Wright relief Corps, No. 2, spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Car-rie White on Tuesday. Piecing quilts and a pretty blue cashmere costume and car-ried ... nk carnations. After the service the wedding company partook of a sumpmaking aprons occupied the afternoon until 4 o'clock, when the hostess served Means of Overcoming," Mrs. H. N. tuous repart. Among the guests were the brother of the bride and his family, delicious refreshments. At 5 o'clock the corps adjourned to meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Henley, at 675 East Main street. from Centralia, Wash. The guests pre-sented the couple with many elegant pres-ents as tokens of esteem. Mr. and Mrs. Powell will reside in Ridgefield, Wash. The Daisy Whist Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gilman, at University Park. The

Hutchison-Lefler.

A beautiful home wedding took place at the home of the bride's father, 506 Flan-ders street, on the evening of January 23, when Miss Lena B. Leffer and Mr. Edwin Hutchison were united in marriage by Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor The Joker Card Club, which has a mem-bership of 20, was entertained on Tuesday evening by Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith The game of "50" was phayed, prizes be-ing won by Mrs. David Davis and Dr. C. T. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Denty will entertain on February 14 at 370 Corof the White Temple. 'The wedding march from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" was played with much expression by Miss Eunice Downing, Miss Margaret Pratt was bridesmaid, Mr. Arthur Leffer, brother of the bride, acting as best man. Af-ter the cetemony congratulations were received from about 30 relatives and Vickers-Ross.

Mr. and Arrs. 1. W. Isaird gave one of their charming dinners on Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for 12. The table and rooms were beautifully decorat-ed with paims and ferns. After dinner Sixth street, Sunday, February 5, when Miss Jeanette Ross, a sister of Mrs. Amsden, and Will Baker Vickers, form-erly of Cornellus, Washington County, united in marriage. After the im pressive ceremony, delicious refreahments were served. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and carnations. After March 5 Mr. and Mrs. Vickers will be at home to their friends at 414 East Washington street.

THE SILVERFIELD COMPANY has long enjoyed the reputation of being the leading Furriers of the great Northwest. Being manufacturers and always Keeping abreast of the times as to the latest European and American styles, our stocks are practically the same as those kept by the leading furriers in this country and abroad. We also show a large assortment of Novel-ties of unusual beauty of which there are few or no duplicates-permitting full gratification of the desire for exclusiveness in style. The stock is complete in range, including pieces priced as low as really dependable Furs can be sold, and ranging to the more expensive pieces classed as luxuries.

Remodeling and Repairing of Furs at Reduced Prices

First Showing of Spring Styles

Our New Spring Stocks are pouring in daily. The very latest creations in Suits and Cloaks from the leading costume house in the fashion centers of America and Europe. The earliest arrivals now on exhibition in our Morrison-street windows are of shepherd plaids, cheviots, fancy mixtures, Panama cloth and fancy brilliantines. The coats are tight fitting with the full blouse effect and the leg-of-mutton sleeve, trimmed with bands of same material and braid. The skirts are round length, shirred and having side plaits. Why not visit our "Suit Salon" tomorrow and have our salesladies show you the first arrivals of stock which, when completed, will be the most up-to-date and exclusive in the Oity of Portland?

$1.50 Kid Gloves $1.19 The celebrated "Saxon Beauty" Glace Gloves with Paris Point stitching, the "Antoinette" Suede

Glove with fancy back and Paris Point stitching and the "Belleclaire" P. K. Street Gloves in all sizes, in gray, brown, black, white, tan and mode; regular $1.50 Gloves for, per $1.19

D. Timms. April 6-"Thrift-Money-Making and Money-Spending," Mrs. A. H. Lomax. April 13-"Common Faults in Children," Mrs. E. C. Clement. April The New Century Club will give a dance

29-Topic selected, Rev. Stephen S. Wise, D. D. April 27-Voluntary Oheon Wednesday evening at Parsons Hall. The members of Company B, Third Infantry, O. N. G., will give their next dancing party on Friday, February 17. The University Club will be entertained on February 22 at a smoker to be given by the Sons of the American Revolution.

-"Home Occupations and Amuse-ments," Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross. June I -- "Methods of Punishment," Mrs. A. Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver and Miss Van Schuyver sent cards for a "reception" to King Wilson, June 8-"Causes of Fear and Timidity in Children; Ways and be held on Thursday afternoon.

Heller's Millinery.

Scott. June 15-Topic selected, Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher. June 22-"Na-ture Work and Gardening," Miss Ber-tha Chapman, superintendent of na-ture work, Oakland, Cal. June 28-We are in receipt of new arrivals of the elebrated Gage hats, including the muchtalked of Polo Turban. The hats were selected personally by Mrs. Melander, who is now in the East selecting her Spring and Summer stock. "Gleanings From the Year's Work." The executive committee: Mrs. C. M Wood Mrs. Samuel Connell, Mrs. Rob-

The ladies' neckwear has come: swell goods; "not the common kind." Hewett, ert L. Donald, Mrs. R. E. Bristowl, Mrs. Bradley & Co., Haberdashers, 348 Wash-ington, next to Grand Theater. L. H. Campbell, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Robert H. Tate, Misz Zulah C. Hop-kins.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

There has, for some time, been a de-sire upon the part of a few New Eng-Mr. Samuel Rosenblatt and family re-turned from the East on Friday. landers, now located in Portland, to form Miss May Evans returned Monday after-noon from a brief visit in Eugene.

landers, now located in Portland, to form a society or club, to be known as the New England Club, for sociability among its members and for the entertainment of New England friends who may visit Portland during the Lewis and Clark Fair. A movement in this direction has already been made, and it is desired that all former residents of New England Inter-ested in the formation of the club meet at Mrs. D. E. Taylor, of Fulton, is recov-ering from a severe attack of pneumonia. W. P. Case has gone to Redlands, Cal., to make his home with his son, E. E.

Case. ested in the formation of the club meet at the Portland Hotel on Monday evening. February 20, at $:20 o'clock, to discuss the Dr. G. D. Peters, of Portland, has returned from a four months' sojourn in Philadelphis.

Mrs. S. C. Flint, Mrs. W. H. Jamison of the Marine Corps, in co at Mare Island, left recently for Washand Miss Jennie Buick have returned to ington to visit Colonel Pope's sister, Mrs. Farquar, Roseburg, Or. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hyde, of Baker City, Mrs. Fannie E. Merrick, of St. Louis, are being entertained at San Pedro, Cal., by Mrs. C. A. E. Smith. arrived in Portland a few days ago, and by Mrs. C. A. E. Smith. Miss Emma Strout left Wednesday night for Charleston, S. C., to teach in the Conservatory of Music there. Rev. A. N. Fisher, formerly editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and now in charge of Japanese missions on the in charge of Japanese missions on the Pacific Coast, is visiting in California, ac-(Concluded on Page 21.)

For Monday and Tuesday only-Beautiful Silk Belts in the Girdle and other popular styles of every desirable color, and the finest assortment of buckles

$1.50 Belts 98c

Tuesday afternoon, February 21, at the home of Miss Watson. The Mass Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jackson were in Albany, Or., this week, called by the ill-nes of Mr. Jackson's mother.

Miss Bertha Alexander has given up her studies at St. Helen's Hall, and returns today to her home in Pendleton.

Ex-Governor Z. F. Moody and Mrs. Moody are at the Mira Monte, Los Angeles, and will remain several months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C Worthington, of Saiem, who were married recently, are spending their honeymoon in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ford arrived re-cently from Fullerton, Cal., expecting to make their home somewhere in the Northwent?

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bland, of Bellingham, Wash., passed the week in Port-land, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Well

Mrs. Elwin Lincoln House arrived Tuesday from the East, where she passed sev-eral months visiting relatives and friends at her former home.

Miss Minnie Michell, of The Dalley was in the city Monday, leaving later with Mrs. E. E. Lytic, for a visit with friends in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. George T. Willitt, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Rose II. Hoyt, and her daughter, Ruth, have gone to Oracle, Ariz, for the remainder of the Winter. Mr. R. J. Couperthwaite, manager and buyer of china, glass, silver, crockery and stoves for the Meier & Frank Co., leaves this morning for the Eastern factories. Mrs. A. J. Davis, of 63) Belmont street, returned from Seattle yesterday, accom-panied by her sister, Miss Ella Page, who comes to visit her father, Mr. J. E. Page. Mrs. Percival C. Pope, wife of Colons

Graham the charming "Ideal Woman." Mrs. Hadsell and Mrs. Miller had in-Parker, Lieutenant Dew, Lieutenant Miller, Captains Helms, Lieutenant Allen, Lieutenant Cecil, Captain Graham, Lieutenant Terrell and Lieutenant Taylor

Rin Bill

PROGRAMME of amateur vaude-managers.

ant Dew

Major and Mrs. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolsey, Miss Fanny Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Riley, Miss Fries and Miss Ruth Maxwell where members of a party from Portland who attended the entertainment on-Tucsday evening.

George Taylor and Mrs. Warren F. Houghton were patronesses at an in-formal dance given at Larowe Hall, on Friday evening, by a number of young people. Among inose present were: Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Max Whide Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Chaire Miss Claire Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Goodman, Miss Furr. Miss Labbe, Miss Josephine Smith and Miss Barbara Crocker; Harold Strong. G. Durham, Seaton Taylor, Maurice Dooley, Melvillo Eastham, W. old Strong, G. Meiville, Eastham, W. Maurice Dooley, Meiville, Eastham, W. Watson, Charles Holfman, Arno Dosch. Smith, Hawiy Hoffman, Arno Dosch. George Warren, Tom Robertson, Gor-Conte, Arthur Honeyman, Arthur

The Misses Hill entertained on for Miss Kathleen Panton, Thursday who will leave shortly for her home in Canada. The charming young host-esses made the afternoon very pleasant Canada. for their guests, who played hearts un-th 6 when a dainty luncheon was served. The house was attractively decorated with yellow lights, daffedlis, Oregon holly and violets.

Among the perent hostesses at bridge were Mrs. Henry Numn. who entertained informally on Friday; Mrs. J. the happy company separated at a late Wester Ladd, who entertained on Mon-day, and Mrs. Frederick Hopkins, who invited a few friends to play at her nouse on Wednesday.

whist club, of which she is a member. lowed the game, at which Mrs. S. Lip-man and Mrs. Ahpel won prizes.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, who has been giving a series of entertainments this Winter, gave one of the most delightful of these on Wednesday aftern when she entertained 50 of her friends at whist, Miss Isabella Gauld entertained on Wednesday afternoon, giving a very enjoyable 599 party. Miss Mae Whidand Miss Florence Tongue were the fortupate prize winners.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Wells were pleasantly Episcopal Church. entertained at their home, 121 East Thirty-fourth street, last Friday even- The Tuesday ing. The rooms were priistically deco-rated with potted plants and woodland greens which; with the numerous shadgreens which with the numerous shad-ed lights, gave a very pleasing effect. The interesting game of progressive whist was played at nine tables. Very pretay prizes of hand-painted China. Kneutson: "Pelleas and Etarre," by Portland Lodge, No. 88. Enlights of Pythias, entertained on Monday evening in their lodgeroom, in the Marquam building. Portland Lodge is known among abers of the order for its very de-Mrs. Harriel K. McArthur, Mrs. Monday was thoroughly enjoyed, as usual Georg- Taylor and Mrs. Warren F. An excellent programme included selec-

Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Mac Whis-uen, Miss Edite Houghton, Miss Chilre Houghton, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Mar-Houghton, Miss Lisa Wood, Mi vocal solo, "Dear Heart, I Love You" (Tunnison), Miss Elinabeth Harwas; vocal solo, "Il Baclo" (Arditi), Miss Nina, Wenderoth: vocal solo, "Rosalle" (De Koven), Miss Elfsabeth Harwas.

> About 125 parisaloners, young and old, attended, and a most enjoyable* evening of good fellowship was spent. Mass Case sang several songs and her rich contraito voice was much admired. Miss Forsyth, from St. Helen's Hall was also present and gave three readings. The organist of the parish, Mr. F. W. Goodrich, played the accompaniments for Miss Case's songs and also played two planoforte places with much effect. Other songs were sung by Mrs. Beveridge and by Judge Bullock and were much enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the young ladies, and

Mrs. R. K. Warren's Bible class of young women held a reception on Tues-day evening in the parlors of the First Mrs. I. Lowengart entertained the hist club, of which she is a member, a Friday, at her apartments at the atel Portland. A dainty supper folbeing placed along the walls and tables. from which fruit punch, walers and con-fections were served, were made attrac-tive with read carnations and asparagus. Miss Edwina Mastick sang "Ecstasy" in a very charming way, with Miss Edna Proteman at the plane, and also "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose." Other musical selections which the guests greatly appreciated were by the class triple quartot, led by Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, and by the Warren Mandolin Club.

> Mrs. F. M. Westfall arrived this week from Albany, Or., to reside. Last Saturday afternoon she was tendered a fare-well party at the residence of Mrs. Virgil Parker, and was presented with an exuisite pin, the emblem of the Woman's fisalonary Society of the First Methodist Missionary

The Tuesday Afternoon Club enjoyed a delightful Tennyson pro-gramme last week at the home of Mrs. Merwin Pugb, the study of the "Round by the remainder of the evening was spent in conversation and music, evening was spent in playing progressive whist, after which light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be

The Joker Card Club, which has a mem-

held at the home of Mrs. Mathl

The Portasia Club gave a Valentine dance on Wednesday evening at Parsons Hall. The hall decorations were very at-tractive and the programmes, which made pretty souvenirs, were in the shape of Parson's orchestra provided valentines. excellent music. . . .

The Gaelic school gave a delightful

............................

Vice-Consul F. Y. Matsuoka, of the Japanese Consulate - General in Shanghal, Formerly a Student in the Portland Law School.

The portrait reproduced above was received recently by Mrs. C. R. Templeton, who kindly loaned it to The Oregonian. Mr. Matsuoka has many American friends in Portland, being particularly admired by the faculty of the law college where as proved to be one of the most brilliant students who has ever graduated here. Although very young, he did faithful work as secretary in Mr. Ban's office, at the same time fully mustering the law. He returned to Japan three years ago, where be has been studying, and recently won laurels in passing a competitive examination which placed him the position he now holds 10 The family of Mr. Matsuoka belonged to the Samural class, having been members of the Choshu Clan, the most influential feudal lords at the time of the restoration. Some of the most prominent statesmen and soldiers of today are from the Chosing Province.

Tweet-Perry.

A heautiful wedding took place Sunday, February 5, at the residence of Thomas Tweet, when Henry Tweet and Miss Mary Perry were united in marriage. The dec-orations were very dainty. The bride, in a white dress, carried white carnations. William Perry, brother of the bride, was best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Neille Duvis. A breakfast followed con-gratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Tweet will reside at Bond, Or.

Simmons-Windell.

Miss Frankie Windell, a well-known Portland girl, and Mr. Guy Doling Sim-mona, of Los Angeles, formerly of Portland, were married on February 4, at San Francisco. The ceramony was performed at the residence of Rev. Frank Ford, pastor of the First Christian Church of that city. The couple spent a week in San Francisco before leaving for their future tome in Los Angeles

Welles-Barck.

In Chicago, February 2, George Sill Welles and Miss Clara Pauline Barck were united in marriage. Miss Barck was a resident of Portland until about five years ago, when she went to Chicago and be-came a successful artist, having her studie in the Fine Arts building. Mr. Welles is a business man in the Windy City. Coplan-Levine.

Miss Gertrude Levine and Emanuel Cophan, both of San Francisco, were married inst Sunday evening at the home of the bride's elster, Mrs. Mazurovsky, The wed-ding took place at 2 o'clock, Rev. R. Abra-hamsen officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Coplan will live in Portland.

Stewart-Packer.

David Stewart, of Chehalis, Wash., and Miss S. B. Packer, of Portland, were marnot an February 7, by Rev. A. H. Burk-holder, at the home of the bride, on Union avenue and Golog street. Mr. and Mrs. Julia Le Barre. Mrs. Stewart will be at home to their friends in Chehalis after March 1.

Klippel-Balley.

Edgar A. Klippel and Miss Ethel Bailey were quietly married at the home of the bride on Saturday morning. Peleuary 11. They will be at home at 368 East Taylor street after February 22. No cards

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W: Guthrie Milne sunce the engagement of their sister.

Miss Della Holt, to Mr. Ard M. Haradon. The wedding is to take place early in March.

COMING EVENTS.

The Home Training Association has just prepared a calendar of coming programmes for their meetings, which are outlined as follows: "Come, let us live with our children."--Prochel. February 16-"Nervousness in Children." Dr. Marie D. Equi. February 23-"How to Cultivate Concentration." Dr. S. R. Johnston. March 3-"Training Chil-

Hampshire Club. A large attendance is desired and those interested who cannot attend this meeting will confer a favor by sending their addresses to the secre-tary of the New Hampshire Club, Mrs. M. M. Whitehouse, 385 Alder street, or by telephoning Main 2988.

The Young Women's Christian Association is anticipating with pleasure a visit from Miss Helen Barnes, one of the national secretaries, who is to arrive in Portland on February 18. Miss Barnes has been visiting the California association and will spend a week in Portland, later going to Washington. While here she will speak at a vesper service at the Y. W. C. A. and at a public meeting which will probably he held at Grace Methodist Epis. copal Church. Plans are also being made for a large reception to be held in her

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Metho dist Episcopal Church will meet in the parlors of the church at 3 P. M. on Wednesday, February 15. After the regular business meeting the ladies will be entertained by Mrs. Elchmond Kelly and Mrs. John James. A paper will be read by Mrs. P. J. Hard on "Mile Stones Along the Way" and there will be a vocal solo by Miss Mary McKenzle.

The Unitarian Club will hold its next meeting Wednesday evening, February 15, at 6:30 o'clock. The collation will be served by the Women's Allfance of the church. General Thomas M. Anderson of the will deliver the address of the evening upon "Philippine Civilization." Speakers will give five-minute addresses. A businews meeting will be held at $ P. M. for the election of officers.

The annual praise meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will be held on next Tuesday afternoon at 2:39. There will be an interesting pro-gramme, to be followed by a social hour and tea.

The class for the study of the apoch ryph under the direction of Dr. Stephen S. Wise will meet Wednesday, February 15, in the Selling-Hirsch building. The essay of the afternoon will be read by

The vocal and instrumental concert at the Unitarian Chapel, for which a most excellent programme has been arranged, will take place Tuesday, February 21, The programme is under the direction of Miss Ediwina Mastick. The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Lawrence Church will give a whist party and social next Wednesday evening, Pebru-ary 15, at 8 P. M. and cordially invite their friends to be present on that ocensition. casion. Mrs. Frederick D. Chamberlain will give a ribbon social at her home, 266 North Twenty-first street, on Tuesday, Febru-ary 14, for Trinity Church Guild. The entertainment will be from 2 to 5. A Valentine social will be held on Tues-day evening at the Young Worman's day evening at the Young Women's Christian Association, all members of the Y. W. C. A. and of the Y. M. C. A. being invited to be present.

The East and West Side Lewis and Clark Whist Club will be entertained on February II by Mr. H. W. Lee at 443 East Twenty-fourth street, North.

Johnston. March 2- Training Chil-dren to Courtesy." Mrs. A. H. Burk-holder. March 2- "Co-operation of Mothers and Teachers." Principal L. H. Morgan. March 16-"Heredity." Mrs. Frank I. Ball. March 22- "Self-Control in the Home." Mrs. A. D. Søper. March Mrs. Bert lewin and Miss Delta Watson

"The Adolescent Poriod," Dr. Edna Will entertain the Girls Cinch Chub on

