GIVES BRYAN & HARD BLOW

Williams Raises Race Issue to Kill Off His Pet Policy.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Feb. 18 .- John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, is the leader of the minority of the House of Representatives, and he is one of the ablest men on his side, and oftentimes turns some very sharp tricks. In closing the debate on the railroad rate bill he made the statement that the South would never consent to the Government ownership of railroads because it would mean that the United States Government. in operating such roads, would not pro-vide separate cars for the white and colored people; consequently the whites of the South would be compelled, when rid-ing on the railroads, to associate to that extent with the colored people. Some men thought that this was pretty small politics, but they did not know the object of Williams. The Mississippi man is unalterably opposed to William J. Bry-an and Bryan's policies. Bryan is the great leader of the movement for the vernment ownership of railroads. He shably would have the South with him. as he had when he was the apostle of free sliver. Williams wants to down Bry-an, and he also is opposed for good and sufficient reasons to Government owner-ship. So he raises the question of the negro. That is sufficient.

No Southern state will now indorse Bryan and his policy of the Government ownership of railroads, because some men will call attention to what Williams has said and insist that Government owner-ship will do away with the state laws which do not allow the white and colored people to ride in the same cars. It is a pretty small point, but it is sufficient to old every Southern state against the policy of Bryan, and to prevent him from receiving an indorsement for his Government ownership propaganda.
