

ENT begins this year on March &, which does not leave much time for the enjoyment of frivolous amusements-for those of us. at least, who observe it strictly. Toward the approaching end of the Winter's social season a large card party will be given at the Masonic Temple for the Woman's Exchange. The enpertainment will be a brilliant social event taking place on Friday afternoon, March 2. Whist, duplicate whist, bridge and "500" will be played in the different bandsome rooms' of the cathedral, and tea will be served by a number of charming young girl debutantes-to-be of next Winter. Invitations for the entertainment will be out this week.

out this week.

Mrs. W. J. Burns, Mrs. D. W. Burke,
Miss Failing, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs.

Richard Kochler, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Mrs.

J. Wealey Ladd, Mrs. James Laidiaw,
Mrs. A. J. Meler, Mrs. Henry L. Pittock,
Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and Mrs. C. E.

entertaining a large number of guests in their usual pleasant way. Besides Major von Egioffstein, commandant, the senior classmen arranging the dance were: Asahel Bush, Jr., cadet captain and quartermaster; J. Raymond Holman, and the captain and adjustent LeRoy A. cadet captain and adjutant; LeRoy A. Pease, cadet first lieutenant; Robert S. French, cadet captain, company A: Harvey M. Stackpole, cadet second lieutenant, company A: Frederick L. Stanton, cadet captain, company B: Cecil E. Woodcock. cadet first lleutenant, company B; Harold C. Clifford, cadet sergeant-major; Her-bert B. von Etlinger, cadet color ser-geant; Charles S. Fulton, cadet quartermaster sergeant, besides the following junior officers: Harris Z. French, cadet ways does so much toward making the academy entertainments pleasant, the patronesses were: Mrs. P. E. Brigham,

The pretty partors of Mrs. J. R. Thomp sen, 438 Sixth street, were thronged all the afternoon of St. Valentine's day, when several hundred clubwomen, many of them accompanied by their busbands, called to congratulate Dr. Mary A. Thompson on having attained her 50th anniversary. and it is certainly a subject for congratu-istion, when a life so full of good works and it is certainly a subject for congratu-listion, when a life so full of good works. A very pleasant valentine party, with still retains its vigor and cannotties at several unique features, appropriate to this advanced age. Dr. Thompson was in white, and her luxurious silver hair becomingly ornamented with a white algrette. She was assisted in receiving by her elster-in-law, Mrs. Cooke, and the

and Mrs. von Etlinger.

Members of the Young Women's Chrisian Association and of the Y M. C A. Y. W. C. A. rooms. The rooms were attractively decorated with red and white hearts, and dainty refreshments of hearts shapes sandwiches and chocolaie were served. A valentine postoffice and candy heart-hunt, with prizes, annued the young people, who were entertained also with music by the Y. W. C. A. Mandolin and Guitar Club, led by Carlos Rebagliati.

Mr. Brasington membership secretary of Resignation membership secretary of Grost. Bertia Royal, Lacy Fields Kate

A delightful dinner dance was given at the golf links on Thursday evening. Parsons orchestra providing excellent music. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Hun; Lewis, Miss. Burns, Miss. Kathleen Burns, Miss. Nay Wood, Miss Miriam Strong, Miss. Alice. Sibson, Miss. Susje. Stott, Miss Laurie King, Miss Amy Heit-shu, Dr. Nicholls, Mr. Ball, Chester Mur-phy, Andrew Kérr, Rodney Glisan, Wal-ter Boebe, Bert Mackay, Tom Robertson and George Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Akin entertained about 50 guests on Thursday evening in honor of Dr. Otis F. Akin and his bride. The dining-room was decorated with paims, vines and flowers, the table having dainty arrangement of white carnations in silver vaces, besides a bell of white flowers which was suspended from the chandeller. Silver candelabra holding green candles completed the charming color scheme.

St. Valentine's day terminated happily at St. Helen's Hall with a prettily arranged dinner, which was enjoyed by the young ladies at Miss Matthews' table. The table decorations were in pink and white, and there were heart-shaped place ;ards, confections and ices, hesides dainty souvenirs for each guest.

effective decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Willeit's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Miss. Nicolai, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hall, Mr. and the Worcester block on Wednesday even-Mrs. D. H. Houston and Dr. and Mrs. B. ing. February 15, it was decided to or-

The week's dances included, besides the Hill Military Academy's hop on Friday evening a pleasant dance given the same night at the Armory by Company B. Third Infantry, and a delightful party on Wednesday evening at Parsons Hall, given by the New Century Club.

Governor and Mrs. George E. Chamber lain, of this city, and a number of Sen-ators and Representatives, with their wives, were guests of honor at a large card party, which was given in Salem last wednesday by Mrz. A. M. Crawford.

An informal entertainment which was enjoyed by a few of Miss Grace Warren's friends was a bridge parly given on Friday afternoon at the hospitable Warren residence, on King's Heights.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A most unique and delightful valentine party was given at the beautiful and spa-cious home of Mrs. J. C. Olds, 682 East Madison street, by the Monday History Club in honor of Mrs. Alexander Muir. The rooms and halls were lavishly and artistically decorated with red hearts, the electric lights being covered with crimson shades. The hostess was assisted in reshades. The hostess was assisted in re-ceiving by Mrs. Mary Grant, Mrs. Amidee Smith, Mrs. Joseph Bell and Mrs. Alan Welch Smith. The programme consisted of a reading by Mrs. W. Puffer, two in-strumental selections by Mrs. Edward Root, two solos by Mrs. Amidee Smith and two solos by Mrs. E. C. Goddard. Prizes were awarded after a guessing con-less to Mrs. William Penton and Mrs. J. test to Mrs. William Fenton and Mrs. J. E. Bennett. After that the postoffice was opened and the valentines distributed, affording great amusement. At 5 o'clock de-licious refreshments were served at teta-a-tete tables. The following were pres-ent: Mrs. J. C. Oids, Mrs. Alexander Muir, Mrs. Gibbe, Mrs. Doud. Mrs. C. W. King, Mrs. W. P. Oids, Mrs. Young, Mrs. J. B. Percents. Short Mrs. King, Mrs. W. P. Olds, Mrs. Young, Mrs. J. E. Bennett, Mrs. Burgette Short, Mrs. Mary Grant, Mrs. F. S. Grant, Mrs. Joseph Bell, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Harrison, Miss Anna Finley, Miss Anna Farrell, Mrs. Grace Scarle, Mrs. L. Packurd, Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mrs. A. W. Goddard, Mrs. Euma Marsh Mrs. Elliot King, Mrs. E. C. Goddard, Mrs. McKenney, Mrs. E. Root, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. J. S. Rirrill, Mrs. George Serrill, Mrs. J. S. Birrill, Mrs. George Berrill, Mrs. S. Connell, Mrs. Thoman Connell,

Mrs. A. M. Smith, Mrs. Little, Mrs.
Charles Little, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Tipton,
Mrs. King Wilson Mrs. Ariss, Mrs. Stiles,
Mrs. Puffer, Mrs. Rodgers, Mrs. F. Clarno. Mrs. William Fenton, Mrs. Insley, Miss Viola Thayer, Mrs. Jennie Cooper.

Perhaps the most brilliant social event The officers and senior cadets of the Friday evening in the academy armory, entertaining a large number of guests was a function city, in form of white. Stuart McGuire, Mrss Knapp, Dr. Appears of the season at Junction City, in form of white. Stuart McGuire, Mrss Knapp, Dr. Appears of the season at Junction City, in form of the same von Borstel. Gordon Sterling, Sam Chambers, Wellrose Kaser, Fred Jones and James Ellis. Diego, Cal., to make their future home. The hostesses were Mrs. A. M. Lee, Mrs. Mark Monigomery, Mrs. N. Rann and Misses Anna Crain and Nellie Foison. The rooms were artistically decorated with potted palms, while violets and smilax were banked in profusion, giving a most pleasing effect. The afternoon was spent with games and music. A novel feature was the dolldressing contest, at which Mrs. Arminda Kalser won the prize. Dusing effective forms on the prize. Dusing effective forms on the chandeliers. Those present were the which Mrs. Arminda Kalser won the prize Dainty refreshment were served. "Auld Lang Syne" was sung by the guests before departing, wishing the guests of honor health, happiness and prosperity in their new home; also the vocal duct, "Ye Merry Birds," by Mrs. major; Bon Wing Moy, cadet captain: Montgomery and Miss Folsom. Those re-Charles H. Robbins, cadet first lieuten-ceiving prizes: Mesdames A. M. Lee. anto-quartermaster; Ernest H. Streit, Frank Moorhead; Miss Star and Dr. Lee. calet second licutemant, company B; Mal-colinn R. MacEwan, cadet captain, com-pany C: William H. Burton, cadet first licutemant, company C, John R. Hobreck-er, cadet second licutemant, company C. Besides Mrs. Joacph Wood Hill. who al-ways does so much toward making the achdemy entertainments pleasant, the patronesses were; Mrs. P. E. Brigham. Those present: Mrs. and Mrs. War-con. Those present Mrs. and Mrs. Wargon. Those present; Mr. and Mrs. War-ner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Rann, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman, Mrs. Milton Smith Mrs. Moorhead, Colonel Folsom, Mes-dames S. I., Moorhead, Martin Simmons, Kirk, McCallip, Clark, Kalser, Gillmore, Bushnell, Burns, Taylor, Parks, Prayer Earskin; Misses Star, Coleman, Snell Newland, Linder, Crain, Folsom, Grace Gillmore and Camille Taylor; Messrs, Dr. Williams, Hanks, Hill, Jun Williams.

the occasion, was given by Miss Ethel Jones at her residence, 718 East Burnalde street, last Tuesday evening. The rooms were eleborately decorated with Oregon were sister-in-law, Mrs. Cooke, and the wives of her sons, L. E. Thompson and J. B. Thompson. The rooms were featoned with hearts and lighted brilliantly with tiny incandescent lamps.

Were elaborately decorated with Oregon holly and festoons composed of hundreds of red and glided hearts, making a pleasing acting for the fancy costumes worn by the ladles present in hance. ing setting for the fancy costumes worn by the ladies present, in honor of Saint Valentine. Powdered confluees and black patchen, a la Marie Antoinette, with dainty gowns, were the rule, and recalled pictured scenes of old court life in France. sere delightfully entertained at a valen. Progressive hearts was naturally the tine social on Tuesday evening, in the game of the evening, Miss Bertha Royal Y. W. C. A. rooms. The rooms were and George Eastman winning prizes Sup-Steel, Welrose Kaser, Charles Holmes, Stuari McGuire, Herman Von Borstel, Milton Werashkul, Gordon Sterling, Leslie Werschkul and Fred Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tirkham celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home near Warren, Or., on Pebruary 4, 1965. Mr. Tinkham was married on Febroary 4, 1855, to Miss Dorcas Frances Heald by Rev. Mr. Mitchell in Summer-nett County, Maine. Both are natives of Anson, Me. Mr. Tinkham having been born on July 4, 1854, and Mrs. Tinkham on April 24, 1886. They were schoolmates be-fore the marriage, after which they went to Illinois, where they were during the war. The Winter of '65 and '67 they spent in Minnesota, returning to Illinois the following Spring. In 1879 they started to Oregon, coming as far as San Francisco by emigrant train and from there to Portland by steamer. They settled in Washington County, where they resided Washington County, where they resided it years, later going to Columbia County, where they now have a pleasant home two miles west of Warren. There were born to them six girls, four of whom are living: Mrs. Mary A. Kennedy, of Beaverton. Or.: Mrs. Cora A. Allumbaugh of Warren: Mrs. Lydin F. Terrill, of Portland, and Miss Modjeska B. Tinkham, of New Westminster, B. C. They have seven grandchildren and two great-grandchild. grandchildren and two great-grandchill

Miss Julia Wilson, of this city, who has been rightfully entertained. Last Thursday reening her hostesses, the Misses Gertrude and Blanche Mays, gave a whist party in her honor, the first prize being won by Mrs. Carleton Williams, formerly man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the hostess and man," was in charge of the hostess and man, "was in charge of the subject for the of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Willett celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage in Monday evening by entertaining a few of their friends at whist. The St. Value idea was carried out in the vary part and Mrs. A. J. Stills couniuded the study with a review of the remainder. The club had the pleasure of welcoming to the chair after an absence of two months its popular president, Mrs. W. S. White, who has just returned from a visit in California. The club will meet on Tuesday, February 21, with Mrs. Florence E. Stallings, 125 East Clinton street.

At a meeting of New Yorkers which was ganize the New York Society of Oregon. About 20 persons were at this preliminary meeting, and considerable interest and enthusiasm were evinced. Mr. Laidlaw was elected temporary chairman and a com-mittee of three was appointed to draft mittee of three was appointed to draft bylaws, to select a time and place for the next meeting, and to give notice of such meeting. The committee is composed of Robert C. Wright, Charles Koff and Charles T. Tinker. The next meeting of those interested is appointed for Friday evening, February 24, at $ o'clock, in the committeeroom on the third floor of the City Hall. Use the Fifth-street entrance. It is housed that a large number of New It is hoped that a large number of New Yorkers will be present to effect permapent organization.

Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain entertained about 30 guests at her home Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being a ribbon social for the Guild of Trinity Church, and hand-painted valentines, dainty ribbon articles and candles were soon disposed of.
Appropriate refreshments were served in the third room by Miss Hazel Weidler, Miss Ethel Chamberlin, Mrs. G. S. Reed and the Misses Hess. The prizes of the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. George W. McBrids and Mrs. Footer. W. McBride and Mrs. Foster.

W. McBride and Mrs. Foster.

Several piano selections by Charles F.

H. Mills were much enjoyed, the numbers including: "Barcarolle in G-Minor" (Tschaikowsky); "Waltz in E" (Moskowsky); "Prelude No. 7" (Chopin), and "Walts Caprice in D-Flat" (Chaminade).

On Tuesday evening, Valentines day, Mrs. F. F. Woodman entertained most delightfully in honor of the graduates of the, Academy of the Holy Names, who are as follows: Miss Ada Woodman, Miss Clara Heitkemper, Miss Martha McNa-mee, Miss Frances Schmitt, Miss Jenny Grey, Miss Grace Doyle and Master Frank Sinnott. Pit and other games were played until a late hour, the prizes being won by Miss Mamie Dunn and Mr. Joe Reough. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Kalser, Mrs. Jenny Anderson Mrs. Jenny Anderson Mrs. G. Kalser, Mrs. Jenny Anderson Mrs and Mrs. Brown, Miss Nellie Daly. Miss Edna Montgomery, Miss Ag-nes Heltkemper, Miss Edna Doyle. Miss Margaret Simott. Mr. Fred Lawrence, Mr. John Edlis. Mr. Thomas Dunn.

On Friday evening Miss Sadie Knapp. tained with a Japanese progressive whist party at her beautiful home on Fast Surneide street, in honor of Miss Ethel Parsons, of Manila. The house looked very attractive with its Oriental decora-tions and the hostesses were very charming in their Japanese costumes. present were: Miss Parsons, Miss Lucia Gillespie, Miss Jessie Harkins, Miss Ca-milla Herz, Miss Ethel Jones, Miss June Sterling, Miss Mary Chambers Miss Ar-villa McGuire, Miss Knapp, Dr. Apple-white, Stuart McGuire, Dr. Shearer, Her-

A pleasant social feature of the week was the Valentine party given by Miss Louise Hutchin. Mouday evening. Pro-gressive "Cupid Hearts" was played. After awarding the prizes to Miss Alice Wells, Miss Mable Smith. Miss Laura winged capids hung from the various chandeliers. Those present were the Micses Healey, Hallinan, Labbe, Smith. Weils, Anderson, Shofner and Mesers, Neville, Healey, Wetterborg, Turner, Hallinan, Anderson, Hutchin, Wells.

A delightful entertainment was given at school, in honor of the graduates of Febreary, 1965. Mr. Earl Collins, president of the alumni, presided and delivered the opening address. A splendidly arranged programme was rendered, followed by games and dancing. There were nearly 200 guests in attendance. The programme included solos by Miss Bessle Bleick, Miss Mina Wenderoth and Robert Dobson; recitations by Miss M. Clark and Leo Shapirer, and a piano sole by Miss Louise Wateon.

Mrs. Frank C. Miller gave a birthday One of the most enjoyable entertain-dinner to 30 congenial friends at the Bal-ments ever given by Asira Circle No. 152, timore Hotel, Kansas City, Mo., on Feb. which was followed by a discussion which many members participated. De-licious refreshments were served during States National Bank, of Portland, but the social hour. The rooms were taste-the social hour, atth ferns and valentines. Company, of Kansas City. A beautifully ruary 14, as a surprise for her husband, who was formerly cashier of the United frescoed private dining-room upon the or was used for the festive sion, Cupids, arrows, hearts and flowers with valentine name cards appropriately adorned the oval table. Toasts were given alternately with selections by a string or-

> The social and praise meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Preabyterian Church Tuesday afternoon was largely attended, Mrs. Horace Butterfield presiding. At the close of the programme dainty refresh-ments were served at a table. Those as-sisting were the members of the Young Women's Society, including Miss Mabel Goas, Miss Eligabeth Wolf, Miss Stuart, Miss Gilbert, Miss Johnstone, Miss Moore Mrs. Simonton, Mrs. Morse and Mrs. Will

One of the pleasant events in church circles last week was the annual meeting and dinner of the Unitarian Club of Oregon, held last Wednesday evening. These officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Ralph W. Wilbur; vice-president, Dr. N. R. Cox; secretary, Rev. W. G. Eliot; treasurer, O. E. Heintz; executive committee; R. W. Wilbur, Rev. W. G. Eliot, N. J. Levinson, J. D. Hart, Roswell B. Lamson, H. B. Nicholas and Rev. George C. Cressey, D. D.

Miss Lela Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrz. Henry W. Goddard, of this city, who is attending the University of Oregon, gave a charming informal tes recently, enter-taining Miss Alice Bretherton, Miss Mary paie, Miss Bile Bretherton, Miss Mary Dale, Miss Bila Doble, Miss Helene Rob-inson, Miss Edith McGary, Miss Ninon Oakes, Miss Ruth Flynn, Miss Dolly An-keny, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Mary Warfield, Miss Camille Carroll, Miss Ma-bel Smith, Miss Maude King, Miss Amy Dunn and Miss Sears.

Miss Diana Fletcher, whose marriage to Mr. White will take place on Wednes-day, was delightfully entertained during the week by several friends, Miss Pearl Harder giving an apron shower and Miss Irene Timus a dinner at the Hobart Curtis. The Alert Club gave Miss Fletcher a shower on Wednesday evening and on Thursday evening a number of her girl friends were entertained at her home on Jefferson street.

Mrs. F. J. Buckwalter entertained the Jolly 500 Club on Tuesday evening, February 14. The rooms were prettily decorated with red hearts. Prizes were won rated with red hearts. Prizes were won by Mr. Travis and Mr. Malchester. A dainty supper followed the game. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Malchester, Mr. and Mrs. Sahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. McMonies, Mr. and Mrs. Roseiter, Mrs. Turppa and Mr. Travis, and Mr. and Mrs. Buckwalter.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. 1. Upright on Tuesday afternoon Mrs. I. Oprigut ontertained a number of her friends at her home. 272 Sixth street. Whist occu-pied the greater part of the afternoon. The first prize was won by Mrs. David Buck and the second by Mrs. I. Hoizman. Afterward a dainty luncheon was served. The pariors were prettily decorated with Oregon holly, ferns and red hearts.

A very pleasant Valentine surprise party was given in honor of Miss Irene Stokes on Wednesday evening, February 15. at her home, 455 Prescott street. A vaientine mailbox was open and many beautiful valentines were distributed among the guests. Besides games, mu-sic was enjoyed and at a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

A very pleasant evening was spent at Valentine party given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dalzell, 345 Eleventh street, in honor of Miss Edna Birchard, who is visiting here. The home was beautifully decorated in red hearts, and progressive hearts was the principal game of the evening. At 1120 a delicious supper was served.

ond assistant prefect. Miss Mary Caraber; secretary, Miss Minnie O'Neil; treasurer, Miss Ella McCabe.

James W. Rosenfeld, of this city, has been selected to play first mandolin in the Stanford University Mandolin Club. Mr. Rosenfeld graduated three years ago from the Portland High School, where he was as popular in the students' social life as he has since become at Stanford.

NEW YORK BELLE A DESCENDANT OF GEORGE

ROGERS CLARK AND MERIWETHER LEWIS

OUTFITTERS SILVERFIELD'S

FOURTH AND MORRISON

The Finest Furs

The stock in our Fur Store is complete at all seasons of the year and contains an endless variety of fashionable Furs. Reliable quality, absolute correctness of style, are considerations of prime importance in purchasing Fur Garments-and these are characteristics of every gar-

The price of raw Furs is steadily advancing, which means an increase in the price of all Fur Garments the coming Fall, and as this increase takes place the country over the far-sighted will practice true economy by buying now while prices are down. Repairing and remodeling of Fur Garments at the lowest prices.

$1.50 KID GLOVES $1.19

The celebrated "Saxon Beauty" Glace Gloves, with Paris point stitching; the "Antoinette" Suede Gloves with fancy back and Paris point stitching. and the "Belleclaire" P. K. Street Gloves, in all sizes and colors. Regular $1.50 Gloves, $1.19

Children's Coats, Regular $8.50 Values

Brown styles; also with and without capes; finished with anchor and emblem sleeves, mili$1.00 GOLF GLOVES 49c

Golf Gloves have become a necessity even in Portland; our stocks are the most complete, thereby giving you the greatest selection. We are offering Golf Gloves in bright and dark colors - hand-

Children's Coats of serges, cheviots, zibelines and coverts, full and hip length; military and Buster tary buttons and velvet piping. Ages 4 to 12 years. Regular $7.50 and $8.50

SPRING STYLES 1905

In our Morrison-street window we are showing some of the advance styles in Spring Suits-Covert Coats and Millinery. Space allows at present only a limited showing, as our Millinery opening does not take place until next month, but a visit of inspection to our Millinery Department will be deemed a favor by us.

Highest prices paid for raw Furs. By selling direct to manufacturers, such as the Silverfield Co., you save the middlemen's profit.

Women of Woodcraft, took the form of a the wedding taking place at the home of very beautiful. Rev. T. L. Eliot, D. D. grand masque ball at Arion Hall on Tuesday evening, February 14, where a large assemblage of dancers and spectators gathered. After the grand march prises mere awarded. For's orchestra supplied

The house was elaborately decorated for the bride and groom stood uning which the bride and groom stood under an archway of smilax and ferns. The were awarded. Fox's orchestra supplied very acceptable music and refreshments were served in the balcony after a very enjoyable evening.

The Datsy Whist Club members were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mathlesen on Monday evening, February 13, Miss Riess-ling received the first prize, while Miss Dalsy Thomas won the second. The club will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Orth on February 27.

Rose City Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, which was organized recently gave an extremely pleasant social on Fri-day evening in the Marquam building. Dancing and cards followed a short musical and literary programme. Mrs. A. H. Willett is worthy matron of the new Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, of 365 Grand avenue North, entertained very pleasantly at their home on last Wednesday evening in honor of Henry Bassett, of Seattle. The evening was spent in whist and other games and music, some delightful vocal and instrumental solos being rendered. The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian Church, Park and Columbia

Members of the Sodality of the Biessed Virgin, Cathedral parish, recently gave a highly enjoyable entertainment. The election of officers resulted as follows: Prefect, Miss Elizabeth Maher; first assistant prefect, Miss Jane McBride: second assis gregational Church, Park and Columbia streets, entertained their friends in de-lightful style Monday evening, with a val-entine social. An entertaining programme was carried out and dainty refreshments The Joker Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douty February 14. Prizes were won at "500" by Dr. C. G. Smith and Mrs. David Davis. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. J. C. Hare, 274 Caruthers street, February 21. The missionary society of the First Congregational Church was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. W. King, on Pacific etreet. A pleasing programme was fol-lowed by a social hour.

Miss Evelyn Fisher, of this city, who is being delightfully entertained on the Sound, was the guest of honor at a charming juncheon which was given last Tuesday in Tacoma, Wash., by Mrs. F.

Dr. and Mrs. Otis F. Akiu. who recently returned from the East, were given a dinner last week by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Drake. Covers were laid for ten and the decorations were in pink and Mrs. C. Molstad entertained the members of the Ladies' Ald Society of Nor-wegian Synod Church, Thursday after-noon, at her residence, 540 Caywood street, a pleasing programme being presented.

The Alert Club of the First Baptist Church gave a valentine social on Friday evening in the church parlors. Refresh-ments were daintily served, after an ineresting programme,

WEDDINGS.

Oates-Stanley. The San Antonio Gazette gives the following account of the recent marriage of a charming Oregon girl, Miss June, Stanley, of Scaside;

San Antonio was selected by J. B. Ostes, of Asheville, N. C., and Miss June Stanley, of Scanide, Or., as a convenient place midway between their continent-separated homes to meet and be married. Each traveled over a thousand milies to the goal of their happiness. They were married this morning at the home of Mrs. Robertson, 222 Avenue C. Justice Thad T. Adams performing the ceremony.

Mr. Ostes is a wesliny capitalist, whose home is at Asheville, N. C. The bride, who was Miss June Stanley, was accompanied to San Antonio by her mother, who was born at Jacksonville, Tex., but has resided in Oregon for over 30 years. It may be that a senti mental love for her mother's native state may have been a factor in the decision of the couple to be married here.

The wedding was a romantic one in many ways. The couple never met until three months ago, when they became acquainted at Hot Springs. It was a case of love at first sight, and they decided to be married in June, that month bing selected because the bride's first Mr. Outes has buriness interests that called him to Kentucky.

Two weeks ago he came to San Antonio.

Mrs. Stanley and her daughter arrived last night. They had planned to go to California for the rest of the Winter, and Mr. Cates was going to Virginia to remain until June. But last night they decided they could not wait until June to be married, and agreed that they would be married this morning. They left at noon today for Hot Springs and from there they will go to Mr. Onten' he Meusdorffer-Burkhardt.

Miss Berthe Frances Burkhardt, daugh ter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Burkhardt, was married on Wednesday to John Charles Mansodorffer of San Francisco.

The Choicest Furs

in the world are always controlled by a few dealers. We are the largest fur house in the world and control most of the best furs. You will be convinced of the truth of this statement if you will examine our Russian Sable, Alaska Sealskins, Mink, Beaver, Persian Lamb and other Choice Furs.

288 Morrison St. Portland, Or. Exclusive Manufacturing Furriers J. P. Plagemann, Mer.

ESTABLISHED 1870. G.P. Rummelin & Sons ING FURRIERS 126 2d Street, bet. Alder and Washington FUR TIES

In Chinchilla, Ermine, Sable, Mink, Squirrel, Beaver, Etc. FUR BOAS

ten, Sable Fox, White Fox, Etc. FUR COATS, FUR MUFFS,

The highest type of FAMILY SEWING MACHINE-the embodiment of SIMPLICITY and UTILITY-the ACME of CONVENIENCE.

Expert Sewing-Machine Repairs

Also sewing-machine oil of absolute purity and the best Needles and Parts for all machinesat Singer Stores.

Sold Only at Singer Stores

354 Morrison Street

402 Washington Street 540 Williams Ave., East Side

Portland, Or.

Miss Evelyn K. Clark, a society boile of New York City, is the lineal descendant George Rogers Clark, and also of Meriwether Lewis, both famous explorers, the latter one of the leaders of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Mise Clark formerly ived in St. Louis and Louisville, where she was also prominent in society, and at present she is the guest of her brother-in-law, Clarence S. Houghton, First Assistant United States District Attorney, of New York. Miss Clark is granddaughter of ex-Governor Clark, of Missouri. Miss Clark has announced her intention of attending the Lewis and Clark Saposition, protobly at the time of the Lewis reunion.

MISS EVELYN K. CLARK.

In Alaska Bear, Black Mar-

FUR ROBES AND RUGS HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID FOR RAW FURS

Leading and Reliable Furriers

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE You