

SOCIETY

Miss Rider, Dr. French, Mrs. Simpson and Miss Moore.

Miss Corinne Linn, of Jacksonville, and Mrs. G. D. Linn, of Eugene, were guests of Miss Margaret Linn at the Mariya Club last week, and an informal party was given in their honor on Saturday evening.

Events of the week. Last Tuesday evening Captain Fernaux, the popular master of the British ship Dumfrieshire, entertained a large number of friends. The evening passed quickly with music, dancing and speech-making.

MR. ALBA MORGAN AND MISS MADGE GERTRUDE KAY WEDDED LAST WEEK

The Oregon Branch of Association of Collegiate Alumnae, of recent organization, gave their first entertainment yesterday, a very delightful luncheon in the Hotel Portland parlor. As it was the day of the President's inauguration, the table decoration were in the National colors.

An attractive recital was given at Helen's Hall on Thursday evening by some of the elocution pupils, under the instruction of Miss Louise Forsyth, and the large assembly hall was filled with pupils and guests.

The Fortnight Club met at the home of Mrs. Rockwood on Wednesday evening. After a lively discussion of current topics, Miss Alma Brington gave a comprehensive review of the 'Proprietor' by Ralph Connor.

A farewell reception was given to Roy Thompson, at his home, on Monday evening, previous to his departure for the East, where he goes to continue his social studies. The parlors were beautiful with decorations of Oregon holly and daffodils. A delicious punch was served throughout the evening. About one hundred and fifty guests were present and were greatly pleased with the vocal numbers rendered by the host.

The Ceramic Club of Portland met at the home of Mrs. Alexander Muir at Mount Taber on Wednesday afternoon. The club is negotiating with the National Ceramic League for an exhibition at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

Mrs. J. C. Hare and Mrs. W. D. Allard entertained the Jolly Wives' Club on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Hare, 214 Caruthers street. Whist was played at eight tables.

Mrs. Ella Jones, who had charge of last evening's concert at the People's Institute, was fortunate in securing some of the best talent in the city in

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh at their residence on Johnson street, in honor of Mr. Pugh's birthday.

A very pleasant affair of last week was an afternoon tea, which was given Wednesday afternoon, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, the rooms being prettily decorated for the occasion with exquisite Spring flowers.

Rev. Father McDevitt entertained the choir of St. Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday evening, at the Cathedral residence. A delicious supper was served at the close of a very delightful evening.

Members of the Society of Friends of Ancient India were entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. A. C. French at her home on Jackson street, the evening's programme being one of much interest.

The Tuesday Five Hundred Club was entertained last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr. Prices being poured by Mrs. Francis Clarno, Mrs. F. Gorman and Mrs. J. H. Harbour, and coffee by Mrs. Andrew Hoben, assisted by Mrs. Isabelle Higgins. Those present were: Mrs. Andrew Hoben, Mrs. Isabelle Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harbour, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clarno, Miss Elizabeth Hoben, Dr. E. G. Asplund, Miss Josephine Andretta Hoben, Mr. Fred Volght, of Ogden, and Mr. Jack Peck Hoben. The evening closed with all hands joining in the Virginia reel and singing 'Auld Lang Syne' and 'He's a Jolly Good Fellow.'

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met this week with Mrs. A. J. Stiles, at her home, 27 Gantenbein avenue. The subject for study for the afternoon was taken up by Mrs. L. M. Davis and Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison being the guests of the club.

The hostess gave a brief description of the history and his work. Mrs. Merwin Pugh told of the historical and political conditions. Mrs. George Dunham the social customs and literature, and Mrs. Warren White contemporary men and events of the 14th century.

On Tuesday evening Miss Mae Smith entertained a number of her friends at her home, 301 Sacramento street. Games occupied the greater part of the evening, after which a dainty supper was served. Those present were Miss Laurine DuBrulle, Miss Semie Henderson, Miss Vivian Holmes, Miss Ebyl Lancheater, Miss Tricie Murphy, Miss Mae Smith, Gordon Mansfield, Raymond Osburn, Albert Curtis, Robert Fuller, Elmer Fletcher.

Indiana people resident in Portland are working hard to effect the organization of an Indiana Society, and names of persons wishing to become members are being registered daily at Jaeger Bros., 260 Morrison street. This preliminary membership is approaching 100, and it is hoped that all persons eligible will make themselves known in order that an early election of officers may be held.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Lacy entertained the Joker Club at their home on Tuesday evening, February 23. The game of '99' was played at six tables. After refreshments had been served, the bride in burnt wood was awarded to Mrs. L. E. Smith and Dr. Smith. After the transaction of some business, the club adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. David Davis, on Tuesday evening, March 7, at 263 1/2 Seventh street.

Winlow Meade Circle Ladies of the G. A. R. gave a Literary Entertainment at Drew Hall on Tuesday. The Veteran Double Quartet rendered some very enjoyable selections. Miss Gray, the musician of the Circle, assisted by the McCurtain Brothers, furnished excellent music and various readings were given. Baby Virgil Graton gave a reception and a song which pleased the audience very much.

Portland Lodge, 301, the Fraternal Brotherhood, gave a benefit social on Wednesday evening in Cannon's Foresters Hall, Sixth and Washington streets. Dancing and a programme including a solo by Miss Vuilleumier, recitation by Miss Handfield, solo by Miss Johnson and duet by the Downey sisters, pleasantly occupied the time. Must was greeted by Hodson's orchestra.

worth assisted in entertaining with readings and stories. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

The evening of February 21 was most pleasantly spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Adams, Piedmont, the occasion being a surprise party tendered to their daughter, Miss Fortia Adams, by her many young friends.

A shower was given Miss Goldie Palmer, daughter of Rev. Ray Palmer, by Miss Eva Keenan, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keenan, 211 East Oak street, last Tuesday evening. Miss Palmer is soon to be married, and her friends took this pleasant method of giving her a large supply of linen.

Miss Agnes Lilla entertained a few of her friends last Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, 426 Morris street. Progressive Whist was played. Miss Lena Johannessen and Dick Oesch being awarded first prizes. Late games and music were enjoyed until supper was served.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church at West Park and Jefferson streets gave a very successful dinner on Wednesday evening at the parsonage. During the evening Mrs. Ella Jones, Alfred Blankholm and Lenora Hansen gave musical selections.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. John Pugh at their residence on Johnson street, in honor of Mr. Pugh's birthday. Whist was played, and prizes were awarded to Mr. Abbie and Mrs. John Sleight, Mrs. George Pendergrass and Dr. Asby.

A very pleasant affair of last week was an afternoon tea, which was given Wednesday afternoon, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, the rooms being prettily decorated for the occasion with exquisite Spring flowers.

Rev. Father McDevitt entertained the choir of St. Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday evening, at the Cathedral residence. A delicious supper was served at the close of a very delightful evening.

Members of the Society of Friends of Ancient India were entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. A. C. French at her home on Jackson street, the evening's programme being one of much interest.

The Tuesday Five Hundred Club was entertained last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr. Prices were won by Mrs. F. H. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Houghton and Thomas McCusker. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cotton Newell were at home last evening at the charming Newell Riverview Academy, in South Portland. The rooms were decorated with almost blossoms and Japanese objects, arranged in tall jars, delicate branches of cedar and Oregon holly. Mrs. Newell received her guests in a gown of a shade of green which was particularly becoming and pretty.

Some of the guests played whist and the presence of Parsons' orchestra, who played in the concert hall, occupying a corner, made dancing very enjoyable. Ices and cakes were served in the dining-room, where the decorations included gay school pennants and flags, and fruit punch was served in a pretty alcove off the living-room.

The Sacred Heart Social Club gave one of its enjoyable entertainments on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Lovell, the occasion being a party of part of the evening, as well as an interesting programme of music and recitations.

On Monday evening Eureka Council, No. 28, of the O. E. S., entertained at the Willamette Club, K. L. of S., of Oregon City and their degree team which took charge of Eureka's initiation.

Mother Stanislaus, provincial of the Franciscan Sisters at Bend, was entertained in Portland last week by prominent Catholics. Mother Stanislaus was on her way to Tacoma, Wash.

The Cavaliers gave an enjoyable party at Larowe Hall on Friday evening, the young people dancing until midnight, to the accompaniment of excellent orchestra music.

The marriage of Miss Mabel L. Parker to William Bittle Wells will be solemnized on Wednesday evening, March 8. It is to be a quiet home wedding.

Members of Missal Presbyterian Church were entertained very pleasantly on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. E. G. Eastman.

McElfresh-Ewing. The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing, at Alto Park, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Friday evening, February 24. The occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude Elizabeth, to Fred McElfresh.

A wedding bell of feathery green moss, with white satin ribbons and tulle streamers, was suspended from the ceiling, and beneath this the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. M. Jones, of Portland. The parlor was decorated in harmonious shades of green, from the dark shining garlands of ivy which almost covered the ceiling, to the lighter shades of fern and Oregon holly. Red and white flowers, with greenery, enhanced the beauty of the other rooms. Dozens of red candles shone through rose shades on the table where the bridal supper was served.

LADIES' OUTFITTERS SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON Fashions for Spring, 1905 For Ladies, Misses and Children Are on exhibition throughout our entire store—making an immense display, more extensive and pleasing than ever before shown in the city. Embracing every new style upon which "Dame Fashion" has set her seal of approval. There are hundreds of charming, refined style modes that are the very height of style elegance—the best European expressions mingled with the more practical ideas of our own country. Spring Suits Covert Coats Spring Millinery MISSES' SUITS RADICAL REDUCTIONS ON REPAIRING AND REMODELING OF FUR GARMENTS GREAT REDUCTIONS ON ALL FUR GARMENTS Experienced girls wanted in all our departments Georgia Ewing, and the bridal party descended the stairway and took place beneath the wedding bell, where the double ring service was performed. A solid train of white carnations, with white carnations, formed an effective background for the scene. The bride was a winsome picture in a gown of white organdy, with chiffon trimmings. She carried white bride roses, with tulle ornaments. Miss Helen Jane Ewing, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Miss Annie Ewing was bridesmaid. Both were becomingly attired in white and carried arm bouquets of pink roses. Elizabeth Stevens, the tiny cousin of the bride, was ring bearer and Mr. Fred Wallace, of Salem, acted as best man. About 80 guests, several from Eastern and Southern Oregon, were in attendance. Many beautiful and costly gifts were received.

Both the bride and groom are prominent in Oregon Agricultural College circles. The bride was one of its most popular students and was salutatorian of the class of 1904. Mr. Wallace was the former instructor in zoology at the college, but resigned to become superintendent of the beautiful "Willows" farm, three miles out from Salem, where they will make their home after April 15.

Last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Newman, occurred the wedding of the younger daughter, Miss Evelyn Newman, to Mr. Julius Louison, of Portland, Or. It was one of the very prettiest home weddings imaginable, the guests including only relatives and a few intimate friends. The reception-rooms of the Newman home lent themselves admirably to the charmingly simple decorations of smiling and blossoming, which were beautifully arranged. The first reception-room showed a canopy of lovely trailing smilax, beneath which the ceremony was performed. Judge H. Z. Auldman officiating, the bride was crowned with delicate spray of lilacs of the valley and this same dainty flower combined with perfect bride roses and tulle were artistically used in the shower bouquet which she carried. Miss Agnes Newman, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Her pretty, brunette coloring was in striking contrast to the pale blue of her soft crepe gown. She carried the latest of pink carnations arranged in a flower fashion with white tulle. Dr. William Louison, of San Francisco, attended his brother as best man. Mr. David Newman, a brother of the bride, gave away the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Louison left immediately for Southern California, and expect to return to their home in Portland the first week in March. No cards—Fresno Republican.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Louise Wyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson H. Wyman, to Willard T. Lovell, of St. Mark's Church, the pastor, Rev. John E. Simpson, performing the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father, and her bridesmaids were Miss Marion Chase, Miss Palmer and Miss Lucile Palmer. Ralph Hahn acting as best man. Guy Wyman, the bride's brother, Henry Humphrey, Ray Warner and William Matheson were the ushers. The bridal dress was of white crepe and lace, with bride roses arranged in a shower, and the bridesmaids wore yellow crepe and carried yellow roses. A wedding supper to the bridal party was served after the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wyman. Mrs. Lovell's traveling dress, which she looked very stunning, was of dark blue cloth, with blue hat and big bunch of violets.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized Tuesday, February 23, at 7 P. M., at St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Nineth and Quimby streets, when Miss Florence Hubbard, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hubbard, was united in marriage to Frederick Perivital Leaskley, the ceremony being performed by the rector, Rev. J. E. Simpson. The altar was daintily decorated in white and green, with carnations. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in a traveling gown of blue broadcloth. Her maid of honor was Miss Mary Louise McGaw, and the best man, her brother, Russell J. Hubbard. Fred McGaw, Henry Frudhumm and Chester Bergqvist were ushers. Just before the entrance of the bride and groom, Mrs. George Leaskley, of Alaska, sister-in-law of the groom, sang very sweetly "Faithful and True," from "Lohengrin," and after the service, when the members of the bridal party were in the vestry, she rendered a hymn by Faure. The organist played softly while the impressive service was read. Mr. and Mrs. Leaskley left immediately for Ocean Park, Wash., followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. They will pass their honeymoon at that place with the bride's grandmother, Mrs. E. S. Southard, and will return to Portland to make their home. Many people from out of town were in attendance at the wedding, including Mr. and Mrs. George Leaskley, of Nome, Alaska, and Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord and daughter, of Tacoma, Wash.

Morgan-Kay. Miss Madge Kay, eldest daughter of Isaac Kay, of Mount Taber, was married Saturday afternoon to Albin E. Morgan, at the home of Rev. W. E. Randall, pastor of the Central Baptist Church. The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of blue, with hat to match, and she carried violets. Only the most immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, after which the young couple left on the 6:15 train for Spokane, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan leave a host of warm friends, who wish them much happiness.

Siegenhafer-White. Samuel Siegenhafer, of Portland, and Miss Fannie White, of Salem, were united in marriage at Salem recently. Rev. Henry A. Barden, of Portland, officiating, assisted by the bride's brother, Lorenace White. The wedding was attended by a large company of guests. Miss Edna White, niece of the bride, presided at the piano and beautifully rendered the wedding march from "Lohengrin," as the

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE SINGER The highest type of FAMILY SEWING MACHINE—the embodiment of SIMPLICITY and UTILITY—the ACME of CONVENIENCE. Don't Use Poor Oil For use on sewing-machines, writing machines, bicycles and all purposes requiring a fine lubricant the best is cheapest in the end. Genuine Singer Oil can only be obtained at Singer Stores Sold Only at Singer Stores 354 Morrison Street, 402 Washington Street, 540 Williams Ave., East Side Portland, Or Sweeping Reduction Twenty Per Cent Discount on Every Fur Garment in the House H. LIEBES & CO. 288 Morrison St. Portland, Or. Exclusive Manufacturing Furriers J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.