

PLAN OF MAZAMAS

They Will Climb Mount Rainier in Month of July.

SIERRA CLUB WILL JOIN THEM

Eastern and English Organizations Have Been Invited to Take Part in the Excursion to Washington's Noted Peak.

Announcements have been sent out giving particulars of the 12th annual outing of the Mazamas...

The circular just issued reads: The annual field outing of the Mazamas for 1905 will be held at Mount Rainier...

For the benefit of many new members and others who have not been to Mount Rainier, it may be said that it is the highest and largest mountain in the region...

The following titles may be consulted by those who desire to know more about the mountain...

"Ascent of Mount Rainier," A. V. Kautz, Overland, 14, 25.

"Summit of Mount Rainier," A. W. Anderson, Outing, 28, 38.

"Mount Rainier," Harper's Monthly, 41, 42 and 83.

"Ascent of Mount Rainier," John Muir, Pacific Monthly, November, 1902.

"Ascent of Mount Rainier," Leslie's Weekly, 23, 33.

"Impressions of Mount Rainier," J. C. Russell, Scribner's, 22, 159.

"Flora of Mount Rainier," Professor Charles V. Piper, Mazamas, volume 1, No. 2.

"Earliest Ascent of Mount Rainier," P. E. Van Trump, Mazamas, volume 2, No. 3.

"The Geology of Mount Rainier," Otis Smith, Mazamas, volume 2, No. 1.

MEMBERS OF THE PORTLAND HUNT CLUB BEFORE STARTING ON CROSS-COUNTRY RIDE

READING FROM LEFT TO RIGHT—JOHN LATTI, F. O. DOWNING, MRS. DOWNING, J. C. MURRE, I. LANG, JUDGE A. H. TANNER, HENRY METZGER AND WILL G. MAC RAE.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club enjoyed a cross-country ride yesterday afternoon. About 20 riders were at Paris and Madison streets, and led by John Latta, master of the hounds, they were taken on the course over which the last Miss Anne Shogren cup was raced for some time. The course while it was a short one, was admirably selected and those who rode it yesterday, were a bit surprised at the time that was made on the previous run in which Bert Tongue, on Oregon Kid, won the race. Those who rode through yesterday follow: Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Buffum, Mrs.

Bruen, Miss Gile, John Latta, J. C. Murre, Judge A. H. Tanner, H. Jenkings, I. Lang, Henry Metzger, E. B. Sterling, S. C. Kerr, Frank Kerr, James Nicoll, F. O. Downing and Will McRae.

Members of the Portland Hunt Club enjoyed a cross-country ride yesterday afternoon. About 20 riders were at Paris and Madison streets, and led by John Latta, master of the hounds, they were taken on the course over which the last Miss Anne Shogren cup was raced for some time. The course while it was a short one, was admirably selected and those who rode it yesterday, were a bit surprised at the time that was made on the previous run in which Bert Tongue, on Oregon Kid, won the race. Those who rode through yesterday follow: Mrs. Downing, Mrs. Buffum, Mrs.

though the deposits need not be made until the dates above specified.

NO EXTRA SESSION Little Likelihood of One Being Called.

GOVERNOR IS NOT ANXIOUS Legislators Must Petition Him if They Want Such Extra Session and Then He Will Name the Conditions.

Consequently he yet sees no necessity of convoking the Legislature into extra session for saving the referendum-threshold bill. He still maintains that a referendum on the bill would not be very expensive to the state and would stand as a proverb unto all Legislatures hereafter, against logrolling.

"Some members of the Legislature seem to think I am eager for an extra session or am impressed with the alleged necessity of such a session," remarked the Governor yesterday, "but they have proposed the session, not I. Some also seem to think that I am trying to exact pledges from them. That is not the case, either. The truth is I have little or nothing to say about the extra session; the question concerns them more than it does me. But if they really are convinced of the need of calling the Legislature together they may send me a request for an extra session. In that case I shall have something to say about the conditions on which I would call the Legislature together."

Thus the matter is up to the members of the Legislature, and because the Governor believes that the state will profit by the Legislators staying at home, the lawmakers apparently will have to offer some inducement if they wish to be summoned to capital.

The inducements are these: A promise from two-thirds of the members to take up the appropriation bill only and to legislate on no other subject; to put into effect the appropriations for the normal schools and State University, the

Plans for Elks' County Fair. The lady managers of the coming Elks' county fair are showing much enthusiasm in their allotted work and are rapidly preparing the arrangements.

American Honored by France. PARIS, March 11.—The French Geographical Society has awarded to Henry Vignaud, Secretary of the American Embassy, the Jomard prize for historical and geographical researches.

Hobart Will Succeed Jarvis. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, March 11.—David H. Jarvis, Collector of Customs for the District of Alaska, has resigned, to go into private business. His successor will be Clarence Hobart, his present chief deputy.

Kansas Bank is Robbed. WICHITA, Kan., March 11.—Robbers entered the Bank of Benbow at Benbow, Oklahoma, at an early hour today, blew open the safe and escaped with $200 in cash. An armed posse is in pursuit.

PERSONAL MENTION. Aubrey Levy, a Seattle lawyer, is at the Portland on his return from a trip through the East.

Rev. J. D. O'Brien, O. P. left over the Southern Pacific Railway Friday evening on a missionary tour of Southern Oregon.

Captain Arthur Foster, of the Ninety-third Infantry, accompanied by Mrs. Foster, spent yesterday in Portland as the guests of Deputy United States Marshal and Mrs. L. N. Bowers.

Aggricultural College and the other institutions and to serve the state without pay.

Extending Railroads in Corea. WASHINGTON, March 11.—Minister Allen reports to the State Department from Seoul that the Korean Railroad system is being rapidly extended.

Dried Fruit at New York. NEW YORK, March 11.—Evaporated apples, steady; common, 4 1/2 to 5; prime, 5 1/2 to 6; choice, 6 to 6 1/2; fancy, 7 to 7 1/2; Prunes, firm, 2 1/2 to 3; according to grades.

City Funds in Closed Bank. LAWTON, Okla., March 11.—The Bank of Lawton, capital $100,000, controlled by McDuffie Bros., of this city, closed its doors today and has been placed in the hands of F. P. Cooper, the Territorial Bank Receiver.

City Funds in Closed Bank. LAWTON, Okla., March 11.—The Bank of Lawton, capital $100,000, controlled by McDuffie Bros., of this city, closed its doors today and has been placed in the hands of F. P. Cooper, the Territorial Bank Receiver.

City Funds in Closed Bank. LAWTON, Okla., March 11.—The Bank of Lawton, capital $100,000, controlled by McDuffie Bros., of this city, closed its doors today and has been placed in the hands of F. P. Cooper, the Territorial Bank Receiver.

City Funds in Closed Bank. LAWTON, Okla., March 11.—The Bank of Lawton, capital $100,000, controlled by McDuffie Bros., of this city, closed its doors today and has been placed in the hands of F. P. Cooper, the Territorial Bank Receiver.

SCHEME IS SMOOT

Denver Man Works Portland People.

USES HARRY MURPHY'S NAME

Prominent Citizens Are Induced to Part With Money by Representative of Publication Devoted to Cartoons.

Those of prominence in the city, who sometimes appear before the public eye in various phases of life, have been meeting with a Denver man, who is a clever hot-air artist during the past few days, much to the financial sorrow of some of them.

A short time ago a dapper little man by the name of W. H. Norris drifted into the town and announced himself as the representative of the American Cartoonist, a Denver publication. The publication, so he said, was about to publish a set of drawings entitled "Representative Men of the West in Caricature."

The first among the "representative" did was to call on Harry Murphy, the Oregonian artist, and tell him that he would like to have him draw a lot of pictures of prominent Portland men. Murphy, to the visitor it would be impossible for him to serve. Norris told him to think the matter over, and left the office, and the fun began.

The seeker after pictures then began a systematic course of work by which he is reported to have accumulated a very neat sum of money. He would call on one of the prominent men of the city who has been interested in the Lewis and Clark Fair, or some other Western enterprise, and say:

"Hello! This is Harry Murphy, of the Oregonian. I am about to send a young friend of mine to you, who is interested in the publication of a book of Western cartoons. He has a proposition to make to you, and I will appreciate any favor you may show him."

Then the enterprising young man from the high altitude would hang up the "phone and seek the presence of the man to whom he had been talking, where he would unfold his scheme. By this he was to give to Portland a new cartoonist, the Western Cartoons and a subscription to the magazine for a year, in return for the donation of sums ranging from $10 to $50. It is said that T. B. Wilcox, Charles H. Carey, H. W. Goode, J. Frank Watson and many others of the well-known men of the city presented fragmentary contributions to the State Department from Seoul that the Korean Railroad system is being rapidly extended.

That the state institutions will submit to extra sessions from them. That is not the case, either. The truth is I have little or nothing to say about the extra session; the question concerns them more than it does me. But if they really are convinced of the need of calling the Legislature together they may send me a request for an extra session. In that case I shall have something to say about the conditions on which I would call the Legislature together."

Thus the matter is up to the members of the Legislature, and because the Governor believes that the state will profit by the Legislators staying at home, the lawmakers apparently will have to offer some inducement if they wish to be summoned to capital.

The inducements are these: A promise from two-thirds of the members to take up the appropriation bill only and to legislate on no other subject; to put into effect the appropriations for the normal schools and State University, the Plans for Elks' County Fair. The lady managers of the coming Elks' county fair are showing much enthusiasm in their allotted work and are rapidly preparing the arrangements.