

A WEEK OF SOCIETY

In this a fact to keep... The ladder lean... From fat of veils and shawl?

specimen in a pot, intends transplanting it to the ground as an experiment.

MEMBERS of the party who recently had such an enjoyable outing at Mount Hood were entertained on Tuesday evening by J. Wesley Ladd.

The Dallas Chronicle gives the following account of a recent reception, held at the Williams residence, on Fulton street.

In the hall adjoining, Mrs. J. W. Condon and Miss Louise Ruch presided at the punch bowl.

Through the kindness of Rev. E. Bell, chaplain of St. Mary's Academy and College, the afternoon of March 6 will long be pleasantly and gratefully remembered by the faculty and senior pupils of the academy.

The selections rendered were sparkling and vivacious, and included: "Marche Triphonale" by Godefroid; "Nights and Days" by Toland; "Transcription by Rodere"; "Tema on Variations" by Thomas; "Danse des Sylphes" by Rodere; "Valse de Concert" by Hasselmann.

The pepper tree, which is the pride of California driveways on account of its graceful foliage and beautiful scarlet berries, was described by Mrs. J. C. Pritchard at the meeting of the Forestry Association, held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. H. Brennan.

once away back into the ages when the libraries were the "children's" inscriptions of stone, and still farther to the times when the only writings were the records on the palace walls of the Kings—placed there in crude hieroglyphics describing the battles which only the Kings cared to have remembered.

Portland Singer Returns from Dresden. Mrs. E. E. Covert, who returned recently from Dresden, where she spent nearly a year in study, is to give a concert soon at Vancouver.

planned, when the art of printing was young, the few Bibles so precious that they had to be chained to their places in the cathedrals.

A number of friends of Mrs. Edward E. Lamport were most delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon, at her elegant home on Commercial street, opposite Marion Square, in Salem.

Principal L. H. Morgan, of the Oakley Green School, gave the Home Training Association an address on Thursday afternoon upon the subject of "Co-operation of Mothers and Teachers."

"The teacher must feel," Mr. Morgan said, that the boy accepts her authority, while much more the boy must believe that his teacher is fair, and is sympathetic with his needs and moods; and, above all, that she is his friend and anxious to help him.

Mrs. W. H. Beharrell led the question box discussion, during which the problem of playing marbles "for keeps" was brought up.

The musical which was a very decided success was given at the Masonic Hall on Friday evening under the auspices of Myrtle Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Miss Zipporah Harris and Miss Cornelia Barker had charming violin numbers, Miss Harris being a soloist by Bohm, and Miss Barker playing "Song to the Evening Star."

Mrs. G. H. Ebelman entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week at her home, 117 Eugene street. The programme, a continuation of the study of Chaucer, was an interesting one.

The eighteenth birthday of Miss Marie E. Dunlap was the occasion of a very pleasant party last Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. Dunlap, 554 East Nineteenth street.

At an enthusiastic meeting of George Wright Relief Corps on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Johnson, a fund, in which the corps is much interested, many additions are being made to the corps membership.

Portland lodge No. 102, Modern Foresters, of Portland, expect to initiate a class of 100 on Monday evening, March 13.

The Joker Card Club met on Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Davis. Twenty-four hands of progressive "299" were played at five tables.

Eureka council, No. 298, K. E. L. of E. gave an entertainment last Monday evening, the programme including a piano recital by Mrs. Ebelman and Mrs. Esser; recitation, Mrs. J. C. Johnson;

The musical which was a very decided success was given at the Masonic Hall on Friday evening under the auspices of Myrtle Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

LADIES' OUTFITTERS SILVERFIELDS' FOURTH AND MORRISON For the Spring Season We usher in the Spring season in a manner wholly without precedent in the history of the Suit, Cloak and Millinery business in the City of Portland.

In Our Suit Salon Every woman in the city who is (and we doubt if there are any who are not) considering the purchasing of new wearing apparel for Spring, should inspect the showing we are making in our Suit and Cloak Department, on our second floor.

Our Millinery Dept. Always working to make our position as Portland's leading Milliners; we have lately employed Madame Brooks, the leading authority on millinery on the Pacific Coast.

Radical reductions on repairing and remodeling of Fur Garments. The new styles for 1905-1906 in Fur Jackets, Boas, Ties and Stoles are here. You can now bring in your Fur Garments for repairing and remodeling at reduced prices.

song by a quartet, in which the singers were: Charles Goss, F. J. Rogers, Mrs. A. H. Patton and Lena Hammond; recitation by Miss Stevans; song by Jessie Marshall, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Marshall; well rendered; dialogue by Nellie Marshall and Goldie Gustin; recitations by Lila Schacht; Miss Tille de Vort, accompanist.

WEDDINGS. Morse-Bloodgood. The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Russell, formerly of Portland, gave a delightful luncheon recently in Chicago in honor of Miss Grace Wilton, a young Portland pianist, who has been studying in Chicago during the past year, and who leaves soon for Portland.

Mrs. J. E. Werlein, of 725 East Madison street, was the scene of a very beautiful wedding last Tuesday evening, when Miss Grace Adele Bloodgood became the bride of Ray De Vere Morse.

Mrs. C. Russell, formerly of Portland, gave a delightful luncheon recently in Chicago in honor of Miss Grace Wilton, a young Portland pianist, who has been studying in Chicago during the past year, and who leaves soon for Portland.

The Sunshine Club was very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. R. C. Brooks, 515 East Davis street, Wednesday afternoon, March 8. Those present were: Mrs. N. A. Card, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Flory, Mrs. Frank, Mrs. L. T. Mason, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Livingston and Mrs. Griffith.

The William G. Elliot Fraternity, of the First Unitarian Church, enjoyed a pleasant social on Friday evening, arranged by Miss Carlotta Parfitt. A programme of music and readings, with refreshments, occupied the evening.

Mrs. M. Gallagher was given a very pleasant surprise at her home, 210 North Sixteenth street, on Tuesday evening. Music, dancing and singing were enjoyed by the hostess and her guests until a late hour.

A Mardi Gras entertainment, given on Tuesday evening, was much enjoyed by members and friends of St. Mary's parish. The programme included a clever reading by Mrs. Bertha Wagner, a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Kissel, contraalto solo

For More Than Fifty Years the SINGER has been recognized as maintaining the Highest Standard of Excellence among Family Sewing-Machines and is now sold at lower prices.

By this sign you may know you will find Singer Stores Everywhere. These Machines are never sold to dealers. Only from Maker to User.

A small payment down, the rest at convenient intervals. Four different kinds and a wide range of prices to suit. Sold only by Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Danderine Grew This Hair AND WE CAN PROVE IT. Little Frances Marie Knowlton is the daughter of Dr. E. W. Knowlton, the discoverer of this great hair-growing remedy, and her beautiful hair was grown wholly by the use of this great tonic.

Now at all druggists, in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.