

Artistic Picture Framing—Highest-Class Watch and Jewelry Repairing—Lowest Prices

Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

25c "Val" Laces at 9c

Many an overloaded importer comes to our New York office for relief. Such an instance happened some two weeks ago. He had too many laces of a certain kind—we had too few. Price matters were quickly arranged in our favor. The laces are here—on sale tomorrow with only a film of profit attached.

These laces are of the heavy "Platt Val." variety—very pretty and dainty—1 1/2 to 4 1/2 inches wide; none are worth less than 15c and from that up to 25c. If down town today take a look at the Washington-street window display—if you do, you'll be here early Monday morning.

Hand-Made Chiffon and Silk Braid Hats at

On Sale From 10 A. M. to 12 Noon, Only.

$1.45

We offer for tomorrow, from 10 A. M. to 12 noon, hand-made Hats of chiffon and fancy silk braid at a marvelously low price. They are made over wire frames. They come in four of the leading turban shapes. The brims are of tuck-ed chiffon, the crowns of silk straw braid, finished with steel ornaments. They come in black, brown, navy, reds, cardinal and mais. A remarkable special. None sold before 10 o'clock—none sold after 12 o'clock noon.

We Will Place on Sale Tomorrow Over Five Hundred Stylish New Covert Jackets at Special Prices

That Portland women have always relied pretty largely on this store for ready-to-wear apparel, our steadily increasing business proves plentifully. There is a valid reason for this—a very apparent one, in fact—namely: Always giving the best values. Now the Spring gathering is ready—each day has brought and is bringing its quota of newness. The most pronounced favorite of all outer garments this season is undoubtedly the Covert Cloth Jacket. These are concerned in a great sale tomorrow—a sale that offers unexampled advantages—Six great groups.

At $5.00

Ladies' 23-inch strictly Tailor-Made Jacket of all-wool tan covert cloth; made in the new fitted fly front shape, with welted seams down the front and back; new full sleeves with turned cuffs; notch collar and all lined with good quality Romain silk; price $5

At $7.50

Ladies' 23-inch Tailor-Made Jacket of fine all-wool tan covert cloth; made in the new collarless effect; double-breasted, eight-button front and fancy tan plaited coat back; full new sleeves with turned cuffs and all lined with Romain silk $7.50

At $10.00

Ladies' 23-inch Tailor-Made Jacket of fine all-wool tan covert cloth, made in the new fly front shape with notch collar; the front and back is trimmed with stitched cloth strapping; full sleeves with turned cuffs and lined throughout with satin; price $10.00

At $12.50

Several styles in 23 and 25-inch Tailor-Made Jackets of fine all-wool tan covert cloth; made in the new fly front and notch collar style; the front and back has wide strap of same cloth with ten rows of stitching; full new sleeves shirred at top and turned cuffs, all lined with satin; price $12.50

At $15.00

23-inch Jackets of fine all-wool covert cloth, the front and back is made with fine strapping and cording. Notch collar, half-fitted back, full new leg-mutton sleeves, and all lined with satin; price $15.00

At $17.50

23-inch Covert Jackets in light and dark shades of tan, made in notch collar and collarless styles, full new leg-mutton sleeves with half-fitting and coat back, cloth strapped, all silk lined; at $17.50

Five Great Silk Specials Tomorrow

If you would be absolutely sure of satisfactory silks—those of guaranteed quality, style and lowest price—come here any day. Your money will go farthest. Tomorrow your dollars will possess increased purchasing power because of these specials—

$1.25 Embroidered Pongees $1

85c Colored Taffetas 72c

We offer for tomorrow 1000 yards of embroidered pongee silks, identical with those sold elsewhere at $1.25, at the very low price of $1.00

We offer for tomorrow 1500 yards of colored taffetas, the best 85c quality at the remarkable low price of 72c—over 50 colors to choose from.

The Best $1.00 Foulard Silks at 85c

We offer for tomorrow three thousand yards of new Foulard Silks—the season's best colors and designs, at the very low price of .85c

$1.25 Novelty Silks at $1.00

$1.25 Cleo Messalines at $1.00

We will display tomorrow additional novelty silks in our great "Dollar" line—equal in every way to the best elsewhere quality at $1.25.

Can't get them here from the mills fast enough to meet the demands you make—our third shipment of these so popular silks on display tomorrow.

In the Dress Goods Store Tomorrow

The dress fabrics we gathered for this season give a topic that is upon the lips of almost every woman in Portland. Their character, individuality, quality and assortment surpass our previous best in every particular. The prices are really revelations to those who are as yet unacquainted with this dress goods store. We call your attention to:

Mohairs: Plain and fancy Mohair Sicilians are shown by us in immense variety. No other material has such an extended vogue this season for shirtwaist suits, tailor suits, dress coats, school dresses, etc. 50c instead of 60c for Novelty Mohairs, in pin dots and polka dots and illuminated mixtures, the real 60c qualities, at .50c. 50c to $1.25—Cream Mohairs, in plain and fancy effects; exceptional values at .50c to $1.25.

Other Fabrics: While Mohair Dress Goods are in a very great demand, there are other dress fabrics which are almost as much in demand. Crepe de Chine, Bengaline de Soie, Voiles and Tailor Suitings have many admirers. $1.00 instead of $1.25—42-inch silk and wool Crepe de Chine, high luster, soft finish, in cream, pearl gray, Havana, new brown, reds, navy, new blues etc. $1.25 for new French Panama Voiles for suit-waist suits, in the new navy blue and green checks and plaids.

Black Goods: We are offering exceptional values in the newest black Dress de Paris, English Crepes, Sicilians, Brilliantines, Embroidered Crepes, Mohair Crepes, Melrose Granite, etc.—four specials: 75c for French all-wool Voiles, 42 inches wide, that were $1.00 up to now. $1.25 for silk and wool Bengaline de Soie, 44 inches wide.

75c Dance Folios at 15c

Another shipment of the Famous Von Tiller Dance Folio, sold always at 75 cents, containing the following big hits: "Down on the Farm," "Banquet of Misery Hall," "Down Where the Swanee River Flows," "Man in the Overall," "Pretty Little Dinah Jones," and 25 others— MONDAY ONLY 15 CENTS.

Splendid Drapery Specials

11c for yard-wide Curtain Swiss in a large variety of patterns. Sold heretofore at 14c and 15c.

59c for Silk Striped Roman Madras, 46 inches wide. Sold heretofore at $1.00 and $1.25.

7c for Brass Extension Rods for sash curtains. Sold regularly at 10c.

$1.98 for $2.50 Ruffled Net Curtains, white and Arabe, three yards long, 54 inches wide—for bedroom or dining-room.

New Books

- Pub. Our Price. "Baccarat" by Frank Danby $1.50 $1.00. "The Silence of Mrs. Harrold" by Samuel M. Gardener $1.50 $1.00. "A Young Man in a Hurry" by Robert W. Chambers $1.50 $1.00. "The Albert Gate Mystery" by Louis Tracy $1.50 $1.00. "Hurricane Island" by H. B. Merritt Watson $1.50 $1.00. "The Common Lot" by Robert Herrick $1.50 $1.00. "The Millionaire Baby" by Anna Katharine Green $1.50 $1.00. "The Return of Sherlock Holmes" by A. Conan Doyle $1.50 $1.00. "The Wonders of Life" by Ernst Haeckel (net) $1.50 $1.00. "Mysterious Mr. Sabin" by E. Phillips Oppenheim $1.50 $1.00. "John Van Buren, Politician" by Anonymous $1.50 $1.00. "The Bell in the Fog" by Gertrude Atherton $1.50 $1.00. "The Slanderer" by Warwick Deeping $1.50 $1.00. "In the Arena" by Booth Tarkington $1.50 $1.00. "A Box of Matches" by Hamblen Sears $1.50 $1.00. "Elien and Inman" by Gouverneur Morris $1.50 $1.00. Popular edition of "Letters of a Self-Made Merchant to His Son" $1.00 $1.00. "The Simple Life" $1.00 $1.00.

Art Department

- 39c instead of 50c for Pillow Tops with backs; new floral and conventional designs.
- 7 1/2c instead of 10c for new English Eyelet Embroidery Top Collars.
- 35c instead of 50c Lithographed Pillow Tops—handsome head designs.

Second Demonstration "Ramona" Belt Buckles

Hundreds of women bought these buckles during the first demonstration which took place in December. All are highly satisfied because of their great merit—Demonstration in the Lining Store.

FIGHT FOR MAYOR

Those Who Are Mentioned for Place.

ONE PETITION WITHDRAWN

Williams Objects to Method of Friends.

DEVLIN AND SMITH IN RACE

Salvos Find Too Many Aspirants, but Reverberations in Political Timbers Are Louder for Some Than for Others.

PLANS BIG CHANGE

Chamber of Commerce Will Remodel By-Laws.

The board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will meet on Tuesday next at 11 o'clock for the transaction of routine business and for the consideration of the report to be made by the special committee appointed some time ago to remodel the by-laws and constitution of the chamber.

Following this meeting the members of the chamber will be called together to consider the new articles for final passage. This call has been issued for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it is expected that a large number of the membership of the chamber will be in attendance.

One of the principal changes to be made, in all probability, in the by-laws and general government and conduct of the chamber will be in the membership rule. Heretofore only active members have been enrolled on the lists of the chamber. This will now be changed, if the new articles as prepared are adopted, and there will be active, associate and honorary members. The active members will be those men of the city and immediate vicinity who are able to be present at the meetings, to take part in the work of the chamber, and to bear a full share of the burdens of the organization. The associate members will be composed of men out of the city who are yet interested in what is being done by the chamber and who are willing to bear a part of the financial burden of the chamber. The honorary members will be such persons of prominence as may be designated for membership by the members in meeting or by the action of the board of trustees.

Another change which will be made in the membership of the chamber will be the opening of the roll to members of the professions. Up to this time it has not been possible for any professional man, or for any firm of that character, to become members of the chamber.

The chamber will be divided into different boards or subcommittees, which will have to do with the details of work pertaining to their particular business. There is one radical change which is about to be made in the provisions of the by-laws, and that is the establishment of a department for the trial and investigation of the members of the chamber for any conduct not in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws. According to this clause of the by-laws any member of the chamber who is accused of unbusinesslike methods in the conduct of his calling will be taken before the investigating committee on board and his case will be heard. If he is found guilty of the charges brought against him he will be punished according to the provisions of the by-laws and the decree of the tribunal. One of the penalties will be public expulsion from the chamber.

Position of Devlin. Mr. Devlin said that, should he be elected, he would keep open gambling and the firing system and the private graft under the ban, but would not be an extremist. He would not be a radical in the administration of civic affairs relating to control of vice. He regards liquor licenses as a proper source of revenue for the city.

As City Auditor during the last two terms and as Deputy Auditor under Auditor A. N. Gambell, Mr. Devlin has acquired a large knowledge of municipal affairs. He was nominated in 1903 by the Republican party, and in 1902 by both the Mitchell and the Simon factions. He incurred the ill will of leaders of the present Republican party by refusing to deliver patronage into their hands, as did City Engineer Elliott. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the Republican primaries have been in circulation in the last two days.

Next to the name of Mayor Williams that of Dr. Andrew C. Smith has probably been most frequent on the tongues of Republican gossips. Wherever the doctor goes he is accosted by admirers who pat him on the back and tell him he would make a fine Mayor. The doctor shakes the glad hand appreciatively, and gives his admirers to understand that, should the nomination come his way, he will surely not run away from it.

Against the Machine. Dr. Smith was elected State Senator in 1903, in which capacity he secured the enactment of a bill in 1903 creating the State Board of Health, of which he is president. From the ground up Dr. Smith has done to the present Republican machine.

Previous to the time that the Mitchell-Matthews-Carey organization became a machine, he was affiliated with it. In last year's primary election he fought the machine with all the ardor for which he is noted, and led a big following into the opposition camp. Members of the Municipal Association have been turning him over in their minds for a candidate, and at one of their meetings recently he made a speech.

Petitions for Howell. Another candidate for whom a boom has been touched off is George H. Howell, member of the Executive Board, who called a foremost part in showing up what were called excessive charges for building Morrison-street bridge. Mr. Howell stands for a closed town and for submergence of the present machine. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the primaries were out last week. Mr. Howell, as a member of the Typographical Union, will draw the labor vote of the city, as well as the tongues of Republican element in various camps.

Another valiant who has vowed death to the machine is ex-Sheriff Storey. He was promised renomination for Sheriff in the county convention a year ago, but was foiled and has craved vengeance ever since. Mr. Storey has a big bludgeon under his coat and a heavy knife in his sleeve ever ready for execution of his enemies. "I've got a smelling machine in my office," declares the burly ex-Sheriff "and if Matthews puts up a candidate my smelling machine will find him out, and then—" But Mr. Storey's wrath was so terrible that he did not finish his utterance.

FIGHT FOR MAYOR

Es-Mayor Rowe is likely to be brought forward also in opposition to the present Republican organization. Simon stalwarts are backing him up strongly, and he is receiving offers of support from other sources.

Fisher Ready to File. Willis A. Fisher is ahead of Republican candidates in taking time by the forelock, and is almost ready to file a copy of his primary petition with the City Auditor. That function performed the next will be to secure signatures of 198 Republicans in at least 12 precincts in the city. That will place him as a candidate before the primaries.

Owing to the large powers centered in the Mayor, candidates for that office are drawn nearly all the attention that is given to city politics. Candidates for Auditor and Treasurer and Municipal Judge and City Attorney and 15 Councilmen have hardly emerged from cover. Before the direct primary law was upheld by the Circuit Court in its application to the city election, doubt existed that party tickets would be named. But now it is obvious the Republican and Democratic tickets will be nominated. The Republican organization of the city does not seem likely to put forward any candidates, but will doubtless throw its influence to certain candidates. Though it has not liked Devlin there are indications that it would be more willing to see him elected than any of the other men in the front rank of eligibles. Mr. Devlin says that he will pursue the same policy of independence of machine influence that he has pursued in the past.

PLANS BIG CHANGE

Chamber of Commerce Will Remodel By-Laws.

The board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will meet on Tuesday next at 11 o'clock for the transaction of routine business and for the consideration of the report to be made by the special committee appointed some time ago to remodel the by-laws and constitution of the chamber.

Following this meeting the members of the chamber will be called together to consider the new articles for final passage. This call has been issued for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it is expected that a large number of the membership of the chamber will be in attendance.

One of the principal changes to be made, in all probability, in the by-laws and general government and conduct of the chamber will be in the membership rule. Heretofore only active members have been enrolled on the lists of the chamber. This will now be changed, if the new articles as prepared are adopted, and there will be active, associate and honorary members. The active members will be those men of the city and immediate vicinity who are able to be present at the meetings, to take part in the work of the chamber, and to bear a full share of the burdens of the organization. The associate members will be composed of men out of the city who are yet interested in what is being done by the chamber and who are willing to bear a part of the financial burden of the chamber. The honorary members will be such persons of prominence as may be designated for membership by the members in meeting or by the action of the board of trustees.

Another change which will be made in the membership of the chamber will be the opening of the roll to members of the professions. Up to this time it has not been possible for any professional man, or for any firm of that character, to become members of the chamber.

The chamber will be divided into different boards or subcommittees, which will have to do with the details of work pertaining to their particular business. There is one radical change which is about to be made in the provisions of the by-laws, and that is the establishment of a department for the trial and investigation of the members of the chamber for any conduct not in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws. According to this clause of the by-laws any member of the chamber who is accused of unbusinesslike methods in the conduct of his calling will be taken before the investigating committee on board and his case will be heard. If he is found guilty of the charges brought against him he will be punished according to the provisions of the by-laws and the decree of the tribunal. One of the penalties will be public expulsion from the chamber.

Position of Devlin. Mr. Devlin said that, should he be elected, he would keep open gambling and the firing system and the private graft under the ban, but would not be an extremist. He would not be a radical in the administration of civic affairs relating to control of vice. He regards liquor licenses as a proper source of revenue for the city.

As City Auditor during the last two terms and as Deputy Auditor under Auditor A. N. Gambell, Mr. Devlin has acquired a large knowledge of municipal affairs. He was nominated in 1903 by the Republican party, and in 1902 by both the Mitchell and the Simon factions. He incurred the ill will of leaders of the present Republican party by refusing to deliver patronage into their hands, as did City Engineer Elliott. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the Republican primaries have been in circulation in the last two days.

Next to the name of Mayor Williams that of Dr. Andrew C. Smith has probably been most frequent on the tongues of Republican gossips. Wherever the doctor goes he is accosted by admirers who pat him on the back and tell him he would make a fine Mayor. The doctor shakes the glad hand appreciatively, and gives his admirers to understand that, should the nomination come his way, he will surely not run away from it.

Against the Machine. Dr. Smith was elected State Senator in 1903, in which capacity he secured the enactment of a bill in 1903 creating the State Board of Health, of which he is president. From the ground up Dr. Smith has done to the present Republican machine.

Previous to the time that the Mitchell-Matthews-Carey organization became a machine, he was affiliated with it. In last year's primary election he fought the machine with all the ardor for which he is noted, and led a big following into the opposition camp. Members of the Municipal Association have been turning him over in their minds for a candidate, and at one of their meetings recently he made a speech.

Petitions for Howell. Another candidate for whom a boom has been touched off is George H. Howell, member of the Executive Board, who called a foremost part in showing up what were called excessive charges for building Morrison-street bridge. Mr. Howell stands for a closed town and for submergence of the present machine. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the primaries were out last week. Mr. Howell, as a member of the Typographical Union, will draw the labor vote of the city, as well as the tongues of Republican element in various camps.

Another valiant who has vowed death to the machine is ex-Sheriff Storey. He was promised renomination for Sheriff in the county convention a year ago, but was foiled and has craved vengeance ever since. Mr. Storey has a big bludgeon under his coat and a heavy knife in his sleeve ever ready for execution of his enemies. "I've got a smelling machine in my

WILL GIVE PRIZES

School Children Interested in Clean City.

IMPROVEMENT BOARD OFFER

Plan Adopted for Neat Yards and Lawns.

BEST KEPT TO BE REWARDED

Boys and Girls Will Receive Substantial Returns for Beautifying and Keeping Clean the Grounds About Their Homes.

PLANS BIG CHANGE

Chamber of Commerce Will Remodel By-Laws.

The board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will meet on Tuesday next at 11 o'clock for the transaction of routine business and for the consideration of the report to be made by the special committee appointed some time ago to remodel the by-laws and constitution of the chamber.

Following this meeting the members of the chamber will be called together to consider the new articles for final passage. This call has been issued for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and it is expected that a large number of the membership of the chamber will be in attendance.

One of the principal changes to be made, in all probability, in the by-laws and general government and conduct of the chamber will be in the membership rule. Heretofore only active members have been enrolled on the lists of the chamber. This will now be changed, if the new articles as prepared are adopted, and there will be active, associate and honorary members. The active members will be those men of the city and immediate vicinity who are able to be present at the meetings, to take part in the work of the chamber, and to bear a full share of the burdens of the organization. The associate members will be composed of men out of the city who are yet interested in what is being done by the chamber and who are willing to bear a part of the financial burden of the chamber. The honorary members will be such persons of prominence as may be designated for membership by the members in meeting or by the action of the board of trustees.

Another change which will be made in the membership of the chamber will be the opening of the roll to members of the professions. Up to this time it has not been possible for any professional man, or for any firm of that character, to become members of the chamber.

The chamber will be divided into different boards or subcommittees, which will have to do with the details of work pertaining to their particular business. There is one radical change which is about to be made in the provisions of the by-laws, and that is the establishment of a department for the trial and investigation of the members of the chamber for any conduct not in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws. According to this clause of the by-laws any member of the chamber who is accused of unbusinesslike methods in the conduct of his calling will be taken before the investigating committee on board and his case will be heard. If he is found guilty of the charges brought against him he will be punished according to the provisions of the by-laws and the decree of the tribunal. One of the penalties will be public expulsion from the chamber.

Position of Devlin. Mr. Devlin said that, should he be elected, he would keep open gambling and the firing system and the private graft under the ban, but would not be an extremist. He would not be a radical in the administration of civic affairs relating to control of vice. He regards liquor licenses as a proper source of revenue for the city.

As City Auditor during the last two terms and as Deputy Auditor under Auditor A. N. Gambell, Mr. Devlin has acquired a large knowledge of municipal affairs. He was nominated in 1903 by the Republican party, and in 1902 by both the Mitchell and the Simon factions. He incurred the ill will of leaders of the present Republican party by refusing to deliver patronage into their hands, as did City Engineer Elliott. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the Republican primaries have been in circulation in the last two days.

Next to the name of Mayor Williams that of Dr. Andrew C. Smith has probably been most frequent on the tongues of Republican gossips. Wherever the doctor goes he is accosted by admirers who pat him on the back and tell him he would make a fine Mayor. The doctor shakes the glad hand appreciatively, and gives his admirers to understand that, should the nomination come his way, he will surely not run away from it.

Against the Machine. Dr. Smith was elected State Senator in 1903, in which capacity he secured the enactment of a bill in 1903 creating the State Board of Health, of which he is president. From the ground up Dr. Smith has done to the present Republican machine.

Previous to the time that the Mitchell-Matthews-Carey organization became a machine, he was affiliated with it. In last year's primary election he fought the machine with all the ardor for which he is noted, and led a big following into the opposition camp. Members of the Municipal Association have been turning him over in their minds for a candidate, and at one of their meetings recently he made a speech.

Petitions for Howell. Another candidate for whom a boom has been touched off is George H. Howell, member of the Executive Board, who called a foremost part in showing up what were called excessive charges for building Morrison-street bridge. Mr. Howell stands for a closed town and for submergence of the present machine. Petitions asking him to become a candidate in the primaries were out last week. Mr. Howell, as a member of the Typographical Union, will draw the labor vote of the city, as well as the tongues of Republican element in various camps.

Another valiant who has vowed death to the machine is ex-Sheriff Storey. He was promised renomination for Sheriff in the county convention a year ago, but was foiled and has craved vengeance ever since. Mr. Storey has a big bludgeon under his coat and a heavy knife in his sleeve ever ready for execution of his enemies. "I've got a smelling machine in my

"I've got a smelling machine in my