Ute Indians Vainly Protest Against Opening of Reservation.

WASHINGTON, March 18.-Francis E. Leupp, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, today presented to the President a delegation of Ute Indians from the Uintah reservation in Utah. The Indians came to Washington to protest against the opening of their reservation as provided by a recent act of Congress.

In a brief address to the Indians the President informed them that the reservation would have to be opened and that they must adjust themselves to the inevitable and get along amicably with the white settlers who might become their neighbors. He assured them that every right they possessed would be protected fully.
