To be sure, Ash Wednesday was as free from social events as a New England Sabbath, but, minus the dancing feature, the old round was resumed the next day, with amateur theatricals and other entertainments for charity to take the place of the light fantustic

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt have given several informal dinners, and a box party to welcome May Irvin in "Mrs. Black Is Back." Miss Irwin returns after an absence of two years as the affianced wife of that confirmed backelor politician, ex-Senator David B. Hill, of New York. Her advent at this time, when Daughters of the American Republic matters are so much to the fore in conversation, has revived interesting gossip concerning her supposed rival in the affections of Mr. Hill—Mrs. Daniel Manning, Mrs. Fairbanks' predecessor as president general of the National Society of D. A. R's.

On Thursday the flag was lowered over the White House, to signify that the President was on his way to New York, where, in the afternoon of the same day, he was to give his niece, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt, in marriage to Mr. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, a dis-tant relative. Miss Alice accompanied the President, as she was to serve as mald of honor, and prove for the second time that she feared not the adage "thrice a maid, never a bride."

"In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" is as true as it was in the poet's day, and the sale of wedding finery goes steadily on. One of the first marriages of importance will be that of Aliss Julis Kellogg, daughter of the late Colonel Kellogg, and Mr. Andrew Y. Bradley, was of Judge Bradley of the District

Speaker and Miss Cannon prior to go-ing to the reception. Those invited to meet them were: Secretary of Agri-culture Wilson, Senator and Mrs. Hopkins, of Illinois; Senator Allison, of Iowa; Senator Hemenway, of Indiana; and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, the latter, a daughter of Mrs. Hubbard: Commissioner and Mrs. James R. Garfield, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. and Miss. Gillett, Mrs. Gildon and Mrs. Le Seure, all of Illinois, and house guests of Speaker Cannon; and Mr. William Barrett Ridgely, Controller of the Treasury.

The arrival of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner as the guest of Mrs. Hunt Slater, of Stoneleigh Court, was marked by a large Stoneleigh Court, was marked by a large reception and musicale at which the musicians were Mrs. Horatio Slater and Professor Cornelius Rubner, of Boston. General and Mrs. Draper, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean have also been among the early entertainers of Mrs.

Several of the President's recent diplomatic appointees have been feted by friends before they leave the capital for their new posts. The first of these was Mr. William W. Although many able papers anent the work being done for the children of the country were read by the women in at-tendance upon the Congress of Mothers, and United States Senator Fred T. Du-bole of Lights gave a comprehensive talk hois, of Idaho, gave a comprehensive talk on the subject of polygamy and the hierarchy of Mormonism, the presence of the "Great White Father," as President Roosevelt is known to the Indians, was the great event of its 125 convention. The message he brought to the mothers of the world has started the thinking world to thinking along new lines, and has started world has started the limited and the started waves in motion that will not stop until they reach every home in the land. The President spoke to an audience of 5000 wives, mothers and daughters, a generous sprinkling of fathers, and a fringe of several thousand persons who could not be

The list of international speakers in-cluded the British Ambassador, Sir Mor-timer Durand; Frie-Herr Speck von Sternberg, the American hostess of the German Embassy; Eki Hioki, first secretary of the Japanese Legation, and Sen-orita Carolina Holman Huddobro, of Chile. Each of these spoke of child life in his own country, and in telling of the work own country, and in telling of the work among the very poor drew a helpful as well as encouraging picture for the Amer-ican mothers who are giving a helping hand to the emigrants within our ders.

One of the first acts of the congress was to elect Mrs. Bosesvelt an honorary vice-president of the Mothers' Council, a distinction shared only by Mrs. Phoebe Hearst and Mrs. Adial Stevenson. The President's wife acknowledged her pleasure in accepting the position by inviting the officers and delegates to the Congress to tea on Monday afternoon. The entire lower floor of the White House was thrown open as for official functions, and Secretary of War and Mrs. Oliver, Hon.

Wagner's Great Love Poem

T is not a drama. It is a love poem, celebrating the passion of love. Its theme is one of longing and yeara-

That is the opinion of Mrs. Raymond Brown, of New York City, in speaking last night in the Unitarian Chapel on Richard Wagner's creation "Tristan and Isolde." Portland music people have formed a favorable estimate of Mrs. Raymond Brown's abilities from her previous lecture-recitals, and last night's treat despened the impression. night's treat deepened the impression. Those of us who have not read 'Tristan and Isoide' in the original German have heard from those supposed to know better that the work is a music-drama, but here is Mrs. Raymond Brown speaking authoritatively from higher grounds and weaving the poetry of romance around the ideal. It was a new experience to divest Wagner from new experience to divest Wagner from the dynamics that lend force to his themes, from dramatic sopranos and equally strong baritone-tenors, and away from scenery weave around his phantom creatures the halo of ro-mance, and talk of "love that can never die," and "speech like the music made by murmuring water." But the love poem lost nothing in the act of literary dissection at the hands of the lecturer last night.

Mrs. Brown illustrated each theme on the plane, and often talked as she played to describe Tristan, Isolde, Brigane, King Mark, Kurvenal, Melot and the rest. She stated that the general opinion was that "Tristan and Isolde" is considered to be Wagner's greatest work-it was certainly his favorite Mrs. Brown showed marked ability and fine musical instinct, although at times the rapidity of her speech was somewhat pronounced. The audience was a large and appreciative one PRAISED BY JAPANESE EMPEROR Poem Written by Mrs. Allison Finds High Favor.

Mrs. James Allison, of St. Paul, Misn., who is a daughter of the late Judge J. W. Whalley, of Portland, recently had an unusual honor accorded to her by the Emperor of Japan, an honor for the first time bestowed upon a foreigner.

It is the custom in Japan for the Emperor to have at the new year a subject fit is the custom in Japan for the Em-peror to issue at the new year a subject for a poetry competition, open to every one in his empire. Poetry is so much a part of the nation that nearly every lady and gentleman in Japan, including their and gentleman in Japan, including their majesties, the Emperor and Empress, join in this annual competition.

Forms on the Emperor's subject are made at Chan-o-yu, the Japanese tea ceremonial, at all social gatherings. The best 20 of the poems submitted are selected and published in a magazine called "The Voice of the Heart," and preserved from year to year. The subject for this year was "Mountain at New Year's Dawn."

Mrs. Allison, who spent several years it
Japan while Colonel Allison was on dut in the Philippines, made a close study of the customs and literature of the country-particularly of the poetry. This Win er, on receiving a letter from a friend in Japan containing the Emperor's subject, she decided to enter the contest, and sent on a poem, written in English, but in conformity with the Japanese construc-

Baron Sannomlya, grand master of cere-monies to the Emperor, highly commend-ing the poem, and saying he had trans-lated it and sent it to Baron Takasaki, head of the poetical bureay. He in his turn presented it to the Emperor and Em-press, who, he said, "thought it very good and were pleased to keep it amongst the successful poems."
As it is the first time the poem of a foreigner has been accepted the circumstance has created something of a stir

RAW BLEEDING SCALY ECZEMA

Looked More Like a Piece of Raw Beef Than a Human Being. Doctors Useless.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Blessed Relief After First Application and First Real Sleep in Weeks—Facts of This Wonderful Cure by Cuticura Vouched for by Mrs. Hunt's Neighbors.

"Words cannot describe the terrible Eczema I suffered with. It broke out on my head and kept spreading, until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores from head to foot. I looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony I endured seemed more than I could hear

"Blood and pus oozed from the great sore on my scalp, from under my finger nails, and nearly all over my body. My ears were so crusted and swollen I was afraid they would break off. Every hair in my head fell out. I could not sit down, for my clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain.

"My family doctor did all he could, but I got worse and worse. My condition was awful. I did not think I could live, and wanted death to come and end my frightful sufferings.

"In this condition my mother-inlaw begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I said I would, but had no hope of recovery. But oh, what blessed relief I experienced after applying Cuticura Ointment. It cooled the bleeding and itchy flesh and brought me the first real sleep I had had in weeks. It was as grateful as ice to a burning tongue. I would bathe with warm water and Cuticura Soap, then apply the Ointment freely. I also took the Resolvent for the blood. In a short time the sores stopped running, the flesh began to heal, and I knew I was to get well again. Then the hair on my head began to grow, and in a short time I was completely cured. But I kept on taking the Cuticura Remedies, as they did me so much good I did not want to stop them. "My cure was so wonderful I thought I would write you about it. I cannot praise Cuticura enough. I wish I could tell everybody who has Eczema to use Cuticura. My condition was so terrible that what cured me cannot fail to cure anybody of this awful disease. If any one doubts the truth of this letter, tell them to write to me. MRS. WM. HUNT." "135 Thomas St., Newark, N. J.

AN EXCEPTIONAL TREAT. Fritz Kreisler, the Eminent Austrian Violinist, Coming to Portland.

A violinist whom critics approve, whom He possesses the master touch upon his beloved instrument and an artistic conception of playing. Masterpleces, such as the Brahms conperto, and also those of Beethoven, Rach, spohr, etc., etc., are played by him as if he had literally borrowed the spirit of the composer, so entirely in sympathy is he with the import of his composition. Wherever Kreisler appears, his triumphs are complete. Portland music lovers are to be congratulated upon the opportunity of hearing this great musician. of hearing this great musician.

The concert will be given at the Empire theater April 4, under the management of Miss Steers and Miss Coman.

A superb Chickering plano, the concert grand style, will be used in playing his accompaniments. The instrument is further than the concert is the companiments.

Celebrated Tuesday.

Next Tuesday will mark the 25th anniversary of the advent of the Salvation Army in America. An editorial in the latest War Cry, the official organ of the Army, says: "The Army in America has rounded out its first quarter of a century. The amount of blessing to the individual, to the home and to the state that has resulted may not be computed. An attempt to measure it would lead to every corner of the continent, almost every portion of the habitable globe, and many of the islands of the sea."

It is this feeling which brings special satisfaction to the Army as a whole, and particularly to the officers of the organization. Those in Portland are not behind their brothers in other cities, and on the night of March 28 a monater jubilee anniversary meetling will be held to show the joy felt in the accomplishments of the
