

FLIE THE WRATH

Beef Trust Officials Gone to Canada

TO AVOID TESTIFYING

Their Wives Summoned to Tell About Plans.

SCHEME TO MOVE TO EUROPE

Grand Jury Discovers Colony of Fifteen Heads of Different Packing-Houses Has Formed in Montreal.

CHICAGO, April 15.—The Federal grand jury today made special efforts to secure evidence sufficient for more indictments. Two women heavily veiled were taken before the jury and examined at length. Every effort was made by the Government officials to keep their identity secret, but it is said that they are Mrs. Irving Vant, wife of the assistant secretary of Swift & Co., and Mrs. Richard W. Howes, wife of the head of the casing department of the same firm.

The husbands of both are in Montreal in company with several other employees of different houses in the combination. It is said the testimony of the ladies today had to do with a European trip that was being planned by the assistant secretary of a packing firm for themselves and their husbands. One man was also examined at some length. His identity was not learned. The jury then adjourned until next Wednesday.

Fully 15 fresh subpoenas, presumably for witnesses, were made out this afternoon. Names of the fugitives.

Among the important Chicago department officials who have been located at the Windsor Hotel in Montreal are T. E. Jones, traffic manager for Armour & Co.; Richard H. Lane, manager of the provision department of Armour & Co.; A. B. Fay, traffic manager for Swift & Co.; F. A. Spink, traffic manager of the National Packing Company; T. Filburn, manager of the box, tallow and casing department of Swift & Co., and C. Coffin, one of the general managers of the National Packing Company.

The motion to quash the indictment against Superintendent T. J. Connors, of Armour & Co., was continued today by Judge Landis until next Saturday.

Although indictments on the charge named have been returned against five persons, it is claimed that efforts are still being made to interfere with Government witnesses. It is reported that the first intimation of the alleged interference with another witness was gathered from the testimony of E. B. Fish, on whose testimony four employees of Schwarzschild & Sulzberger were indicted Thursday.

Six Women Are Summoned. Subpoenas have been issued for six women, wives of men employed by various packers. All of these men are now in Canada, and the subpoenas for the women have been issued in connection with the disappearance of their husbands. They are: Mrs. Irving A. Vant, wife of the assistant secretary of Swift & Co.; Mrs. E. A. Allen, whose husband, now with the National Packing Company, was formerly secretary of Swift & Co.; Mrs. James Brennan, whose husband is a department manager for Swift & Co.; Mrs. A. R. Fay, wife of the traffic manager for Swift & Co.; Mrs. Frank A. Spink, wife of the manager for the National Packing Company; Mrs. Fred Wilbur, wife of the manager of the lard, tallow and casing department of Swift & Co. It could not be learned tonight whether or not any of the subpoenas had been served.

Beef Price Goes Up Again. OMAHA, Neb., April 15.—On account of the sharp advance made by the packers to retailers on prices of beef, the retailers today made an advance of 25 per cent, raising the price to local consumers 2 1/2 to 5 cents per pound. Retailers are now paying $15 to $20 more per carcass than they were paying two weeks ago. Porterhouse steak is now retailing at 25 cents per pound.

DRIVEN OUT BY THE STANDARD Independent Dealer Called on to Give Evidence. OBERLIN, O., April 15.—S. G. Gibson, a retail oil dealer whose sales are made largely from wagons in the nearby country districts, and who alleges that the Standard Oil Company has waged a relentless war against him with a view of driving him out of business because he does not buy the Standard Oil Company's oil, has received from the Department of Commerce a request for full information with regard to this transaction, stating the name of the representative of the Standard Oil Company, the substance of his complaint, the prices charged by that company to retail dealers before and since, and the result of the repeated complaint.

FORCED UP THE GAS BILLS Brooklyn Company Also Added $12,000,000 to Total Capitalization. NEW YORK, April 15.—(Special.)—Today's session of the legislative committee investigating and dramatic of any that has been held, brought forth the startling admission that the Brooklyn Gas Company, the controlling figure in the gas business in Brooklyn, increased the pressure on the mains at night, thereby causing more gas to be consumed.

TOGO HOLDS OFF

His Plan of Campaign Still a Mystery.

MAY BOTTLE UP FLEET

Let It Go to Vladivostok and Then Besiege It,

OR WORRY WITH TORPEDOES

Hopes of Naval Victory Give Russian War Party the Ascendancy—Britain is Accused of Aiding Japan.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—(4 A. M.)—It is rumored the Baltic squadron met and engaged two British cruisers in the China Sea under the impression they were Japanese, and sank them.

PARIS, April 16.—The correspondent of the Petit Journal at Halifax, French Indo-China, cabling under date of April 15, says: "I am informed that the Russian fleet, 40 vessels strong, ranging at 12 knots and without lights, was sighted in the 17th degree of latitude, steaming in a northerly direction."

SPECIAL CABLE. LONDON, April 16.—Up to an early hour this morning no news had been received from the opposing fleets in the Far Eastern waters, and the belief is growing that there will be no general engagement for some days, at least. This fact is urged by naval strategists who profess to have discussed the matter with Japanese naval experts and is said to be owing to the desire of Admiral Togo not to risk his fleet against the Russian battleships until absolutely compelled to do so.

It is stated that if Rojestvensky shows a desire to sail direct to Vladivostok, he will be permitted to reach there without having to fight the main Japanese fleet. With the Russian Admiral in the harbor at Vladivostok, Togo would resume the tactics he so thoroughly carried out at Port Arthur and would try to pin him up in the harbor until the siege guns could be mounted on land and placed where they could be directed against the Russian fleet in the harbor.

By this method the Japanese could retain control of the sea and their lines of communication to Manchuria would be safe.

MINISTER STABS IN CHURCH

Girl Slaps Him, and He Strikes Her Sweetheart Before Congregation.

LEBANON, Ind., April 15.—(Special.)—Rev. John Dodge, pastor of the Holiness Church here, stung and wounded Oscar Johnston, a member of his congregation, while services were in progress.

The congregation was discussing whether a betrothal should be allowed to preach and the argument waxed so warm that Miss Mamie Chambers became incensed at the minister and slapped him in the face.

The preacher's wife then attacked Miss Chambers, and Johnston, who is said to be Miss Chambers' sweetheart, came to the rescue. The preacher then drew his knife and made for Johnston, plunging the blade into his back. Johnston was carried to a physician's office, where his wounds were pronounced serious. Dodge was arrested and gave bond.

WHOLE FLEET COMING HOME

Pacific Squadron to Be in Portland During June and July.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—(Special.)—The flagship Chicago and the United States steamer Bennington have arrived today at the city, and Vice-Admiral Goodrich in command, and will remain in port until April 23. The Pacific squadron, consisting of eight ships, is expected to arrive on April 25 for Monterey, where it will be anchored until May 1.

The squadron then leaves for San Francisco, where it will remain until June 5, when it sails for Portland, to be present during the early stages of the Fair.

DEFAULTER COMES HOME

C. M. Chamberlain Wanders for Many Years in Cuba.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 15.—C. M. Chamberlain, cashier of the Chamberlain Banking House at Tecumseh, Neb., died here today after a long illness. His death resulted from a wound of the spine which he received in the Civil War, and from which he had suffered ever since. He was commander-in-chief in 1862. He was elected Secretary of State of New York on the Republican ticket in 1855, and held that office for five years. He held many other posts of trust, and was one of Albany's most prominent citizens.

General Halbert E. Payne.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—General Halbert E. Payne, Union veteran of the Civil War and a National Guardsman, died here today, aged 80 years. He was a law partner of Carl Schurz in New York for several years.

Rev. Michael Burnham, D. D.

DENVER, Colo., April 15.—Rev. Michael Burnham, D. D., formerly pastor of the Pilgrims Church, of St. Louis, and for ten years a resident of that city, died today in this city of pneumonia, at 83 years. He came to Denver a few months ago.

John N. Welliscroft.

CINCINNATI, O., April 15.—(Special.)—John N. Welliscroft, aged 35 years, a leading general dealer and distributor, died today in Covington, Ky. He was prominent in Kentucky politics.

King to Meet Emperor.

ROME, April 15.—A telegram from Messina to Giornale di St. Gallen says that King Edward and Queen Alexandra are expected to meet Emperor William at Messina about April 20.

READY TO DIE FOR COUNTRY

Officer of Russian Fleet Says It Will Fight to End.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—A letter has been received here from an officer of the Russian Baltic fleet, in which he reviews the chances of the fleet's defeating

CONTENTS OF TODAY'S PAPER

The Weather. TODAY'S—Showers. Southwesterly winds. YESTERDAY'S—Maximum temperature, 57 deg; minimum, 48. Precipitation, 0.22 inch.

The War in the Far East. Togo's probable strategy against Russian fleet. Page 1. Russians accuse British ships of spying on their fleet. Page 1. Small successes claimed by both armies. Page 1. Russian fleet sighted going northward. Page 1. Riots expected today in St. Petersburg. Page 2. White resigns because his peasant commission is abolished. Page 5. Cartoons show czar's family all dead. Page 5. Warsaw senators sentenced to death. Page 5. Plot to murder Governor of Warsaw. Page 5.

Foreign. Germany and France negotiating on Moroccan question. Page 18. Kaiser wants to settle scores with the Pope. Page 2. National. President arrives at Colorado hunting ground. Page 2. Windy land agent rebuked by Richards. Page 3. Bills opened for new cruises. Page 8. Senate tells policy on Panama railroad rates. Page 9. Identification of Paul Jones' body complete. Page 9. Domestic. Beef trust witnesses flee to Canada and their wives are summoned. Page 1. Chicago will own car lines within three months. Page 2. Woman says father-in-law for cremating husband's body. Page 2. Hyde and Alexander receive equitable war. Page 2. Further violence ends peace conference on Chicago industrial strike. Page 4. Spreckels will fight Rockefeller-Addicks gas combination to a finish. Page 4. Sand Island settlers will fight before they leave. Page 4. J. White Chapman compares Seattle and Portland. Page 4. Because he estranged wife of master mechanic, Lieutenant-Commander of transport Solace may be transferred. Page 1. Mrs. Morse's happier in jail than she would be outside. Page 1. Woman in Southern California thinks she is millionaire's wife. Page 5.

Portland and Vicinity. Needsful work of the Traveler's Aid Association. Page 1. Wanted for sale. Page 10. Bids for lease for Sand Island prove its value. Page 18. Big realty deal freshens construction of 14-story skyscraper. Page 19. Dr. Grant Hkens Rockefeller to a hospital. Page 19. Trail now has the limit of concessionaires. Page 11. Mormon choir from Ogden will come to Exposition. Page 11. Less than a half of the electors of Portland registered for the primary. Page 24. Strong deal made to aid Albee's candidacy. Page 12. Central Oregon will soon have a railway. Page 18. Bids for lease and cow live in one house in "Little Italy." Page 14. Citizens aroused over garbage dump in Albina. Page 10. Deserter found on which several divorce suits filed. Page 26. Contractors who delay street work will suffer financial penalty. Page 38. Civic Improvement Board determined to put a stop to unsanitary conditions. Page 48. Delegates from four Republican clubs assembled to decide plan to down Williams, but no nothing beyond wrangling. Page 1. Sports. California defeats Stanford in track meet. Page 2. Two men's indoor records broken at Columbia meet. Page 16. Ormonde's fight wins $1000 purse in Carter handicap. Page 16. Seattle not willing to meet Multnomah boxer. Page 16. Portland has a strong team in the Giants. Page 17. Fight fans wonder if Britt and White will meet. Page 17. Multnomah men write of club's bright prospects. Page 17. Business men will root for Giants on opening day. Page 17. Commercial and Marine. More travelers Hawaiian planters and sugar trust. Page 33. Profit-taking sales weaken stock prices. Page 33. California prays crop will be smaller than expected. Page 28. Chicago wheat prices fluctuate on crop reports. Page 35. Favorable weekly statement by New York stock market. Page 28. Admiral Kempff expects nine steamers at Astoria. Page 28. Features and Departments. Church announcements. Page 31. Classified advertisements. Page 19-22. Book of special interest to Oregonians. Page 29. Pope Pius X in his magnificent prison. Page 28. The Science of Labor, by Andrew Carnegie. Page 28. Immigration up to the Million Mark. Page 31. Baster Pilgrimage to the Tomb of Moses. Page 40. Hopping Out Yellow Fever at Panama. Page 41. Sherlock Holmes. Page 42. The Belmont Family of Millionaires. Page 30. Tales from Dickens. Page 44. Social. Page 28. Dramatic. Page 20-26. Musical. Page 26. Household and Fashions. Pages 43-43. Youth's Department. Page 45.

Inspired by a common spirit of opposition to Williams for Mayor, and agreed that all his Republican rivals must withdraw save one, else go down to defeat, yet unable to stand together on common ground, envoys from four Republican clubs met last night in the New Deal quarters, at 109 Second street, stowed in a cauldron of debate an hour and a half and adjourned, after having accomplished nothing except to vent themselves of a vast amount of breath.

The conference was of nearly 30 braves from the clubs, assisted by several self-styled outsiders. They were to point out to all the Republican hosts of Portland a common road to party harmony. But the gentlemen could not point out such a common road, even to one another.

They debated and haggled, some proposing that the conference should endorse one of the anti-Williams candidates; others that it simply feel the common sentiment of the gathering; others that it call together a mass meeting of the club members for that purpose; and still others that they bring the rival anti-Williams candidates together and let them choose one of their own number for the running.

But the braves couldn't agree. Amid the battle of notions not one valiant buckled by his armor for Williams. Rowe and Glafke had champions; perhaps Albee, too, but scarce a voice was raised for him. Merrill, Fisher and Cooper were not of grace in the sight of the gentlemen.

The clubs represented were the New Deal, the Republican Club, the Young Men's Republican Club and the Glafke Republican Club.

When one stalwart proposed this, another proposed that. Just as often somebody suggested that the conference decide by straw vote or otherwise whom to boost for the nomination, a Glafke man bucked unless his candidate should be the one boosted. When a Rowe man proposed that the candidates themselves pick out the one to be boosted, a Glafke man declared that the candidates could no more readily agree than the elements then at wrangle. When a New Dealer suggested that the other three clubs join with his own club to boost a candidate, he was told the New Deal, the others refused to be swallowed. And so the debate kept up.

Synopsis of the Wrangle. Here's a synopsis: W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—Let's decide by vote whether we're going to endorse anybody. R. G. Morrow (Glafke boomer)—Where's our authority? J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—We're not here to endorse any candidate. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—The direct primary law gives the people the right to vote their own candidate for Mayor. F. E. Beach (Republican Club)—This rivalry between the candidates will give us a weak nominee and a Democrat will be elected. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—Let's have a mass meeting of Republicans. B. F. Jones (Young Men's Club)—Let's form one big club. J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—Yes, let's unite the clubs. E. C. Robbins (New Dealer and Glafke boomer)—A mass meeting of 500 or 1000 persons has no right to tell others of the party how they shall vote. Thomas Hielop (Rowe boomer)—Let's vote now and endorse somebody. W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—I'm willing. D. J. Quimby (Republican Club)—So am I. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—Come, join the new deal. (Motion killed with a whoop.) C. E. Warrens (Glafke boomer)—We're in no position to join. We're for Glafke. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—The Glafke Club tie up the other clubs? C. E. Lockwood (Republican Club)—The plan to unite the clubs with the New Deal isn't germane to the present purpose. F. E. Beach—Give us a new club. D. J. Quimby—Keep out of the New Deal. Dr. L. Nevelle (Republican Club)—Why so much talk? Let's get down to business. —Bring the candidates together. Let them pick the man to run. Otherwise, defeat. D. J. Quimby—I move a committee confer with the candidates, so as to induce all but one to withdraw. (Motion forgotten.) R. G. Morrow—Only way is to eliminate candidates at primaries. C. M. Idlemann (Young Men's Club)—Can't pull candidate away except by a big organization of entire city. Anybody has right to be candidate. G. C. Moser—Call mass meeting of the whole city; can't influence the thousands of voters any other way. W. R. Chase—Merge all the clubs in the New Deal. Hugh McGuire (Glafke boomer)—Let's compromise on Glafke. Thomas Hielop—Let's take a vote right here. W. R. McGary—Minneapolis got a grafting Mayor out of a fight between candidates like this at Portland. B. F. Jones—Call a mass meeting of all the clubs. G. C. Moser—Call a mass meeting of all Republicans. Lou Wagner (New Dealer)—Give the primaries a chance. What are they for? R. G. Morrow—A mass meeting would

MAIL AGAINST ONE

Yet They Reach No Common Ground.

TALK FIGHTING WILLIAMS

Failure to Combine for That Purpose.

REPUBLICAN BRAVES DIFFER

Each Club Delegate Has His Own Separate Plan of Salvation for Party, and Nothing Results From Meeting.

At this point the brethren seemed lost, with no compass. The George W. Stapleton threw the light of his intelligence on the scene and chased away the clouds by declaring: "No matter how we differ as to candidates, we are united in this—we want the present condition of things in the city government changed. Isn't that so?" "Cries of 'Sure!' 'You're right!' followed.

"You have Glafke men and Rowe men and Albee men and Fisher men," went on Stapleton. "Your common object is to change the Williams administration. You are not going to do it with all those candidates. But you can do it with one. You've got to call them together and let them choose one of their own number for the nomination; others that they bring the rival anti-Williams candidates together and let them choose one of their own number for the running."

But the braves couldn't agree. Amid the battle of notions not one valiant buckled by his armor for Williams. Rowe and Glafke had champions; perhaps Albee, too, but scarce a voice was raised for him. Merrill, Fisher and Cooper were not of grace in the sight of the gentlemen.

The clubs represented were the New Deal, the Republican Club, the Young Men's Republican Club and the Glafke Republican Club.

When one stalwart proposed this, another proposed that. Just as often somebody suggested that the conference decide by straw vote or otherwise whom to boost for the nomination, a Glafke man bucked unless his candidate should be the one boosted. When a Rowe man proposed that the candidates themselves pick out the one to be boosted, a Glafke man declared that the candidates could no more readily agree than the elements then at wrangle. When a New Dealer suggested that the other three clubs join with his own club to boost a candidate, he was told the New Deal, the others refused to be swallowed. And so the debate kept up.

Synopsis of the Wrangle. Here's a synopsis: W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—Let's decide by vote whether we're going to endorse anybody. R. G. Morrow (Glafke boomer)—Where's our authority? J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—We're not here to endorse any candidate. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—The direct primary law gives the people the right to vote their own candidate for Mayor. F. E. Beach (Republican Club)—This rivalry between the candidates will give us a weak nominee and a Democrat will be elected. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—Let's have a mass meeting of Republicans. B. F. Jones (Young Men's Club)—Let's form one big club. J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—Yes, let's unite the clubs. E. C. Robbins (New Dealer and Glafke boomer)—A mass meeting of 500 or 1000 persons has no right to tell others of the party how they shall vote. Thomas Hielop (Rowe boomer)—Let's vote now and endorse somebody. W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—I'm willing. D. J. Quimby (Republican Club)—So am I. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—Come, join the new deal. (Motion killed with a whoop.) C. E. Warrens (Glafke boomer)—We're in no position to join. We're for Glafke. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—The Glafke Club tie up the other clubs? C. E. Lockwood (Republican Club)—The plan to unite the clubs with the New Deal isn't germane to the present purpose. F. E. Beach—Give us a new club. D. J. Quimby—Keep out of the New Deal. Dr. L. Nevelle (Republican Club)—Why so much talk? Let's get down to business. —Bring the candidates together. Let them pick the man to run. Otherwise, defeat. D. J. Quimby—I move a committee confer with the candidates, so as to induce all but one to withdraw. (Motion forgotten.) R. G. Morrow—Only way is to eliminate candidates at primaries. C. M. Idlemann (Young Men's Club)—Can't pull candidate away except by a big organization of entire city. Anybody has right to be candidate. G. C. Moser—Call mass meeting of the whole city; can't influence the thousands of voters any other way. W. R. Chase—Merge all the clubs in the New Deal. Hugh McGuire (Glafke boomer)—Let's compromise on Glafke. Thomas Hielop—Let's take a vote right here. W. R. McGary—Minneapolis got a grafting Mayor out of a fight between candidates like this at Portland. B. F. Jones—Call a mass meeting of all the clubs. G. C. Moser—Call a mass meeting of all Republicans. Lou Wagner (New Dealer)—Give the primaries a chance. What are they for? R. G. Morrow—A mass meeting would

EMBAILED

Officers Rebelled at Commander's Unheard-of Action, and Were Exiled in Rooms

Now They Are Determined That He Shall Not Captain Next Voyage, and Mrs. Costello Has Reported Her Wrongs.

Lost in the Fog.

At this point the brethren seemed lost, with no compass. The George W. Stapleton threw the light of his intelligence on the scene and chased away the clouds by declaring: "No matter how we differ as to candidates, we are united in this—we want the present condition of things in the city government changed. Isn't that so?" "Cries of 'Sure!' 'You're right!' followed.

"You have Glafke men and Rowe men and Albee men and Fisher men," went on Stapleton. "Your common object is to change the Williams administration. You are not going to do it with all those candidates. But you can do it with one. You've got to call them together and let them choose one of their own number for the nomination; others that they bring the rival anti-Williams candidates together and let them choose one of their own number for the running."

But the braves couldn't agree. Amid the battle of notions not one valiant buckled by his armor for Williams. Rowe and Glafke had champions; perhaps Albee, too, but scarce a voice was raised for him. Merrill, Fisher and Cooper were not of grace in the sight of the gentlemen.

The clubs represented were the New Deal, the Republican Club, the Young Men's Republican Club and the Glafke Republican Club.

When one stalwart proposed this, another proposed that. Just as often somebody suggested that the conference decide by straw vote or otherwise whom to boost for the nomination, a Glafke man bucked unless his candidate should be the one boosted. When a Rowe man proposed that the candidates themselves pick out the one to be boosted, a Glafke man declared that the candidates could no more readily agree than the elements then at wrangle. When a New Dealer suggested that the other three clubs join with his own club to boost a candidate, he was told the New Deal, the others refused to be swallowed. And so the debate kept up.

Synopsis of the Wrangle. Here's a synopsis: W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—Let's decide by vote whether we're going to endorse anybody. R. G. Morrow (Glafke boomer)—Where's our authority? J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—We're not here to endorse any candidate. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—The direct primary law gives the people the right to vote their own candidate for Mayor. F. E. Beach (Republican Club)—This rivalry between the candidates will give us a weak nominee and a Democrat will be elected. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—Let's have a mass meeting of Republicans. B. F. Jones (Young Men's Club)—Let's form one big club. J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—Yes, let's unite the clubs. E. C. Robbins (New Dealer and Glafke boomer)—A mass meeting of 500 or 1000 persons has no right to tell others of the party how they shall vote. Thomas Hielop (Rowe boomer)—Let's vote now and endorse somebody. W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—I'm willing. D. J. Quimby (Republican Club)—So am I. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—Come, join the new deal. (Motion killed with a whoop.) C. E. Warrens (Glafke boomer)—We're in no position to join. We're for Glafke. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—The Glafke Club tie up the other clubs? C. E. Lockwood (Republican Club)—The plan to unite the clubs with the New Deal isn't germane to the present purpose. F. E. Beach—Give us a new club. D. J. Quimby—Keep out of the New Deal. Dr. L. Nevelle (Republican Club)—Why so much talk? Let's get down to business. —Bring the candidates together. Let them pick the man to run. Otherwise, defeat. D. J. Quimby—I move a committee confer with the candidates, so as to induce all but one to withdraw. (Motion forgotten.) R. G. Morrow—Only way is to eliminate candidates at primaries. C. M. Idlemann (Young Men's Club)—Can't pull candidate away except by a big organization of entire city. Anybody has right to be candidate. G. C. Moser—Call mass meeting of the whole city; can't influence the thousands of voters any other way. W. R. Chase—Merge all the clubs in the New Deal. Hugh McGuire (Glafke boomer)—Let's compromise on Glafke. Thomas Hielop—Let's take a vote right here. W. R. McGary—Minneapolis got a grafting Mayor out of a fight between candidates like this at Portland. B. F. Jones—Call a mass meeting of all the clubs. G. C. Moser—Call a mass meeting of all Republicans. Lou Wagner (New Dealer)—Give the primaries a chance. What are they for? R. G. Morrow—A mass meeting would

EMBAILED

Officers Rebelled at Commander's Unheard-of Action, and Were Exiled in Rooms

Now They Are Determined That He Shall Not Captain Next Voyage, and Mrs. Costello Has Reported Her Wrongs.

Lost in the Fog.

At this point the brethren seemed lost, with no compass. The George W. Stapleton threw the light of his intelligence on the scene and chased away the clouds by declaring: "No matter how we differ as to candidates, we are united in this—we want the present condition of things in the city government changed. Isn't that so?" "Cries of 'Sure!' 'You're right!' followed.

"You have Glafke men and Rowe men and Albee men and Fisher men," went on Stapleton. "Your common object is to change the Williams administration. You are not going to do it with all those candidates. But you can do it with one. You've got to call them together and let them choose one of their own number for the nomination; others that they bring the rival anti-Williams candidates together and let them choose one of their own number for the running."

But the braves couldn't agree. Amid the battle of notions not one valiant buckled by his armor for Williams. Rowe and Glafke had champions; perhaps Albee, too, but scarce a voice was raised for him. Merrill, Fisher and Cooper were not of grace in the sight of the gentlemen.

The clubs represented were the New Deal, the Republican Club, the Young Men's Republican Club and the Glafke Republican Club.

When one stalwart proposed this, another proposed that. Just as often somebody suggested that the conference decide by straw vote or otherwise whom to boost for the nomination, a Glafke man bucked unless his candidate should be the one boosted. When a Rowe man proposed that the candidates themselves pick out the one to be boosted, a Glafke man declared that the candidates could no more readily agree than the elements then at wrangle. When a New Dealer suggested that the other three clubs join with his own club to boost a candidate, he was told the New Deal, the others refused to be swallowed. And so the debate kept up.

Synopsis of the Wrangle. Here's a synopsis: W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—Let's decide by vote whether we're going to endorse anybody. R. G. Morrow (Glafke boomer)—Where's our authority? J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—We're not here to endorse any candidate. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—The direct primary law gives the people the right to vote their own candidate for Mayor. F. E. Beach (Republican Club)—This rivalry between the candidates will give us a weak nominee and a Democrat will be elected. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—Let's have a mass meeting of Republicans. B. F. Jones (Young Men's Club)—Let's form one big club. J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—Yes, let's unite the clubs. E. C. Robbins (New Dealer and Glafke boomer)—A mass meeting of 500 or 1000 persons has no right to tell others of the party how they shall vote. Thomas Hielop (Rowe boomer)—Let's vote now and endorse somebody. W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—I'm willing. D. J. Quimby (Republican Club)—So am I. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—Come, join the new deal. (Motion killed with a whoop.) C. E. Warrens (Glafke boomer)—We're in no position to join. We're for Glafke. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—The Glafke Club tie up the other clubs? C. E. Lockwood (Republican Club)—The plan to unite the clubs with the New Deal isn't germane to the present purpose. F. E. Beach—Give us a new club. D. J. Quimby—Keep out of the New Deal. Dr. L. Nevelle (Republican Club)—Why so much talk? Let's get down to business. —Bring the candidates together. Let them pick the man to run. Otherwise, defeat. D. J. Quimby—I move a committee confer with the candidates, so as to induce all but one to withdraw. (Motion forgotten.) R. G. Morrow—Only way is to eliminate candidates at primaries. C. M. Idlemann (Young Men's Club)—Can't pull candidate away except by a big organization of entire city. Anybody has right to be candidate. G. C. Moser—Call mass meeting of the whole city; can't influence the thousands of voters any other way. W. R. Chase—Merge all the clubs in the New Deal. Hugh McGuire (Glafke boomer)—Let's compromise on Glafke. Thomas Hielop—Let's take a vote right here. W. R. McGary—Minneapolis got a grafting Mayor out of a fight between candidates like this at Portland. B. F. Jones—Call a mass meeting of all the clubs. G. C. Moser—Call a mass meeting of all Republicans. Lou Wagner (New Dealer)—Give the primaries a chance. What are they for? R. G. Morrow—A mass meeting would

EMBAILED

Officers Rebelled at Commander's Unheard-of Action, and Were Exiled in Rooms

Now They Are Determined That He Shall Not Captain Next Voyage, and Mrs. Costello Has Reported Her Wrongs.

Lost in the Fog.

At this point the brethren seemed lost, with no compass. The George W. Stapleton threw the light of his intelligence on the scene and chased away the clouds by declaring: "No matter how we differ as to candidates, we are united in this—we want the present condition of things in the city government changed. Isn't that so?" "Cries of 'Sure!' 'You're right!' followed.

"You have Glafke men and Rowe men and Albee men and Fisher men," went on Stapleton. "Your common object is to change the Williams administration. You are not going to do it with all those candidates. But you can do it with one. You've got to call them together and let them choose one of their own number for the nomination; others that they bring the rival anti-Williams candidates together and let them choose one of their own number for the running."

But the braves couldn't agree. Amid the battle of notions not one valiant buckled by his armor for Williams. Rowe and Glafke had champions; perhaps Albee, too, but scarce a voice was raised for him. Merrill, Fisher and Cooper were not of grace in the sight of the gentlemen.

The clubs represented were the New Deal, the Republican Club, the Young Men's Republican Club and the Glafke Republican Club.

When one stalwart proposed this, another proposed that. Just as often somebody suggested that the conference decide by straw vote or otherwise whom to boost for the nomination, a Glafke man bucked unless his candidate should be the one boosted. When a Rowe man proposed that the candidates themselves pick out the one to be boosted, a Glafke man declared that the candidates could no more readily agree than the elements then at wrangle. When a New Dealer suggested that the other three clubs join with his own club to boost a candidate, he was told the New Deal, the others refused to be swallowed. And so the debate kept up.

Synopsis of the Wrangle. Here's a synopsis: W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—Let's decide by vote whether we're going to endorse anybody. R. G. Morrow (Glafke boomer)—Where's our authority? J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—We're not here to endorse any candidate. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—The direct primary law gives the people the right to vote their own candidate for Mayor. F. E. Beach (Republican Club)—This rivalry between the candidates will give us a weak nominee and a Democrat will be elected. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—Let's have a mass meeting of Republicans. B. F. Jones (Young Men's Club)—Let's form one big club. J. M. Mann (New Dealer)—Yes, let's unite the clubs. E. C. Robbins (New Dealer and Glafke boomer)—A mass meeting of 500 or 1000 persons has no right to tell others of the party how they shall vote. Thomas Hielop (Rowe boomer)—Let's vote now and endorse somebody. W. R. Chase (New Dealer)—I'm willing. D. J. Quimby (Republican Club)—So am I. W. R. McGary (New Dealer)—Come, join the new deal. (Motion killed with a whoop.) C. E. Warrens (Glafke boomer)—We're in no position to join. We're for Glafke. G. C. Moser (New Dealer)—The Glafke Club tie up the other clubs? C. E. Lockwood (Republican Club)—The plan to unite the clubs with the New Deal isn't germane to the present purpose. F. E. Beach—Give