

The games, and prizes were awarded to Miss G. M. ...

San Grael Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church held a pleasant social Monday evening in the parlors of the First Church.

Bureau Council, No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, gave the sixth of its series of prize whist contests last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tuttle recently entertained the Crystal Springs Whist Club at their home, which was beautifully decorated.

Miss Adella R. Lutz gave a dramatic recital at Lentis last Friday for the benefit of the ...

bride, who was beautifully gowned in soft white silk trimmed with point lace, was attended by Miss Edna Barrell, of Portland, who wore white also, and each carried a large bouquet of white roses.

Kerron-Collinson.

Miss Edith Alice Collinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Collinson, was married to Herbert F. Kerron on Wednesday evening.

Nelson-Smith.

Miss Anne Conger, youngest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, of Hood

THE WOMAN'S STORE SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON Monday and Tuesday Only

We are offering a number of special values throughout our store which will prove of surpassing interest since the warm weather is so nearly upon us.

$3.50 Waists $2.15 Undermuslins $2.00, $2.50 VALUES $1.35.

The Finest Spring Millinery

The prices throughout our immense line of millinery are so low that to offer special prices becomes almost an impossibility.

HAVE YOU FUR GARMENTS?

If so, and they need to be remodeled and repaired for the coming season, we can do the work now at a smaller cost to you than at any other time.

R. MacGowan was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at North Mount Tabor. The rooms were prettily decorated in lavender and ivory.

Anna English; trio, from opera "Donizetti" "Mme. Ferrari, R. Gowanlock and Signor Ferrari; music, "Popples," Neil Maret.

The students of Columbia University are arranging to give a play very soon, their friends anticipating the affair with great interest.

The students of Columbia University have organized a tennis club, and are looking forward to a jolly series of games this summer.

The last of a series of "at homes" given by the membership of the Scottish Rite Masons during the winter will be held at their cathedral, Morrison and Lowland streets, on Thursday evening, April 27.

Arthur Cotton Newell, of the Newell Riverside Academy, will lecture on "Shakespeare and His Contemporaries" at the next meeting of the Women's Club.

The concert soon to be given by the Chamblaine Club, under Mrs. Edgar E. Courser's direction, will be the largest affair of the kind ever given in Portland.

Best Engraved Wedding and Calling Cards W. G. Smith & Co. Washington Building, Fourth and Washington.

JUST RETURNED FROM VOCAL STUDIES AT NEW YORK

Among those students of music who have returned to Oregon from New York after further perfecting themselves in vocal art, not one has a more promising career before her than Miss M. Evelyn Hurlley, contralto, of this city.

MISS M. EVELYN HURLEY, CONTRALTO.

fit of the public school library. Miss Almada Hand opened the programme with a fine piano solo, and Miss Lusa's enjoyable recitations were alternated with songs by a number of children from the primary department of the school.

Banarjee Circle met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Edward Alden Beals, 675 Everett street. Many members and friends were present to hear news from Mrs. Sukpoda Banarjee, in whose work for the girls of Calcutta so much interest is being taken.

Mrs. B. Hansen entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Norwegian Lutheran Church, Wednesday afternoon, at her residence, 1731 Portsmouth avenue, a very pleasing programme being rendered, followed by light refreshments.

Mrs. Sarah Ross, of Astoria, who came to Portland to attend the graduating exercises of the medical college, was entertained by several of her Portland friends. Mrs. Ross' son, Thomas, is a member of the graduating class.

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Danish Lutheran Church were entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. M. M. Olsen, at her home in Webster street. An interesting programme was followed by refreshments.

The Tillikum Club was entertained on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lucas, who gave their guests a very enjoyable evening.

The Dux Christus Reading Circle of Mizpah Presbyterian Church was entertained by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, on last Monday afternoon. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Charles E. Hill, and Mrs. Max Shillock and Mrs. Miller sang several suitable hymns.

Mrs. C. T. Miller entertained the members of the Missionary Society of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, and was assisted in making the tea a pleasant occasion by Mrs. George Pratt. A talk by Miss Taylor, a missionary from Mexico, was a feature of the afternoon.

The musical department of the Portland Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon last at the residence of Mrs. O. B. Benson. The following officers for the year were elected: President, Mrs. F. M. Branch; vice-president, Mrs. O. B. Thornstrom; secretary, Mrs. E. C. Frost; treasurer, Mrs. George C. Flinders.

THE ideal weather we are having will no doubt bring many people out to the Easter Monday tea, which the Old Ladies' Home Society will give tomorrow.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood is in charge of the tea table arrangement this year. Mrs. Frederick H. Page and Mrs. George W. McBride will have the punch table under their supervision.

The annual ball of the First Battery, Field Artillery, Oregon National Guard, will be a brilliant event at the Armory tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas was elected regent of Multnomah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Wednesday afternoon, when the chapter met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Noon, Jr., in Holladay's.

The management of the Patton Home were greatly pleased with the success of the April tea, given on Tuesday afternoon, many friends from the West Side attending the affair, which the old ladies enjoyed thoroughly also.

One of the most delightful of recent card parties was given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. M. Cohn, Mrs. E. Schwartz and Mrs. Max G. Cohen for thirty ladies. Five hundred was played until late in the afternoon after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mrs. Simon Harris was the recipient of a delightful surprise in the form of a birthday party on Wednesday evening, tendered her by twenty-five of her most intimate friends.

The eighth birthday of P. Selling was celebrated on Wednesday at the family home, 494 Main street, many of Mr. Selling's friends and relatives calling to present congratulations and to drink his health.

The Daisy Whist Club met at the home of M. W. Mathieson on Monday evening. The first prize was won by Mrs. E. Nelson, and the consolation fell to F. W. Orth. The club will meet at the home of P. W. Orth, 777 Cole street, on April 24.

A unique and enjoyable affair took place on Friday evening at the hall of Fram Assembly, No. 121, United Artisans. E. M. Cederberg, a charter member of the assembly, has been recently appointed vice-consul of Sweden and Norway for the jurisdiction of Oregon, and the members of the assembly gave Mr. and Mrs. Cederberg a reception in honor of this appointment.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met last week at the home of Mrs. H. S. Hudson, 1677 Fleke street. The subject of study for the afternoon was "The Renaissance," and the programme announced by the hostess was as follows: "Causes and Conditions at Time of the Renaissance," Mrs. G. M. Gilman; "Contemporary Situation of Italy, Germany, France and England," Mrs. A. Crofton; Mrs. Robert Smith; Mrs. F. M. Miles and Mrs. Julia Canto.

The winning side of the Stephenson Debating Club was entertained by the losing side last Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall at University Park. After a short programme, games were played and then a delicious supper was served.

On Friday evening the "Rose City Glee Club" gave a very entertaining whist party at the residence of Walter Kicker, 21 East Ninth, North, in honor of the newly elected officers. Prizes were awarded, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Among the delegates to the 17th annual meeting of the Woman's North Pacific Presbyterian Board of Missions, held last week in Tacoma, were: Mrs. John Goss, Mrs. G. B. Collins, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Elsie McKee, Miss Johnstone, Mrs. E. P. Geary, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. E. P. Mosman, Mrs. William S. Gilbert, Mrs. J. S. Dunning and Mrs. James G. Wilcox.

The Dux Christus Reading Circle of Mizpah Presbyterian Church was entertained by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, on last Monday afternoon. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. Charles E. Hill, and Mrs. Max Shillock and Mrs. Miller sang several suitable hymns.

Mrs. C. T. Miller entertained the members of the Missionary Society of the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon, and was assisted in making the tea a pleasant occasion by Mrs. George Pratt. A talk by Miss Taylor, a missionary from Mexico, was a feature of the afternoon.

The musical department of the Portland Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon last at the residence of Mrs. O. B. Benson. The following officers for the year were elected: President, Mrs. F. M. Branch; vice-president, Mrs. O. B. Thornstrom; secretary, Mrs. E. C. Frost; treasurer, Mrs. George C. Flinders.

A unique and enjoyable affair took place on Friday evening at the hall of Events of the Week. A unique and enjoyable affair took place on Friday evening at the hall of