WANTED, A BRIDE TO TAME A KING

Duke of Connaught Shrinks From Giving His Daughter to Alfonso.

KING AND KAISER COMPETE

Each Anxious to Furnish Princess Who Will Wed Royal Young Scapegrace and Thus Score Against the Other.

LONDON, April 29.—The prospect of having a King for a son-in-law does not seem to be a great boon to the Duke of Connaught, whose daughter, the Princess Margaret Victoria, has been selected to be the future consort of King Alfonso of Spain, according to court rumors.

There is another reason for their anxiety for the King to marry. The chances of annexation would be materially diminished if there should be an heir to the throne. The question of the marriage to the Princess Margaret Victoria is by no means shelved, as the Princess appears to be the most suitable bride for Alfonso, and it is not likely that the Spanish Ministers will allow the question to be dropped.

Edward and William Rivals. It is probable that powerful influences will be brought to bear on the Duke of Connaught to overcome his opposition, as it is believed King Edward favors the match. Rumor has it that the English Sovereign especially desires an alliance between himself and the reigning house in Spain, for the reason that such a marriage would check the ambitions of Kaiser William, who has indistinctly sought on several occasions to foster an alliance between King Alfonso and some one of the German Princesses.

GENEVA, Switzerland, April 29.—Earthquake shocks were felt here at 2:45 o'clock this morning. The inhabitants were somewhat alarmed, and many of them rushed into the streets, but the damage done in this city was slight.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKES VALOIS

Houses Cracked and Panic Caused in Swiss Canton. The shocks were felt throughout the Canton of Valais and elsewhere. They were accompanied by subterranean rumblings. Some houses were damaged in the Canton of Valais. The shocks apparently were more severe at Chamontz and in its neighborhood than elsewhere.

PLAGUE MAY DEPOPULATE CITY

Corpses Encumber Streets of Pisagua, Chile. SAN ANTONIO, April 29.—Passengers from Chilean ports, according to a dispatch to the Express from Pisagua and Iquique, bring the first full information concerning the terrible ravages of bubonic plague in the city of Pisagua, Chile. For some time before their departure, deaths in Pisagua had ranged from 10 to 20 a day, and the authorities were then unable to enforce burials. Corpses were thrown into the streets to decompose and spread contagion. But little headway had been made in the fight on the disease, and it seemed as though the entire population of that Chilean port might be exterminated by the plague.

SCHWAB HAS NO CONTRACT

Russia Too Busy to Decide on Rebuilding Navy. ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—Charles M. Schwab, the American steel magnate, who arrived here April 22 for the purpose of endeavoring to secure the Russian government's order for the construction of a new fleet at a cost of $100,000,000, has not as yet succeeded in his object. The government, while recognizing the necessity of reconstructing the navy, has its hands so full of other matters pertaining to the war and the internal disturbances that it has no time to take up

NORWAY WILL ACT ALONE

Create Separate Consulates, Having Rejected Crown Prince's Plan. SPECIAL CABLE. CHRISTIANA, April 29.—It is not clear to the country what purpose the Crown Prince thought to serve by paying his present visit to Christiania. He has had several conferences with ministers and politicians on the situation. All of them have made it plain to him that Norway will not abate one jot of her demands for separate consuls. The Crown Prince seems undecided. There is a vague impression that he would sanction the change if his advisers in Sweden would consent.

LONDON, April 29.—(Special.)—Londoners are patiently awaiting the coming of the yacht of the late Queen Draga of Serbia, which was sold to a business man and is being exhibited now on the Danube. The owners, it is said, have made a fortune out of the yacht as far, and will exhibit it on the Rhine and Thames. The yacht was presented to Serbia's murdered Queen as a wedding present by the municipality of Belgrade and is a magnificent craft.

QUEEN DRAGA'S YACHT SHOWN

Fortune Being Made Out of Gift From Belgrade.

McIntyre Must Serve Sentence

LONDON, April 29.—The extradition of Arthur McIntyre, alias Thomas, of St. Louis, who was arrested here April 8, charged with embezzlement in the United States, was granted today. McIntyre formerly was the head of a grain speculation concern in St. Louis. He disappeared when under sentence to 18 months' imprisonment after conviction of fraud.

Stromboli Showers Hot Rocks

NEW YORK, April 29.—The volcano Stromboli is in eruption, called the Herald's correspondent at Catania, Italy. There has been a heavy fall of stones and much lava is flowing in two streams down opposite sides of the mountain. The eruption is accompanied by frequent earthquake shocks. A German scientist, Dr. Schultz, who tried to approach the mountain, received serious injuries.

ITALIAN WOMAN'S REVENGE

Cuts Out Eyes of Her Brother's Children and Disappears.

LONDON, April 29.—(Special.)—From Naples there comes a most remarkable story of cruelty on the part of a young woman, who believes that her brother had ill-treated her, took his two children, aged 3 and 5 years, out on a lonely road and there cut their eyes with a butcher knife. The shrieks of the little ones attracted a crowd of people, but the woman escaped to the olive woods. There she met a man to whom she gave a letter addressed to the parish priest. In the letter she confessed her crime, declaring she intended to commit suicide and that she had committed the awful deed in order to bring lasting grief to her brother and his wife. Searching parties have been unable to find the woman, dead or alive.

MIND GONE AT 105 YEARS

Veteran of War of 1812 Does Not Realize Honors Conferred.

UTICA, N. Y., April 29.—(Special.)—Hiram Cronk, of Dunbrook, a small town near here, the only survivor of the War of 1812, was 105 years old today. H. R. Richards, of Range, N. Y., representing the New Jersey Society of the War of 1812, in company with representatives of the different associations, called on Cronk at his home to extend congratulations and make him an honorary member of the New Jersey Society. Mr. Cronk is in his second childhood and realized little of what occurred. He is physically strong and sees without glasses almost as well as he ever could. He cannot express his desires clearly, and they are known and met by anticipation. In all probability Cronk will not see his 106th birthday.

COUSIN WAS A BRAWLER

Champion Jeffries' Namesake Relative Leaves Reputation Behind.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 29.—(Special.)—J. J. Jeffries, a cousin of the champion heavyweight pugilist and formerly a saloon-keeper in this city, died here tonight from cancer resulting from a blow in the abdomen. Jeffries was a great fighter and was in brawls almost continuously. He was greatly feared by all those not in his "gang." Jeffries weighed 260 pounds when he was first afflicted with the cancer and taken to the hospital a year ago, but he was reduced to a mere shadow before his death. He was in the hospital almost a year, he leaves a widow and one son.

WHEAT BOATS FAST IN ICE

Snow Storm Sweeps Winnipeg's Harbor—Navigation in Danger.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 29.—(Special.)—After navigation had opened at Fort William under the brightest of auspices for years, all the big wheat boats are now held up in the harbor by a blinding snow storm, which endangers navigation. The steamer Fairmount, wheat laden, was driven aground at the entrance to the channel, and the steamer Miles is stuck in the ice a quarter of a mile out.

Vogel Takes Bigelow's Place

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 29.—Fred Vogel, Jr., was today elected president of the First National Bank, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Frank G. Bigelow. Mr. Vogel is one of the wealthiest business men in Milwaukee.
