PLANS FOR PIONEER REUNION.—Preparations for the 23d annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association are being matured as rapidly as possible. The meeting will take place in the armory in this city on Thursday, June 15. The exercises will be very informal, mainly in the nature of an old-time experience meeting and a social reunion. Length of days in one's lifetime does not make long addresses especially attractive, even should they be of particular historic value; hence the custom in vogue in legislative as-semblies sometimes of reading certain measures "by title" will be resorted to hereafter in annual reunions. Emphasis will be given to the social side of pioneer life, particularly on this occasion, as from information the secretary, George H.
 Himes, is securing, it is believed that a large number of pioneers will be in Portland this year than ever before—first, to attend the reunion, and, second, to visit the Lewis and Clark Exposition, an event which could not have been possible had not their exploration been followed by settlement; and the last condition is as important as the first, and ought to be so recognized. The Woman's Auxiliary, through its chairman, Mrs. C. M. Cartwright, so appointed by the board of directors of the Pioneer Association at a recent meeting, with power to act, is called to meet at the home of the chairman, 215 Madison street, next Thursday at 2 P. M. to begin making plans for the annual pioneer banquet.

TAGGART FOR CITY ATTORNEY.—Among the Republican candidates for office in the primary election is the name of Edward T. Taggart for City Attorney. Mr.
 Taggart is a young lawyer of ability and prominence, and, if elected, will give the city an able, conscientious and competent official. He is a graduate of the law department of the University of Michigan and is considered by the bench and bar one of the leading young lawyers of the city. He is the protégé of no faction or clique, but has the confidence and support of all those who believe in equal rights for all and special privileges for none.

SOCIAL AT GRACE CHURCH.—Many members and friends of Grace M. E. Church enjoyed a social reception given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church last

SALE OF LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION COMMU-TATION TICKETS REOPENS MONDAY

In response to the overwhelming demand upon Lewis and Clark Exposition headquarters yesterday, it has been decided to afford another opportunity to the public to buy commutation tickets. A special sale will be reopened for a period of 15 days only, beginning Monday morning at 8 o'clock, at Wood, Clarke & Co.'s store, Fourth and Washington streets.
 The commutation tickets are offered at the rate of 17 admissions—or the entire season—at $20, or 20 admissions for $12.50. In this connection, it is to be clearly understood that there will be no family tickets of any kind. No stockholders' passes will be issued excepting the five single admission souvenir tickets heretofore promised by the board of directors to all individuals who paid up their stock subscriptions in full previous to June 1, 1905.

There are several erroneous impressions as to the issuance of so-called family tickets and passes, and this final announcement is made to emphasize the necessity and importance of taking advantage at once of the special inducement.

OFFER EVERY CONVENIENCE
 Mr. Gray Introduces New Store Methods That Meet With Instant Approval.

At 259 and 271 Morrison street Mr.
 Gray has given to Portland his Twentieth Century Store the distinction of having the finest exclusive men's wear store in the United States and has introduced new ideas for the comfort and convenience of his patrons and visitors. He has set apart a commodious room, termed a reception-room. This room is handsomely furnished with rocking-chairs, in which you may sit and rest, a large center-table, on which is placed for your use a free telephone; also stationery supplies, should you wish to write. Mr.
 Gray while not posing as a philanthropist, did recognize the need of such a place for the public down-town, and proceeded at once to supply it. His action in this matter is certainly commendable and his example should be followed by other firms, in view of the fact that we will have a great many strangers in Portland during the next few months, and such conveniences will be a great advertisement for Portland, indicating that local merchants are public-spirited and just a little ahead of the fellow-merchants throughout the East. The providing of such conveniences would certainly make a splendid impression on our visitors. The public will heartily indorse the enterprise displayed by Mr.
 Gray in fitting up his beautiful establishment.

No expense has been spared by Mr.
 Gray in the equipment and arrangement of the store. It contains 150 of the very latest model French plate showcases, all of which are kept beautifully decorated with the latest indoors-wear apparel produced. No firm in New York City displays finer grades than are shown by this store in Portland. The shelves are all of most modern design, all quarter-sawn oak of select quality. The display tables are massive Colonial style, also best selected quarter-sawn oak, and perfectly arranged. On these tables the immense stock of high-class clothing is kept, also handsome wardrobe cases with slide-up glass doors, in which are kept fine full-dress, Tuxedo and frock suits. You will certainly be astonished when shown the high grades of merchandise carried by Mr. Gray in all departments. Mr. Gray is greatly pleased at the appreciation of his efforts shown by the people of Portland and also of the patronage so generously bestowed from the very day his doors were opened for business, and he is confirmed in his belief that Portland is far and away the best town in the entire Northwest.
 Mr. Gray extends a most cordial invitation to all readers of The Oregonian to visit his Twentieth Century Store and see for themselves what a real modern establishment is like.
