SEATTLE, May 6.—(Special.)—Essick pitched another fine game today. He was touched up for seven hits, but they were scattered through as many innings, and as the errors behind him did not count, he was never in danger. The locals threw several chances to score by reckless running of the bases.

Williams was a puzzle, and had it not been for his wildness, he would have had a chance to win his game. He walked three men and hit two, and two of these came across the plate with runs. The other run was an earned one, Eddie Householder leading off in the sixth with a three-base hit, and McCredie following with a double. The locals gave Williams the support, but he could not launch hits off of Essick, and Portland would not err when errors meant runs.

track athletes took a long contemplated revenge on the Illinois University this afternoon, whipping the Champaign men by an overwhelming score. Twice the Illinoisans have won in indoor sports from Stagg's proteges during the winter season, and today Stagg was happy as he watched his men romp away with two-thirds of the events. Illinois' showing was a surprise. In only one event, the shotput, in which they made a clean sweep, did they do creditable work. Chicago swept the board in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the hurdles. Chicago started the scoring with a rush, three maroon-clad hurdlers beating the tape ahead of Kline and Ware, the Illinois pair. Catlin, as had been generally conceded, won in handy fashion. In the 100-yard dash nine points were notched up in Chicago's column, when Hogsens, when Blair six inches behind and Baker close after, romped across the line four yards ahead of Blankley, the nearest Illinois contestant. Total score, Chicago 65, Illinois 25.
