The musical and literary programme provided for the New York Society meeting, on Tuesday evening, was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience, assembled in Alisky hall. Miss Gertrude Rockwell's piano solo was the first number, which was followed by a song by Miss Lena Harwas. Miss Elizabeth Hill gave one of her delightful readings, entitled, "In the Usual Way." She was heard again during the evening and heartily enjoyed by the appreciative audience. Sidney Rasmussen made his first appearance in public singing, "King of the Wind" with excellent voice and expression. Miss Sally piano solo and the vocal number by Miss Nina Wenderoth, received much applause. The latter's dramatic soprano voice would do credit to a much older singer. Miss Frances Bingham also pleased the audience with a song, Mrs. Edward A. Beals was piano accompanist for several of the singers. After the conclusion of the programme, Mr. Stevenson, as chairman of the entertainment committee, expressed the thanks of the society to those who had so generously contributed to the evening's pleasure. Altogether it was the most delightful evening the New Yorkers have spent together. Their next meeting will be held on Friday evening, May 12, at the City Hall.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met last week with Mrs. George Dunham, East Forty-first and Clinton streets. The house was tastefully decorated with roses, jonquils and plants. The programme for the afternoon announced by Mrs. Florence E. Stallings included a piano solo by Miss Mabel Starboard, a vocal solo by Mrs. Max Shillock and a piano selection by Mrs. E. Marshall. These were followed by a lecture by H. H. Herdman, the subject being "Literary Achievements of the English People." The speaker was introduced by the president of the club, Mrs. Warren S. White, and after the lecture appropriate remarks were given by Rev. William A. M. Brock, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. B. Manly, Mrs. Chipman, Mrs. W. Hall and Mrs. Florence E. Stallings. Guests and members numbered 60. At the next meeting the annual business meeting will be held with Mrs. Warren S. White, 344 Hall street, on Tuesday afternoon, May 3.

Miss Sadie Ford gave a delightful musical last Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Bertha Rowena Templeton, who has recently returned home from Chicago, where she has been cultivating her very decided musical talent. Several pieces were rendered by Miss Templeton, one of the number being "Summer," by Chaminade. Other charming soloists were Miss Lytle, Miss McConnell, Miss Edgington, Miss Williams and Miss Ford. Miss Elsie Larson pleased the company with a violin selection, and another feature of the afternoon was the group of fortune-tellers, who amused the young ladies immensely. THE WOMAN'S STORE SILVERFIELD'S

FOURTH AND MORRISON

THE FINEST SPRING MILLINERY

Shown by any house in the city is to be found at all times in our elegant department. Our styles this season have proved so stylish and pleasing to the more particular dressers of Portland—the greater part of our styles being exclusive with us—something new is always being shown—and, in fact, to keep abreast of the very latest style-ideas, you should make a point of calling in at our store, as, while our stock is not the largest, it is easily the finest, making us leaders in style and quality. Some few have formed the impression that because our hats are best they are also the highest priced. A visit to our store, noting prices, will easily convince you that the impression is wrong. We have most handsome hats at $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00.

Our Suit Salons

We have won a grand reputation through our suit and cloak departments on the second floor, where we make a point of always showing the very latest style creations from all the leading fashion centers. We are at present making a great display of the popular silk shirtwaist suits and have styles not shown by any of our competitors. Our prices are lowest, too.

New Spring Waists

On the second floor we have the most beautiful display of new waists for the Spring and Summer season—waists of silk, chiffon, mull, lawn and batiste. Every new, desirable style, some plain, others most elaborately trimmed, all have the very popular leg-o'-mutton sleeves. The prices are the lowest ever placed on waists of equal value. Second floor.

SALE OF FINE FURS

Take note of unusual values in Fine Fur Garments offered in our Fourth-street window. We have the finest facilities for remodeling and repairing fur garments, and do so at this season at reduced rates. Furs stored during the Summer months and a very slight charge insures them against damage. Highest prices paid for Raw Furs.
