MYSTERY OF OCEAN

Fate of Chehalis May Never Be Known.

GENERALLY BELIEVED LOST

Sarkentine Is Long Overdue From Philippines to Willapa Harbor, and She Is Considered Beyoud Reasonable Hope.

Today the barkentine Chehalis will be ill days out from Cebu, Philippine Islands, and unless she reaches her desination, Wiliapa Harbor, within a very lew days she will be given up for lost. Portland shipping and marine insurance Portland shipping and marine insurance men for the past week have considered the Chehalis a "goner." At South Bend, however, some hope is still entertained. She is more than a month overdue. The Chehalis is owned by the Simpson Lumber Company, of San Francisco. Her aptain is Edgar Simpson, youngest son of Captain A. M. Simpson, president of the company. Another son of the well-known lumber and mill man is also on board. Eight or hine men compose the

What has happened to the barkentine can only be conjectured. It may have been a typhoon in which she sprung a heavy leak and swamped, or a sudden blast which took out the masts and left ber helpless. A dozen other causes have ake a cargo of lumber. Built at Hoquiam, Wash., in 1891, the heballs is well known all along the Pa-ific Coast. In 1892, at the centennial celbration of the discovery of the Colum-nia River at Astoria, the Chehalis took he part of the old ship Columbia. She has been in the lumber trade almost con-On October 22, 1904, she salled from Cook Bay with a cargo of lumber for Cebu. She left the Philippine port January 22, and has not been reported. One sailing vessel was 145 days in making voyage from a point near Cebu, and teed zafely after being given up for. This, however, was an exceptional e. The Chehalis is a soft wood vessel. 177 feet long, with 40 feet beam and a gross tonnage of 650 tons.

BUILD FLOAT A BLOCK LONG

Captain Crowe Leases Property and Will Make New Landing Place.

Captain Albert Crowe, of Anderson & Crowe, yesterday leased from the First National Bank the waterfront between Stark and Oak streets. This adjoins the city landing at the foot of Stark street. Captain Crowe intends to begin imme-diately on the construction on a float which will reach the length of the block. and will be 29 feet wide. The outer edge of this will reach the harbor line 35 feet from shore. Between the float and the shore will be room for mooring house-It is Captain Crowe's intention noats. It is Capitain Crowe's infention to make the float a general landing place for launches plying to the Exposition grounds. This piece of valuable water-front is now scarcely utilized at all. City Engineer Wanzer has begun upon the construction of the city landing at the foot of Stark street, the lumber for the float and gangway being already upon the ground. As this landing is, but the the ground. As this landing is but the width of Stark street, it is considered that many more launches and other small craft will want a landing place in the vicinity than can be accommodated at the ree city landing.

BUFORD IS IN NO DANGER

Transport Safe Unless Storm Appears-Soldiers All Off.

WASHINGTON, May 12 -- General Corbin at Manila has cabled the following account of the stranding of the army transoort Buford:
"Colonel Philip Reade reported the Bu ford with a part of the Nineteenth Regi-ment, United States Infantry, on board, while running at full speed, struck a yoral reef four miles from Malabang. The Navy has lent assistance, but at latest accounts the Buford was not off. He reported no leakage and her condition not precarious unless a storm sets in, of ich there are no signs. The transport Thomas leaves today to give assistance and bring up the Twenty-third Regiment. United States Infantry which was to come the Buford. The cable communication with Mindanao is very uncertain. The Thomas will be necessarily delayed sev-eral days on her voyage. We'll hasten departure in every possible way under the circumstances."

FELT STORMS ALL THE WAY

Nicomedia Brings No News of the War From Japan.

ASTORIA, Or., May 12 .- (Special.)-The Berman steamship Nicomedia, of the Portland & Ariatic line, arrived in today, 15½ days from Yokohama, with a full cargo of Oriental merchandise.

Captain Wagner reports a pleasant trip across the Pacific, although southwest gales were encountered during nearly the whole trip. The only incident of note furing the passage was the death of Ten Kay, the Chinese cook, who died on Wednesday night from apoplexy. The body was buried at sea on the following

NEW QUARANTINE OFFICERS

Dr. Luckey Will Act at Siuslaw and

Dr. Minthorn at Yaquina. ASTORIA Or. May 12.—(Special.)—Dr. Earle, who is in charge of the Government Quarantine Service in Oregon, returned inst evening from an official visit to the several ports along the coast where be established substations. While there are four substations at Oregon coast points, only two assistant quarantine ficers have been appointed as yet. These are: Dr. E. E. Straw, at Coos Bay and Coquille, and Dr. Alexander Patterso

Dr. Barle says he expects to appoint Dr. and Dr. H. J. Minthorn for the station which includes Yaquina, Alsea and Siletz These men have been highly recommend-ed, but as Dr. Luckey is in the East and Dr. Minthorn is in Alaska, the appointments cannot be made until after they

We I on Cable Tuesday.

ASTORIA, Or., May 13.—(Special.)—Although the damaged portion of the Weather Bureau cable at the mouth of the river was picked up and buoyed by the lighthouse tender Columbine yesterday afternoon, it is not probable that any attempt will be made to repair the break before next Tuesday. The covering of the cable had been torn off for a distance of fully ten feet, and two of the wire strands were broken. It is now however, clear of the anchor which caused all the trouble. Forecast Official Beals, who is in charge of the work, will engage a scowneroes which the cable will run so that the repairs can be made quickly, and it is expected the work can be completed in a few hours, if the weather conditions are favorable.

Hassalo Now Burns Oil.

Hassalo Now Burns Oil.

Shining with fresh paint and equipped with an oil-burner, the steamboat Hassalo came up the river yesterday morning from the yards, where she has been for the past two months. During that time the Hassalo has been thoroughly overhauled, and is now ready for the Summer's hard work. She took the place of the Potter on the Astoria run last night. One distinguishing characteristic of the Hassalo hereafter will be her bright redrailings, which show up in strong contrast to the white house.

It is evidently the intention of the O. R. & N. Company to place oil-burners in all its steamers. Three, including the seagoing Columbia, now burn crude oil, and the others will be laid off one by one and the new burners installed.

Nicomedia Makes Fast Time.

Ten hours carlier than expected, the Oriental liner entered the Columbia at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and is due in Portland before daylight, this morning. Few steamers have made the trip across the Pacific from Japan in 15 days, the Nicomedia's time. Deputy Collector of Customs Pike will go over the papers early this morning, and the work of un-loading will begin at once and will continue day and night.

Dixon Strikes Bridge Pier.

Fifty feet of the railing on the star-board side of the steamboat Sarah Dixon, of the Shaver Transportation Company, was smashed yesterday morning by the heavy leak and swamped, or a sudden blast which took out the masts and left ber helpless. A dozen other causes have been suggested, but unless she comes in under a jury rig in a short time it is probable that her fate will never be known. She was coming in ballast to lake a cargo of lumber.

Amazon Off the Mud.

The barkentine Amazon, which went on the mud flats near the Madison-street bridge Friday evening while in tow of the M. F. Henderson, was pulled loose early yesterday morning at high tide, and was taken down the river. The Amazon, whose register is 1166 tons, is under charter by the Portiand Export Lumber Company to carry lumber to Shanghal. She was loaded at the Inman-Poulsen mill.

War Department Sends Approval.

Within two or three weeks bids on the Dalles-Celllo canal will be advertised for Major Langfitt, of the United States Engineers, yesterday received the official approval of the War Department on the expenditure of the funds available for the rpose. The contract will probably be let in time to begin work after the annual PARIS, May 11.-The French naval training ship Duguay Troin, which was reported yesterday to have struck a rock in Saint Jean de Luz Bay, was refleated today, without susialning serious damage.

Marine Notes.

With a cargo of lumber loaded at the Portland Mills, the steamer Bee left down the river yesterday afternoon, bound for San Francisco. She came in Wednesday and was quickly loaded. The steamer Northland is at the Inman-Poulsen mill loading lumber for San Francisco. She arrived in yesterday, bringing a number of passengers from way ports, but little freight. On next Saturday the British steamship Rapallo. 278 tons, is due here from Moji, Japan. from which port she sailed May 1. She is under charter by the Pacific Export Lumber Company to take lumber to the Orient.

Cold Weather Injures Crops.

SALEM, Or., May 12 .- (Special.) - Reports of the poor condition of the growing hop crop continue to come to this city, and it seems that the cold weather is de-creasing the prospect for a good crop. A. D. Jerman. of Silverton, writes that he b. Jerman, of Siverton, writes that he expects to harvest a smaller crop than last year, and has one 52-acre yard which will produce nothing at all. He says, other yards in his vicinity are no better than his. His young yards and those that his. His young yards and those that were lightest last year, will bear best this year.

There is nothing doing in the local market, but it is reported that Henry Miller, of Aurora, has bought the Herman Smidt crop of 21 bales at 25 cents and the Kell crop of 31 bales at 28% cents.
