New Ferry Causes Improvements—
The operation of the new Albins ferry at the foot of Randolph street has made a marked change in everything in that neighborhood, although the ferry has been running only about two weeks. Considerable teaming traffic use the new ferry, owing to the easy grades leading to the Albina streets. Improvements in building are being made around the Albina landing as far back as Goldsmith street. For a year this district has been very dilapidated and many buildings have been described, but the indications are that all this condition is to be changed. Already many of the described and partly-wrecked many of the deserted and partly-wrecked houses are being repaired, and there is now every indication that this part of Albina will pick up right along.

PORTLAND Lodge, No. 142, D. D.

Albina will plek up right along.

Portland Lodge, No. 142, B. P. O. E. returns sincere thanks to the business houses of the city and to the individuals who so generously sided the lodge in the county fair, heid lately at the Armory. The kindness of the public was so general that it is entirely out of the power of the lodge to express personally to each friend its appreciation. It therefore avails itself of this method of saying that the lodge and its members are under great obligations to the public, which they hope in the course of time to reciprocate, and they trust that by their participation in all matters appertaining to the progress, peace and prosperity of our beautiful city, and their continued service towards its general good, the feeling of the pubits general good, the feeling of the pub-lic towards them, so generously evidenced, may be always justified. By order of the iodge. The Committee.

all parts of the Pacific Northwest, and in addition to their trade in the local field they have built up an export business of considerable magnitude. The Portland branch of this house will be known as the Charles H. Lilly Company. They will deal extensively in seeds, poultry supplies, fertilizers and dairy supplies. Mr. Charles H. Lilly, senior member of the Seattle house, was in Portland recently, and it was under his direct supervision that purchase of the extensive husiness of Rogge & Storp was consummated.

Society for Emancipation of India Mourns Judge Bellinger's Death.

At the meeting of the Oregon Society for the Emancipation of India From Caste Slavery, held last Wednes-day evening at the secretary's office. Oregonian building, the following report of the committee on resolutions on the Jeath of Judge Charles B. Bellinger was unanimously adopted:

linger was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the death of Judge Charles B. Bellinger, the Oregon Society for the Emancipation of India from Caste Slavery lost its honored and beloved president; the community in which he lived and labored, one of its noble pioneers; the state, one of its most excellent citizens; the United States, one of the most able, impartial and upright Judges; and the people of India, one of their truest friends; and be it further

Resolved, That these our unanimous sentiments be spread upon the records of the society of which he was the president since its organization; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family; and that the same be printed in our city newspapers and in India.

AT PORTAGE ROAD OPENING

Crowds From Up River Will Gather at The Dalles.

It is certain that one of the largest crowds that has been gathered together in Oregon for many years will assemble at The Dalles on June 2 to witness the opening of the portage road. The members of the Open River Association are beginning to report that the people of the Upper Columbia River are preparing to come to the exercises in great numbers, both by water and rail, while it is learned that the people in every direction are both by water and rail, while it is learned that the people in every direction are planning to be present.

The steamer Norma, running from Riparia on the upper river toward The Dalles, will bring a load of people to the opening, while requests have been made of the Open Biver Association for three boats to be used on the lower river. The programme is being rapidly put into shape and in a very short time all the details of the exercises will have been arranged.
