

The Meier & Frank Store's Great LEWIS CLARK "Centennial Sale"

THE LEWIS & CLARK CENTENNIAL PORTLAND - OREGON - 1905

Which Starts Tomorrow Inaugurates the Exposition Festivities

Hand in hand with the Exposition opening we announce a great merchandizing event for the coming week—Store being closed Tuesday and Thursday, six days' business must be crowded into four—We are equal to the task—The great "Centennial Sale" which starts tomorrow will make things hum and result in Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday being the busiest days we ever experienced—In sixty departments the grandest values of the year are to be offered—The thousands of people from out of town who will be in the city are cordially invited to make this store their headquarters and share in the scores of money-saving opportunities on seasonal and staple merchandise of every description—Portland's largest and best store is equipped and arranged to properly care for immense throngs of buyers—There will be no trouble in securing prompt and careful attention as all branches of the service have been greatly increased—Anticipate your Summer needs

This Store Closed All Day Tuesday

Tuesday May 30, Decoration day, this store will be closed all day as has been the custom for many years. It is a day observed by every state, every city and town in the country, a National holiday when honor is paid departed heroes—men who gave their lives for their country. Do your shopping tomorrow.

This Store Closed All Day Thursday

This store will be closed throughout the entire day Thursday, June 1st—the opening day of the Lewis and Clark Exposition—The Meier & Frank Company desires to give every aid possible to insure a gratifying attendance next Thursday and start the Fair in a blaze of glory. Prepare for Thursday tomorrow and Wednesday.
