

TRIBUTE TO WORTH

Bench and Bar Unite to Honor Judge Bellinger's Memory.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Strong Testimonial to the Departed Jurist Drawn up by Members of His Profession and Adopted by Court Gathering.

Services in memory of the late Judge Charles B. Bellinger were held in Department No. 1, State Circuit Court yesterday morning. The meeting was very largely attended by members of the bar. Every seat was occupied. Judges Cleland, Sears and George occupied the bench. Judge Frazer is absent from the city. Speeches were made by C. A. Dolph, Fred V. Holman, John M. Gearin, Thomas G. Green, Dan J. Malarky, J. E. Bronaugh, Wallace McCann, W. D. Fenton, W. W. Banks and Ralph Dunaway.

Resolutions of Respect.

The committee on resolutions made the following report, which was adopted: To the Members of the Bar of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah County:

Your committee, appointed to prepare and present to the court resolutions respecting the life and character of our departed brother, Hon. Charles B. Bellinger, beg to report as follows:

Judge Bellinger was born in Macon, Ill., on November 21, 1839, and died at his home in Portland, May 12, 1905. He occupied many public positions, all of which he filled to the satisfaction of the public and with credit to himself.

He was a man of vigorous intellect, strong convictions and generous impulses. He was a pioneer of the state and identified with the legislation, with educational and industrial institutions, and took an active and influential part in every enterprise of the state.

Resolved, That the members of the bar share in the public esteem of the chairmanship of the deceased and in the universal grief at his loss.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, with our sincere sympathy in their bereavement, and that request be made that they be entered upon the records of this court and the United States District and Circuit Courts, over which he presided.

C. A. DOLPH, GEORGE H. WILLIAMS, FREDERICK V. HOLMAN, JOHN M. GEARIN, GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN.

Alumnae Pass Resolutions.

The following memorial was read, adopted by a committee of one member from each class of the Alumnae of the law school of the University of Oregon, in which Judge Bellinger was a professor:

Judge Charles B. Bellinger was best known to the greater number of the alumnae of Oregon as the well-beloved professor of the law school of the University of Oregon, in which he taught for many years.

As a teacher, he was excelled by none; as a lawyer, he was the peer of any; as a judge, he was just, but justice with him was always tempered with mercy and human kindness.

This committee, thus honoring and venerating the name and memory of Judge Bellinger, speaking for themselves and for the alumnae of the law school of the University of Oregon, have thought it fit by this brief tribute to give a formal expression of their respect and affection, and to direct that the same be read before the Association of Multnomah County, with the resolution:

That we express our heartfelt sympathy with the family of Judge Bellinger, in whose sorrow we share, and that a suitably engrossed copy of these resolutions be transmitted to them.

O. L. Price, F. C. Hoeker, E. H. Cahalin, John Van Zandt, Geo. Simpson, Arthur C. Spencer, William T. Muir, John F. Logan, A. L. Vezie, Thomas F. Greene, C. E. Gantenbein, J. M. Starnes, J. F. Booth, John M. Pittenger, committee.

C. A. Dolph read a telegram from Governor Chamberlain expressing his regret at being unable to attend the meeting. Mr. Dolph also spoke, moving the adoption of the resolution. He said:

May it please the Court: In moving these resolutions, I need not recount the distinguished services of Judge Bellinger, either as a judge, or as a lawyer, or as a citizen, or as a father, or as a friend, or as a neighbor, or as a citizen of this state, or as a citizen of the United States, or as a citizen of the world.

These services are attested by permanent records in which we, his professional brethren, held him as a lawyer and a judge, and to add my tribute of affection for one who has been so long and so faithfully a member of our profession, and a citizen of our state, and a citizen of the world, and a citizen of the universe, is a duty which we owe to the memory of him, and to the memory of his family, and to the memory of his friends, and to the memory of his country, and to the memory of his world, and to the memory of his universe.

I come with a few words in testimony of the esteem in which we, his professional brethren, held him as a lawyer and a judge, and to add my tribute of affection for one who has been so long and so faithfully a member of our profession, and a citizen of our state, and a citizen of the world, and a citizen of the universe.

Am I not justified in saying, may it please the court, that at the date of his untimely death no man in the whole state was more beloved than he? Surely the loss of no man within the state would have been more keenly felt or more sincerely deplored. During the long and anxious week it was generally known that Judge Bellinger was dangerously ill, the danger of this city was on his pulse. When he breathed his last a great wave of sorrow swept over this entire state, and messages of sympathy—scores in number—came from adjoining states and from abroad. A common grief overshadowed bench and bar alike, and the public press was filled with words of sympathy.

Why is it that such a tribute of respect and affection should be paid to the memory of this man? Every day some citizen of our state is taken from among us, and yet we are apt to give but little thought to the occurrence. What was it in the life of Charles B. Bellinger that should cause this universal sorrow? Was it because he occupied exalted station? I do not so interpret it. Place and power command respect; but they do not win affection. Neither place, nor power, nor gold, can purchase love.

Am I not justified in saying, may it please the court, that at the date of his untimely death no man in the whole state was more beloved than he? Surely the loss of no man within the state would have been more keenly felt or more sincerely deplored. During the long and anxious week it was generally known that Judge Bellinger was dangerously ill, the danger of this city was on his pulse. When he breathed his last a great wave of sorrow swept over this entire state, and messages of sympathy—scores in number—came from adjoining states and from abroad. A common grief overshadowed bench and bar alike, and the public press was filled with words of sympathy.

Why is it that such a tribute of respect and affection should be paid to the memory of this man? Every day some citizen of our state is taken from among us, and yet we are apt to give but little thought to the occurrence. What was it in the life of Charles B. Bellinger that should cause this universal sorrow? Was it because he occupied exalted station? I do not so interpret it. Place and power command respect; but they do not win affection. Neither place, nor power, nor gold, can purchase love.

TRIBUTE TO WORTH

Bench and Bar Unite to Honor Judge Bellinger's Memory.

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED

Strong Testimonial to the Departed Jurist Drawn up by Members of His Profession and Adopted by Court Gathering.

Services in memory of the late Judge Charles B. Bellinger were held in Department No. 1, State Circuit Court yesterday morning. The meeting was very largely attended by members of the bar. Every seat was occupied. Judges Cleland, Sears and George occupied the bench. Judge Frazer is absent from the city. Speeches were made by C. A. Dolph, Fred V. Holman, John M. Gearin, Thomas G. Green, Dan J. Malarky, J. E. Bronaugh, Wallace McCann, W. D. Fenton, W. W. Banks and Ralph Dunaway.

Resolutions of Respect.

The committee on resolutions made the following report, which was adopted: To the Members of the Bar of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah County:

Your committee, appointed to prepare and present to the court resolutions respecting the life and character of our departed brother, Hon. Charles B. Bellinger, beg to report as follows:

Judge Bellinger was born in Macon, Ill., on November 21, 1839, and died at his home in Portland, May 12, 1905. He occupied many public positions, all of which he filled to the satisfaction of the public and with credit to himself.

He was a man of vigorous intellect, strong convictions and generous impulses. He was a pioneer of the state and identified with the legislation, with educational and industrial institutions, and took an active and influential part in every enterprise of the state.

Resolved, That the members of the bar share in the public esteem of the chairmanship of the deceased and in the universal grief at his loss.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, with our sincere sympathy in their bereavement, and that request be made that they be entered upon the records of this court and the United States District and Circuit Courts, over which he presided.

C. A. DOLPH, GEORGE H. WILLIAMS, FREDERICK V. HOLMAN, JOHN M. GEARIN, GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN.

Alumnae Pass Resolutions.

The following memorial was read, adopted by a committee of one member from each class of the Alumnae of the law school of the University of Oregon, in which Judge Bellinger was a professor:

Judge Charles B. Bellinger was best known to the greater number of the alumnae of Oregon as the well-beloved professor of the law school of the University of Oregon, in which he taught for many years.

As a teacher, he was excelled by none; as a lawyer, he was the peer of any; as a judge, he was just, but justice with him was always tempered with mercy and human kindness.

This committee, thus honoring and venerating the name and memory of Judge Bellinger, speaking for themselves and for the alumnae of the law school of the University of Oregon, have thought it fit by this brief tribute to give a formal expression of their respect and affection, and to direct that the same be read before the Association of Multnomah County, with the resolution:

That we express our heartfelt sympathy with the family of Judge Bellinger, in whose sorrow we share, and that a suitably engrossed copy of these resolutions be transmitted to them.

O. L. Price, F. C. Hoeker, E. H. Cahalin, John Van Zandt, Geo. Simpson, Arthur C. Spencer, William T. Muir, John F. Logan, A. L. Vezie, Thomas F. Greene, C. E. Gantenbein, J. M. Starnes, J. F. Booth, John M. Pittenger, committee.

C. A. Dolph read a telegram from Governor Chamberlain expressing his regret at being unable to attend the meeting. Mr. Dolph also spoke, moving the adoption of the resolution. He said:

May it please the Court: In moving these resolutions, I need not recount the distinguished services of Judge Bellinger, either as a judge, or as a lawyer, or as a citizen, or as a father, or as a friend, or as a neighbor, or as a citizen of this state, or as a citizen of the United States, or as a citizen of the world.

These services are attested by permanent records in which we, his professional brethren, held him as a lawyer and a judge, and to add my tribute of affection for one who has been so long and so faithfully a member of our profession, and a citizen of our state, and a citizen of the world, and a citizen of the universe.

I come with a few words in testimony of the esteem in which we, his professional brethren, held him as a lawyer and a judge, and to add my tribute of affection for one who has been so long and so faithfully a member of our profession, and a citizen of our state, and a citizen of the world, and a citizen of the universe.

Am I not justified in saying, may it please the court, that at the date of his untimely death no man in the whole state was more beloved than he? Surely the loss of no man within the state would have been more keenly felt or more sincerely deplored. During the long and anxious week it was generally known that Judge Bellinger was dangerously ill, the danger of this city was on his pulse. When he breathed his last a great wave of sorrow swept over this entire state, and messages of sympathy—scores in number—came from adjoining states and from abroad. A common grief overshadowed bench and bar alike, and the public press was filled with words of sympathy.

Why is it that such a tribute of respect and affection should be paid to the memory of this man? Every day some citizen of our state is taken from among us, and yet we are apt to give but little thought to the occurrence. What was it in the life of Charles B. Bellinger that should cause this universal sorrow? Was it because he occupied exalted station? I do not so interpret it. Place and power command respect; but they do not win affection. Neither place, nor power, nor gold, can purchase love.

Am I not justified in saying, may it please the court, that at the date of his untimely death no man in the whole state was more beloved than he? Surely the loss of no man within the state would have been more keenly felt or more sincerely deplored. During the long and anxious week it was generally known that Judge Bellinger was dangerously ill, the danger of this city was on his pulse. When he breathed his last a great wave of sorrow swept over this entire state, and messages of sympathy—scores in number—came from adjoining states and from abroad. A common grief overshadowed bench and bar alike, and the public press was filled with words of sympathy.

Why is it that such a tribute of respect and affection should be paid to the memory of this man? Every day some citizen of our state is taken from among us, and yet we are apt to give but little thought to the occurrence. What was it in the life of Charles B. Bellinger that should cause this universal sorrow? Was it because he occupied exalted station? I do not so interpret it. Place and power command respect; but they do not win affection. Neither place, nor power, nor gold, can purchase love.

HOPMERS' TRUST

Combination Urged on Producers of Oregon.

IT WOULD CONTROL PRICES

Proposed Plan is Formation of Stock Corporation by Which Large Portion of State's Yield Would Be Withheld.

A proposal has been made to the hopgrowers of Oregon to put all of the 1905 crop into the hands of a stock company, to be formed and operated by the growers themselves. It is suggested that by this means the price of the product can be raised to a figure justified by the shortage that exists in the world. The plan is to purchase at a low price the hops that they have not yet bought would be thus eliminated from the market, to the joy of the farmers, and the charge paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee. The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

The plan is to be brought to the attention of the farmers, and the charges paid to middlemen would be done away with, as the combine's hops would be sold by its own selling committee.

NOTICE

The Bowers Rubber Co., of San Francisco, are installing an exhibit of Mechanical Rubber Goods in section 11, Manufacturers and Liberal Arts Building.

A feature of this exhibit will be a wax figure of a lady with a rubber neck 3 feet long, who will "RUBBER" at stated hours.

A prize of $5.00 will be paid to the party who suggests the best and most appropriate name for this figure. Contest will close Saturday, June 3d, at 6 P. M. Address justify such a price. Of course, you could not even more, but no one desires to be oppressive although such a thing is possible. The corporation could have a representative in every hopgrowing country of the world, reporting the prospects and progress of the growing crop, and thus enable it to form a definite idea of future actions. Such a corporation would experience no difficulty in securing all the capital necessary to finance the business, as the hopgrowers of Washington, California and New York state will follow in the footsteps of the hopgrowers of Oregon.

BOWERS RUBBER COMPANY Manufacturers Bldg. LEWIS AND CLARK FAIR

Yours truly, KREBS HOP COMPANY (Inc.) Per CONRAD KREBS, President.

SALEM, Or., May 27.—Dear Sir: We beg to call your attention to matter of importance to all the hopgrowers of the United States. We are confronted with a condition of affairs which, if permitted to continue unchecked, will ruin the industry. We have been informed by reliable authority that the bears, or short sellers, have sold, for approximately $100,000,000 of the 1905 crop, ranging in price from 15c to 20c per pound delivered. These sales have been made in the face of the fact that the 1905 crop, before the vines, which will produce the 1905 crop, had made their appearance. This plainly indicates that they are selling our product at ridiculously low prices, regardless of the statistical position, relying on what they call the stupidity or lack of business sense of the hopgrowers.

FATHER AND SON ARE DEAD

Christian A. Zanders and Boy, of Milwaukie, Die in Same Hour.

Death entered a Milwaukie family Friday, taking the father and a little son at the same hour, leaving another child in a very critical condition. Christian Albert Zanders is the man's name. He was 55 years old, and his son who died within a few moments afterwards was Rane Emil Zanders, and was 12 years and 9 months old. Both were taken down with typhoid fever. It was reported yesterday that another child of the same family was not expected to recover.

A double funeral for the father and son will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Evangelical Church, in Milwaukie. The interment will take place in Milwaukie Cemetery. Rev. F. M. Fisher, pastor, will conduct the services.

Travelers' Aid Concert.

In presence of an audience comprising many of this city's best musical talent, a choral concert was given at the Marquand Theater last night by the Chamunda Club, Mrs. Edgar E. Courson, conductor, for the benefit of the Travelers' Aid Association, and was a pleasing success. The concert is notable because it is the first time that a Portland woman has conducted a high-class cantata with full orchestral accompaniment, and Mrs. Courson accordingly deserves credit. She gave a calm, scholarly reading to both John Hyatt Brewer's "Twilight Pictures" and Frederick H. Cowen's "A Daughter of the Sea." The soloists were Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer and Mrs. May Dear-borne Schwab, soprano, and Mrs. Walter Reed, contralto. Both Mrs. Bauer and Mrs. Reed sang with their accustomed finish. Mrs. Schwab is to be commended for the beauty of her sustained tones. The chorus of about 70 women's voices sang well. Edgar E. Courson was accompanist for the first cantata, and an orchestra played for "A Daughter of the Sea."

IS MR. HELFRICH IN OREGON? Mrs. Helfrich, No. 633 1/2 Jessie street, San Francisco, wants information of her husband, who left San Francisco on April 5 last.

BOYS AND GIRLS GUESS THEIR MEANING

These three letters have a meaning, and we want any child to guess what that is.

Write your answer on a slip of paper and put your name and address on same, bring it to our store and deposit it in a box placed there to receive them.

To the one guessing correctly we will give a prize of $5. Should there be more than one correct guess, the winners will receive their portions accordingly. All answers must be deposited by Friday, June 2, by 10 A. M.; the winners will be announced in Friday evening papers.

IRON BED SALE FOR MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

A great price reduction has been made for this sale, a better assortment has never been offered at such reductions, which place the best manufactured beds down to prices asked for a low grade article

Porch and Camp Furniture

Can be found here in a goodly selection. If in want of any article in these lines, call in and inspect same.

See Window Display For Styles

- $18.00 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$14.50
- $16.00 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$12.75
- $15.00 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$12.00
- $14.00 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$11.25
- $13.50 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$10.75
- $12.50 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$10.00
- $11.50 Iron Beds on Sale for.....$ 9.25

POWERS THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

FIRST AND TAYLOR STREETS

GAS FOR COOKING

Summer Is Approaching

There is a touch of warmth in the air, just a hint of warmer days a coming. Prepare for it--get a

GAS RANGE

BEFORE THE RUSH BEGINS--No better time than right now.

THE PRICE NOW INCLUDES INSTALLING

If you buy a Gas Range it will include installing. By this we mean for the purchase price we will set it up ready for use, including a run of 40 feet of pipe. On all cash sales or if paid within 30 days from date of purchase, a discount of 10 per cent will be allowed. A discount of 20 per cent is made on purchase price when a fuel stub is already in the kitchen and no pipe is necessary.

The Gas Water Heater Has Solved the Hot Water Question

The plan is as simple as the Gas Range. There is no accumulated heat to make the rooms uncomfortable, and there is no expense except actual cost of use. We will demonstrate this to you at our show rooms at any time, and it won't cost you a cent to see it.

The Price of Gas Water Heaters Includes Installing. To any consumer now using a gas range we will install a Gas Water Heater for

$13.50

Portland Gas Co.

FIFTH AND YAMHILL STREETS

Bright's disease and Diabetes News

127 Broadway, San Francisco, May 21, 1905.—To the church women of Portland:

It is so hard for people to believe that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now curable that I am asked to permit reference to my own case. There are too many dying to remain silent. I had both Bright's Disease and Diabetes for over five years. Was very feeble, had dropsy, and the physicians told me the case was hopeless. I heard that people were being cured in this city and I decided to try the treatment. In a few months the dropsy disappeared and in a year I was well. To show how well, will say that later I stood a capital operation at the Waldeck Sanitarium in the presence of six physicians. Many friends, including Dr. Markell, of Cloverdale, and Judge E. B. Cutler, of Pine street, are fully cognizant of my recovery. In fact, Judge Cutler is himself now recovering under the same treatment. Let the cure be proclaimed to the world.

MRS. E. CLINE.

The above refers to the newly discovered Fulton Compound, the first cure in the world for Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

Woodard, Clarke & Co. are local agents. Ask for pamphlet.

When I suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight, puffiness, bands or spots on the face, kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment, falling vision; dizziness. Use more these.

SEEK THE DIVORCE COURT.

Suit for a divorce was begun in the State Circuit Court yesterday by Lena Dixon against Harry Dixon, an employe of the Albina Ferryboat. Judge Cleland, at the request of plaintiff's attorney, Walter Wolfe, issued an order restraining Dixon from interfering with Mrs. Dixon or molesting her in any manner. She states in her complaint that she is afraid that he will kill her, and alleges that he has threatened her with bodily harm many times, and told her he would injure her so badly she would have to call in a doctor. They were married in this city in November, 1901.

Lille M. Shelley has sued George W. Shelley for a divorce, and for the custody of a minor child, 12 years old. The litigants were married in Aberdeen, Wash., October 17, 1888. Mrs. Shelley complains that her husband willfully deserted her in March, 1894.

SAN FRANCISCO VETERINARY COLLEGE. Next session begins July 17. Catalogues free. Dr. E. J. Crowley, Pres., 420 Golden Gate ave., San Francisco, Cal.