Portland, 17. Oakland, 6. And Schmidt smiled. This Commuter slat artist smiled through one of the worst drubbings given to a twirler on the local diamond in many moons. Schmidt smiled when he began, smiled when his curves that were not curves were lambasted to the four winds of heaven, smiled while the Giants rolled up 17 runs, and he smiled and showed his golden-covered biceps when the local accumulated 21 off his hands. Thrown into these 21 "things" that swells the batter's average, were six two-baggers and a home run.

Yet Schmidt smiled in the big Saturday crowd howled in delight and smiled with him. Schmidt smiled through all. Schmidt smiled at Larry Schafly. He smiled when he tried to catch the key-stone guardian off his guard. Schafly came up in the fifth inning, a canto in which there was mighty doings with the wagon tongue. Van Buren had surprised all the "Put Ups" present by hitting for two bases. Eddy Householder singled and now it was time for the irrepressible Larry Schafly was arguing over a called strike and Smiling Schmidt essayed to slip one over on the second baseman. The attempt was fatal, for Larry swung at the Spaulding and it soared upward until it collided against the new addition to the fence in leftfield and then gently faded away for a home run.

This closed in three runs. Manager McCredie, the only Giant who failed to fatten his batting average during the matinee, was the first out McLean poked out his second hit, and he moved to second on Mitchell's out. Runkle stopped a tender with his fifth rib, Eli Cates, who signalled his return to the game by shutting the Commuters out, letting them down with only four hits, broke things up with a corking two-bagger, on which both McLean and Runkle scored. Jacky Ais, who opened the game with a double-sucker, duplicated his former trick and the two-ply wallop scored Cates. Four extra cushion drives and two singles netted six runs and added to the five made in the four previous innings, made it 17.

Other Runs Garnered. In the sixth inning the Giants gathered another run without a hit, in the eighth, while Schmidt was still smiling, the Giants rammed around the batting order again and collected six more blinges and five runs.

This was the sort of initiation the newly-ploughed grounds got. With Oakland's outfield working a little better behind him, Schmidt might have escaped with a less terrible beating. He would have been beaten though, for even a Cy Young or a Rube Waddell would have been slaughtered by these Giants yesterday, for they were battling like wild men. Even Harry Murphy broke his maiden in the Coast league, by lining out a nice single in the eighth inning. Murphy was as steady as an iron man and pulled out without a score being made off him. Those Giants have found themselves at last, and from now on it will take demons to beat them.

started out to pitch the game for Los Angeles today, was taken out at the end of the fifth inning after Tacoma had made five hits and six runs. Toren, who succeeded him, did no better and allowed six hits and four runs. Nordyke carried off the batting honors, getting a home run, a two-bagger and two singles out of four times up. He also made 15 putouts and two assists in the field without an error.

In the third inning Umpire Davis made four or five decisions which did not meet with the approval of the crowd and about 25 spectators from the left field bleachers rushed out on the diamond, but the police drove them back before they could reach the umpire. PACIFIC NATIONAL LEAGUE. Boise 6, Salt Lake 3. SALT LAKE CITY, May 27.—Boise pulled the game out in the eighth, tenth and eleventh. After one man had been hit by a pitched ball, the visitors landed on Thornton for two two-base hits, which taken in conjunction with Carney's wild throw, let in three runs. SEA AIR, LONG SHOT, WINS FIRST DAY'S HANDICAP. Eight Thousand Spectators in Attendance See Only One Favorite, Funnyside, Come in Winner.

SEA AIR, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—Sea Air, an 8-to-5 favorite, Wright up, won the opening handicap of six furlongs at the Meadows this afternoon with two good lengths to spare. The race was one of the best ever pulled off in this city. It was a battle-royal for three-quarters of the way between Whiskey King and Minsky. Sea Air trailing nicely until the far turn, had been made. The winning gap came to the front with a wonderful burst of speed, closing up a full six-lengths gap in the final going and winning with ease. Whiskey King managed to nose into second money within ten feet of the wire.

It was opening day at the Meadows and fully 6000 people made the trip to the track. The day was clear, both overhead and underneath, and the track was in prime condition. Society was out in force, fully nine-tenths of the automobiles in the city being out with society's finest. Only thing that at all marked an otherwise perfect day's sport was the rather rough work of jockeys Hollicat and Truitt in the second race. They displayed the errors of a starter Duke so flagrantly that they were set down for three weeks and were lucky that the sentence was not more severe.

Modder, T. Clark up, was an even-money favorite in the first race of five and a half furlongs, and came home without a skip. She led from flagfall to wire, increasing her lead almost with every stride, and finishing with a flourish. Around ran second and Riceful third. Nulish, Ammie, Wager, Bath Beach, Jackfull, Sugden, Educate and Wistaria also ran. The time was 1:38.65.

The second race, also five and a half furlongs, was won by Lurene IV. League up, in 1:36.3. Like the winner of the initial event, Lurene got off in front and was never headed, nor was she even closely pressed. Nanon, who perhaps carried the most money, as she is ever a favorite in this city, ran second, and Matt Harry, Bud, Rodolfo, Velma Clark, Tam O'Shanter, Profitable and Laureates also ran.

The 2-year-old race, four furlongs, was won by Tenorade, Butler up, in 0:58.6. It was a walkaway all from start to finish. Cascade of Diamonds ran second, Arrestallat third. Sent, Miss Spokane and Rain Cloud also ran.

The fourth race was the opening handicap, six furlongs, won by 110 to 1 winner, Sea Air won, Whiskey King second, Minsky's Pride third, time, 1:33. Judge Ocyrore, Ontario and Sad Sam also ran.

The fifth race, one mile, was won in 1:40.3 by Funnyside, T. Sullivan up. Funnyside got away in the rack, took the outside, caught the field at the quarter pole and won with seven lengths to spare. It was almost a hippodrome. Golden Eye got second money by two lengths over Gentle Harry. Eleven Bells, Merwan, Harry Beck, The Lieutenant and Royalty also ran.

The last race of the day, one mile and 80 yards, was easily won by St. George IV. Wright up, in 1:45. There was fully six lengths of daylight between the winner and Bombardier, who ran second in front of Lurene.

At St. Louis Fair Grounds. ST. LOUIS, May 27.—Fair Grounds results: Six furlongs—Jake Ward won, Volte second, Apple Sweet third; time, 1:12.3. Five and a half furlongs—Silver Sue won, Abjure second, Horse Radish third; time, 1:26. Five and a half furlongs—Matador won, Eria Lee second, Mattie Lynch third; time, 1:29.

Mile and a quarter, the Club Members' handicap—Au Revoir won, The Cook second, Lubin third; time, 2:37. Six furlongs—Vanness won, Red Leaf second, Martin third; time, 1:15. Mile and a sixteen—Blennworth men pounded out two triples and two doubles, besides a few singles that could not be counted. Seven runs were the reward for the Cardinal players, and they retired with a satisfied look all around.

In the Academy's half the supporters of the orange and white did their best to win, and came within one run of tying the score. T. Myers and Rogers singled and Houston knocked a three-bagger, but these were not quite enough, and the game ended with the score 7 to 6 in favor of the High School.

In the first of the second and first of the fifth the Academy players pulled out of tight places when the High School had the bases full, thus preventing a larger score for the Cardinals. The line-up:

P. A.	Position.	P. H. S.
T. Myers	C.	Goodell
Higgins	P.	Newell
Moreland	B.	Ganong
M. Myers	1B.	Oakes
Houston	2B.	Ward

MIXES WITH AUTO

Pugilist Hanlon Has Go With a Chug-Wagon.

COMES OFF VICTORIOUS

Young Corbett Is Working Hard at Ocean Beach Gymnasium—Hanlon Takes a Sprint With Toby Irwin.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 27.—(Special.)—Young Corbett is working harder at his Ocean Beach gymnasium than at any previous time in his career for his meeting with Eddie Henson. He expects to meet all requirements of weight, and if he does, he will have a condition which will carry him a long journey. He is anxious to be returned a winner over Hanlon, as he is promised a match with Abe Attell, which he considers easier than his present engagement.

Although Hanlon was in an automobile smashup in Oakland Thursday night, that did not prevent the popular midget pugilist from going through his routine training stunts at his quarters at Alameda today. It takes something fierier than a chug-wagon to put Eddie out of commission, his friends say, and they reason that if the auto could not down the fighter for the count, Young Corbett's chances of turning the trick are not radiant.

Trainer Frank McDonald did not allow his charges to do any sparring today as he had intended, because Hanlon's lips were still tender from being chapped. Eddie went on the highways in the morning with his old college class, Toby Irwin, and roiled off eight miles with ease. Three hours after luncheon he went into his gymnasium, and in the presence of a crowd of critical spectators, worked for half an hour with the bag and skipped rope. When he ceased exercising and was rubbed down Hanlon weighed 133 pounds. It is Trainer McDonald's plan to keep his man about this mark until a few days before the fight.

Among the visitors at Eddie's quarters today was his brother, Dan Hanlon. The latter takes a keen interest in the welfare and condition of the lad who has made the family name famous. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock Hanlon will pin the gloves and give his friends an opportunity to see him go.

CORVALLIS, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—It was by a score of 78 to 44 that the Oregon Agricultural College defeated the University of Oregon athletes and won the Northwest championship in a field and track meet here this afternoon. Greenhaw lowered the Northwest record in the half-mile one second by making the distance in 2:02 1-5, and in the relay race ran the quarter in 51 seconds.

The relay race was run by the Oregon Agricultural College team in 2:33, also lowering a Northwest record. Williams, in the latter event, ran the quarter in 0:51 4-5, slowing up in the stretch after it became apparent that he could not succeed in the effort he was making to catch the Eugene runner, by which the O. A. C. team was about to gain a lap on the Eugene team.

Captain Huggs, in an exhibition throw, after winning in the hammer over Dow Walker, tossed the hammer 127 feet, 7 1/2 inches, or 16 inches more than the Oregon record. Walker in a similar throw put the hammer 125 1/2 feet.

The quarter-mile was a shut-out for the University, for Greenhaw, who took second place, was adjudged disqualified by Chandler on the ground that Greenhaw fouled Veatch, a Eugene runner. The University team took the three first places. Huggs winning the shot-put and hammer-throw and Miller the high jump. Henderson and Friesell were out of the University of Oregon team, as they had been physical cock out of the college aggregation.

In the annual track meet last year the University of Oregon was defeated by a score of 44 to 78. The summary of events is as follows:

100-yard dash—Williams and Smithson (O. A. C.); Moore (U. of O.) third; 200-yard dash—Williams (O. A. C.); Moore (U. of O.) second; 400-yard dash—Williams (O. A.
