YSAYE GIVES GREAT PROGRAM

HIS RECITAL TUESDAY EVENING WIL GIVE THE ARTIST OPPORTUNITY TO APPEAR AT HIS BEST

evening at the Marquam is a wonderful collection of wonderful things, and will give the great artis the opportunity of appearing before his Portland audience at his best. Of the Beethoven number, which will open the programme, the San Francisco Call "It is impossible to imagine any thing of nobler plan than M. Ysaye's reading of this number. It were more impossible to imagine a tone of more miraculous sweetness. Ysaye is the Sembrich of violinists, perhaps he is embrich of violinists, perhaps he is—in this number—most character-istically wonderful. It is the roundest, sweetest of violin voices, transluciently pure, miraculously varied."

Ysaye's collection of rare old violins is a marvelous one. Naturally the artist takes almost absurd care of his treasures, and they are always his first con-deration. He never allows any one to play upon them but himself. His Stradivarius, which he expects to use here, was presented to him by Vieuxtemps. The full programme of the recital, which is given under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman, is as follows:

Kreutzer Sonato-adagio sostenuto, presto, Molto adagio, finale. Beethoven MM Yanye and DeBetve. Concerto No. 2 in B Minor, allegro, andap-

The pupils of Mrs. Edith F. Hanna will give an invitation plane and organ recital Wednesday evening in the hall of the Allen and Gilbert-Ramaker Company. A fine programme, consisting of plane and organ soles, give several word numbers, will be rendered.

The musical feature of Ladies' Day at the and musical reature of Ladice Day at the Mulinomah Club was the singing of Miss Edwins Mastick, who rendered Massenet's "Upon Thy Blue Eyes" and D'Hardeloits "I Know a Lovely Garden" and "When I Speak to You." Miss Mastick's accompanists was Mrs. Rose Bloth Hauer.

A correspondent who forgets to sign his ame writes: "About A. S. Hoblie's Lewis and Clark Exposition March," described in last Sunday's Oregonian, H you look at the second part of the march you will fine the second part of the march you will fine the name of the German song is 'Andreas Hofer." Strange coincidence.

There was a surfelt of music here last week. Here is the list of the more important events: Monday, Philharmonio Society concert, Tuesday, Miss Elia Frances Hober's concert: Wednesday, Victoria day concert: Thursday, W. H. Boyer's recital and Professor and Mrs. Edgren's concert: Priday, musical entertainment at St. Mary's Academy and College, W. Gifford Nash's pupils piano recital and zither concert, direction of A. S. Hobile; Saturday, Chaminade Club concert.

Beginning with Sunday, June 4, a series of organ recitals will be given in the First Presbyterian Church, in connection with the evening services. The recitals will begin at 1.30 o'clock and will last about 20 minutes. Mr. Coursen has arranged a series of programmes, embracing some of the best works of ancient and modern organ masters, as well as arrangements of many orchestral compositions. These organ recitals will be particularly appreciated by visitors who will be here for the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

There is a possibility that Madame No-relli, the celebrated grand-opera prima donna soprano whose home is in this city and where she is known in private, life as Mrs. Ernest Barton, may be selected to sing a solo at the forthcoming wedding of Prince Gustay Adolf of Sweden, to Princess Marparet of Connaught, if any music is to be oung at the wedding. The wish is ex-necessed by the Crown Prince of Sweden pleased by the Crown Frince of Sweden that Madaine Norelli shall sing. Portland people are hoping that this favorite song-stress will have an opportunity of singing in this city during the continuance of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, about Septem-

Three young singers were heard with great pleasure at the Queen Victoria day celebration at Armory Hall last Wednesday evening—Miss Kathleen Lawler, Miss Ethel Shea and Mrs. Susle Gambell Whitehurst. Miss Lawler's name and that of the song 'Killarneg' seem to be inseparably associated in the minds of some of her huddeness, for she had to sing 'Killarneg' by popular request. Miss Shea's voice is that rarity—a true contraite. She has a mellow, rich voice of true contraits timbre which she uses with excellent judgment. Mrs. Whitehurst's soprano impresses one by her fine upper register and the purity of her vocalization. The accompanist was Carl Denton.

Miss Leonora Fisher, the organist of Temple Beth Israel and the First Congregational Church, has been appointed musical director and organist of the latter church, starting with the opening of the new season, September 1. Mas Fisher is a thorough musican of experience and culture and ranks as one of the best organists in the Northwest. Her many musical friends to Portland and elsewhere are glad to hear of her merited promotion and wish her luck. The quartet of the First Congregational Church for the coming year will consist of Miss Leonora Fisher, organist and director: Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, soprano; Miss Cloe McClung contraint, and W. H. Monigomery, bartione. The tenor is not yet chosen. With this engagement Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer will have been 14 years solo soprano at the First Congregational Church, quite a meritorious record in these days of many changes in church organizations. W. H. Boyer, the present musical director and tenor soloist at this church, retires from that position at the commencement of the Summer vacation, and it is understood he is considering the acceptance of another appointment.

Milton C. Smith, who was the orchestral director at the vocal recital given last Thursday evening at the Marquam Theater under the direction of W. H. Boefer, is an experienced and talented musician, who has been here professionally on several occasions and

Mrs. Eloise Atherion, Little Bock, Ark., says: "It is surely remarkable the way Danderine improves the hair. It has made my hair grow ten inches longer in five mouths and it is retting thicker and longer in the mouths and it is retting thicker and longer all the time. I believe in giving praise where it is due, and you can use my name as reference if you so desire."

FOR SILE AND GUARANTEED BY WOODARD, CLARKE & COMPANY.

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, fertilizing and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. IT IS THE NATURAL FOOD OF THE HAIR, SCIENTIFICALLY

CHARGED WITH NEW AND GENUINE LIFE-PRODUCING ESSENCES UNHEARD OF BY OTHER MAKERS OF HAIR TONIC. NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. FREE. To show how quickly Bandorine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertises to the Knowiton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

FLORENCE RUSSELL,

Age 6 years, 215, Mohawk Street, CHICAGO.

Since it has become generally known that Danderine causes hair to grow just as abundantly on the heads of children as it does on those of matured persons, many truly marvelous cases are coming to our notice. Lutie Miss Russell, whose photograph appears above, is certainly one of the remarkable ones. Her beautiful hair is over thirty inches long and her mother ears that "DANDERINE GREW EVERY BIT OF IT."

Blanchet Institute Entertains.

The pupils of Blanchet Institute gave an entertainment at the Marquam Grand an entertainment at the Marquam Grand Theater last Wednesday evening. The occasion was their annual public entertainment, usually given at the close of the scholastic year. A large audience assembled to witness the youthful performers, who had spent several weeks preparing an interesting programme. Each preparing an interesting programme. Each number was greeted with generous applause. The choruses were exceptionally good and showed a number of carefully trained voices. The young orators of the evening were at their best. Among them Robert E. Gleason and George J. Harris are deserving of special mention, the former for his rendition of "McLaine's Child." and the latter for his vivid description of an incident on board the Cumberland. Many of the local clergy were present, among whom were: Rev. Fathers H. McDevitt. George Thompson, J. D. Murphy, A. Cestelli, E. Bolla, son, J. D. Murphy, A. Cestelli, E. Bella, W. Daly, J. C.
