

ROSE DAY AT FAIR

Committee Plans for a Most Remarkable Exhibit.

RULES ARE ANNOUNCED

Plan for Decoration Is Adopted Which Will Require Liberal Contributions From Growers of the Queen of Flowers.

The committee in charge of Rose day, Saturday, June 3, at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, takes this method of informing the public of the following rules, regulations and desires of the committee, in relation to the display of roses on Rose day.

It is intended to decorate the auditorium at the Exposition, where the rose display will take place. In order to decorate properly it is necessary to have as many roses as possible on Friday afternoon, June 2, and also to have roses on the morning of June 3. Everyone is requested to furnish as many roses as possible for the purpose of decoration. This means that every person having roses in his garden, is requested to contribute as many as he can, even if not more than half a dozen. Rose day is particularly a Portland day, to show what it can do as the Rose City. Thousands of Portland's residents can each furnish some roses next Friday, and also on Saturday.

Otten's Plan for Decorating.

George Otten has prepared a plan for the display of roses, and also for decorating the room in the auditorium where the display will be held. This plan is an excellent one, and is of great credit to Mr. Otten, and space will be furnished to carry out this plan. He will have charge of the decorations, and will be assisted by members of the Portland Rose Society and employees of the Exposition. This plan cannot be carried out unless the roses are contributed gratuitously and generously by the people of Portland.

Displays by Professional Florists.

Several of Portland's professional florists have already applied for space to display and decorate. Each professional florist in Portland is requested to make a display, and space will be given on application to the chairman of the committee. The Exposition will make four awards for the best displays by professional florists. The first three awards will be official medals of the Exposition. The fourth will be a diploma of honorable mention.

Competition and Exhibitions by Amateurs.

To amateurs will be given four awards—three official medals and a diploma of honorable mention. These awards will be given only to those who enter roses for competition as individual exhibitors. Those who do not wish to compete, but desire to exhibit roses, may do so. Space will be given and jars will be furnished of amateurs who compete or exhibit. No person, either professional or amateur, shall be entitled to or receive more than one award. The roses entered by an amateur for competition or exhibition shall be only those grown by such amateur. If other roses are displayed in any such competition, the person so displaying shall not be entitled to an award.

All professionals and amateurs who wish to compete for the awards, or to exhibit, must notify the chairman by mail or by telephone, before noon, next Wednesday, May 25. If the notification is by mail, the letter must be mailed not later than 9 o'clock next Tuesday night. The address of the chairman is 1180 Milwaukee avenue. His telephone number is East 138.

Time for Delivery of Roses.

Roses for competition or exhibition must be at the main entrance of the Exposition between 8:30 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, June 2. No roses for these purposes will be received or accepted after 10:30 o'clock. This rule is absolute, as the exhibits must be placed in position and judged before Saturday noon. It is particularly requested that all roses for competition or exhibition shall have attached to them paper or cardboard labels giving the name of each variety.

Roses for Decorating Purposes. Those who do not wish to compete or exhibit are most earnestly requested to give for decorating all roses they can on next Friday afternoon, before 4 o'clock, and on next Saturday morning not later than 9 o'clock. These roses may be delivered at the following places, where persons will be on hand Friday afternoon until 4 o'clock, and Saturday morning until 9:30 o'clock to receive roses and take them to the Auditorium. These roses for decorating should be cut with as long stems as possible, and placed in water immediately. In taking to a place for delivery the stems should be wrapped with wet cotton wool, or wet paper.

Places Where Roses for Decorating May Be Delivered.

FATHER AND SON IN FEUD

Suit for Over $1,000,000 by Fitzpatrick Against His Son.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Jeremiah Fitzpatrick, of Brooklyn, formerly an extensive glass manufacturer, with large interests here and in Western Pennsylvania, has brought suit against his son, James, and the latter's wife for the restitution of over $1,000,000 in bonds, securities and realty, which, he claims, have been wrongfully taken from him. An attack of the bitterest nature is made by the father on his son and daughter-in-law. For five days past the country home of the son at New Suffolk, L. I., has been barricaded against the fruitless efforts of process-servers from this city to serve Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick with summons in the suit. The siege was abandoned when service of the papers was accepted by counsel. The father retired seven years ago and turned over his business to James, to whom he gave power of attorney. He now charges that at least $1,000,000 of the property has been conveyed by the son to the latter's wife, and alleges he discovered this after having arranged the sale of $100,000 worth of real estate in Hoboken. The father declares he demanded an accounting, but received no satisfaction from the son, and that suit was then brought. Counsel for the son denounces the other members of the family, who are well known in Brooklyn and New York, as being back of the father's action.

GREAT SLUMP IN CORN

Farmers Swamp Chicago Corner With Immense Supply.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Another sensational break today of 34 cents in the price of corn for May delivery makes a total decline for that option during the past three days of nearly 50 cents a bushel. At the opening of trading on Thursday May corn sold at 85 cents a bushel. When the final gong sounded today sellers were willing and anxious to take 49 1/2 cents a bushel for corn to be delivered before June 1. The severe slump marked the end of an attempt by several prominent traders to corner the market. The apparent cause of the abandonment of the deal was the alacrity with which farmers throughout the Central West took advantage of the extraordinary high prices prevailing in the Chicago market to get rid of their surplus corn. Receipts at this grain center during the present week have reached an amazing amount,

GRIFFIN EXTRAS

Every housewife who is interested in serving the finest table dainties will be interested in the

Canned Fruits, Vegetables, Soups, Catsup, Jams, Jellies and Preserves

Known as "GRIFFIN EXTRAS."

It will not pay to put up fruits and vegetables this summer, because your favorite grocer will be able to sell you "Griffin Extras" direct from the finest gardens of California at a price that will make home preserving seem expensive.

Every grocer will be glad to sell you "Griffin Extras" because grocers are always alive to the interests of customers. The grocer can buy "Griffin Extras" direct from the gardens—no middle man or jobber to get a profit—thus he is enabled to give the consumer a vastly finer product for the same money usually paid for a common-place article. Give an order for "Griffin Extras" to your grocer; he will have us put them up and deliver them to you fresh next Fall.

The "Griffin Extras" quality will make you a "Griffin Extras" customer, and you will thank your grocer many times over for selling you "Griffin Extras." Ask him about it before you forget it.

arrivals today being 861 cars, out of which number 321 cars were suitable for delivery on May contracts, and it was generally expected that the extremely heavy movement would continue throughout the remainder of the month. The market today was weak the entire session. At the opening the price was off 2 cents, at 55 cents. The price continued to recede up to the close, when sales were made at 54 cents.

Greek Text of the Gospel.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, Salem, Or., May 27.—W. P. Drew, A. M., B. D., professor of Latin and Greek in Willamette University, has just received a copy of his new book, published by Benjamin H. Sanborn & Co., of Boston. It is a Greek text of the Gospel of Mark, and is intended for use in the last year of preparatory schools or for rapid reading college classes. The book presents a very neat appearance, having flexible leather binding and containing 123 pages, 52¢. It contains the Greek text of the whole of Mark, with notes based upon classic usage, and a vocabulary of all the words in the Gospel. Never before has there been edited a Greek text of any part of the New Testament referred to classical grammars and based upon classic Greek. The entire book was arranged by Professor Drew.

New York Children Defective.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Physical examination of school children in the primary grade made by inspectors for the Board of Health, have produced statistics showing that more than 50 per cent of the pupils are defective. The work of examining them is not yet finished. According to the Commissioner of Health this condition is not so alarming as the figures seem to indicate, because a majority of the ailments are of a minor character. The largest figures for any complaint were those of defective vision, but the records for bad nutrition, pulmonary and heart ailments were much greater than the experts believed they should be. Methods are being employed by the department to extend aid and suggestions to the parents wherever possible.

Stops to Get Requisition Papers.

Detective Joe Day, who is on his way to Buffalo, N. Y., to bring George Randall to Portland to face charges of forgery, was stopped at Nampa, Idaho, yesterday for a short time, until requisition papers were issued by Governor Chamberlain. There was a hitch in the proceedings, because District Attorney Manning demanded that sufficient money be posted by complainants to guarantee the state's expenses, in case it should develop there is insufficient evidence against the accused, or his accusers should decline to prosecute after he is here.
