OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.—The following officers were elected Friday night by Multnomah Camp No. 7, Woodmen of the World, at the hall on East Sixth street: Past consul, W. W. Lumsden; consul commander, M. O. Wilkins; adviser, Heutenant, H. J. Ingram; clerk (holdover), J. M. Woodworth; banker (holdover), H. H. Newhall; escort, G. C. Lawrence; watchman, F. Trotter; sentry, W. Parsons; musician, A. H. Clarke; manager, 18 months, E. H. Bennett; manager, 12 months, J. H. Miller; manager, six months, W. W. Minor. Following the election, an entertainment was given by the uniform rank with the following exercises: piano solo, Professor Grimm; character sketch, Nic Bicker; song, P. R. Johnson; reading, M. O. Wilkins; orchestra, Professor Grimm; song, F. F. Griffith; address, Dr. W. F. Hubbard. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The case will be heard before Judge Hogue tomorrow.

CHARGED WITH FIGHTING.—Charged with fighting, John Whittemiller, Henry Murphy and Frank Dacombe were arrested yesterday afternoon and booked at police headquarters. The complainant against them is Frank Kaufman, who says the three men, who conduct a plumbing shop at the east end of the Morrison-wood street bridge, attacked him because he asked them to pay him 50 cents due him for an express job. The case will be heard before Judge Hogue tomorrow.

DEATH OF M. V. DONLEY.—The body of M. V. Donley, formerly a resident of East Portland, who died at Walla Walla, has been brought to Portland for burial. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the Burkhard building, where Washington No. 48 A. F. and A. M. will meet to conduct the service. Interment will be in Multnomah Cemetery. Mr. Donley was for several years a resident of Walla Walla, but had lived in Portland for some time.

DR. RICHMOND'S EYE, EAR, ALIEN'S HIDE.—LAUNCHES TO THE FAIR GROUNDS.—The new landing stage at the foot of Stark street is completed and a five minute service is arranged for. Arrangements for the care of houseboats and launches can be made by applying to Anderson & Crowe, 246 Ash street. Phone Main 1661, or landing stage. Clear stand and refreshment booth on landing stage or rent.

THEIR CARES DISMISSED.—Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday dismissed the cases of Isaac, Sam and Harry Lippmann, father and sons, respectively. The boys were charged with contempt of court, and the father was believed to have kept them away when they were wanted as witnesses. Investigation proved there was no intent on their part to ignore the order of the court.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ROSE CAVANAUGH.—The funeral of Mrs. Rose Cavanaugh, who died at her home, 905 Missouri avenue, Thursday, was held yesterday morning from her late home and St. Mary's Church, Williams avenue and Stanton street. Members of Oregon Circle No. 171, Women of Woodcraft, of which she was a member, attended the funeral.

VIOLATES WOOD-SAW ORDINANCE.—August Ahrens is the first man to be arrested by the local police for violating the city ordinance which prohibits wood-saws from being operated on asphalt pavements inside the fire limits. He was taken into custody by Patrolman Carson yesterday, and will have a hearing in the Municipal Court tomorrow.

OREGON CAMERA CLUB EXCURSION.—Steward Charles R. Spencer will carry the club and its friends to Bonneville on Sunday, June 4. Leave foot of Washington street, 5:30 A. M. Tickets, $1.00, for sale Woodward, Clarke & Co., Oregon Photo Stock Company, Blumauer, Frank Co. and club members.

WATCH FOR WOOSTER'S AUCTION, 7th-Mor.—LEWIS AND CLARK OBSERVATORY.

As the time approaches for the opening of the Fair, all having the welfare of the city at heart should study the best manner of entertaining the vast horde of visitors who will soon be here as our guests. What better way can be found than a trip on the scenic Portland Heights loop and a view of the city and surrounding country from the great height on top of the Observatory, 300 feet above the river?

This artificial summit can be reached with ease and at nominal cost. A round trip can be made in less than an hour, and the magnificent view unfolded to the sight is not equaled anywhere on this continent, good to consider—it is not even necessary to leave the city's limits to witness all this!

The city people should not fail to see this great view, so as to tell their friends about it.
