EMPIRE TRACK, Yonkers, N. Y., June 24.—(Special.)—Amid great enthusiasm, Guy Vaughan, with a 60 horse-power Decauville car, broke the 1000-mile and 26-hour record of the world on this track today. His total mileage for 24 hours continuous riding was 2015, miles, against a previous record of 941 miles, made by Charles G. Wridgeway at Brighton Beach time by 2 hours, 16 minutes, 41

The 1900-mile race was finished at 8 nutes, 20 seconds past 1 o'clock, and 24-hour race at 25 minutes past 1 lock. Vaughan's total time in the 2000-mile race was 23 hours, 33 minutes, 30 seconds, against Wridgeway's record of 25 hours, 20 minutes, I second. The 1000th mile was the fastest of all, it being made hour race, Vaughan drove his car without a right rear tire. There were about 1500 persons present when Vaughan stopped. His friends and associates lifted him on their shoulders and carried him a quarter of a mile down the track. He was cheered to the echo, and the crowd went wild with excitement.

As soon as the young driver, only 22 ears of age, could free himself from is rejoicing friends, he rushed to where his mother and sister were waiting and embraced them. His face was begrimed with dust, and his hands and legs were so stiff that he was hardly recognizable, but withal, he wore a smile and said he felt in good condition, except that he wanted a good meal and some sleep. Because of the slippery condition of the track from all-night rainss the automobile races scheduled for today were postponed until Monday.
