

WEEK IN REVIEW

SOCIAL gaieties during the past week have centered around the naval officers, whose presence in Portland has been long awaited. On Tuesday, and again on Friday, Admiral Goodrich invited a number of Portland people to his guests on the torpedo-boat Perry for a trip on the river. The Perry, being a torpedo-boat destroyer, has comparatively small deckroom, and is capable only of taking small parties. On Tuesday the spin down river to Vancouver was in honor of President and Mrs. Goode, and the Exposition directors and their wives. The reception and dance last evening, which was a very large affair, was a fitting wind-up to the week's festivities.

Much interest attached to the formal opening of the art galleries on Monday. Mrs. Du Mond headed the receiving line, and all Portland society was present to get a first glimpse of the large collection of American paintings, which may justly be called the pride of the Exposition. On Wednesday, the gallery of art in the Missouri building was thrown open to the public, though without formal exercises, and on Thursday a consignment of paintings by Italian artists was hung in the European exhibit building.

An event of the week much regretted by local society folk was the departure Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Brown, Mrs. W. W. Brown and Miss Lee, of New York. The party goes by way of the Grand Canyon, the Yosemite Valley and Yellowstone Park.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. H. W. Goode gave a farewell dinner in honor of the ladies of the New York Commission. The decorations for this dinner, especially effective, and have been much commented on. Mrs. Goode is fortunate in the decorations for many social functions at St. Louis last summer, among them those given by Mrs. Francis. The guests of President and Mrs. Goode at this dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Pratt A. Brown, Mrs. W. W. Brown, Miss Lee, Mr. Scott Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of San Francisco, Admiral Goodrich, Captain Moore and Mr. A. C. Bedford, of New York. The Admiral and Captain Moore gave the salute to the flag as they approached President Goode's house, and every guest echoed approval. Mrs. Goode wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with a pattern of pink roses woven into the fabric. Mrs. Lewis, who is a sister of Mrs. Allen Lewis, wore a noticeably handsome gown of pink satin, embroidered with tiny beads. All ladies were in low-neck dresses.

His promotion to his present rank has been recent. Admiral Goodrich married Miss Eleanor Milnor, of New York. He has a charming home, "Gladwyn," in Pomfret, Conn.

Mrs. Matiorie Lutz, the charming New York girl, who has been so prominent in Portland social events during the past few weeks, is believed to have left a number of lonely hearts behind her among the cavaliers of this city. It is even surmised that a certain gay bachelor of local note is most disconsolate over her going.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Du Mond have been off on a sailing trip for a few days, leaving town on Tuesday. Mr. Du Mond has been continually at work for weeks on matters connected with the art exhibit at the Exposition, and welcomed the opportunity for recreation upon the completion of his work of installation. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Du Mond have been much interested in paintings of both these artists now hung here. Mrs. Du Mond's later work shows that since her return from Europe she has been painting landscapes rather than figures.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt, of New York, are to be guests of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, sister of Mrs. Pratt, during the summer. They have started from New York but are detained en route by the illness of one of their children.

Julius Maurfelder, the well-known artist, formerly of San Francisco and of Portland, now of New York, is spending the summer on the coast. He was present at the opening of the museum on Monday, as one of the guests of note.

A full account of the reception given by the Exposition officials in honor of Rear-Admiral Goodrich and the officers of the Pacific Squadron, at the American inn, last evening, is given elsewhere in this issue of The Sunday Oregonian.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. J. Mackenzie have been entertaining Dr. and Mrs. Harry Luhn, of Spokane, during the past week. Dr. and Mrs. Luhn are on their way home from Los Angeles.

Lieutenant Perry Napier Olmstead, of the protected cruiser Boston, gave a dinner on board Tuesday evening, the decorations consisting of pink sweet peas and roses. Favory were Aloha fans tied with U. S. Boston ribbons. There were also bunches of pink carnations. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, the Misses Estelle and Florence Flower, of New York. Mrs. Ladd's guests, and Miss Susie Scott.

Mr. W. A. Mears and Mrs. C. R. Brown entertained several members of the Texas delegation Wednesday with an automobile party. The trip to Council Crest being highly enjoyed.

Mrs. C. T. Mills, president of Mills College, arrived here yesterday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dolph. She desires to see her old students and friends on Thursday afternoon at the Portland Hotel from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. C. H. Lewis gave a small dance on Friday evening, at which the younger set were largely present. Simple decorations of golden crape and greens were used. Admiral Goodrich, Captain Moore and Lieutenant Bartlett, from the squadron, were among the guests as were also several officers from the barracks at Vancouver.

MRS. COX OF POCAHONTAS, ONE OF THE IDAHO HOSTESSES

party, but he was unable to do so. Guests of the Idaho ladies, in addition to the Congressional party, were Mrs. H. W. Goode and Mrs. Pardee, of California. Miss May Scott, of Boise, is State Superintendent of Schools in Idaho. Her engagement to one of the gentlemen on Governor Gooding's staff was recently announced.

On Monday, from 3 until 5 o'clock, a reception will be held in the California state building in honor of Governor and Mrs. George Pardee, the receiving party for the occasion will be arranged as follows: Governor and Mrs. Chamberlain, of Oregon; President and Mrs. H. W. Goode; Governor and Mrs. Pardee, of California; Commissioner and Mrs. Fleber, Commissioner and Mrs. Wiggins, Mr. G. A. Dennison, secretary of the California Commission, will present guests to the receiving party. Eight hundred and fifty invitations to the affair have been issued, most of these being double invitations.

Governor and Mrs. Pardee and their daughters and the two California Commissioners and their families are included in the California press party in its trip up the Columbia today.

One of the coming events in the Massachusetts building will be the reception to be given the delegates of the National Educational Association on July 14. Commissioner and Mrs. Wilson H. Fairbank will turn the building over to the New England Society, who will act as hosts.

Many complimentary remarks have been made about the excellent management shown in all the arrangements for Massachusetts. Christian Union and Mrs. Theodore Wilcox, who planned all the social part of the affair, deserve no end of credit. It was due to their happy management that the reception stands as probably the most entirely satisfactory one of its kind that has taken place at the Exposition.

who attended were soon scattered through the house and grounds in a delightfully informal way. Mrs. Newell was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. R. R. Slope, Mrs. Rocky, Mrs. Bauer, Mrs. Hubbard and Miss Davis. Mrs. Fink served fruit punch in the living-room. The reception-rooms were filled with vases and baskets of beautiful roses from the gardens of the academy. The superrooms were draped in the class colors, purple and gold, and the two center tables were very artistically decorated in the same color scheme, with yellow ribbons mingled with the purple and gold of pansies, nasturtiums and sweet peas. The supper, as is always the case at Mr. and Mrs. Newell's functions, was delicious and very daintily served. The large dining-room, which had been converted into a ballroom for the occasion, was decorated in evergreens and Oriental draperies, and formed an effective background for the pretty costumes and happy faces of the dancers. The music was furnished by Parsons' Orchestra and was excellent. The long porch and the lawn proved very attractive to the guests, both young and old, and with strings of electric lights in perspective and with Japanese lanterns, looked like fairyland itself.

Misses Zella and Georgia Lewis entertained a party of friends at their home, 88 Tacoma avenue, Sellwood, on the evening of June 19. The party was given in honor of their cousin, H. La Verne German, who has been visiting them on the East. The evening was very pleasantly spent with music and games. The musical numbers were piano selections by Mrs. Vida Lewis Smith, Misses Georgia Lewis and Irene Ray, and vocal numbers by Foss Lewis and the Sellwood Ladies' Quartet. Later dainty refreshments were served. The guests were Mrs. Sabina German, Mrs. E. O. Miller, Mrs. Vida Lewis Smith, Misses Ruby Walker, Lilla Rickson, Sylvia Rickson, Nellie Rickson, Irene Ray, Florence Hozie, Gertrude Albright, Della Campbell, Lillian Wahlstrom, Messrs. H. La Verne German, W. F.

F. Fink, Captain Ward Downs and Lieutenant Walter L. Toomey. Jr. After the short but interesting address by the graduates, Hon. W. L. Toomey, of Woodburn, made a stirring and encouraging speech, full of inspiration for the young men whose school days were then closing. After the presentation of the diplomas, "restraint" was assumed by the band, the flag was hoisted, and the school year closed.

On Monday, the 19th, Camelia Chapter, No. 27, O. E. S., gave a banquet in Hill's Hall, Abingdon, in honor of Mr. Worthey Grand Matron Madeline R. Conklin. There were 145 seated at the table, which was set in the form of a hollow square. The decorations were flowers in the center of the order. The most worthy grand matron was seated in a chair beautifully decorated with crimson rambler roses. She was presented with a bouquet of roses. Toasts and responses were as follows: C. W. Miller acting as toastmaster; welcome address, W. P. Camelia Chapter, No. 27, O. E. S., "The Future of Our Beautiful Order," M. W. G. M., Madeline R. Conklin; "Our Sisters," W. G. M., Ines M.
