B. Foley, chief ranger: Ella McCarthy, vice-chief ranger, Mary Lawler, recording secretary, Mary McCarthy, financial sec-retary; Sophia Wilson, treasurer; trus-tees, Anna O'Halloran, Neille Meehan, Catherine Curry; conductors. Kats O'Far-rell, Mary Pitzgerald; sentinels, Lena Johnston, Mary Strohmeyer. After in-stallation Vice-Chief Ranger McCarthy, in a few well-chosen words in behalf of the Court, presented Past Chief Ranger S. Walls with a beautiful gold pin. Follow-ing the exercises refreshments were

Last Saturday a party was given in honor of little Julia Murphy's minth anni-versary. Her gift friends arrived at her homs at 2 o'clock, and the afternoon was home at 2 o'clock and the afternoon was spent in playing games. Miss Winnifred Pickerall and Mins Irene Jongs gave set-eral selections on the plano. Refresh-ments were served to the little guests by Miss A. C. Murphy and Mrs. Kate Mc-Donald. Those present were: Margaret McDonald, Kate Harold, Irens Jones, Winnifred Pickerall, Ruth Tucker, Stella Maher. Beatrice Wilcox, Rhoda Turple, Sarah McBride, Berniee McDonald, Ruth Young, Julia Murchy and Master Arthor Soung, Julia Murphy and Master Arthur Havill. nomah.

The Kalama Creek School closed June I with exercises held on the grounds. After this an elaborate hasket lunch was served. Singing and games were induged in These present more Mission Mission served. Singing and games were indulged in. Those present were: Mrs. Minnie Greene and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bottler, of Portland, Mr. Ocea Hansen, of Kerns: Mr. and Mrs. James Powell and son. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson and children. Mrs. Biker and daughters, Luia and Leude Mabel Miller, Viola Miller and Jessie: Mabel Miller, Viola Miller, Annie Gertrude and George Steph, John Eottler, John Bottler, of Kalama, The Minnie Hugili, of Kalama, Mayo.

A large audience greeted Rev. Prederick W. Carstons Monday evening and great-ly enjoyed the lecture, "Beyond the Alps Lies Haly." In clear-cut sentences and cloquent periods, Mr. Carstens pictured the possibilities of achievement that lie beyond the experiences of ordeal. It was a message of implication from a brilliant young man. A pleasing musical pro-gramme preceded the address. This was gramme preceded the address. This was the first of a series of free entertainments that will be offered by the new Central Baptist Church, East Twentieth street. The Kensington Club had a delightful day at the Fair Tuesday. Lunch was taken for the parity of 29. After hunch the party divided into groups, some visiting the state exhibits, others steing nome of the sights of the Trail, meeting at the oregon huliding at 6 o clock. Those who remained for the evening again had lunch, viewed the illumination, and then fin-Portland. viewed the illumination, and then fin-ished the day on the Trwil. The next meeting will be an automobile ride, which will be the last meeting of the year.

A most delightful time was enjoyed hursday afternoon at the charming home f Mrs. F. Strobel, the game of 300 being layed. Mrs. Charles Boss won first of Mrs. F played. played. Mrs. Charles Boss won first prize, Mrs. C. Huly second. Delicious re-freshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. and Miss Monteith, Mrs. C. Barentstecker and Miss Fay. The pro-ceeds of the afternoon were donated to 8t. Ann's Charitable Society, of which due acknowledgment is given.

A delightful evening was spent at the heme of Miss Lillian Sumwalt by the graduating class of the D. P. Thompson School, on the creating of June II. The lawn was gayly decorated with Japanese lanterns, while the parlors were very beautiful in the class colors, gold and white, and the class flower, the La France rose. Games were played, after which de-llelous refreshments were served. licious refreshments were served.

The Brotherhood of St. Paul held a very successful social in the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church Friday evening. The hurch quartet rendered some fine selec Misa Annie Ditchburn sang effec-o, and a pupil of Mrs. Gillespie's ol read to the delight of all. Rediama.

freshments were served by the Brotherhood members. All pronounced it an enjoyable event.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leon Goldenberg delightfully entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. Zimmer-man, of Buanghau, China. The evening was pleasantly passed and many beautiful plano selections were given by one of Portland's best attists. An elaborate luncheon was served, and the spactous rooms were beautifully decorated with rooms were beautituny red carnations.

Last evening being the wedding anni-ersary of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Ford, of the sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church, a Wey, sister of the groom. The bride, en-tering alone, was very attractive in white organdie, richly trimmed with Duchesse ince. She carried a shower bougent of bride roses. The bridal vell was caught tically decorated in truce and La staines roses, mingled with potted plants and ferms. Many beautiful presents were re-ceived. After congratulations by tele-graph were read and others given by the relatives and friends present, an elab-orate supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Maxon will be at home to their friends at 157 East Davis street after July 1. bruce roses. The origin was caught up with a spray of orange blossoms. Miss Maude V. Smith, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was charming in a gown of thin white India linea. Miss Edythe Smith, Miss Lena Johnson, Miss Edythe Smith, Miss Lena Johnson, Jaiss Laytee Ogden and Miss Blanche Darrow, in the dainty flowered organdles, were bridge-maids and each carried red carnations. Mr. C. Eckhardt attended the groom, and the unhers were Mr. A. H. Wey, Mr. J. N. Smith, Mr. Joe Abbot and Dr. H. Norman-Fox.

A quiet but beautiful wedding took place at 8 P. M. Tuesday evening, June 20, at Harr. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Nine-teenth and Multhomah. The house was the parsonage of the White Temple, cor-ner Twelfth and Taylor streets. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Whitcomb Brougher in the presence of a decorated with ferns, lilles and roses, the color acts with term, thus and white. Miss Nellie Smith served fruit punch, under a caropy of ferns and marguerites. Light refreshments were served by Esther Krupke, Lucia Shauer and Delta Pio. few intimate friends, when Miss Bessie Ellen Fox, of Verndale, Minn., and John A. Norman, of Portland, were united in wedlock. The bride was attended by Miss Sadie M. Rabyor, and Mr. James Morris acted as best man. Miss Fox was beauti-fully attired in white silk, with ince trim-The bride and groom received many beau-tiful and costly gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Krupke will be at home to their friends after July 1, at Nineteenth and Multmings, and carried a bouquet of while carnations, while Miss Rabyor wore blue Delly Varden net over blue faffeta and carried pink carnations. Many beautiful presents were received during the day. There was a seronade at the Southern Hotel in the evening in the bride's bonor. On Wednesday evening, June 21, at 8 or wearward yevening, June 2, at a o clock, Misa Vinnie Mayo and Mr. Fred Brady were married in the St. James Lu-theran Chapel. The chapel was beauti-fully decorated, the altar being entirely in green and white. Before the entrance Mr. and Mrs. Norman will spend a quiet honeymbon, and after July 1 will be at home to their friends at 265% East Burnof the bridal party Mr. Ed Stemmine sang "Thou, Sa Like Unto a Flower." Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal chorus from Lobengrin announced the arrival side street. Hazzard-Harder. The marriage of Miss Louise Frances of the bride. She was preceded by the ushers, Mr. Earle Mayo and Mr. Walter Mayo, and Mirs Belle Scott, bridesmald, very daimily gowned in Dolly Varden orwhite picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of yellow flowers. The bride leaning on the arm of her father. Mr. J. T. Mayo, made a winsome picture in a gown of white silk mull. Her long yell bride's parents on Wednesday evening. June 21. The house was prettily dec-orated in syringa blossoms and Caroroses, combined with line Testout ferns. The bride's gown was of white creps de chine over taffets, and the trimmings of Duchesse lace, an heirloom ferns. was held in place with white rose buds; she was met at the altar by Mr. Brady and his hest man. Mr. Lincoln Jones. Af-ter the ceremony a reception was held at of her mother's family. She wore her on per mother's tamity, the work her mother's wedding veil, which was clasped with a sunburst of opals and pearls, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hazard left on the midnight train for Seattle and Victoria, thence by hoat to San Francisco, and will be at home after August 1 in their new the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mayo, 345 Clay street. The par-lors, dining-room and reception hall were elaborately decorated. During the evening dainty buffet supper was served, with at home after August 1 in their new East sil Edgeware Road, Los Angeles, Cal.

Brady-Mayo.

curred one of the most beautiful func-

Miss Etha Hopkins presiding at the punch howl. Mr and Mrs. Brady were the recipients of many handsome pres-ents They left for four weeks' trip to Courtency-Cox. Sound cities and British Colur On Thursday evening, at the resi-dence of Mrs. J. C. Cox, Irvington, oc-On their return they will be at Hotel

Hertsche-Birmingham.

the

eny street.

tions of the bridal month, when Mr. A. A. Courtency and Miss Florence Cox A very beautiful home wedding was solemnized last Wednesday evening. June 31, in the presence of near relatives when were joined in marriage by Rev. John E. H. Simpson, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church ceremony was witnessed by only the intimate friends of the fami-Lucine Katherine Birmingham and Mr. Edward Albert Hertsche were united n marriage at the home of Mr. Hertsche s dster, Mrs. J. A. Reid. To the strains of 11ex Roses, sweet peas and ferns in lance formed the tastiful decora-The bride's bouquet was caught sister, Mrs. J. A. Reid. To the strains of Wagner's wedding march from Loben-grin, two little flower girls, Mias Bernice Reid and Miss Josephine Mann, preceded the bride's sister, acting as bridesmaid. Following came the bride on the arm of her uncle, Dr. Koehler. The parlors were profusely decorated in masses of roses. The bas window where the commencement by Miss May Robertson, bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Courteney will make an extended tour through Southern California, and upon their return will be at home to their host of friends early in August. The bay-window, where the ceremony was performed, was latticed with myrtle and marguerites, and from the center of a canopy of ferns suspended a huge mar-McKenzle-Youngs. Cards were received this week annous ig the marriage of Collin Aberdeen Mc ringe bell of La France roses. American Beauties and red candle shades were the color scheme of the dining-room. The bride looked very charming beneath her Kenzie to Miss Lina May Youngs. The wedding took place at Omaha, Neb., on Saturday, the 17th inst. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. bridal vell, which covered her gown of white organdy. In her arms she carried a shower bounnet of bride's roses. The groom is a member of the firm of Reid 4 Hertscher Company. He is a son of Ada Corniah Hertsche, who arrived from Younge, of 461 Union avenue, North, this city. The family removed from Omaha to Fortland last September, Mr. Younge having accepted the management of The Ore-gonian and Telegram pressroom. In the interim Miss Youngs has formed a circle of friends here who cordially wish her every joy in her new life. Mr. McKennie Omaha with her father, who arrived from Omaha with her father, Colonel J. N. Cornish, and sister, Mrs. J. M. Metcalf, to be present at the wedding. After sev-eral weeks of travel Mr. and Mrs. Hertsche will be found at 60 East Ankis connected with printing in Omaha, and is in very comfortable circumstances.

Osborn-Wilcox.

Monges-Grant. H. Clay Osborne and Miss Annie Wil-cox were married on Wednesday, June 21, by Dr. Hope in All-Saints Church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. On Wednesday evening June 21, occurred the marriage of Miss Mabel Grant, of this city, to Mr. Richard Fenner Mongea, Wednesday, June of San Francisco. The wedding was a quiet affair, st the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Grant, on Willametie Heights. Only rel-atives and intimate friends, to the num-Nathan Wilcox, of Boosevelt street. Mr. Caborne, who is at present in the employ of the Government at the Ex-Grant, on Williamette Heights. Only rel-atives and intimate friends, to the num-ber of 20, were propert. The bride was gowned in white liberty slik, daintily trimmed with Mechlin (acc. She carried white roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Armentine Monges, sister of the groom, wore white allk mull trimmed, with Val-enciennes lace and carried pink roses. The bridal group stood in the circular window at the end of the long parlors, which were for the orceasion transformed into a bower of greenery with mock or-Della M. Hart and Dr. C. S. Collier position, is a son of Major-General Os

Sayles-Hadley.

ried on the evening of June 15 at the home of the bride in Newberg. The new couple have made their home in St. Johns. On their arrival from New-berg. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were sur-prised by an unannounced visit from the choir of the Methodist Church of St. Johns. Mrs. Wilson was made ac-quainted with the guests.

Fanning-Moore.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, JUNE 25, 1905.

A very beautiful home wedding occurred at the residence of John Allesina, 41 College street, on Tuesday evening, June 26, at 3 o'clock, Ernest T. Fanning and Alma May Moore being the contracting parties. Rev. William 8. Gilbert pronounced the service. Mine Eva Fanning played the march as the bridal party took position under a floral arch. Lily Allesina was flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Fanning will live at 33% Park street.

Jordan-Severance.

J. Frank Jordan and Miss Lizzle Bev-trance were married by Rev. C. W. Hays Wednesday, June II, at the home of W. Severance. A number of friends and relatives were present. A cousin of the bride, Miss Fannie Boverance, was brides-maid. The bride was given away by her brother, A. G. Beverance, and J. E. Jor-brother, A. G. Beverance, and J. E. Jordan, a brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan will reside at Stewart's Addition Honeyman-Williams.

The marriage of Miss Iva-A. Will-ams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ell Williams, of Oregon City, to James L. Honeyman was solemnized May 21, 1905, in the First Congregational Church at Oakland, Cal., Rev. Henry B. Mowbray, assistant paster of church, officiating Mrs. Honeyman the oorn and raised in East Portland, and has many friends here.

Dalrymple-Peterson.

On Tuesday evening last, in this city, at the home of the bride, Charles E. Dal-tymple and Miss Edith J. Peterson weres married. Rev. J. Bowersox officiated. Norman S. Richardson served as best man, and Miss Georgia Benson as brides-maid. The groom is an esteemed member of the Third O. N. G. Restmart Road. of the Third O. N. G. Regiment Band, and the bride the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Peterson Bowen-Dense.

F. W. Bowen and Florence Dense were married June II, Hev. William E. Randall, of Contral Church, officiating A small company of latimate friends witnessed the summation of the vows of the you opie, the ceremony taking place at stor's home on East Twentieth stre Mr. and Mrs. Bowen will establish a home in Portland.

Apel-Hastorf.

Miss Harriett M. Hastorf and George V. Apel were married with a quiet cere-mony Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hastorf, 28 Benton street. Rev. H. Pratt officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Apel will make their future home in Califor

Ailen-Ehmsen.

The marriage of Miss Martha M. Ehmsen and Howard Allen took place at Milwaukle Thursday night at the Fulton, and was a family affair. The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. H. Burkholder, pastor of Fulton Presby-terian Church.

Hawkins-Adams.

On Tuesday, June 20, 1905, Miss Nellis Adams, of Highland, Or., was married to Mr. William T. Hawkins, Dr. Hops. of All-Saints Church, performing the cerembuy.

ENGAGEMENTS.

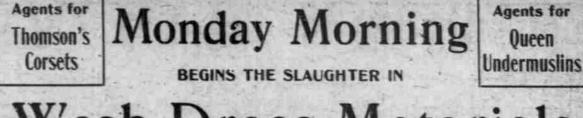

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wing announce the en-gagement of their daughter, Roza E., to Joseph F. Singer. At home Sunday, June 25, 1965, 211 Sixth street, from 1 to 5

The marriage of Miss Ellen Smith Ellot to Fred Alban Well will take place on Saturday, July 1, at 5 o'clock, at the First Unitarian Church. No cards in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horton announce the engagement of their daughter Clara Maris to William T. Casey: the wedding to take place June 28.

COMING EVENTS.

A conversazione and concert will be held

Wash Dress Materials and Household Supplies

Come and See the Best Bargains on Earth-We Have No Competition

15¢ YARD-3000 yards Swiss, fancy woven, colored dots and figures; regular value 25c.

25¢ YARD-2500 yards Wash Pongee, solid colors, all new shades; value 50c.

1212 YARD-Fancy Organdies, this season's styles; 18e and 20e values.

10¢ YARD-Extra fine black India Linon; regular value 15c-other grades in black cut in proportion. Special values in linen color Indian Linon at 14c and 121/2c.

See our values in White India Linons and fancy White Waistings.

VISIT OUR STORE MONDAY.

5¢ YARD-5000 yards English and Scotch Lawns, figures and stripes; values 10c and 15c, go at 5c

14¢ YARD-3000 yards fancy Mercerized Sateen, new patterns, extra fine quality; values 25c. 5¢ YARD-15,000 yards Mercerized Prints and Zephyr Dress Ginghams; regular 8c and 10c values.

Odd Things

Silk Chiffon foundation Stock Collars, plain or

Stocking Feet, white and black, all sizes, S12 to 11;

Prompt and Polite attention-Goods delivered to all parts of the city.

Towel Specials

9¢ EACH-Pure White Huck, size 16x31, hemstitched and hemmed ready for use. 9¢-Extra heavy, fancy fringed, size 19x39.

112-Extra fine pure white Huck Towels, hem-stitched, size 19x34.

95¢ DOZEN-Fancy red border Huck, size 17x32, 5c EACH-Hemmed Huck, fancy red border, size

27

16x25-This is a nice bedroom towel.

Sash Curtains

6¢ YARD-Stripe Swiss, 38-inch-very nice for curtains

Sc YARD-Stripe Organdie, 40-inch-new styles, pure white.

10c YARD-Fancy figured and dotted Swiss, great range of new patterns, 36 inches wide-Extra Fine Quality.

121 c-36-inch Swiss, extra fine, colored dots, tigures and stripes.

Hemmed Sheets and Pillow Cases-Specials for Rooming-Houses, 35c-Hemmed Sheets, 72x91, re-enforced through the center.

50¢-Extra heavy hemmed Sheets, seamless, actual size 77x91.

9¢-Pillow Cases, deep hem, sound cloth for hard wear, size 42x36.

10¢-Pillow Cases, size 45x36.

Napkin Specials

60¢ DOZEN-Extra heavy double warp, silver-bleach Napkins, size 17x17-This is the best Napkin made for wear.

- 75c-Bleached Damask Napkins, handsome patterns, extra special 75c; size 20x20.
- 90¢ DOZEN-Extra fine mercerized Napkins, satin finish, size 19x19.

BEDSPREADS-Special at 98¢. 75¢. 68¢. TABLE LINEN-Specials 50¢, 39¢, 35¢, 25¢

We Are Headquarters for the Cash Buyer on Blankets, Quilts, Curtains, Draperies and Linens Agents for Modes Mt. Hood

Cal., are visiting Mr and Mrs. Jacob Hepp, the parents of Mrs. Coombs, at Forty-fifth and Division streets.

Mrs. M. H. Adams and daughter, Mrs. Arthur M. Prentiss, of Chicago, are spending the Summer with Mrs. Adams' son, Lewis H. Adams, at 1150 Milwaukie nue. At home Tuesdays, 3 to 5. Miss Margaret Dillingham, from Ban-

(Concluded on Page 29.)

Agents for Shirts in the city, atlending the Fair, and is ping with her sister, Mrs. Charles E. ters, Eva. Mabel and Alleen, of Berkeley, Cal., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jacob of her father, Mark A. Malarkey. Mrs. A. Strobel and daughters, of Ar-cata, Cal., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hicks, 56 Tacoma avenue. Miss Zelma Brown, of Self re-Mrs. Mrs. K. W. Irving Spencer and wife are vis-ting at the home of their purents, Cap-taln and Mrs. E. W. Spencer, of 161 Broadway. At home Thursdays. Mr. Graham Dukchari, who home

Miss Zeima Brown, of Salt Lake City, as returned home, after visiting with elatives and friends in Portland.

Mrs. Edward F. Waggoner and daughter, Margaret, of Spokane, are guests of Mrs. Kate V. Wendling. Mrs. Coggins, wife of Senator Clifford Montgomery street.

Mrs. Herman Wellsch and daughte Mrs. Coggins, wite of Senator Clifford Coggins, of California, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edar E. Coursen. Miss Bertha Stuart arrived last week from New York to visit her parents, Mr. Miss. Herman Wellsch and daughters, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. O. Rothschild, at 542 Third street. At home Thursday, June 29, from 2 to 5 P. M. Senator and Mrs. Levi Ankeny and Miss. Herman Wellsch and daughters, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. O. Rothschild, at 542 Third street. At home Thursday, June 29, from 2 to 5 P. M.

number of their friends came into the parsonage, after the love feast, and took y surprise, and spent a most en-hour, partaking of light refreshnts, joining in congratulations, and leaving substantial tokens of esteem, . . .

The stations home of Mr. and Mrs. Describecher East Twenty-third and Til-lamook streets, was filled with guests on Wednesday evening, the occasion being a delightful musicale. An artistic and pleas-ing programme was arranged by the host-ces. The occasion was a Control the hostoccasion was a Central Baptist | Berkeley Church social function.

· · · · Mrs. Alexander Kunz, of 1992 Moore street, Plodmont, gave a very successful informal reception on Wednesday after-mon, June 21, to 26 of her friends, to in-troduce her elster-in-law, Miss Mathilda Kunz, recently arrived from Germany.

Eugene Ormond, of the Belasco Com-any, gave a dinner in his apartments at he corner of Twelfth and Taylor streets on Thursday evening, in house of George Arloss, of Mrs. Fiske's company, and Mrs. Arloss. Fourteen covers were laid. tle . . .

Miss Ruby Roberts, who made so many friends while spending last year in Port-land with Mrs. W. M. Cake, Jr., is to be married June 29, 1965, to F. W. Fish, of Marion, O.

WEDDINGS.

Ball-Habighorst.

A beautiful home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrz. E. H. Habighorst, June E. at s P. M., when their daughter, Miss Nellie. became the bride of Edward J. Ball. The ceremony was performed by Dr. E. L. House, of the First Congregational Church. The various apartments were tastefully decorated with wild orange blossonts and roses. The reception rooms were in red and white the colors of the vere in red and white, the colors of the Multnomah Club, of which the gro Multhomah Club, of which the groom is a prominent member. The color scheme of pink was carried out in the dining-room with La France roses. The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chine, with elaborate trimmings of silk and lace, her elaborate trimmings of slik and lace, her vell being held in place by a spray of orange blossoms. The maid of honor, Miss orange plossoms. The maid of honor, Miss Margarita Bushner, consin of the bride, was charmingly attired in an embreidered gowp over Nils entered in an embreidered the wedding were in plak and white, the gown over Nile green crepe de chine. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of wild orange blossoms. After congratulutions, a dainty lunch was served in the diumg-room. Mr. and Mrs. Ball left on the 11:00 train for Yellowstone Park. They will be at home to their friends after July 15, at 255 Tenth street.

Krupke-Smith.

A very pretty welding was solemnized last Wednesday, when Miss Mayette Smith, daughter of Rev. and Miss. J. E. Smith, was united in marriage to Henry W. Krupke. The ceremony was per-formed at the First Evangelical Church, which was haviably decorated with naires Maxon-Jaggar. A preity wedding took place Wednes-day evening, June 14, at 8:30 o'clock at 574 East Couch attreet, when, in the pre-proce of about 20 relatives and friends, W. Krupke. The ceremony was per-formed at the First Evangelical Church, which was lavishly decorated with palms. Series and marguerites. Rev. J. E. Smith, father of the bride. officiated. andisted by Rev. S. A. Slewert. At 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the stuams of Marker. Miss Nelle Maxon. The structure of Marker. Miss Nelle Maxon. The bride was becominging gourned in a Clif-played on the organ by Mrs. A. K.

Olsen-Horseman.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday A very pretty home wedding took place t the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Horseevening at 8 o'clock when Mr. Olis C. Bayles and Miss Jessie Hadley were marman, their daughter, Adel, being given in ried at their new home at 107 East Nine teenth atrest. The coremony was per-formed by Dr. Morrison in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. The groom's dister. Mics Leia Sayles, of Walla Walla, attended the murriage to Mr. Brant Antone Ola en. The house was beautifully decorated in amilax and roars. Dr. House, of the First Con-gregational Church of Portland offici-ated. The bridal couple, attended by Miss brids. Mr. E. Halley was best man. Aftended the brids. Mr. E. Halley was best man. Af-ter the ceremony a dainty luncheon was merved. Many beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Solyles will be at home to their friedis after July 11. Hardened Barden Nicholson, bridesmaid, and Mr. Ferguson, best man, marched in to the strains of the Lobengrin wedding march, and took their places under the wedding bell, lit-Arthur Horseman being ringbearer.

The bride looked charming in a gown of Lusine silk, trimmed in hand-made Hon-lton lace, made Princess on train. Her well was fastened with orange blossome. Hazzard-Harder. At the home of the bride's father, Will-At the home of the bride statuer, whi-iam L. Harder, 50 Marshall street, George A. Harzard, of Los Augels, and Louiss F. Harder were married on Wednesday, June R, at $ P. M. Forty-five guests were present. The home was beautifully deco-rated for the occusion. In a large floral bower the service was promounced by Rev. William S. Gilbert, of the Calvary volt was fastened with orwage hlossoms, and also carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony lunch was served to about 30 guests. A bety of young girls serving putch in the dining-room. The happy coupie were the recip-ients of many handsome and costly pres-onts. After spending a very enjoyable evening, they took their departure amidat a shower of rice and old shows After Presbyterian Church: Refresh erved, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hazzard ook a train for the Sound cities. They shower of rice and old shows, After July 1 Mr. and Mrs. Olsen will be at home to their many friends at Hayes and Ta-coma streets, St. Johna, Or. be at home in Los Angeles after July 15.

Folsom-Hazard.

marriage of Charlotte L. Stevens The. In the long list of maids who have and Chri H. Francis was solemnized Wednesday evening, June II, at the bride's home, 4d Rodney avenue. Dr. Brougher, of the White Temple, performed the cerechosen the month of roses in which to wed, there is no fairer bride than Miss Caroline Mabel Hazaril, who was mar-ried in Los Angeles to Harry Gilman Folsom Wednesday evening. She is a mony. Only the near relatives were pres-ent. The home was beautifully trimmed with roses. Will Francis was best man young woman of pleasing manner, as well as charm of feature, and enjoys wide popularity. Mr. Folsom, who is the son of Mr and Mrs. E. R. Folsom. with roses. Will Francis was best man and Grace Kune, of Chicago, a alece of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Francis left Thursday evening for Spo-kane, and will be at home to their friends often thirt of their basis. Thereads of Portland, also has many friends in Los Angeles although since his gradu-ation from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology he has passed much of his time in the East. Appointments for after July 1 at their home, 454 Rodney avenue.

Fauss-Layman.

Francis-Stevens.

George W, Fauss, a prominent railroad color tones being observed in the church decorations, and also at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hazard. 217 West Pice street, where a man of Seattle, and Anna Elizabeth Lay-man were married on Wednerday even-ing in the parsonage of the Calvary Présbyterian Church, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Only a few friends were pres-ent at the ceremony. The happy couple left the same evening for Scatile, where wedding supper was served for members of the bridal party later in the evening. Mra Roy Hillman acted as marron of homor, and Wallace Jones best man, while the brids of the Mran they will make their future home. Mrs. Layman was employed for three years as a deputy in the County Clerk's office, and while the bride's sisters, Misses Louise and Evelyn Hazard, assisted as maids.

her former business associates made her a handsome present. Fauss-Layman.

George W. Fauss, of Scattle, Wash, and George W. Fritte, or Sentine, Wasse, and Armie Elizabeth Layman, of this city, were married at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, June 2. at 8 P. M., Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Fauss will live which were for the order in the chronic parliers. which were for the occasion transformed in a bower of greenery with mock or-ange blossoms shedding their fragrance about. In the dilling-room there were pink roses and pink carnations every-where, and the bride's table had also bows and streamers of pink ribbons to add to its stitractiveness. Mr. Earle Grant acted as best man. The full Epis-conpil marriage service was read by Rev. W. A. Breck, and the weiding march by mendelsbehn was played. Mr. Monges is an electrical engineer with the Generat Effective Company, of San Francisco. He and bis bride will make their home in Berkeley. cadets.

Miss Lela Fair Mrs. J. L. Tousey, who has been visit-ing friends and attending the Fair, re-turned to Hood River Saturday to spend the Summer

. . .

It is announced that Mr. Ikken Nagai will address the indices of the Portland Art Class at the Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets, on Wednesday after-noon, June 28, at 2 o'clock. The subject of the lecture will be "The influence of and the Korin (Japanese) school of painting on European ari." All those who are the interested in Japanese art are invited Af-to be present. Mr. Jiro Harado, to whom indebted for this opportunity kindly consents to act as interpreter.

The annual promenade of the alumni of Portland Academy will be held in the academy gymnasium on Thursday eve-sing, June 39. Parsons orchestra will fur nish the music, and the following ladie will act as patronesses: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. J. C. Hazzard, Mrs. Zera Johnston, Mrs. J. C. Hannar Snow and Mrs. J. F. Ewing.

Improve Your Face

A skillful dermatoligist can perform al-A signiful dermatoligist can perform al-most miracles with the human face. You owe it to yourself and to those nearest to you to present as attractive an appear-ance as possible. Madame Tully, 400% Clay street, is summering in this city and will be pleased to receive a visit from those in need of her professional gerv-tees.

dets.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Miss Minnie Raphael has returned home from San Francisco. Miss Frances Greeninger, of San Franisco, is the guest of Miss E. Doering. Miss Grace W. Rankin left yesterday morning for the East to visit relatives. B L Loch, of Helena, Mont., is in the ity, staying with Dr. Loeb and family. Miss Esther Salomon, of San Francisco s visiting Mrs. H. Gerson, 22 Thirteenth coms, are guests of Mr. George W. Mr. and Mrs. M. Summerfield, of Ta

Mrs. Harry Millaner, of San Francisco, is visiting her parents at & Ella street. Home Tucadays.

Mrs. John Cavanaugh and Miss Gene-vieve Malarkey, of New York, are guests at the Hotel Scott.

Mrs. E. J. Craig, of Juarez, Mexico, is visiting her father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cauthorne.

Mr. W. W. Bradley, of Winstpeg, Mani-tobs, son of Mrs. B. B. Bradley, is in Portland on business.

Mrs. Harry A. Holland, of Spokane, a visiting her mother, Mrs. M. Baum, at 80 Thirteenth street.

Wilson-Finley. A. E. Wilson, of St. Johns, and Miss Mrs. William Foote and Miss Dorothy Foote, of Plattaburg, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Richard Williams.

Miss Bertha Stuart arrived last week from New York to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stuart, of 569 Sixth street. Mrs. W. H. Nebergall and daughter, Miss Last Musetha of Pendleton, are Miss L. McArthur, at her home on Mrs. W. H. Nebergail and daughter, diss Leia Huggins, of Pendleton, are Glisan street. guests of friends in the city, visiting the expected in Portland about July 4.

Mrs. Caroline Pfenninger announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Caro-line Marie, of Pittsburg, Pa., to Mr. Rudolph Kissling, to take place July 1 at Milwaukle, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Woemdle, who Mr. and Mrs. S. Kalisky, who have been visiting their daughter. Mrs. C. S. Unna, will leave for San Francisco Bunday even-past month, left Thursday for their home in Frances, Wash. In Frances, Wash. Miss Beatrice Maltman, of New York Ity, is spending the Summer in this city, San Jose, Cal., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. and is the guest of Mrs. Gus Kuhn at 60 John Archer Bell, 292 Tweifth street.

dontgomery street. Mrs. Charles, P. Coey, of Rockford. Nash., is visiting the Fair, and is stop-Nash. (a visiting the Fair, and is stop-

Ma:

"Gourand's Cream" as the lease thin preparations." For sale by all o Goods Dealers in the United States, DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh thowers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, fertilizing and life-producing properties cause the hair grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. IT IS THE NATURAL FOOD OF THE HAIR, SCIENTIFICALLY CHARGED WITH NEW AND GENUINE LIFE-PRODUCING ESSENCES UNHEARD OF BY OTHER MAKERS OF HAIR TONIC. NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertiser to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

FOR S.LE AND GUARANTEED BY WOODARD. CLARKE & COMPANY.

