Frances Duane, are now visiting frie

The Misses Mary and Ruth Morse, of California, formerly of Portland, are here

Miss Mayme Apfel, of Spokane, Wash.,

is visiting the Misses Carolyn and

Mr. Clarence Montain, of the Belasco

Stock Company, has taken apartments stone, Or., have left for Europe, and will be gone three months.

Miss Julia and Mr. Max Reiss, of San Francisco, are visiting Mrs. Ludwig

Mr. and Mrs. James Heatley, of Gli

at Hood River.

at the Marlyn Club.

center of the room hung a large bell of white carnations and lilies. During the by Miss Elsie Hesse, Miss Edna Beck and tor Hesse Du Bois. Among the gue e: Mr. and Mrs. Skoberg, Mr. a Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. Trainor, Mr. and Mrs. Loveloy, Mrs. Davey, Mrs. Larron, Mrs. Knonkin Misses Lizzle Evans, Rose Schwartz, Kate Halzer, Olive Beck, Edna Beck and Elsie Hesse; Mesers, Otto Wahi, Ernest Wahi, Hubert Martin and J. Moeller.

An enjoyable outing was given Thurs day at the Oaks by Mrs. John W. Kelly in honor of Mrs. S. G. Rundlett, of Sa-lem. Those present were Mrs. S. G. Rundlett Mrs. J S McHugh Mrs. Edward Verdeckberg, Mrs. Norton A. Thayer, Mrs. Susan Howe, Mrs. J. A. Dunn, Mrs. T. M. Howe, Mrs. Carl G. Liebe, Mrs. Henry P. Kosterman, Mrs. D. A. Morris, Mrs. Fred L. Schanz, Mrs. Herman H. Jones, Mrs. J. Wrinkle, Mrs. James Abrey, Mrs. George E. Turner, Mrs. C. J. Turney, Mrs. John W. Kelly, Miss Kelly, Miss Mary Little, Miss Lillian McHugh, Miss Hazel Kosterman, Miss Genevieve Kelly, Miss Grace Davis, Alta Kelly, M. Schang, Clinton Howe, Raymond McHugh and Morris Jones.

One of the most successful reception of the season was held by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Asher on last Thursday evening in honor of their nephew, Dr. Jacob Ros enberg, of Denver. The house was dec-erated throughout in crimson and gold, the colors of the Oregon and Denver untversities of medicine; the walls were covered with native myrtle, ivy and American flags, and palms were used profusely. The greater part of the evening was spent at whist, those winning prizes being Miss Miller, Dr. Rosenberg, Miss Brown and Mr. Brownberger, while the remainder of the evening the guests enjoyed themselves by dancing upon the she was met by the groom and his bes iawn. At midnight an elaborate supper man. Antoine G. Labbe. After the cere was served to 30 people, which lasted until | mony, the party repaired to the house a recital Priday evening, June 9, at the residence of Mr. Pershin, on Thirty-ninth room, which was decorated with pink and Division streets. The programme was interesting and well rendered. The following pupils took part in the evenng exercises: Mrs. Parmalee, Mrs. Ham. Misses Chamberlain, Ruth Simpson, Eva Louise Thompson, Graves, Louise Thompson, Graves, Lean Scougall, Gladys Wiggins, Mary Scougall, Minnie Backstrom, Iris After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Labbe and Lucile Danforth. At the close of the will be at home to their friends at MG programme, Mrs. Max Shillock, in her Twelfth street, this city, usual pleasing manner, entertained the pupils and their friends with two welland a pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Mrs. William V. Jobes gave a charm versation and music, the guests were regaled with a delicious luncheon, at hich Mrs. S. A. Lockwood served tea. mong those invited were: Mrs. Taft, son Myers, of Portland.

colors of the Academy. There was a large and broad, glossy leaves of the mag attendance and an enjoyable time was noits. Soft music filled the flower tertainment continuing until a late hour. The patronesses were Mrs. Helen Ladd garet, accompanying her with the Frank New, in honor of her sister, Geor-Fred Fontaine received the little guests in a delightful manner. Games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Jessie in Chicago after September 1. Rumsey, Maude Van Curen, Clara Line-Rose, Helen Stam, Florence Merit, Lena Burgard, Ella Bell, Dottie Cottingham, Margaret and Miriam Hagedorn.

and Mrs. Adolphe Wolfe gav dinner Saturday evening, in honor of their guest, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, of Chicage. Those invited to meet Dr. Hirsch were: Dr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Hen Selling, Mr. and Mrs. Sig-York: Miss Marguerite Heller, Miss Flor ence, J. Wolfe, Hon. Joseph Simon, Mr. Philip Lowengart, Mr. William Frank The decorations were sweet pean, artistically arranged covering the

Mrs. R. T. Deeming gave a musicale at ser home, 424 Second street, on Friday afternoon, in which a number of her pupils participated. A charming programme was rendered. Those taking part were Emily Woods, Eleanor Palmer, Bentrice Palmer, Hazel Baucom, Eva Ellis and Irene Baucom. Dainty refreshments were served, after which Beatrice Palmer added much to the pleasure of the occasion by her excellent rendering of several recitations.

Martha Washington Chapter, No. 14, O. E. S., held one of its enjoyable "social" meetings on Monday evening, June 26. The programme was exceptionally picasing and unique, embracing songs, recitations, a touch of opera and a sacred music in sign language, the whole ending with a dainty quet, enlivened by speech and merry is hoped all will avail themselves of future similar opportunities.

number of delightful affairs were given last week in honor of the engage-ment of Miss Martha A Webb. A most enjoyable "China Shower" was given by adon was hostess at a "linen shower," bride-elect also gave a luncheon to the bridesmaids, and entertained circles of friends on two different afternoons.

Miss Lena McIntire, of Salem, entertained about 16 young ladies one even-ing last week in honor of Miss Ethel Rosa Portland girl. The affair was in the form of a children's party, as Miss Rossiter had formerly resided in Salem in her "doll days," and many old ac-quaintances were renewed. The favors quaintances were renewed. The favors were A. B. C plates, on which the re-freshments were served, and the whole affair was a most enjoyable event.

Mrs. F. R. Stokes entertained quite informally on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Stokes and Miss Stokes, Mrs. Barron and Miss Barron, of San Franand Mrs. Pamerston White, Light refreshments served, the table decorations being pink sweet peas with pink shaded candles.

A most successful and enjoyable entertalnment was given last Wednesday evening on board the British ship Pytho-mene for the benefit of the Seamen's Institute. The evening's programme was under the direction of Miss Elizabeth were: Miss Bonney Hutt, of New York, and Mrs. Myrtle D. Sturdevant, of Chicago.

" Mrs. Glesner carrying off the first prize.

The New York State Society will hold an old-fashioned social evening on Wednesday, July 5, in the Elks Hall, Marquam building. All New York folks are invited to be present. Mrs. Roswell H. Lamson gave a lawr party on Thursday afternoon, which proved an especially enjoyable affair. The canyon view from her grounds was much admired by her guests. Mrs. R. B. Lamson gave one of the most charming lawn parties of the season this week at her beautiful home the hours being spent in delightful

WEDDINGS.

Labbe-Bradley.

At noon on Wednesday, June 28, Miss Myra L. Bradley and C. Henri Labbe were married at the home of the bride's parents at Bridal Veil, Or. The wedding, though simple, was exceedingly beautiful, the ceremonies taking place in the open air in a beautifully shaded spot on a high bluff everlooking the Columbia River. Rev. W. S. Gilbert performed the cerecony to the presence of a few intimate friends. Promptly at noon Miss Anna Rankin began playing the wedding march and the bridal procession started from the house, led by Miss Bess Bradley, the bride's sister. The bride followed leaning on the arm of her father. She was beautifully gowned in white chiffon cloth, and carried a large bouquet of bride's heavy foliage and arrow-wood blos where a delightful wedding breakfa served. The large living-room was taste The Pupils of Mrs. L. F. Danforth gave fully decorated with an abundance mock orange blessoms. In the roses and sweet peas, Miss Alice Strong served ice cream and Miss Grace Ellot poured coffee. As the guests departed, the bride threw her bouquet from the balcony of the house to the group of girls below Norma Miss Marguerite Labbe

Well-Eliot.

& o'clock of Miss Ellen Eliot, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas L. Eliot, to Rev. Fred Alban Weil was a matter of wide local interest. While no cards Johns in honor of Mrs. Tafi and Miss had been issued in the city, personal Taft, of Spekare. After delightful con-invitations had been given to all of the many friends of Dr. and Mrs. Eliot and their family, and the First Unitarian Church was filled to the doors before the hour set for the ceremony. Miss Eliot came in on the arm of her broth-er, Rev. William G. Eliot, who assist-Among those Among those Among the King and Mrs. Revnaugh, Mrs. Fenton and Mrs. C. G. Brown, of Spokane: Mrs. Levi Young, of the University of Idaho, and Mrs. S. A. Lockwood; Mrs. E. A. Her maid of honor was Miss Grace Cranch Eliot, her sister, and the other Cranch Eliot, her sister, and the other control of the Company bridesmalds were Miss Henrietta Eliot and Miss Reba Galvin, a coustn, from Berkeley, Cal. Mr. Samuel Ely Eliot was best man, Nothing more exquisiteof the Portland Academy was held on Thursday evening in the Academy gymnashum, which was decorated for the occasion with ferns and flowers; also the here and there the lotus-like flowers attendance and an enjoyable time was noits. Soft music filled the flower-passed by all present. Parsons' orchestra scented church as the bridgi party provided music for the dancers, the en-cretainment continuing until a late bour the organ, her daughter, Miss Mar-Corbett, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. S.
R. Johnston, Mrs. J. C. Hazzard, Mrs.
Zera Snow and Mrs. J. F. Ewing. both her mother and her sister, Mrs. Wilbur, were married. It was trimmed with lace and chiffon. After a wed-A pleasant surprise party was given on hursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank New, in honor of her sister, Georgia Donahue. Miss Incz Neville and Mrs. Well started on their wedding journey. Mr. Well is pastor of the journey. Mr. Well is pastor of the manner. journey. Mr. Well is I Third Unitarian Church and Mrs. Weil and he will be at home

McGrew-Prince.

nized Wednesday evening, June 28, in the presence of near relatives, when Miss Emma Cornella Prince and Finley Office McGrew were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prince, 176 Bancroft avenue. The wedding march from Lobengrin was played by Miss Hildegard Plummer unique feature was the six little flower girls, Polly Bronaugh, Esther Bodman, Imogene Prince, Rema McGlaughlin, Merle German and Margaret Wrenn, carrying sweet peas. They formed an aisle of white ribbon, down which the bridal party passed. The bride made a wincome picture in a gown of white organdy, ng veil being held in place with white resebuds. Her attendants were Miss Vera Prince and Mrs. Benjamin F. Miller. The groom was accompanied by Benjamin F. Miller and Harry B. Kuntz. The Rev. Edgar P. Hill, of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. The various apartments were tastefully decorated with ferns, roses and marguerites. The color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the dining-room with sweet peas and jamamine, and the reception hall was in deep red. In the parior a massive umbrella of La France roses was sus-pended from an arch of marguerites, under which the ceremony took place. After congratulations, a dainty lunch was served in the dining-room. During the evening Miss Frances Prince and assistserved punch, while the guests gust 1. viewed the many useful and handson presents. The bride's bouquet was caught Miss Effe Shorno. After spending the amer at Ocean Park, Wash. Mr. and b. McGrew will be at home to their new home at Lents, Or. occurred, when Miss Oign Lenore Hewitt making. Many visitors were present and by Miss Effic Shorno. After spending the Mrs. McGrew will be at home to their friends in their new home at Lents, Or. No cards were issued.

A beautiful home wedding took place at Misses Lena Hadaway and May Beatty; the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Miss Louise Thatcher Philbrick gave a S. Bechly, Chehalis, Wash, on Wednescharming reception, and Miss Mary Harday morning, June 21, at 9:30 o'clock, when her daughter, Miss Alma, became the bride of J. Irving Love, of New York City. The ceremoney was performed by Rev. W. J. Dickson, of the Episcopal Church. The house was beautifully decorated with toses and orange blossoms, the partor in white and green and the dining-room in pink La France roses. Promptly at 9:20 the wedding march of Lohengrin was played by Earnest Bechly. The bride looked charming in a gown of silk field batiste, and carried bride's roses. She wore a brooch of pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Josephine Schooley, in white sijk mull, was bridesmaid, and carried plnk carnations. George Bechly, of Ta-coma, attended the groom. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Sarah Min zenmier, of Portland. After congratula-tions, a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The happy couple were the regifts. Mr. Love is a prominent railroad man. Mr. and Mrs. Love left amid showers of rice and good wishes on the 12:20 other points.

Parry-Quine. A pretty June wedding was that of Mrs. J. P. Bushnell, of Chicago, in. re. Miss Blanche V. Quine to James M. Is professor of Heidelberg University, was solemnized at the Tiffin, O. After spending the Summer the happy couple will go to Parry; which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, at 75 East Everett street, at 9 P. M. on Wednes-On Thursday afternoon a delightful luncheon was served by Mrs. Kaiser in honor of Mrs. Merrick, of Oakland, Cal., guest of Mrs. G. Powis. The principal feature of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses. The attendants of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses. The attendants of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses. The attendants of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses. The attendants of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses. The attendants of the afternoon was "Sherlack bride's roses." crepe de Paris over silk, and carried bride's roses. The attendants were Miss Carrie A. Parry, of Weiser, Idaho, sister of the groom, and Mr. James A. Thompson, Miss Parry wore tan silk, and carried La M. when Miss Esther Bowers became Mrs. John F. Toft gave a very pleas- France roses. To the strains of the the wife of Mr. Timothy M. Alcorn, ant entertainment to her many friends wedding march, played by Mrs. J. E. Rev. A. J. Hollingsworth performing Wednesday afternoon. Guests of honor Jones, the bridal party entered the the ring ceremony, in the presence of company repaired to the dining-room, where a bountiful supper was served. The high esteem in which these young people is held was manifested by the large number of beautiful presents. Mr. Parry occupies the responsible position of shipping clerk at the Oregon planing mili. They will be home to their many friends at 75 East Everett street.

One of the prettiest and most charming weddings of the season occurred last

Wednesday evening at the White Temple. It was the marriage of Miss Martha Agnes Webb to Samuel Wilson, of Tacoma, Wash., formerly of Portland. large assemblage of friends and relatives was present to witness the ceremony. The altar was most beautifully decorated with stately palms, and a profusion of the dainty huckleberry foliage and marguerites. Long garlands of the green and of marguerites were hung on the pew ends on both sides of the aisle from the main entrance to the front of the church, all being the artistic work of T. A. Olsen. Exactly at 8:30 o'clock the opening bars of Valenti's wedding march were played by Miss Grace Kemp. The groom and his best man, Alexander R. Morton, of Spokane, advanced to the altar, where they were met by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, companied by Dr. J. R. Wilson, of the Portland Academy, who assisted in the service, and all awaited the bridal party. Then appeared the bridal party, making a very impressive sight. First came the four ushers, Robert Strong, Clyde Cumming. George Hart and Louis Cruikshank These were followed by the four brides-maids, in dainty Dolly Varden gowns. with pink sashes, and carrying huge shower bouquets of white sweet peas. The bridesmalds were Miss Mary Elizaboth Webb, Miss Lena Hadaway, Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Louise T. Phil-brick. Next came the maid of honor, pariors and took position under a about 60 guests. The Bowers home the best young people of Mount Tabor, beautiful bell of marguerites and was beautifully decorated for the oc- and their many friends wish them a happy roses. After congratulations from asin the parior the predominating color was red. Just before the ceremony Miss Fay Cooley sang beautifully "Oh, Promise Me," after which Miss Edna Allen, of Albany, played the Lohengrin wedding march, and the bridal party entered the parlor. Miss Allen played softly Mendelssohn's wedding during the service. Miss Ida Noffinger sang at the close. The bride was atended by her cousin, Miss Marguerite Bowers, and Dr. J. O. Van Winkle act-ed as best man for the groom. Little Bowers, and Dr. J. O. Van Winkle Lillian Park was flower girl, and strewed flowers in the pathway of the and party. The bride looked very sweet in a dress of cream crepe de chine, with tuile veil, caught up with syringa blossoms. She carried lilles. The bridesmaid wore pink voile, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Georgia Smith caught the bride's bouquet. A dainty luncheon was served after the ceremony in the dining-room, which was decorated in pink and green. They left on the afternoon train for Portland, where they will visit the Exposition before going their future home at Seattle. Both ing people are well and favorably young lady of Brownsville, and has many friends. The groom is a successful salesman of the Underwood Tour of Travel. He is a graduate of the class of 1903, Wesleyan University, of Kansas. They were the recipients of beautiful and valuable presents showing the esteem in which they are held. Datson-Williams.

The Sunnyside M. E. Church was the cene of a charming wedding Wednesday evening, the pastor, Rev. T. B. Ford, officiating and uniting in marringe Roy G. Datson and Amy J. lams, both of this city. Garfield B. Datson, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Lydia Schuman as Miss Clara Louise Webb, sister of the bridesmaid. Little Esther Bodwell, as "Flower Song" was played softly throughout the service. The bride Datson is a popular member, attending in a body. After the ceremony a reof the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Datson

Gevurtz-Miller.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the residence of Mr.

when their daughter, Sadie, was united in marriage to Alex Gevurtz, son of Mr.

ficiating. Only the relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mrs. Par the bridal party entered the parlor, and during the ceremony played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." The bride was beautiful wedding supper was served in the dining room, which was decorated in pink. M wedding presents. They left for an extended wedding tour through California.

and Mrs. Gevurtz received some elegant

Miss Phlossie Brumagin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brumagin, of Vancouver, Wash., and Mr. J. P. Robinson were married on June 29 at the residence of Mrs. Julia P. Robinson, moth er of the groom, 1154 Holgate street. Rev. George C. Cressey, of the Unitarian Church, performed the ceremony which took place at high noon. Miss

Edna Erdmann and Mr. Herman Erd-

in white silk made over a foundation

color, and carried pink carnations. Mr voir Heights, near the home of Mr.

Robinson's mother. Among those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs.

J. Erdmann, Mr. and Mrs. D.

Brumagin, Mr. and Mrs. M. Pritchard, Mr. C. M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. H.

Foster, Mr. J. I. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs

C. T. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Rob-inson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Laurens, Miss

Roof-Sawtelle.

A pretty wedding took place Tuerday evening, June 27, at 8:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sawtelle, when their daughter, Dalsy P., was united in marriage to Mr. Morris Roof. Rev. S.

E. Meminger, paster of Mount Tabor M. E. Church, officiated. Miss Grace L. Saw-telle, sister of the bride, acted as brides maid, and the groom was accompanied by Mr. Nicholas Arnold. The bride looked organdie, and carrying a bouquet of white beautful, attired in a gown of pale carnations. The bridesmaid wore

The bride and groom are numbered an tamine, and carried pink carnati heavier silk. She carried white car-were, respectively, bridesmaid est man. The bride was dressed nations.

Church.

Addie Robinson.

accompanied by Mr. Fisher, played wedding march from "Lohengrin" as

and Mrs. H. Miller, last Sunday even

and Mrs. I. Gevurtz, Rev. Abraham on the evening train for Seaside, will be at home after July 15 at ception to the relatives was held 311 Marguerite avenue.

PORTLAND GIRL THE BRIDE OF WEST VIRGINIAN

MR. AND MRS. NATHAN SOHN.

Sunday afternoon, June 25, Miss Lillian Goldman, a popular young woman in Jewish circles, and Mr. Nathan Sohn, a prominent business man of Bluefield, W. Va., were married, Rev. Dr. Abramson, rabbi Congregation

Abavia Sholom, performing the ceremony in accordance with the Jewish rites. The bride wore a silver gray dress, trimmed with French embroidery, and carried a bouquet of carnations. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Sohn left on the 8:30 Southern Aha at Sholom, performing the cereer visiting the principal Southern and Eastern cities, they will go to their future home in Bluefield, W. Va.

bride, her gown being a gorgeous white ring bearer, and Marie Datson,

but elegant gown of chiffor with rich applique garnitures, and com-pletely enveloped in a filmy veil of talle, ecured by fragrant orange blossoms. She carried a magnificent bacquet of Bride roses. Her only jewel ornament was a handsome brooch of pearls and diamonds,

Brougher, with the soft organ accom-paniment of "Traumerel," was followed by prayer by Dr. Wilson, uncle of the Many beautiful gowns were worn, a particularly noticeable one being that of the bride's mother, who was charming in an 1830 gown of pale gray brocaded

The handsome home of the bride's par ents had been profusely decorated with light sweet peas and ferns, and a recepand relatives. While at supper, a number of congratulatory telegrams were re-ceived. Wedding guests from out of town were Mrs. James I. Hart, Albany, N. Y.

and Mise Amelia Hurford, of Norwalk, O. Many handsome and costly gifts were received from various parts of this coun-

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left on a trip

Salt Lake City Denver, Fairfield, In

at home in Tacoma, Wash, after Au-

Bushnell-Hewitt.

became the bride of Professor Charles J. Bushnell, of Tiffin, O. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. Nelson, of Albany, under a grill covered with white ribbens and beautiful floral decorations.

Miss Incz Hewitt, of Portland, a cousing of the bride, served as maid of honor Hortense Hogue, as flower girl, and the

Misses Nellie Hogue, Grace Payne, Edna

Allen and Hortense Greffoz as brides

and Phil Goodwin, Elwin Crutchfield, Neal

Murnay and Charles Stewart as ushers. Every room of the Hewitt residence had been most artistically decorated for the eccasion, and presented a very handsome appearance. The bride was dressed in blossoms. She carried a shower bouque of sweet peas. After the beautiful ring ceremony and congratulations by over 70 relatives and intimate friends, all were ushered into the dining-room and treated supper. Mrs. J. K. Haight presided over the dining-room and Miss Frankie Payne and Miss Mary Stewart served. Mrs.

E. Sox before the ceremony rendered beautiful vocal selection, and Miss Haddie beautiful vocal selection, and Miss Handle Parker played the wedding march. The bride was presented with a magnificent display of beautiful and valuable gifts. The bride is an only daughter of Judge

H. H. Hewitt, and is a young lady of fin

Tiffin, O., where the groom has an gant home prepared for his bride, and where they will be at home to their

A very pretty wedding occurred at mplishments and is universally es

pe de chene, trimmed in Duchess lare

Owen Beam acted as best man

tion, and supper was enjoyed guests, which included the bridal

Then the joyful strains of the

the gift of the groom.

The reading of the service by

of the happy couple.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rogoway, 429/2 College street, last be at home after July 15, at East Fiftythird and Burnside streets, Mount bor.

Lohkamp-Dewey.

Miss Ethel Dewey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dowey, was united in marriage with William Lohkamp on Tues day morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rev. Father Daly officiating. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents in Woodlawn. In the evening the bridal couple was serenaded by Autumn Leaf Circle, Companions of the Forest of America, of which both are members. The bride was becomingly gowned in white siik organdie, and carried lilles. Augusta Lohkamp was bridesma wore pink silk organdle. Mr. Carl Dewey, brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Lohkamp are now at home to their friends in their new home in Wood-

Ashley-Kuney. On Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock the marriage of Miss Inez Kuney to Mr. Roscop Ashley took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley, 889 Savier street. Relatives and friends to the number of 35 were Portland, who married the bride's parents, performed the ceremony. rooms were festive in feathery huckle-berry greens and jusmine. The bride wore a gown of white slik net, and wore a gown of white suk het, and carried white roses. Miss Edith Kuney was maid of honor, and Mr. M. A. M. Ashley best man. After a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Ashley started on a bridal trip to Puget Sound. will be at home at 895 Savier street after the 1st of August.

Crow-Uhlman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Uhlman was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Saturday evening, the 24th instant, it being the occasion of the marriage of their youngest daughter, Rhoda Estelle, to Carl Crow at 6 o'clock. The bridal party consisted of Minna Uhlman and Guy Crow, followed by Carl Crow and Estelle Uhlman, entered the parlor while the ever-beautiful wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. Pathenbarger. Under a borzeshoe of white carnations the ceremony was performed by Revi Jerome McGlade, D. D. The young people left amid a shower of congratula-tions from a bost of friends for Mills City, their future home

Wikstrom-Kokritz.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at Houlton, Or., Wednesday, June 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wikstrom, when their son, Charles E., was married to Miss Edith Kokritz, of Ka-lama, Wash, The order boked charming in dainty dress of white mull, while the groom was attired in conventional black. The bride is the daughter of black. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Kockritz, of Kalama, and the groom is the son of I, G. Wikstrom, a pro-millman of Columbia County. On immediate friends and relatives werepresent. A delightful wedding dinner was served, after which the young couple departed for Portland on the evening train. They have the hearty good wishes

Apple-McCloskey.

A very pretty wedding occurred last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. R. S. Farrell, when her cousin, Miss Ella V. McCloskey, was united in mar-riage to Mr. John Jacob Apple, of San Francisco. The ceremony was performed in the front parlor, which was tastefully decorated with smills, Oregon grape and Jacqueminot roses, and was performed by Rev. Father Thompson, of St. Mary's Ca-thedral. A delicious wedding supper having been served, the couple left for a week's outing at Shasta Springs. They will make their future home in San Francisco, where Miss McCloskey has en-sash of the pale green, and carrying a shower boughet of pink sweet peas. Then the bride appeared, escorted by her father. She was exceedingly beautiful in a "Flower Song" was played softly Miss Florence E. Terry and Wilfred 5 o'clock at St. Stephen's chapel, corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets, by the Rev. W. R. Powell. The bride, who The bride looked very sweet and girlish in gown was one of the popular young teach-of soft white mull, trimmed with lace. ers of the Couch School, looked charmof soft white mull, trimmed with lace. She carried a trailing bouquet of white ing in a traveling gown and large plesweet peas. The bridesmald, in white ture hat. She was given away by her Swies and lace, carried pink roses. The brother. Miss Ameer was maid of Swies and lace, carried pink roses. The church was preitily decorated with margnerites and lilies, backed by paims honor, and Mr. Lon Hunt, of Troutand ferns. Friends and relatives of the bride and groom filled the church, First Battery, O. N. G., of which Mr. groom, and Rely Colby. Miss Ott officlated as organist

Boire-Terry.

Topping-Paine.

Frank P. Topping, of San Francisco and Miss Carrie Paine, of this city, were married Wednesday noon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine, Rev. D. E. Loveridge officiating A large number of friends were present. the house was beautifully decorated and in every particular it was a notable social event. The young couple left on the 12:40 train, and after a short honeymoon tour will make their home in San Francisco.

Stewart-Sovereign.

At the home of Mr. C. M. Gaston, in this city, Wednesday, June 28, Mr. Kenneth H. Stewart was married to Miss Stella Sovereign, Rev. J. Whit-comb Brougher officiating. The bride is a member of the First Rantist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for the East Wednesday evening, and will in an exquisite gown of white organdle over a silk drop, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss visit Mrs. Stewart's parents at Wal-Idaho, before returning to their Mayme Milier, sister of the bride, wore a deinty gown of white silk and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by Louis Gevurtz. The rooms were handstonely decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and roses. After congratulations a dainty would be a superior of the state of the s home in Eastern Oregon.

Troutman-Hamill.

Mr. Charles A. Troutman and Miss Myrtle Lillian Hamili were united in marriage in Albany, Or., at 12:30 o'clock June 28, 1905, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Parker, Rev. G. W. Nelson, of that city, officiating. They are young people of worthy character, and are held in high esteem by a large circle of friends in Albany and Linn County? After spending a short time in Portland they will make short time in Portland they will make their home near Shedds, Or,

W. K. Glen and Miss Maude E. Noble were united in marriage Monday, June 19 at 5 P. M., at the home of Mr. Glen's parents, 222 East Ninth street, Rev. John Glen officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, only immediate relatives being present. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Glen left on the 8:15 train for Spokane, Wash., which will be their future home, Griggs-Bingham.

Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, at the ome of Hon, and Mrs. I. H. Bingham, a large gathering of friends and relatives sed the marriage of Miss Maude is Bingham to Mr. David Griggs, Rev. D. E. Loveridge officiating. A splet did wedding feast was served, following a period of congratulation, and the happy pair took the late train for their future me in Cottage Grove

Pease-MacMullan.

On Thursday, June 22, occurred the wedding of Mr. Lucius Curtis Pease and Miss Nelly MacMullin, of this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacMullin. The groom has for several years been connected with the art department of The Morning Oregonian. Mr. and Mrs. Pease will be at home to their friends after July 1.

Smith-Kemp.

Married-On Sunday afternoon June 2 Married—On Sunday afternoon, June 25, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kemp, 644 Harold street, Edith Gertrude Kemp and Dr. Frederick S. Smith, Rev. A. A. Winter officiating. At home, 784 Thurman home was tastefully decorated with palms, evergreens and flowers. Many beautiful presents were received. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Clara Clark.

Stout-Brown.

Mr. Philip G. Stout, of Sea View, Wash. and Miss Louisa A. Brown, of Portland,

Or., were married at Ilwaco, Wash., on evening, June 22, 1905. The newly married couple will reside in their new cottage at Sea View, Wash., where the groom is extensively engaged in con-tracting and building. At home after July 1

Bean-Patterson.

Mr Louis E. Bean and Miss Katherine Art, Louis E. Bean and alies Rather the Patterson were married, in Eugene, Wed-nesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Pat-terson, Rev. I. D. Driver officiating. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were present, the house was beautifully decorated, and it was an occasion of much social interest. The groom is a well-known young attorney of this city, and the bride has been serving as principal of the Central School

Miss Ada Packer and Dr. Louis A Shane were quietly married Wednes-day, June 28, at the home of the bride, 281 Going street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arden M. Rockwood. Dr. and Mrs. Shane will be at home to friends at 522 East Ankeny street after July 10. No cards.

Johnstone-Robinson.

Charles Johnstone and Dalsy Robinson, both of Portland, were married in Grace M. E. Church by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, the pastor, on June 29. The wedding party consisted of the relatives and friends of both persons. The ceremony took place promptly at I o'clock.

Gillan-Gould.

The marriage of Dora Florence Gould to Mr. Robert Gilian took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. E. Gould, at Mt. Tabor, Wednesday, June 21, at 5 P. M., relatives and intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Gillan left on the evening train for a trip through Carswell-Petric.

James L. Carswell, of Fulton, Or., and Elizabeth Petrie, of this city, were married at the manse of Marshall-Street Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday, Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday, June 28, at 3 P. M., Rev. C. W. Hays officiating Mr. and Mrs. Carswell will live at their new home on Texas street, Fulton.

Orr-Winfred.

On Tuesday last, at the home of Harry W. Risher, 151 Lownsdate street, Walter H. Orr and Miss Leona G. Winfred were united in marriage. In the presence of friends, Rev. J. Bowersox performed the my. Mr. and Mrs. Orr will reside

Livingston-Chapman.

At the White Temple, in the pastor's reception-room, Miss Frances L. Chap-man and Delmer C. Livingston were mar-ried, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher officiat-

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Case, lands, Cal., formerly of Portland, announce the engagement of their daugh-ter, Estelle M. Case, to Mr. West G. Smith, of Manila, P. I. The wedding will take place the latter part of August at Manile.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Fay announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Cathryn, to George William Birrel. The wedding will take place July 17, 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Isador Lang announce the engagement of their daughter, Madeline, to Mr. S. W. Dittenhofer, of COMING EVENTS.

Ar students in Portland are fortunate in having the opportunity for a few months' instruction from Mr. Frank Vincent Du Mond, who through his classes and his Summer school at Old Lynne, Miss Florence E. Terry and Wilfred Boire were married Wednesday at o'clock at St. Stephen's chapel, corof Thisteanth and Characterists. criticise each week. All urged to be present Monday evening, July 3, at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Du Mond will give a preparatory talk outlining his plan of work, discussing principles and giving other preliminary instruction. others interested in this work are also invited to be present. The classes will meet at the Museum of Art, Fifth and oncerning them may be obtained.

The conclave of the High Sch rity, Omega Nu, in Portland, which is to be held during the coming week, will be the occasion of numerous social affairs for the visitors and the Portland girls, On Monday evening there will be an Omega Nu reception at the home of Miss Lula King, 195 Twenty-first street. For Wednesday evening a cotillion is on the tapis, cards for which have been issued. The Portland High School Scrottly will act as hostesses for this. On Thursday evening Deita Iota Chi Sorority will en-tertain the Omega Nus, and on Friday evening the Gamma Eta Kappa "frat' will be hosts. Pi Delta Koppa Fraternit; will entertain Saturday evening.

Owing to the fact that the rooms in which the meetings of the Women's Clubb are held is to be used for a downtown headquarters for the medical men and their ladies during the meeting of the Medical Association, the next meet-ing of the Women's Club has been postd to the regular day, the second Friday in July.

Tomorrow evening there will be a con-cert at the Seamen's institute at 8 o'clock in honor of the Italian cruiser Umbria, An excellent programme has been prepared. All seamen and member s of the Italian colony here are cordially invited.

The Portland Women's Club will give reception to the delegates of the man's Suffrage Association on Friday evening at the Commercial Club. All club members are invited. Husbands of lub members are invited to accompany them.

Dr. George D. Peters wishes to announce to his friends and patrons that he is now permanently located in the Columbia building, West Park and Washington, rooms 402-3, phone Main 1899. Mrs. George C. Mason will entertain next Wednesday afternoon for the Misses Plower, of New York, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd. The members of Mrs. Warren's Bible class will go to Renord, Mrs. Warren's outing place on the Columbia River, for a pienic, July 4. Miss Kate Woolsey will give a bridge whist party next Monday for the Misses Flower, of New York.

If Your Face Needs Treatment.

When you visit the Fair kill two birds with one stone and visit Madam Tully, the expert dermatologist, at 400% Clay street. If your face needs treatment of any kind you can rely on the advice of this talented woman, who is well and favorably known by the best people all of the principal cities on the Coast.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. F. J. Jackson, of this city, has gone to New York on a business trip. Misses Carrie and Edith Rosenblatt, who are touring the world, are now at Dresden.

ing in Portland, the guest of Miss Jessie Mrs. Dan J. McGill and daughter, Levy, 254 Stout street. Mrs. Martha G. Crowell left last week for San Francisco, where she expects to remain until September. Mrs. Flora Bettman, of Cincinnati, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Rosenblatt, of 550 Hovt street. Miss Mary Margaret Mann, of Virginia; is spending the Summer with her aunt, Mrs. Lou von Zell Clarke. Mr. Jacob Marx and his sister, from Chicago, are visiting their sister, Louis Rosenblatt, of 492 Taylor street, Mrs. J. Apfel, of Spokane, Wash., is the guest of Mrs. S. Solomon, 340 Tenth street. At home Thursday, the 6th. Mrs. Clara Heald and two daughters June and Lucile Meredith, from Marshall town, Ia., are here on a visit to the Fair Mrs. E. H. Schlapp, of 171 East Third street, North, is entertaining her sister Miss Jennie Haggerty, of Denver, Colo Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cheim and children, of Tacoma, Wash, were in the city to attend the Miller-Gevurtz wedding. Mrs. L. Verstandig and children, of Bell lingham, Wash, are guests of Mrs. Ver-standig's sister, Mrs. Joelsohn, 547 Fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Linn and Miss Marian Linn, of Eugene, have been guests at the Marlyn Club for the past week.

Fred W. Sanford, formerly of this city, but now of Hotel Stirling, New York City, is in town on his way to Southern Mrs. M. V. Shannon, from Sloux City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Evans, at Oswego, where she will be pleased to re-ceive old friends.

Mrs. Louis Shub and daughter Minnette, of Denver, are visiting with Mrs Shub's sister, Mrs. Morey Asher, of 452 Washington street,

Mrs. Sam B. Archer and son, Worth-ngton, have returned from a delightful visit with Mr. and Mrs. William G. Sawver at Hot Lake, Or. Mrs. W. A. Morris, a prominent St. Louis vocalist, visited the Exposition during the past week with the National Editorial Association.

Mrs. R. Brotman (formerly Ray Hyman) and daughter, of San Francisco, formerly residents of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Joelsohn, 547 Fifth street. Miss Jeanette Fay, a petite blonde of charming personality, and a talented mu-sician of Chicago, Ill., is the guest of her sister. Mrs. Charles Barenstecher. Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and daughter, and, Mrs. F. S. Stanley and children, who have been spending the past week at Long Reach, will return home Wednesday. The many friends of Mr. Charles Barenstecher will be glad to hear of his recovery from an illness which has confined him to his home for the past two weeks. Mrs. Richard Schmidt and her son Frank H. Schmidt, of San Francisco, will be in Portland this week for an extended visit. They are both natives of this city

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson R. Myers, of the Hawalian Islands, are visiting in Portland, guests at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Strain, on Willamette Heights. Miss Marguerite Mogeau, of San Ber-nardino, arrived in Portland last week and will be the guest of Mrs. N. J. Levin-son, at Willamette Heights, for the Sum-oration committee for the National Equal Suffrage Association, is entertaining her sister, Mrs. W. H. H. Clayton, of Orange, Cal. Mrs. David Stewart returned to her home in Chehalis, on Thursday, accom-panied by her sister, Miss Winifred Packer, who will spend the Summer at Che-

halls

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Breeden, after an absence of a year, spent in travel, have returned to the city and have apartments at the Hotel Portland for the

A party consisting of Governor J. K. Toole, of Montana, son Edwin, and niece, Miss Rosecrans, Mrs. Toole and Miss Kennett spent the week at the Mrs. William J. Heiser, formerly

Miss Corn Lang, of this city, who has been visiting her parents here for the past six weeks, left for her home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Toursday, Miss Bettle Duke, of Scooba, Miss., a popular Southern society belle, spent several days at the Exposition during the week, and departed Thursday evening with the National Press Association. Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Sydnee E. Clarke to Mr. Thomas A. McDougall. The wedding will place on Tuesday, July 4. The happy

cluded on Page 29.1

and Calling Cards W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building FOURTH AND WASHINGTON.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL FERD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Breat Jones Street, New York.