Gov. Chamberlain Expects to Mend Honors Requisition After Be Gone a Month.

WHO HAS SAY IN ABSENCE?

While Chief Executive Is at Suprem Lodge of Elks, Secretary Dunbar and Private Secretary

SALEM, July 1 - (Special.) - Governor Chamberlain expects to leave next Tuesday for Buffalo, N. Y., to attend the Supreme Lodge of Elks. He will be gone about three or four weeks. There is nothing now in view of an official nature that will make his absence from the state particularly important, but as there is a mestion concerning the location of executive power during his absence, unexpected happenings might give his absence an ortant bearing.

If absence from the state constitutes an inability to discharge the duties of the office. Secretary of State Dunbar will be acting Governor until his return. Whether

BOND ISSUE ILLEGAL.

No School of Science Building at University of Idaho.

BOISE, Idaho, July 1 .- (Special.)-The Court today decided the case to determine the legality of a proposed issue of $12,000 in bonds for the School of Science building at the univer-sity. The decision is against the bonds. In the act of the Legislature providing for the bonds it was provided that a fund should be created from interest arising from the investment of university funds with which to retire the bonds. It held this would be a violation of the provison of the act of Congress granting lands for maintenance of such institutions, The funds derived from sale of the lands can-not be used to pay bonds, but must be permanently invested, the income of the ds so invested being used solely for maintenance.

Option Seekers on North Shore of Columbia Believed to Be in Employ of Northern Pacific, but Claim Otherwise.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 1 .- (Special.) -Developments came to light here to night which prove conclusively that the Northern Pacific is making every effort to get down the North Bank of the Co-lumbia River. A. R. Upright, who has been conferring with the farmers of Western Klickitat County for the last week for right-of-way options, has been meeting with serious opposition from the farmers, who are demanding $200 an acre where he will hold a conference with other right-of-way agents, who have been at work all along the river from Vancouver to Pasco. Upright has prom-ised to return by Monday and to bring with him the chief engineer. An effort will be made to run the survey lines so as to avoid many of the high-priced berry plantations.

Upright has practically admitted in confidence to several of the farmers that he is working in the interest of the Northern Pacific. When shown President El-liott's printed denial that his company was seeking a north-bank route down the Columbia Upright is said to have smiled and to have remarked: "We are the Columbia River Navigation Company." had previously been given out that Up-right was securing the rights of way for the Columbia River Navigation Com-pany, which is said to be the purchaser of the Columbia River & Northern, which today formally changed hands at

The new road is to leave the Northern Pacific at Kennewick. C. E. Moulton working out from Walla Walla, has secured rights of way in Eastern Klickitat E. C. Payne, of Spokane, has been operating in Clark and Skamania Counties, and has practically completed his work there. The only opposition which has so far been met with is at White Salmon, where, in a strip two miles in length, damages totalling 238,000 are asked. ALASKAN WATERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1 .- (Special.) The ship Aginor left yesterday for Alaska in tow of the tug Dauntless, The Aginor, which recently changed hands, has the reputation of bringing her owner good luck, and the circumstances of her present trip are in keeping with this tradition. Joseph Kildall, president of a fish concern in Minneapolis, is the new owner of the Aginor. He bought the ship to use her as a box in which to pack the 2400 tons of salmon he sold recently to the Japanese government The salmon are still awimming around in the waters along the coast of Southern Alaska, but already part of the cargo has been pald for. The cash for the banince will be turned over to Kildall's representative at Seattle as soon as the Aginor is loaded.

For ballast the Aginor is carrying 1000 tons of salt, in which the salmor will be packed in the Aginor's hold. No boxes will be used; the fish will not even be washed.
