Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, D. D., the distinguished author and lecturer, pastor of the famous Plymouth Congregational Church of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in Portland yesterday from the East and is residing at Elton Court. He was met at the Union Station by prominent Congrega-tional chergymen of the city. Today Dr. Hillis will deliver a sermon at the Ex-position grounds in the Auditorium. He panied on the trip by his little

At Ocean Grove, Dr. Hillis delivered one of his famous lectures before 12,000 teachers and educators. He visited the Expogrounds yesterday and was much with the Centennial, gratified to pleased with the Centennial, gratified to find that its scope was so large, and declaring that it was surrounded in an en-vironment of natural beauty. Dr. Hills will spend a few days in Portland, going later to Seattle, Tecoma, Victoria, Van-couver and points in Canada, after which he will make his way home through the states, lecturing in Iowa, Illinois and Michigan. He announced yesterday that he was completing a new work, the vol-ume to be issued in the Autumn and will be an important addition to the author's long list of helpfud books.

This morning Dr. Hillis will speak at the First Congregational Church and this evening at the First Presbyterian Church. On Tuesday night Dr. Hillis will lecture at the White Tempie at 8 o'clock on "Ollver Cromwell, the English Revolution and the Russian Evolution," with special applution in Russia. principal feature at the Lewis and Clark Exposition today will be the holding of the Sunday services in the Auditorium at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, America's foremost pulpit orator, will preach the sermon. Rev. Edgar P. Hill, of Portland, will have charge of the services. Music will be furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, W. H. Boyer and W. A. Montgomery. Dr. Hillis is a pulpit orator of National fame and is one of the most learned religious students in the United States. He made the trip from Brooklyn to Port-land expressly for the purpose of preach-ing in the Auditorium this afternoon. Dr. Hills is hardly a stranger in Portland. Thousands know him by reputation, and through the medium of his sermons in the press. He was the most prominent per-sonage at the Chautauqua held at Oregon City last year, where his sermons were listened to by large crowds from Port-

FRATERNITY HALL DEDICATED

Imposing Ceremonies Are Jointly

Held by Various Orders. Fraternity Hall was dedicated with fitting exercises at the Exposition yesterday afternoon, by representatives of many well-known societies of Portland. The litbuilding was filled with visitors, and the ceremonies were very impressive.

The purpose of the structure is to pro-vide a resting-place for visitors to the Exposition who are members of secret and fraternal organizations. Testerday the building was handsomely decorated with the colors of various orders, and preed a very attractive appearance to Exposition sightseer.

J. L. Mitchell, president of the association that erected the building, and su-preme secretary of the Order of Washington, presided over the exercises.

Speeches were made by representative men and music was furnished by the Administration Band. Among those who spoke were: President Goode, President Mitchell, Hon. J. B. Schlveley, of Glympia, and J. W. Sherwood, of the Knights of the Maccabees. During the course of his remarks Mr. Mitchell said:

A LESSON FOR PORTLAND LOVERS

By Wex Jones.

Now, Hazel was a maiden fair, And Bill her lover true, But Hazel didn't seem to care Whatever Bill might do.

He gave her candy by the ton, He took her to the show; He wildly squandered all his "mon," But nothing seemed to go.

Bill wanted much to marry, but he couldn't, For Hazel was his hope, and Hazel wouldn't.

Poor Bill, he almost gave it up, Heart-broken by neglect; With sorrow Hazel filled his cup And all his wishes wrecked.

At last one day Bill found a way To realize his dream: He set his girl with love awhirl By giving her ice cream.

Bill wished to wed as early as he could And Hazel did, you see, for Hazelwood.
