SHIELDS STRIKES NINETEEN MEN

Breaks Coast Record, and Essick Quits Cold in Disgust.

PORTLAND HAS ONE CHANCE

In the Fifth a Double and Two Singles Are Bunched by Giants. but Only One Mar

Tallies.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.-(Special.)-There was nothing to the game today but Shields. He broke the Coast record by striking out 19 men, and Portland hardly had a chance. Essick quit cold in the fourth, after Houtz had made a hit and Jimmy McHale followed with a home run. He put on his coat and walked out of the grounds. Bert Jones jumped into the breach, and Scattle was lucky to make one run off him

Although Shields pitched a record game, Portland nearly won in the fifth, when they hunched a double and two singles on him, scoring one run. Corbett and Essick could not keep up the good work, however, both fanning. Shields struck out Schlafly, Van Buren and Householder three times each. He walked the first man who faced him and with the exemman who faced him, and, with the exception of hitting Corbett, that was the only pass he issued. The score:

GOSS PLAYS SPIRITED MATCH WITH AGAR.

In the Doubles Multnomah Team Defeats the Irvington Players Three Out of Four.

The Irvington tennis courts, which are now considered the finest in the Northwest, were formally opened yesterday afternoon, when a large number of enthu stasts saw two spirited matches between Dr. Agar, of Great Falls, Mont., and W. A. Goss, of Portland, and a match between the Multnomah Club team, Wickersham and Bellinger, and Goss and Mc-

Alpin, of the Irvington Club. The struggle between Dr. Agar and Mr. Goss was one of the prettiest single matches that has taken place for some time. Dr. Agar's style of play differed entirely from the well-known style of Goss, in that he used an underhand stroke almost exclusively, and played well back to the serving line, while Goss played close to the net and confined himself to straight smashes. Although Goss won the set from the Montana player, he was given a closer game than was ex-

The court was new to both men, so that neither had an advantage. Agar seemed out of form at the beginning of the match and the first game went to Goss by a score of 6-3. In the second game Agar used his underhand stroke to advantage. especially on returns, and in placing the ball. He took the lead from the first serve, and defeated Goss, 6-2. The last game and match was won by Goss, 6-1, not, however, until he had been given a hard run by Agar.

The exciting game of the day was be-tween the Multnomah team, Wickersham and Beilinger, and the Irvington team, McAlpin and Goss. Goss, in the doubles, was not in form, due to his previous match with Agar, and on account of the fierce heat. McAlpin also did not come up to his usual form. Wickersham and Bellinger were in fine fettle, and their team work, with brilliant play by both. won them three games and the match. Four games were played, McAlpin and

The six courts at the Irvington grounds.

The courts have are practically finished. The courts have been laid out in compact form, and from the center a good view can be had of all contests in progress. Each court is screened by mesh wire, and the supports are painted green, being a great help to the eyes. The ground is packed solid, not sprinkled with oil, as in most cases. The soil is principally of clay, and the bound of the ball is in most cases true.

The clubbouse is expected to be finished before the tennis meason is over. The lumber is on the ground and all is in readiness to erect the building. During the time in which the new clubhouse is being built, temporary quarters will be occupied. These contain shower-baths and other conveniences. The grounds are considered by the club members as the best in the Northwest.

OLYMPIC LADS WIN

San Francisco Boys Victors in Boxing Tournament.

FRANK PUTS UP GAME BOUT

Although in Distress, Shows Plucky Spirit-Dwyer and Lundie Are Declared the Winners.

Those two clever Olympic Club boxers from San Francisco, Willie Dwyer and Bobble Lundie, won the Pacific Coast amateur boxing tournament held last night in connection with the Olympian games at the Exposition. The contest matters and compelled the local man to break ground continually.

The third round brought on some fierce rallies, with Dwyer always forcing the fighting and landing the cleaner blows. Frank was very weak as the final gong Lundle's mix-up with Douglas was a two-act farce. The Californian's easy victory over Mapes put up to the lad, who should get ten days on the awkward squad, a job that he did not relish. He started in as if he was going to die game. but his courage oozed after he stopped several of Lundie's thunderbolt wallops and Referee Jack Grant finally stopped the contest and swarded it to the lad wearing the winged O, because Douglas insisted on slipping to the mat without being hit. It was the best thing that could have happened to Douglas, for, if he had stood up and faced the music, he would have been the receiver-general of a lacing something like those his father used to give him when he played hooky. He knew nothing about the rules of box-ing and when he was walloped a time of two, he thought he was getting hit in

GILBERT, WHO REPRESENTED M. A. A. C. IN YESTERDAY'S FIELD MEET.

Amuteur Athletic Club, and Wille played yesterday against a saftors' Dwyer, of the Olympic Club, was by far one of the prettiest amateur bouts ever hurst, at the Portlands' grounds, East seen in the Northwest. Both boys were on their feet at the end of the third round, fighting like a pair of uncaged lions. Although Dwyer had Frank in distress, he gave a remarkable exhibition of gameness and a desire to keep on mixing it that won for him almost as much ap when the decision was finally announced. There was some slight misunderstanding concerning the rules on the part of one of the judges. The rules call for a four-minute round in case the contest has gone the full three minutes. The interpretation of this rule is, that there must be a decision, but one judge held out for a draw. Referee Jack Grant came to the rescue and announced that because the judges could not agree, he would render a "hair-line decision," and awarded the contest to Dwyer. This pleased the large crowd present, who, while the udges were trying to agree, were calling "Dwyer," "Dwyer." Referee Grant's de cision was just, for Dwyer was clearly Frank's master. He was wearing down the local club man rapidly, and it would have been only a question of rounds before he would have won. Frank made a splendid showing. He was far fro ing in the superb condition that Dwyer Neither was he as strong and rugged. Boxing with the winged is a business and those that the Californians sent to Portland were the cream of so there is no disgrace for Frank that he lost to his opponent

Dwyer is without doubt one of the best 125-pound amateur boys on the Coast. Any boy who fights his way to a champlonship in the Olympic Club in Francisco must naturally be so, for they are forced to wade through a long list of aspirants. Dwyer is one of these and he is a boy that will surely be heard from should he take up the professional end of the fighting game. He is cool under fire, has a sleeping potion in either hand, is a shifty boxer and clever on his feet. Frank, on the other hand, is a showy boxer. He lacks the steam behind his blows, and while he shook Dwyer up with several terrific right swings, he could not of him all the time. In the opening round, Frank scored repeatedly with left hooks to the jaw, but Dwyer evened matters by swinging a hard right to the head, and in mixing it drove his right and left hard to the body Dwyer nearly dropped his opponent with a left hook to the jaw and a right to the body, and scored first blood with a left smash to the face. Frank fought back gamely and evened up matters by send-ing in several left and right straight unches to the face.

The Olympic lad secured a slight lead eleven from the British steamer Sand-Thirty-ninth and Belmont. Quite a number of spectactors attended, and in the interval before the Portlands went to bat, tea was served to the cricketers by the women of the auxiliary committee of the Seamen's Institute.

Brighton Handicap Goes to Whitney Stable.

BELDAME IS FAR BEHIND

Ort Wells, the Favorite, a Good Second, but Artful Leads From Start - Huge Crowd Applauds the Winner.

NEW YORK, July 8 .- Artful, the 3year-old daughter of the great Ham-burg, galloping in front of her field from the start and eased up at the finfrom the start and eased up at the fin-ish, carried the colors of the Whitney stable to victory today in the Brighton Handicap, the richest all-aged purse of the racing year. A length and a half back of the winner came Ort Wells, winner of the Brighton mile, and a slight favorite for the handicap. Eight lengths further back, the great mare Beldame, beaten more decisively than in almost any race of her career, came home in third place, thoroughly done. Trailing along in the rear were Monsieur Beaucaire. Dolly Spanker. Delhi and Abdell.

Fully 25,000 persons were 25,000 persons were packed the narrow limits of the Brighton Beach track, and the enthu-slastic manner in which they cheered Artful's splendid victory indicated that Artful's splendid victory indicated that the great bulk of the public's money had been placed on the chances of the Whitney mare. The afternoon was showery, and by the time the great race, the fourth on the card, was started, the going had begun to be slicky. Artful galloped the mile and a quarter in 2:04 4-5, an excellent performance under the conditions. By her formance under the conditions. By her victory today she won the title champion filly of the year.

Throughout the betting today, which was heavy at all times, there was hardly a point's difference in the quoting of prices on Artful and Ort Wells. At the beginning some books marked up to 7 to 5 against Ort Wells, 8 to 5 against Ariful, 4 to 1 against Beldame, with liberal odds against the other starters. Prices generally rose throughout the ring. At the close, Ort Wells was a slight favorite at 2 to 1; Artful was to be had at 11 to 5, while Beldame's price, after rising to five, was hammered down at the close to 16 to 5. CHAMPIONSHIP

Local Track Athletes Have 91 Points to Seattle's 39 Points.

FAST TIME-NO RECORDS

Gilbert Pole Vaults 11 Feet 4 Inches. Kurkendall Runs the High Hurdles in Fast Time

Multnomah had everything her own way in the second day's contests in the P. N. A. championship meet on the Lewis and Clark Exposition stadium yesterday afternoon, and piled up a big score against her opponents, the final Multnomah 91, Seattle Athletic Club 39 and Brockton Point Athletic Club 1. Eight events were scheduled yesterday while seven were finished the day before. At the close of the games on Friday the score stood 39 to 23 in favor of the local athletes, the rest of the points being made in yesterday's events.

The day was warm on the field, though the heat did not seem to effect the athletes perceptibly. Good time was made in nearly all the events, though no records were broken. The track was in good condition, and the games passed off without a hitch. Features of the day were several, Gilbert's pole vaulting attracting no little yesterday, though shortly afterward he made 11 feet 4 inches on exhibition. Kuykendall made the high hurdles in fine style, leading his opponent by good distance and finishing in 163-5. Moores, who was Multnomah's other representa-tive in this race, fell over one of the first hurdles, and spoiled his chances, which were very good.

The high jump went to Bert Kerrigan, of Multnomah, at 5 feet 1115 inches, with Grant, of Seattle, a close second. This discus-throw was a close event, with James, of Multnomah, in the lead, with 109 feet 6 inches, and Hug, of Multnomah, second with 108 feet 5 inches. Gardner, of Seattle, nearly tied for third place with 108 feet even. The relay race was the prettiest event of the day, and went to the local men in the good time of 3:354-5.

The summary follows:
220-yard dash—First, Williams, M. A. C.; second, Huntoon, S. A. C.; third, Freisell, M. A. C. Time, 9:23 flat. Running high jump—First, H. W. Ker-rigan, M. A. C.; second, Grant, S. A. C.; third, O. Kerrigan, M. A. C. Height, 5 feet 111/2 inches
