

PHYSICIANS WILL VISIT PORTLAND

Physicians Will Hold Great Medical Convention at Exposition.

FROM ALL THE NATION

Distinguished Medical Men From All Over the United States Will Give Results of Scientific Research to Public.

THE PROGRAMME. Monday—Assembly of house delegates. Tuesday—10 A. M., general meeting of the association... and the Exposition captured by the will come in generous four corners of the... the latest news which attends to those who are prone. They...

Discoveries Given the Public. And then, again, it is at these medical conventions that important discoveries in the medical science world are given to the public.

The convention to be held in Portland is expected to be more successful than any held in this city in the last few years. The Exposition, particularly, will be large.

Contagious diseases are mild compared with those of the more crowded communities in the East, still much work has to be done in this field, and the authorities here are now prepared to make a bacteriological examination of suspicious...

During the convention, which comes to Portland as a result of the attendance of a part of local physicians, all hospitals of the city will be visited and inspected and extraordinary cases observed.

WITNESSES SEEM LOTH TO TESTIFY

withstanding the fact that no telegraph line is in operation and no Marconi instruments are used. The messages are transmitted by heliograph, and the brilliant little flashes of that instrument are plainly discernible on the very summit of the snow-capped peak, especially if the day be clear.

LEWISTON HAS ITS DAY.

Idaho City Has an Interesting Programme at the Exposition. Oregon and Washington cities have been very prominent at the Exposition the last month in celebrating their special days, and yesterday Idaho took a hand, several hundred citizens of the Gem State traveling to Portland to assist in making Lewiston day a success.

The party was headed by Mayor Henry Hittfield, of Lewiston, ex-United States Senator, and Dr. J. B. Morris, president of the Lewiston Commercial Club. The day was celebrated without ostentation, exercises being held in the Idaho building at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, which was followed by a reception. The visitors spent the remainder of the day and night in visiting the various buildings and attractions of the Exposition.

The visiting Idahoans all wore neat white badges, on which were printed the name of their state in neat and bold type. They also brought along with them considerable literature in pamphlets, descriptive of the resources and opportunities offered in Northern Idaho, which were distributed to all visitors to the state building. The visitors from Lewiston several weeks later will be tremendous.

At the exercises, which were held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Idaho building, Mayor Hittfield, of Lewiston, ex-United States Senator, presided. He delivered a short address, introducing President H. W. Goode, who welcomed the visitors on behalf of the Exposition management. There was quite a large crowd present at the exercises. A reception was held in the building immediately following the ceremonies. Mrs. Adella R. Scott, of Idaho Falls, hostess of the Idaho building, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. H. Lingenfelter, Mrs. H. S. Butler, Mrs. Robert W. McBride, wife of the Idaho Commissioner, Mrs. Fred Hagenmarck, and the Misses Lydia Cox, Clara Marley, Volmer and Morris.

RECEPTION TO WYOMING GOVERNOR.

Governor Bryant B. Brooks, of Wyoming, and his entire staff, will arrive in Portland at 7 o'clock this morning. He is also accompanied by his wife and daughter. From the depot the party will go to the American Inn, where they will make their headquarters during the stay at the Exposition and in the Auditorium at the Exposition. Tomorrow is Wyoming day at the Fair. At 10:30 o'clock in the morning exercises will be held in the Auditorium, to which all Wyoming people, now residing in the Idaho building, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. H. Lingenfelter, Mrs. H. S. Butler, Mrs. Robert W. McBride, wife of the Idaho Commissioner, Mrs. Fred Hagenmarck, and the Misses Lydia Cox, Clara Marley, Volmer and Morris.

OFFICERS AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

DR. JAMES HALL BELL—2ND VICE PRESIDENT

WITNESSES SEEM LOTH TO TESTIFY

The witness refused to remember that he had any such intention. "Didn't you been inquiring of Biggs and others as to where you could borrow money to file on a timber claim?" Judge Bennett asked.

"I don't remember any such talk," the witness replied. "Everybody was talking about filing on timber land, but I don't think that I did."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

WITNESSES SEEM LOTH TO TESTIFY

The witness refused to remember that he had any such intention. "Didn't you been inquiring of Biggs and others as to where you could borrow money to file on a timber claim?" Judge Bennett asked.

"I don't remember any such talk," the witness replied. "Everybody was talking about filing on timber land, but I don't think that I did."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

WITNESSES SEEM LOTH TO TESTIFY

The witness refused to remember that he had any such intention. "Didn't you been inquiring of Biggs and others as to where you could borrow money to file on a timber claim?" Judge Bennett asked.

"I don't remember any such talk," the witness replied. "Everybody was talking about filing on timber land, but I don't think that I did."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

WITNESSES SEEM LOTH TO TESTIFY

The witness refused to remember that he had any such intention. "Didn't you been inquiring of Biggs and others as to where you could borrow money to file on a timber claim?" Judge Bennett asked.

"I don't remember any such talk," the witness replied. "Everybody was talking about filing on timber land, but I don't think that I did."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

"Now as a matter of fact, didn't Graves, the surveyor, give you the numbers of the claims that you were to file upon?" "I have forgot, but he might have written them out when Mr. Gesner wanted him to."

"Now the fact was that Gesner said if you would take the claim where he wanted it for the range, he would loan the money and would take a mortgage on the land for it?" "I think that was the bargain."

The Collins Land Co. Portland, Helena, Mont. Washington, D. C.

Where in the United States may be found a navigable stream of blue water to equal in beauty the peerless Willamette?

We have a number of properties on this beautiful river—both sides—any of which would make a delightful suburban villa home. Soil and situation unrivalled. Glorious river views. Easy of access and range from 20 to 40 minutes' ride on West Side. Some further out. We have one tract of 15 acres, 15 minutes' ride and 15 minutes' walk, which we offer at a bargain. This is hilly land and may be subdivided into acre or other sized lots.

Let's show you. We have other city and suburban snaps. Owners: List your property with us if you have anything to offer, whether city or farm land, provided it is a bargain.

ON AND AFTER TUESDAY, 11TH INST., WE WILL BE IN OUR NEW QUARTERS, THIRD FLOOR STEARNS BUILDING, CORNER SIXTH AND MORRISON STREETS

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

ARGUMENT IN MITCHELL CASE TO BE HEARD MONDAY.

Judge De Haven Interrupts Progress of Williamson Trial in Order to Favor Mr. Thurston.

Senator Mitchell has filed his motion for a new trial and will present his argument before the Federal Court on Monday morning. Upon the words of Senator Thurston and his partner counsel, Judge A. S. Bennett, and upon the construction and decision of Judge De Haven depends whether or not the Senator will be granted the privilege of once more presenting his cause before a jury of his fellow citizens and neighbors or whether he will be forced to rely upon the justice and mercy of the Supreme Court of the United States or of the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Yesterday morning, when the Federal Court was convened, Senator Thurston appeared before Judge De Haven, for the first time since the night of July 3, when he had secured notice of a motion for a new trial upon the fact that his motion had been filed. He stated to the court that he was ready to argue his motion on Monday next if it met with the favor of the court.

Judge De Haven was willing to hear the motion at that time if it were necessary to him, but he did not wish to interrupt the course of the Williamson trial unless he had to do so. Senator Thurston told the court that he had nothing more to keep him in Portland, that he was a long journey from his home and called to the court's mind that a homing journey was always a pleasant one. The court therefore ordered that the motion be set for a hearing on Monday next at 10 o'clock, at which time, in all probability, Senator Mitchell will exercise his last chance of a stay in proceedings in the lower courts of the United States.

Will Discuss Public Utilities.

The Young Men's Democratic Club is preparing for a lecture which will be delivered under its auspices next Tuesday night by John Z. White, on "The Public Ownership of Public Utilities." The speaker comes from Chicago for the Henry George Lecture Association. The lecture will be delivered in Unity Hall, Second and Morrison streets, the headquarters of the club. G. W. Allen is president of the organization and S. C. Armitage secretary. Mr. White has wide knowledge of the public franchise question and of speculation in them by capitalists and the country, and will cite cases of highly capitalized franchises like those in Portland. Mr. White has been prominent for 20 years in the Henry George movement. He is by profession a journeyman compositor.

Co-Respondent a Witness.

Max Bailey, the co-respondent in the divorce suit of William Sues against May L. Sues, took the witness-stand in Judge Sues' Court yesterday afternoon, and denied it all, like a gentleman. He admitted that he met Mrs. Sues at dances and had escorted her home in a street car. Frequently, he said, other young women and men were in their company, and they all went together. He acknowledged that they went boating, but they were not alone. Bailey explained that their associations were merely platonic, perhaps slightly indirect. There was nothing wrong whatever. The trial will be resumed Tuesday.

The Denver & Rio Grande has established through Pullman standard sleeping car service between Portland and Denver, leaving Portland at 8:15 P. M., spending seven hours in Salt Lake City, second day, and arriving in Denver afternoon of following day. For reservations call at 124 Third street.

3544989 From Hood. Exchange of meadow Exposition grounds Mount Hood, grounds