

SOCIETY

The A. M. A. are to be congratulated on the ability and the graciousness with which they have provided for the comfort of their guests during the last week. The arrangements at the Concordia Club for the convenience of guests were admirable. On Tuesday Mrs. Lane, wife of Major Harry Lane, was hostess; on Wednesday, Mrs. Geary; on Thursday, Mrs. Mackay, and on Friday, Mrs. Nunn.

A pleasant social even in connection with the delegates to the A. M. A. was the luncheon given by Dr. DeWitt Connell at the Arlington Club Tuesday in honor of the Misses Musser. Being president of the association. Covers were laid for 12.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. DeWitt Connell gave a launching party in honor of the Misses Musser, who are her guests. Other guests were John Musser, Jr., Mr. Dunlap, Mrs. John H. Weeks, and daughter, Miss Ruth Maxwell, Paul Glynn and Paul Rockwell. The party went up the river as far as Oregon City, and returned to the Waverly Golf Club for luncheon, where a delightful time was had. Decorations of sweet peas and asparagus fern were used for the luncheon table.

Miss Alice Sanbury gave a luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Volner and Miss Sonna, who are guests of the Misses Doseh. It was a lavender and white luncheon, and lavender sweet peas were used with charming effect. Besides the honor guests and the Misses Doseh there were present Miss Nan Wood, Miss Harriet Young, of Butte; Miss Wakefield, of Omaha; Miss Millie, of San Francisco, and Miss Lottie Hill, of this city. Several informal luncheons and dinners have been given for Miss Volner and Miss Sonna. The Misses Doseh gave a luncheon for them on Friday, at which Dr. Matthews, of Spokane, and Mr. Stevenson, of Baltimore, were the out-of-town guests.

Miss Leslie Knapp entertained her friends on Tuesday at her home on Kearney street. The young people danced until late in the evening, when refreshments were served. Among the guests present were: Miss Smith, Miss Wood, Miss Morrison, Miss Walter, Miss Bryan, Miss Hamilton, Miss Williams, Miss White, Miss Cumming, Miss Burns, Miss Wilson and Miss Osborne, and Mr. Felling, Mr. Peadar, Mr. Wood, Mr. Corbett, Mr. Honeyman, Mr. McArthur, Mr. Hottel, Mr. Eastham, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Koehler, Mr. Gahbert, Mr. Wilcox, Mr. Brown, Mr. McColl, Mr. Stott, Mr. Frank and Mr. Dooly.

Mrs. David Pratt, of New York, Mrs. C. H. Noble and Mrs. Bracco, of Seattle, are visiting the mother, Mrs. J. H. Woodward. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Fred Hopkins served tea for some quite informally on her porch with Mrs. Flowers of New York; Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond and Mrs. R. L. Washburn in the party.

Mrs. Hopkins is planning a young folks' party on Wednesday evening for Miss Madeline Pratt, her niece.

Mrs. John Kollock gave a little dinner for the Misses Flower on Saturday evening, July 8. Men in the party were: Mr. Douglas Robinson Warfield, of Baltimore; Mr. Wernicke, of New Orleans, and Mr. Moore, of Buffalo.

Mrs. Frank Freeman gave an informal tea on Thursday for Miss Estelle and Miss Florence Flower, inviting about 30 of their friends to meet them. Miss Nan Wood, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Helen Eastham and Miss Bertha Tongue assisted in serving. Flowers for the occasion were cecropias.

Miss Nan Wood's birthday gave occasion for a merry lawn party at her home last evening. All the young people of her set were invited informally to be present. Mrs. Wood received with her daughter.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry Doseh and the Misses Doseh are, as usual, at home today. Their honor guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davenport and Joaquin Miller.

Mrs. W. J. Burns gave a dance on Friday evening for the Misses Burns, at which about 100 young people were present. Among the guests were the Misses Flower, of New York.

MISS M'MURTHY, DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT M'MURTHY, OF THE A. M. A., WHO RECEIVED WITH MRS. COE WEDNESDAY EVENING AT THE OREGON STATE BUILDING.

On Thursday, Mrs. De Witt Connell gave a dinner in honor of Dr. William Posey, Dr. William Zentmayer, Dr. John H. Musser and Professor Hirschberg, of Berlin. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. John E. Weeks, Dr. Mac Cardwell, Dr. Samuel D. Hildrey, of Philadelphia; Dr. Alfred Stengel and Dr. Christian R. Holmes, of Cincinnati. Red roses and blue corn-flowers were used for decorations, and there were elaborate favors. Dr. Posey, Zentmayer and Musser and Dr. and Mrs. Connell plan a trip to Mount Hood today, returning Tuesday next.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Page, of Portland Heights, are entertaining Miss Alice Cole of Boston, the well-known singer. Miss Cole is a former Portland girl, and has many friends here. She is a great favorite in musical circles of Boston, though she has been studying in London and Paris during the past two years. She is a favorite pupil of Georg Henschel, who receives only pupils of very advanced training.

On Friday, Mrs. John Shepard gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Alice Cole. Friends of Miss Cole are arranging a concert for her for July 28, when all her Portland friends will have the opportunity to hear her glorious mezzo-soprano voice.

Cards have been issued for a "Virginia Reel by Moonlight" to be given at Kingdon's Hotel by Robert Treat Platt on Tuesday evening. The tennis court will form the dancing green; ladies will wear tennis costume and men will go in flannels. After the open-air dancing, there will be a grand indoors. The affair is given for Miss Earle, of Connecticut, who is Mrs. Platt's guest, and about 50 will be present. A special car will be waiting to bring guests back to the hotel after the festivities are concluded. Numerous informal luncheons and excursions have been given for Miss Earle since she came to Portland.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. De Witt Connell gave a dinner for Dr. and Mrs. Weeks, at which Drs. Posey, Zentmayer, Dr. and Mrs. Weeks and Miss Evelyn Weeks, and Dr. and Mrs. Powell, of Stockton, were guests.

After the drive about the city given on Thursday afternoon, they were driven to the home of Dr. and Mrs. De Witt Connell, where an operatic reception was held. This was one of the large affairs of the week, about 100 guests being present. Assisting Mrs. Connell in receiving were Mrs. Long, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Coffey, and Mrs. Weeks. Ladies who served punch and ices were Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Otis Wright, Mrs. Ames, Mrs. Panton, Mrs. Chipman and Mrs. Geary.

Dr. Posey gave a luncheon yesterday for Dr. and Mrs. Connell at the Quelle. In the party were Dr. and Mrs. Jones, of Philadelphia; Miss Davis, sister of Richard and Harding Davis; Dr. Musser and Dr. Stengel.

as a sail up and down their own New England shore line. The trip was especially beneficial to Mrs. Fairbank, who is not in robust health.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert VanderVeer, of Albany, N. Y., have been guests at the New York State building during the past week. Dr. VanderVeer is one of the most eminent surgeons in the State of New York, and was elected president of the American Surgical Society at their meeting just held in San Francisco. On Tuesday, Dr. and Mrs. VanderVeer gave a dinner at the state building to several distinguished physicians. In the party was Dr. Mayo, the newly elected president of the A. M. A. On Thursday the VanderVeers gave an informal dinner for three doctors and their wives.

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Ward arrived at the New York State building Friday night and expect to remain until some time in early August. Mrs. Ward was at home in accordance with the custom at the building yesterday afternoon, and will be at home upon each Saturday afternoon during her sojourn here. Dr. and Mrs. Ward are accompanied by Dr. Carlos J. McDonald, of New York City. Mrs. Ward is one of the social leaders of her home city, and may be expected to entertain here in generous fashion on behalf of the commission.

Commissioner and Mrs. Harry D. Williams, of New York, left for their home in Buffalo on Monday. They have only pleasant things to report of the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hardes gave an informal dinner party on Thursday evening at the New York State building. Mrs. Hardes' gracious personality has charmed Portlanders, and she has been one of the most popular of the Exposition ladies who have received at official functions. Before her marriage, Mrs. Hardes was Miss Elizabeth Stewart, a member of Miss Fitz-Davis' Company.

President Goode will give a luncheon tomorrow at the New York State building in honor of Governor Saries, of North Dakota.

Among the famous physicians who have visited the Exposition during the week is Dr. Lewis L. McArthur, of Chicago, first cousin of the late Judge Lewis McArthur, of Portland. Both men were named for their uncle, Senator Lewis Linn, of Missouri.

Tuesday next there will be a reception in the Agricultural State building in the section devoted to the display of North Dakota. Governor E. Y. Saries will be present to greet all people of Dakota affiliations.

Governor Bryant B. Brooks, of Wyoming, with Mrs. Brooks and the Governor's staff, left Portland on Friday for Astoria.

The reception yesterday afternoon in the Oregon State building in honor of the Massachusetts building, the New England Society acting as sponsors for the affair. Commissioner and Mrs. Fairbank, Judge and Mrs. Northrup, of the New England Society, and Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, of Massachusetts, formed the receiving party. The teachers were championed by Miss Gertrude Brinkhaus, a Massachusetts teacher, who was connected with the educational exhibit from the state at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The 12 young women from Washington, sent by a Spokane journal, are to be given a reception at their state building.

Mrs. Belle Hill Small, of St. Louis, who was the hostess of the Missouri building at the Exposition for the past week, on Wednesday evening she left for Sacramento and other California points, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

Miss Jacqueline Parker and Miss Grace Parker, Samuel H. West, counsel for the Cotton Belt Line, and Mrs. West, all of St. Louis, were entertained at luncheon at the Missouri building on Friday. Commissioner and Mrs. E. E. McClintock being host and hostess. Informal luncheon will be given for Missourians of note who are visiting the Fair, and for Exposition officials every July during the remainder of the Exposition period.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Hostess Association, a strong and influential body of last summer's great exposition, on adjournment agreed to meet for its first reunion at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. A week ago the reunion was held in the spacious California building, with Mrs. Frank Wiggin in the chair. Representatives from several states were present, including Mrs. Belle Small, of California; Miss Genevieve Valner and Anna Sonna, of Idaho; Mesdames J. A. Flicher and Frank Wiggin, of California; and Mrs. Adelaide Murphy, of Minnesota, and Mrs. Parks Fisher, of Baltimore, president of the association, were detained en route, greatly to the regret of all present. Letters of sincerest regret were read from several members of the association who were unable to be present.

Toasts were drunk in kindly remembrance of last summer's pleasant companionship and well-wishes to members, to the president and other officers, to the beautiful Lewis and Clark Exposition, and a resolution of thanks was voted the California Commission for delightful hospitality.

Delicious refreshments were served and happiness and good cheer filled the air throughout the evening. Plans for pleasure trips and entertainments were received from many sources. After much merry-making the association adjourned to meet in July, 1907, at the Jamestown Exposition for its second reunion.

Miss Hazel Dolph, who went to San Francisco as the guest of Mrs. Eleanor Marie to take part in the festivities attendant upon the visit there of the Secretary; Taft party, is expected to return to Portland late in the coming week. Miss Dolph is being much entertained and is having a most enjoyable visit.

The reception given to Governor Brooks, on Monday evening, was made lively by the presence of the entire California contingent, who stormed the receiving party in a body.

Governors are getting so numerous in Portland that they seem quite like people of less note. Three visiting Governors dined together on Wednesday evening at the New York State building, and even then Governor Chamberlain, who is not in robust health, was present. This week a new set of Governors will be here.

The Ohio Society upheld the honor of Ohio in proud fashion at the reception the members tendered to Governor Herrick last week.

If there is a more popular place in the Exposition grounds than the Oregon State building, one would like to know where it is. True Oregonian hospitality is displayed there by the commissioners and by Mrs. Myers, the state hostess, in the cordial greeting given alike to Portlanders and to visiting strangers.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

On Tuesday, July 12, Mr. Hagdorn and F. L. Buck gave a "grand opening" on their houseboat, the Zebreeb, which they have just completed after several months' ingenious work. Luncheon was served at the houseboat, which is anchored at Ross Island. The guests were: Mrs. Mabel Elliott, Miss Inez Newell, Miss Jennie Hagdorn, Miss Hilda Hagdorn, Miss Ette Wiseman, Miss Dagmar Ames and Miss Lena Spinney; DeWitt Agler, Roy Nichols, Waldemar Krumboltz, Egnor and Herman Hagdorn and F. L. Buck. During the evening Waldemar Krumboltz and Herman Hagdorn rendered several pretty selections on their mandolin and guitar, and it is needless to say that every one enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Weister gave a unique entertainment in their charming studio in Whitaker street last Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Maud Wood Park, Boston, who has been the guest of the Exposition ladies. Mr. Weister secured on his recent Fourth of July trip to Mount Hood all of the little party who were present at Cloud Cap Inn when Mr. Weister made the ascent were invited to see the views last Sunday evening. Mrs. Park, on her last tour on Tuesday via Yellowstone Park, Salt Lake and Denver. She is one of Boston's leading settlement workers.

Friday, July 14, a large company of the members and friends of the Misses Fresh-briety Church gave a reception in the church parlors in honor of their pastor, Dr. McElaine, who has recently returned from the East. Dr. McElaine was introduced by Mr. Penubra Kelley, and gave an interesting account of his trip. The following programme was rendered, after which refreshments were served by the Young Ladies' Society of the church: Solo, Miss Maud Diabrow; reading, Mrs. M. R. Donlon; solo, Mrs. W. B. Deaver; solo, Miss Sadie Krump; reading, Mrs. O. F. Hoff; solo, Miss Helen Brigham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Deiningere gave a dinner party on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Clara Nicholson, of The Dalles, and her father, Dr. Charles W. Dealing, and her mother, Mrs. Dealing, who are on their way to the Exposition. Mrs. Deiningere was introduced by Mr. Penubra Kelley, and gave an interesting account of her trip. The following programme was rendered, after which refreshments were served by the Young Ladies' Society of the church: Solo, Miss Maud Diabrow; reading, Mrs. M. R. Donlon; solo, Mrs. W. B. Deaver; solo, Miss Sadie Krump; reading, Mrs. O. F. Hoff; solo, Miss Helen Brigham.

Banquet Circle met Monday afternoon in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. and were entertained by Miss Zimmerman, Mrs. Dunaway presided. The following programme was read, showing the progress of work in "Hope" School. Interesting talks were given by several of the ladies, and Miss Frances Bingham sang two songs, which were enthusiastically received. Dainty refreshments were served and several new members were received. Great interest was shown. The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Crawford, of San Francisco, entertained a party of friends at dinner in the parlors of the California Hotel on Tuesday, July 12. The party occupied two loges at the Marquam Grand.

On Tuesday evening Rev. and Mrs. William S. Gilchrist, of Portland, in company with Mrs. Warren Landon, of San Rafael, Cal., and Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson, were present.

The Misses Hill entertained informally Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Squires, of Los Angeles, about 12 girl friends being present.

Did any one ever before think doctors so given to matters social? What a relief it must have been after sawing bones, mixing medicines and rolling pills; after hearing about Mrs. Smith's joints and Mr. Smith's liver, about the colic that baby had and the bump that Johnnie got; after discussing post-mortems at clinics and labeling extracted veriform appendixes—or should one say appendices?—in neat glass jars. What a relief—what a blessed relief it must have been for the M. D.'s to encounter the receptions and banquets and junkies with which they have been besieged in Portland. No wonder they say, with one heart and voice, that never was such right royal entertainment thrown open to them. Who wouldn't have been a doctor; at least, a doctor in Portland during the past week?

A resume of the functions given for the physicians includes all the more notable social affairs of the week. On Tuesday evening the most elaborate reception and fete of the Exposition season was given for them at the American Inn. Flowers were exploded for their edification, the trail was thrown open to them, and the gondolas and launches on the lake placed at their disposal. On Wednesday evening hostesses of Portland vied with one another in welcoming the visitors into private homes of the city. On Wednesday afternoon the women physicians of the association were given an elaborate reception and banquet at the Hotel Portland. On Thursday afternoon the visiting physicians were given a drive around the city. In the evening there was a reception and entertainment at The Oaks. On Friday came the jump up the Columbia which taxed the capacity of every available river boat, and, in addition, a special train of coaches over the railroad. In addition to these larger functions to which general invitations were issued, there were innumerable private dinners and smaller receptions. Mrs. Rocky's reception of Friday evening in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Black, of San Francisco, who were her guests for the week, was an especially enjoyable affair.

Seldom, if ever, in Portland has so many notable receptions occurred in one evening. In the afternoon of Wednesday evening last, Mrs. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie gave the first large affair of which she has been hostess since she came to Portland to reside. It was a brilliant event socially, and the most distinguished physicians of the visiting contingent paid their respects to her and her talented husband. Mr. and Mrs. R. Lea Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr assisted Dr. and Mrs. Mackenzie in receiving. The lawn was lit with myriads of many-colored lights, and refreshments were served outside. Mrs. Mackenzie was gowned in heavy pink satin, cut on severely elegant lines and artistically fashioned.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition Hostess Association, a strong and influential society of last summer's great exposition, on adjournment agreed to meet for its first reunion at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. Yesterday the reunion was held in the spacious California building, with Mrs. Frank Wiggin in the chair. Representatives from several states were present, including Mrs. Belle Small, of California; Miss Genevieve Yelling

Mrs. R. B. Wilson opened her house on Wednesday evening for the first time in months for a large affair, acting as hostess for Dr. George Wilson. Assisting her in receiving were Miss Wilson, Mrs. Edward Brooks, Mrs. W. J. Burns and Mrs. Lintchum.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilson opened her house on Wednesday evening for the first time in months for a large affair, acting as hostess for Dr. George Wilson. Assisting her in receiving were Miss Wilson, Mrs. Edward Brooks, Mrs. W. J. Burns and Mrs. Lintchum.

Dr. and Mrs. William Jones received on Wednesday evening in honor of the visiting physicians, being assisted by Mrs. Henry Jones, Dr. and Mrs. James Bell, Mayor and Mrs. Harry Lane, Dr. George Story and Mrs. Henry Story. The hostess wore white crepe de chine.

Seldom has more artistic decoration been seen in Portland than the Oregon greens and Oregon roses which were arranged in honor of the banquet to the women physicians at the Hotel Portland on Wednesday last.

It would appear that physicians' wives, as a class, are remarkably fine-looking women and have "extra good" taste in dressing. One would be safe in making this generalization, judging from the crowd of "wives" who gathered at the Concordia Club on Thursday afternoon, preparatory to the drive around town tendered them by the Portland "wives".

Dr. Mac Cardwell, Mrs. R. C. Coffey, Dr. Gertrude Franck, Mrs. E. AT THE EXPOSITION.

Commissioner and Mrs. Wilson H. Fairbank, of Massachusetts, returned from their Alaska trip on Wednesday and were the party of New England school matrons in their state building on Friday afternoon. They enjoyed every minute of their stay along the coast, and declare it to be almost unbear-

WEDDINGS.

Mosesohn-Lerner.

A most elaborate home wedding was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Mr. David N. Mosesohn, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. N. Mosesohn, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Lerner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Lerner, of Alameda, Cal., at the home of the latter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Bernard Kaplan, M. S. Levy, A. Bernson, of San Francisco, and N. Mosesohn, and was followed by a march to the dining-rooms, in which the guests sat down to beautifully laden tables. The bride wore a costly white crepe de chine gown trimmed with elegant point lace. She was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Lerner, who was also dressed in a beautiful crepe de chine gown. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. M. Mosesohn, of Portland. The parlors of the Lerner residence were handsomely decorated with roses, towers and ferns. Among those who answered to toasts at the supper were: Dr. Kaplan, Levy, Bernson and Mosesohn and Messrs. Lerner, father of the bride; E. Strunsky, B. Lerner, Hon. Joseph Rothchild, Dr. Max Strunsky and Miss Tania Rein. Over 140 congratulatory telegrams and letters from all over the United States and the Canada were read to the toastmaster, Mr. M. Mosesohn. Only close friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Brodie-Harding.

In St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Oregon City, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, one of the prettiest weddings of recent years in that city was solemnized when Jennie Brodie Harding and Edward Everett Brodie were united in marriage. Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland, sang in a beautiful manner, Guy D'Hardelet's "I Know a Lovely Garden," her solo being followed immediately by the entrance of the wedding party, which was led by several of Miss Harding's pupils singing the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. George A. Harding, and preceded by Mrs. Nettie Waldron, Miss Mattie Draper, and Miss Hazel Pillsbury as bridesmaids and Mr. Levy Siga, Mr. Carlsson Harding and Mr. Leo Harding as ushers, was met at the altar by the groom, Mr. Edward Everett Brodie. The wedding was most beautiful. Miss Nettie Harding was the maid of honor, Mr. Raleigh Tremble, of Portland, best man, Miss Alice Ballinger and Margarette Hammon, flower girls, and little Harriet Grubb, was ring-
