GERMAN MUSIC FEST AT THE EXPOSITION

Sessions of the North Pacific Sangerbund Open Friday. Saturday, German Day, When 20,000 Will Parade. Sunday, Sacred Concert.

opening sessions of the North Pacific Sangerbund at the Lewis and Clark Exvoices will be given that evening in Festival Hall under the direction of Louis Dammasch and Charles Dierke. Saturday will be German day, and Sunday aftersoon at 3 o'clock there will take place

The North Pacific Saengerbund, of which Paul Wessinger is president and F. Topken, secretary, was organized July 21, 1900. The Concordia Society of Belling-ham that year sent an invitation to the Seattle, Tacoma and Walla Walla German. societies to celebrate their tenth anniversary. From this occasion originated the idea of forming the "Band," combining all Northwest German singing societies. The object of the organization is to bring the German-Americans of the Pacific Coast more closely together, to cultivate German song, to familiarize the people with the masterpleces of the great cess in the Eastern cities is a source composers, and to keep alive the traditions, language and poetry of the Fatherland. The first festival was held at Seatle in 1802, when Portland and Spokame were added to the Bund, and meetings were held the following year at Walla. Walla, and last year at Tacoma. All these festivals from a musical as well as social standpoint, were very successful. At all the Washington cities the singers were royally entertained.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial being a fitting occasion. Portland asked for the privilege to add the song festival to the list of attractions, and this is worth notities that something we call temperasers, and to keep alive the tradi- ling old friends here, and has been per

SING WART

PRAS CONCORDIA BELLINGHAM

lege to change her mind. See and Miss Carrie Figelia Spaiding, planiste, her companion on the concert tour, now plan to visit Europe this Fall, after vieiting the Exposition in this city and Silverton friends. Mes Longares and Miss Spaiding, assisted by Mrs. J. Harmon Caskey, contrainty, recently gave a successful concert at Dawson, Yukon Territory, and the Dawson Daily News in a report two columns long, says that the concert was one of the most, brilliant ever given there. It was also a society function, and was under the patronage of Major Wood, acting flovernor of Yukon Territory, and Mrs. Wood.

One of the programmes of Elicry's Band

English opera and excerpts or acts with without costumes and scenery, as desired, addition to singing with her company. Miss client is to do regular concert work with a various cluts, orchestras and societies and private municales.

The First Christian Church, Park and Columbia streets, was well attended last Wednesday evening, on the occasion of a recital kiyes under the direction of Miss Kathryne Linehan, musical, director of the choir. All the numbers were very much enjoyed special numbers on the programme were violable in selections played by Miss Lina Seeligien, of Richmond, Va., who is at present viniting friends in this city. She is a violinistic of a high order of merit, and was beartily of high order of merit, and was beartily of a high order of merit, and was beartily of a high order of merit, and was beartily of a high order of merit, and was beartily of a high order of merit, and was beartily by Miss Lina Linehan in the "Mignon" selection. There were also several other encores. The geogramme: Chorus, "O Hush Thee, My Rahle" (Stilllvan), choir, Miss Kathryne Linehan, conductor, baritone, "An Old-World Serensale" (Meyer-Heimund), Mr. Letolw, Songhamo, "Could I" (Tosti), Miss Harwas, quariet, "Old Folks at Home, "Eliko Ladder Charter, reading, "Abec's Bear Story" (James Whitcomb Riley), Miss Stella Linehan; the line, "Ninth Concepto" (De Berlot), Miss Lina Seeligene, chorus, "Mice in Council" (Filipy)-base, "The Friar and the King," (Manuel Seeligene, chorus, "Mice in Council" (Filipy)-base, "The Seriar and the King," (Manuel Kien), Mr. Johnson; suprano, "Polonales" from "Mignon" (Thomas), Mice Lina Election, The Mocking Bird, Miss Lilla Seeligene, quartet, "Little Pewset," Rose City Quariet; bartone, "A Son of the Desert Am Successful concert at Dawson Dally News in a report two columns hung, says that the concert was a manual properties, and the Dawson Dally News in a report two columns hung, says that the concert was

