THE PROGRESSIVE OAKS

"The Oaks" continues to meet with tremendous success. Every one of the many amusement features, including the Chutes, Mase, Laughing Gallery, Miniature Railway, Merry-Go-Round, Dancing Pavillen and Alaska Dog-Sied Trail, are crowded from noon to midnight. The beautiful Japanese Tea Garden, called the "Sunrise," has become a Tad, and many parties gather there at all hours. Hundreds avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy lunches at the coay Summer houses and the lawns have become quite a place for rest and recreation.

The Oaks Tavern served over 3000 dinners on Friday night, and it is one of the fine features of this popular resort. The management has made a great strike in securing for an early date Pain's wonderfor rest and recreation. securing for an early date Pain's wonder-ful spectacle, "The Last Days of Pom-pell," and there is a possibility of a big open-air dramatic festival being given in among the oaks which is proclaimed to be a veritable "Forest of Arden." Many new and novel amusements are now being negotiated for, so that there will be no lack of interest for the thousands who continue to patronize this popular resort continue to patronize this popular resort. There is also a cozy theater, called the Galety Theater) where the Imperial Spanish Singers and Dancers give performances afternoons and pights. For the accommodation of the public, the O. W.
