For just one inning yesterday things assumed the hue of a local victory, but in the second chapter the Siwashes went after Mr. Teddy Corbett like a bunch of Carrie Nation sympathizers after a Kannas bogze dispensary, and when the dust finally settled the scoreboard totaled five for Hall's crowe to the three annexed by the locals in the first. Seattle's ace, rung up in their half of the first, was made to resemble the proverblai plugged centavo, for the Ginnts went after the offerings of Roscoe Miller in a manner that caused the fans to ejaculate that it was a shame to take the money. At singled and so did McCredie, but Tom Fleming forced Jake at third. Householder and so did McCredie, but Tom Fleming forced Jake at third. Householder placed one in center that filled the bags. Deacon Van Buren was called upon for a hit, and responded by lacing a beauty to right, which scored McCredie and Fleming. "Young Slashaway" McLean took another safety and the "Landlord" registered. Schlafly and Runkle failed to connect safely, and the two runners were left.

The visions of a local victory were rudely shattered in Scattle's half of the second. Frick led off with a hit. the second. Frick led off with a hit, and Frary proved a good waiter by negotiating transportation. Hall hit to Van Buren, who failed in the attempt to get Frick at third, and the sacks were populated. Miller hit to right field and the ball carried just out of McCredie's reach and Frick scored. Mac returned the ball speedily, and Miller was caught before he could get back to first. Waiters hit to Corbett and was out at first, Frary scoring on the play. Kane beat out an infield poke and took second on a wild pitch. Blankenship's hit to left chased both Hall and Kane over the register, and the and Kane over the register, and the visitors acore totaled five. In the lo-cals' half it was one, two, three, for Miller had settled down and for the next four innings held Portland safe.

Win French was sent on the rubber in the third and disposed of the visit-ors in succession for the next two in-nings. He had a little bad luck in the fifth, for a hit by Walters, his own er-ror in fielding Kane's bunt, Blanken-ship's sacrifice, a pass to Houtz, and Van Buren's error gave Scattle two more. In this inning Schlafty met with another accident that will probably keep him out of the game for some time. He endeavored to cover first when Van Buren fielded Frick's infield poke, but as the throw carried wide. when van Buren heided Frick's infield poke, but as the throw carried wids, the effort to reach the sphere caused a collision between Schlafty and the batter, with the result that the local second-sucker suffered a severely bruised foot, for the runner's spikes almost tore his shoe from his foot.

With the score 7 to 3 in his favor, Miller let up a little in the seventh and the locals annexed two runs, bringing their total up to five. At singled and was forced at second by McCredie. Fleming got his second two-bagger, and an error by Kane and Van Buren's single netted the runs.

Two games will be played here today. Corbett or Jones will pitch, the morning game for Fortland, while Seattle's end will be taken care of by Fitzpatrick. This game will start promptly at 10.30 A. M.

FISHER TELLS ABOUT IT.

Says Best Won First Half and Honestly. Too.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29 .- (Special.)-There is not much for me to say about the first half, but I do think that the best team won," says Mique Fisher. "Since I have been here I have heard a lot of talk

"You must remember that the Tigers were at home but six weeks this season, while the Seals were home very much longer. I think the Seals played II weeks at home. What if we had played this number of weeks at Tacoma? Why, we would have finished so far in front that you could not have seen us. After the second week we were in the lead. At one time we were only one point to the good, but they never got up out of first place if we once got in. It was a hard fight, and a pretty one, too. And the best team won honestly.

"The result should satisfy all doubting Thomases that basebail is conducted as squarely on the Pacific Coast as any other part of the country. Just see how much more money the league would have made if the San Francisco team could have landed on top. It would have meant thousands of dollars for the stockholders. You can say that the Tigers are going right effer the second half and harring

I don't like to boast, but I think I have the best minor league club in this country, and I would not be afraid to back it to beat several of the big league organizations."

The day started with the finals in the ladies doubles. Miss Heltshu and Miss Josephi were to contest with Mrs. Baldwin, and Miss Robertson. The first set proved to be rather easy for Misses Heltshu and Josephi, by the score of 5-8. But in the next set, Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Bobertson turned the tables completely by outplaying their opponents from the start, and won, 6.2. Both teams went after the deciding set in a fast and vig-orous manner. At no time during the set was either team more than one game ahead, until finally Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Robertson managed to take two games in succession, and won, 9-7. Rarely has prettier and more accurate tennis been played by ladies on the Multnomah courts. It was a splendid exhibition, and deserved the liberal applause it received.

Busch Defeats Tyler.

At 2 o'clock the finals in the men's sinconfidently expected that he would de-feat Busch. But, contrary to expecta-tions, Busch took three of the four sets tions, Susch took three of the four sets played. Busch was very accurate with his drives, while Tyler seemed to have lost all the steadiness and speed that he had the day before. This gives Busch possession of the Fisk challenge cup also, as well as of the championship, for Pow-ell, of Victoria, who won it last year, was not present to defend his title, and Busch and it hy default. Although Tyler Busch got it by default. Although Tyler lost the match, he won a host of frie for he is a gentlemanly player and a tip-top good sport. #### Finals in Men's Doubles.

The finals in the men's doubles had been narrowed down to Wickersham and Bellinger vs. Tyler and Reming-ton. This was expected to be a very close match, but Tyler was very tired from als exertions in the singles, which had been finished a few minutes previ-ous, and could not keep up his end. Remington who, by his friends, is af-fectionately dubbed the paternal an-cestor of tennis in the Northwest, did good work. "Yet I do not hesitate to say that, during all those years, there was not a pitcher in the National League who worked as well as Nichols—who pitched such uniformly good ball and made such a high percentage of victories year after year. Nichols was a marvelous pitcher in those days, and I believe he still is capable of doing better work than a macapable of doing better work than a ma-jority of the twirlers in the National League. With him it was not a case of performing brilliantly one day and falling down the next time he made his appear-

'If we lest games when Nichols was in the box for us, it was because we hit weakly or made fielding errors that materially helped the other fellows. 'Nichols today still stands for all that is good and manly in baseball, and for that reason I was anxious to add him to the Philadelphia team as soon as I heard that the St. Louis club had committed the mistake of letting him so. There is no mistake of letting him go. There is no doubt in my mind that Nichols is good for several years yet." FIGHTERS IN ROLE OF HEROES.
