

PLEASURE-SEEKERS BY THOUSANDS FLOCK TO THE SEASIDE

POSING FOR HIS PHOTO.

SEASIDE, Aug. 5.—(Special Correspondence.)—The bright, balmy air, the warm sunshine and the refreshing sea breeze of the beach have been enjoyed by thousands of pleasure seekers here during the past week. At last the place presents its usual appearance of life, and while the past week has seen few social events of any importance, things are far from being dull. Once more are seen the swarms of children playing in the sand while their parents lie in the shade of the great logs and read. Again are the breakers filled with laughing, merry bathers at high tide, while early morning sees hundreds promading up and down upon the sand in search of a good appetite for breakfast, something never lacking here, if one only looks for it in this way. To the tourist, the grand scenery in the vicinity offers great enjoyment; to the unfortunate, who has always lived inland, the mighty ocean affords unending delight, while to the old-timers, and especially to the small boys, the attractions of the resort, are numerous enough to suit the individual taste, and those who unfortunately are forced to leave at this time express regret at the necessity which causes them to return to the heat and dust of town.

Gearhart Park.

Mrs. Richard Koehler, who for a number of seasons held the golf championship at Portland, is now at Kruse's Beach Hotel, where she is enjoying the splendid golf links in the cool sea air. Mr. James Nicol, of the Portland Riding Academy, is now at Gearhart, with a large string of his best riding horses. Mr. and Mrs. A. Oberdorfer and children, of Portland, are spending August at Kruse's Beach Hotel. Mr. H. G. Ross, the new manager of Kruse's Beach Hotel, gave the people of Gearhart a very pleasant entertainment last Wednesday evening. An immense sea of driftwood, 50 feet in height, was gathered to a spot on the sand ridge in front of the hotel, this being three days' work for the teamster. Early in the evening a crowd of boys rounded up the cottages with a big dinner bell, and after shooting off a great number of cannon crackers, five gallons of kerosene were thrown on the pile of wood, which was then set on fire. The result was the largest fire of the season. The orchestra from the hotel moved down on the sand and played National airs and old negro melodies, but the climax of the evening's entertainment was reached when the chef arrived with an immense boiler of hot molasses candy, which was distributed among the crowd and which after being cooled hard, was delicious. Over 50 people were present at the gathering, which was the first big event of the season here.

Seaside.

A very pleasant excursion was enjoyed by a party from Seaside last week. Leaving Wednesday morning in a wagon engaged for the occasion, they arrived at Elk Creek, where they stopped for the night. Thursday, the party visited Arch Bay, from whence they returned to Seaside well pleased with their outing. Those who participated in the trip were: the Misses Winnie and Evelyn Cochran, Eugene; Lettie McKinnon, Angela LeGrand, Lena Williams, Mrs. Howard Witting, Otto J. Krasner and Oswald

Ball, of Portland, and Dr. Herbert W. Heggele and J. C. Battle, of Chicago.

Personal Mention.

R. P. Veilguth and Harry Decker, two well-known musicians of Portland, have been engaged to furnish music at the Moore during August. Their evening concerts on the mandolin and guitar are greatly enjoyed by the guests of the house, their clever singing of "coon" songs being especially appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd spent a few days at the Moore last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth have been spending a few days at Seaside, stopping at the Moore. Mrs. William Honeyman and Misses Eva Mildred and Grace Honeyman are at the Moore. Judge and Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, are to spend the coming week at the Moore. Miss Caroline Barnes, of Portland, is at Lockley Hall. Dr. Herbert W. Heggele, of Chicago, is spending a few days at Seaside.
