

CLEAN UP DAIRIES

That is the Command of Inspector Bailey.

WHAT HE HAS FOUND

In Some Instances He Finds the Milk Farms in Very Uncleanly Condition and Issues Stringent Order.

"Clean up," commands J. W. Bailey, Food and Dairy Commissioner, to dairies that comply Portland with milk, and the dairymen are obeying the mandate, for should they neglect to do so they would be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, according to the statutes of Oregon in such cases made and provided, and amended at last winter's session of the Legislature.

Many dairies have been threatened with consequences if they fail to clean up, and several, according to Mr. Bailey, have gone out of business since he swooped down on them and commanded them either to cleanse themselves or else get out of the earth. Some 60 have received certificates of cleanliness, and as many more have complied with the law to the extent of asking Mr. Bailey to pay them a visit.

Conditions of Farms.

The Dairy Commissioner has found some farms in a condition that would take the appetite of milk users could they but see whence came the lactical fluid. Through the operation of the law, however, they are improving, and Mr. Bailey hopes by degrees to bring them all up to satisfactory conditions.

"Every dairy selling milk in Portland," said Mr. Bailey yesterday, "from one cow up to 200 or more, must be inspected, and I wish to say that a certificate of inspection granted by me to any dairy is held good only so long as the dairy is kept clean, for otherwise I will swoop down and revoke the certificate, as the law authorizes me to do. Some dairymen get the notion that they can do as they please about cleaning up after they get the certificate. They should watch out, for when winter sets in, and barns are again brought into use, the same conditions will make themselves visible, and I shall be constrained to do things that will work hardship."

Fee for Inspection.

The fee for inspection is $2.50, against which some dairymen complain, but Mr. Bailey says those who run the best dairies do not object to it; besides, the fee barely defrays the cost of Mr. Bailey's getting about to make the inspection.

No Excuse for Uncleanliness.

"There is really no excuse for uncleanliness, because orness of butter fats are so high that production of milk is extremely profitable. Sweet milk for ice cream is bringing from 20 to 30 cents, and that for manufacture of butter from 25 to 30 cents a pound. Not long ago I came upon a dairy where the milk was kept in a house, with cows roosting above it, and years of filth accumulated beneath it.

SOLVES MURDER MYSTERY

Convict Tells Who Killed Two Chicago Policemen Three Years Ago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—The police believe that they are in a fair way to solve the murder of Police Officers Fennell and Devine, which occurred on Ashland boulevard almost exactly three years ago, and which has so far remained an impenetrable mystery.

A convict in the penitentiary at Joliet, Louis Groszewski, offered to tell the police who committed the crime, and was granted a pardon. This was promised him, and he declared that the murderer was committed by Louis Stachowski, Frank Helmer and Frank Lee. It is a fight following the efforts of the two policemen to arrest them after a robbery.

DOE DAY GROWS ABUSIVE

Selects the Police Station to Mouth His Vile Vocabulary.

Joe Day made a capture of an old man yesterday, who, he thinks, is a bad one, and whom he desires to have run out of the city. "Tus" Allen, he calls him, known sometimes as Dr. Day, got work on the sidewalk in the eyes of the sleuth who is north headquarters, and sat all afternoon at the headquarters guarding the man whom he refused to book on the receipt sheet, fearing it would become known that he had made an important capture the first in six months.

AMERICAN HOMES AND GARDENS.

The last word on ventilation will probably never be said while there are people to live in houses. And yet, important as ventilation is for the house, it is rather its relation to public buildings, to places of assembly, such as churches, theaters, and other places of amusement, to factories and workshops—in fine, to any place where large numbers of people crowd together—is considered, than its direct relationship to the house, or the very important part ventilation must have in the dwelling; in no place is pure air more urgently needed than in the home.

AIR AS GOOD FOOD.

The breathing of impure air is precisely identical, so far as its effect is concerned, upon the human body, the drinking of impure water or the eating of impure food. Both air and water are foods, foods of such abundance in supply and so readily obtained that little thought is given to their getting. This is especially true of air, which is the single life-sustaining element obtained without cost or labor, and which is so abundant that it is given to its origin, and quite profound lack of knowledge as to its contents and qualities.

The present state of the ventilating art it is hardly possible that air filters can come into general use as regular articles of household equipment, valuable as they are as such, and as they are, but the practical demonstration that the air of New York—and in an excellent locality, it should be noted—is so foul that it is not only unwholesome and insupportable amounts of refuse, an object lesson of the utmost importance.

BABIES LEAVE BOSTON

Three Carloads of Them Leave for Portland Via Northern Pacific.

PORTLANDERS AND FAIR VISITORS TO HAVE OPPORTUNITY TO SEE ALL AT PROPOSED BABY SHOW—MANY WILL UNDOUBTEDLY NEVER LEAVE CITY AFTER GETTING HERE.

Eastern babies, real little New England aristocrats, are now on their way to the Exposition city. Three entire carloads of them recently left the City of Boston, traveling the Great Lakes to Duluth, from where they left several days ago, via Northern Pacific. They are expected to arrive in Portland within a few days, though the exact date of their arrival is a little uncertain, owing to great difficulty of maintaining telegraphic communication along the lines just now. Immediately after their arrival they will be included in the most interesting and attractive baby show ever undertaken in this country. As stated before, everyone of these little beauties is a genuine little American aristocrat, boasting of ancestry and lineage second to none in American history.

It is, therefore, safe to say that the coming of these three carloads of babies will create nothing short of a genuine furore in Portland, for these babies are the most beautiful and the most beautiful Chickerling baby grand pianos, the most beautiful and most nearly perfect pianos ever made for a genuine Chickerling family.
