A MERITORIOUS PORTLAND SINGER

MISS ELIZABETH A. HARWAS.

One of the young Portland vocalists who is winning favorable commendation at different concerts at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, is Miss Elizabeth A. Harwas, who for some time has been solo soprano in the choir of St. Lawrence's Church, Third and Sherman streets. Last Wednesday, Miss Harwas was the soloist at the concert given on Government Terrace, Exposition grounds, on the occasion of a concert by the Fourth United States Cavalry Band, and she sang with every mark of warm appreciation. Her solo was, by request, Adams' "Holy City," and in response to two encores she gave Ellen Wright's "Violets," and the familiar "Sweetest Story Ever Told." The accompaniments were supplied by the members of the cavalry band. Yesterday, Miss Harwas was one of the vocalists at the Lewis day exercises, Festival Hall, Exposition grounds, and again pleased with her vocal selections. During the past Winter, Miss Harwas has frequently sung at concerts and musicales, and is now recognized as one of the most promising of our younger singers. Her musical abilities have been much fostered under the sympathetic direction of her teacher, Mrs. Edward Alden Beals.
