President Will Witness From the Deck of the Sylph.

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 12 .- Some time during the next week or ten days President osevelt will witness a test of the submarine boat Plunger. The exhibition will take place in Long Island Sound, a short distance from the entrance to Oyster

Arrangements for the lest have not yet been completed, but the Plunger is being put in condition at the Brooklyn navyyard. Her commander, Lieutenant Charles Nelson, is recognized in the Navy as one of the most fearless and accom-plished officers in the service. His record attracted the attention of the President, who gave directions that Lieutenant Nelson should come to Oyster Bay in the Plunger, in order that he might have op portunity to witness personally the prac-tical performances of the little vessel.

Of course, the President has no thought of being aboard the Plunger during the tests. He entertains no fear of possible mishap, but he believes that he could achieve no good result by being on board vessel while the tests are in progress, and, in fact, that he simply would be in the way. He will view the work of the from the deck of the naval yacht

Before the Plunger is put through her paces the President probably will make an examination of the vessel, in order that he may have a thorough understanding of the operation of the boat.

The President it anxious to encourage officials of the Navy to undertake original and daring work. He believes thoroughly in individual initiative in officers, and admires those who are willing to assume personal risks for the betterment of the service and for the honor of the country. A few days ago the President had Com-nander Sims as a guest at luncheon. Mr. Sims has made a special study of gunnery Many of his suggestions were adopted. The British navy also has adopted many of the plans and suggestions offered by

ATTACK MADE ON ASSIGNEE

Officers of Western Bank Will Be Tried on Criminal Charge-Suit Against Beatty Condemned at Depositors' Meeting.

DENVER, Aug. 12.—President W. G. Brown and the other officers of the closed Western State Bank were arraigned in the criminal court today on charges of larceny in having received deposits when they knew the bank to be insolvent. They asked for a continuance and Judge Malone gave them two weeks to prepare heir answer, Suit was filed today in the District Court by Edith M. Raymond, who asks that H. M. Beatty, assignee of the West-ern Bank, be removed. It is alleged in the complaint that Beatty is in collusion with the bank's officials now and that he was a party to the transactions prior to the closing of the bank's doors that led to criminal proceedings being insti-tuted. The plaintiff has an open account of $845 and a cashier's check for $500 in the Western Bank.

The report of the committee appointed depositors to inquire into the con-tion of the Western Bank was read conight to about 200 depositors who asembled in the Chamber of Commerce Assurances were given the depositors that a careful investigation had been made into the affairs of the bank and that the ecurities of every character found by the committee gave promise that depositors would receive dollar for dollar and that the affairs of the bank could be wound up within a year, provided litiga-tion did not ensue. It was the opinion of the committee, however, that depositors or stockholders if they could be held liable, might have to meet the expenses connected with assignment, but that in 90 days the bank should pay a dividend of 25 per cent, in six months 25 per cent more and be closed in a year.

When he had concluded reading the re-port of the committee, Chairman Guy Leroy Stevick offered a resolution ex-pressing confidence in the ability and in-tegrity of Henry M. Beatty, assignee, and sting his continuance until sufficient is shown for his removal, disapproval of all litigation instituted for the purpose of bringing about the appoint-ment of a receiver and indorsing assignment proceedings as the best method of promoting the administration of the bank's affairs. The resolution was adopted without dissent.

MAY BECOME RECONCILED

Taggart Shows Consideration for Wife in Story of Separation.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 12.-The climax of the Taggart divorce case came today, when Captain Taggart declared on his direct examination that he had always been a faithful husband. This was near the close of his testimony and was in answer to a question by his attorney.

While on the stand the Captain related his story of the events leading up to the separation of himself and his wife. He told of the farewell with his wife, after they had decided to separate, and when he was going to the Philippines, when she affectionately called him "Tag" and kissed him good-bye.

In the cross-examination which was interrupted by the adjournment at noon till Monday, Attorney Smyser, for Mrs. Taggart, sought to convey the impression that Taggart alone was responsible for the over-indulgence of his wife in intoxi-cants. The line of questioning will prob-ably be pursued on Monday.

There is talk in Wooster of a possible econciliation of the estranged husband and wife as a result of some of the de ments of the trial, and it is pointed out that the Captain, in his testimony, has been as considerate of Mrs. Taggart's feelings as he possibly could under the
