The Oregonian

Has provided for all its old and new subscribers the most liberal premium offer ever made by any American newspaper. If you are a lover of music, one of these Talking Machines will bring into your home the glorious voices of the great Caruso, of a Melba, Tamagno, Pol Plancon and the other great artists who have consented to the publication of their records to be used with this Talking Machine, for the purpose of handing down their voices to posterity.

If you love the stage, you have at your command the inspiring monologues and recitations of the most prominent actors.

If you admire the opera, this Talking Machine will play an endless variety of Wagner's operas down to the catchy, breezy light operas of the day, and you can have funny minstrel songs for encores. Band Concerts and Orchestra music also are at your command.

Please bear in mind that this machine is not a toy, but a large $25.00 machine that will play any disc record loud enough for dancing, if desired; an ornament for any home, a musical educator, a constant source of delight and pleasure to every member of the household.

The Eilers Talking Machine is absolutely guaranteed by the manufacturers, and by Eilers Piano House, against defective workmanship or material, for a period of one year.

Send us your name, and a special agent will visit you, or you may call at our store in person.
