

was of Portland, and selections by the administration band. On Wednesday there was an informal reception, with music by the Administration Band and violin solos by Miss Frances Gill, of Portland. Thursday a reception was tendered at the Washington State Press Association...

On Friday afternoon a reception was tendered at the ladies in the various county booths in the Washington State building or connected therewith. There were piano solos by Miss Grace Wilton, of Portland; vocal solos by Miss Hazel...

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mr. S. H. Friedlander entertained the children from the Boy's Aid Society Friday afternoon at the Oaks. Manager F. I. Fuller, of the Consolidated Street Railway Company, furnished transportation for the children to the city and return, and President Hurlbert, of the O. W. P. Co., furnished a special car to take the children from the city to the Oaks and return...

The St. Louis delegates of the Letter-Carriers' Association were entertained on Thursday evening by Mrs. Ferguson Reeves, of St. Louis, at her home, 33 North Seventeenth street. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and sweet peas...

The Thursday Night Club scored another social success in its garden party held on the grounds of the residence of Mrs. G. H. Hamilton, Woodlawn, on September 7. The lawn was illuminated by countless Japanese lanterns...

A delightful occasion on Monday, September 4, was the meeting of old friends and acquaintances at the pleasant home of Mrs. G. H. Hamilton, Woodlawn, who entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Nellie G. Copner, of San Jose, Cal., and Mrs. S. Sargenson, of Spokane, Wash.

The decorations consisted of potted plants, delicate sweet peas and Catherine Meernet and La France roses. The event was one of unusual enjoyment.

These present were: Mrs. Nellie G. Copner, of San Jose; Mrs. S. Sargenson, of Spokane; Mrs. J. N. Penneck and niece, of Milwaukee; Mrs. Laura Sunderland, Mrs. A. H. Eaton, Mrs. J. B. Upton, Mrs. N. H. Taylor, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. A. W. Sheldon, Mrs. J. Vosper, Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain, Mrs. D. G. Stephens, Mrs. M. E. Mountain, of Portland; Miss Myrtle Chamberlain, of Astoria; Mrs. J. B. Upton, of Tacoma; Mrs. Hamilton in entertaining. Mrs. Penneck kindly photographed the guests while they were seated around the table.

The reunion of the Lanyon family was held in Portland on September 4 and 5. Monday night a dinner was given at the American Inn by H. B. Lanyon, of Des Moines, Ia., Tuesday, a dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Knight at the William Knight hotel on the Willamette river. Places were laid for 25, five being brothers and sisters, of which Mrs. G. F. Knight, of Portland, is the eldest. In the evening Mr. Frank Knight gave a launch ride in their honor. Wednesday morning Mr. Arthur Card, of Tacoma, gave an automobile party. One of the pleasant features of the reunion was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Grace Lanyon, of Des Moines, to Mr. James Bartlett, of Greeley, Colo.

A farewell luncheon was given last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Lella Kohler, of Los Angeles, by the Misses Ballis. The lawn and veranda were artistically decorated with Chinese lanterns. The evening was spent in social converse and readings. The numbers especially enjoyed were the solos by Miss Myrtle Vandemere and rendition of "Laska," by Miss Edith Hately, of Seattle. The installation of the new president for the ensuing six months took place. After remarks from the retiring president, R. C. Clyde, and the new president, Herbert B. King, Mr. and Mrs.

Allen, of San Francisco, and Baby Robinson were made honorary members. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. S. Aune entertained a number of the visiting photographers at an elaborate 6-o'clock dinner in their home at 28 East Taylor street. The tables were beautifully decorated with rosebuds and sprays of asparagus ferns. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Barrow, F. H. Childs and Miss Hall, of Boston; Messrs. L. Thors and Oliver, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Olympia; Miss S. Dorris, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. J. Savannan, of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Loyren, of Spokane; A. L. Jackson, of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Traver, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. C. Butterworth, of this city.

Last Friday Mrs. I. H. Ames gave an informal at-home at her cottage in Tioga, in honor of her guest, Mrs. William E. Warren, from Dawson, Y. T. The invited guests were: Mrs. W. Buchanan, Miss Buchanan, Mrs. Pope, Miss Laura Pope, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Benn, Mrs. D. W. Crowley, Mrs. Warner, Mrs. Pigot, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. W. T. Shanahan, Mrs. Noon, Miss Noon, Mr. Frank Seely, Mrs. C. Rebagliatti, Mrs. I. White, Mrs. Apple, Mrs. G. E. Jamison, Miss Le Conie Jamison, Mrs. Holmes, Miss Lollie Holmes, Mrs. Griffith.

Miss Esther Krouse entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Billie Hollingsworth, of Colfax, Wash. "Five Hundred" was played. Twenty guests were present.

WEDDINGS.

Wright-Hopkins. A beautiful Autumn wedding took place Thursday evening, September 7, at 9 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wood, 1214 Twelfth street, when their niece, Miss Zula Clark Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Hopkins, was united in marriage to Henry Hal Wright. The impressive ring ceremony was used. Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating, assisted by the groom's father, Rev. W. S. Wright. The reception rooms were artistically decked for the occasion with a profusion of sweet peas and ferns, white and green being the color scheme. The couple stood beneath a true lover's knot of choice blossoms.

The bride was attractive in a white crepe de chine gown, without veil. She carried white carnations, tied with gauze ribbons. Master George Hopkins, brother of the bride, and Master Edwin Soper, in white suits, scattered flowers in the pathway of the bridal party, and little Margaret Soper, in a quaint Kate Greenaway frock, was the ring-bearer. The bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Edna I. Protzman, and the "Flower Song" of Lange was softly rendered during the service. After congratulations, delicious refreshments were served. Many elegant presents were received from friends far and wide. Miss Mabel Dunning, of Los Angeles, caught the bride's bouquet. The bride, who came to Portland two years ago, is prominent in social and church circles. She is a talented musician, being an organist of great ability. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will live in Portland.

Palmer-Parelius.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wells Parelius, 28 East Burnside street, when their daughter, Grace Harriet, was married to Harry Price Palmer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Lewis, pastor of St. James' English Lutheran Church. Exquisite decorations consisted of Oregon grape, sweet peas and roses. The bride was winsome in white net. She carried Ruby roses. Miss Jennie Palmer, Miss Ruby Parelius, Miss Marie Mathisen and Miss Bertha White, as bridesmaids, wore becoming costumes of white or gaudy. Two carried white sweet peas, and the other two red blossoms. Little Lucy Hoover, in blue silk, was ring-bearer, and Hoyt Lescher, as best man, Miss Arvilla McGuire, at the piano, and Miss Cornelia Barker, violinist, played the wedding music, and during the service rendered Mendelssohn's "Spring Song." A delicious supper followed congratulations. Many handsome gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, after a California trip, will return to Portland, and will be at home after October 15, at 877 East Ankeny street.

Baird-Cleland.

Last Wednesday, September 6, at 5 o'clock, Miss Bessie I. Cleland and Mr. John C. Baird were married at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. John B. Cleland. The bride, who is a native of Oregon, was accompanied by her bridesmaids, Mrs. Emma V. Stratton, of Lawrence, Kan., a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. "I Love Thee" and Coombs "In the Dark, in the Dawn." Then to the strains of the Lohengrin

"Bridal Chorus," the bride party entered the front parlor, where they were married by the Rev. E. L. House of the First Congregational Church, the ring service being used. The bride was charming in a dainty gown of white silk mull and polka dot, with Valenciennes lace, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses. After congratulations a wedding supper was served. The parlors and hall were exceptionally pretty in apparatus, boughe, ferns and Caroline Tendoo roses, the dining-room in amplex and white carnations.

With the exception of a few intimate friends, relatives composed the bridal party, a pleasing feature of the occasion being the presence from Jenesville, Wis., of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cory, their daughter, Miss Zoe, and son Lynn, uncle, aunt and cousin of the bride. A beautiful array of china, cutglass and silver evidenced the affectionate regard of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird left at 8 o'clock for an extended trip through California and the Yosemite Valley. After November 15, they will be at home to their friends, at 291 Tenth street. No announcements in the city.

Payne-Bunch.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, September 6, at the residence of Mrs. R. L. Davis, 2 North Seventeenth street, at which time Miss Pearl Ino Bunch, of Astoria,

The attendants were Miss Mable Wright, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor; Miss Grace Watkins, of Mills street, bridesmaid, and Dr. George B. Story, groomsmen. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Watkins. The drawing-room was decorated with white clematis and the dining-room with green and pink La France roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanna left on the 4:30 P. M. train for Seaside and Tacoma, after which they will return to Santa Barbara, where they will reside.

Blair-Chamberlain.

At Governor Chamberlain's home, at 630 Tillamook street, on Monday, September 4, at 3:30 P. M. in a most beautiful and elaborate wedding, George F. Blair, of Lansing, Mich., and Lucie A. Chamberlain were married. Fifty guests were present. The groom is widely remembered in the city as an officer on the Wyoming, which visited our port last summer. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and white carnations. Mrs. Cook played the march, as the bride party entered the parlors. The service was pronounced in a floral bower by Rev. William S. Gilbert. Miss Marguerite Chamberlain officiated. Miss Ditchburn sang. Supper was served in the dining-room, which was decorated beautifully for the occasion. Only relatives and immediate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar will be at home after September 20.

Dunbar-Lyons.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was the marriage of Miss Elsie Lyons, of Lansing, Mich., and Mr. George Lyons, 27 Johnson street. Promptly at 10 o'clock, on Wednesday, August 31, evening, September 6, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyons, the wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore white crepe de Paris and carried a shower of bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Lyons, carried pink rosebuds. The groom was attended by Harry S. Gaylord. Rev. J. E. H. Simpson, of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, officiated. Miss Ditchburn sang. Supper was served in the dining-room, which was decorated beautifully for the occasion. Only relatives and immediate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar will be at home after September 20.

Boring-Perret.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Tacherson, at Boring, was the scene of a pretty wedding, August 29, evening, when their eldest daughter, Lucy Perret, became the bride of Orville Boring, Rev. H. L. St. Clair, of Gresham, officiating. The bride was very winningly attended by her bridesmaid, Mrs. Cora Shaver and Mr. H. W. Karr, and vocal solos by Miss Esther Vuellert, a cousin of the bride. Later the bride party, relatives and intimate friends present were served with a beautiful supper. The happy couple received many beautiful gifts.

Williams-Keegan.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Cathedral, Wednesday morning, when Miss Elizabeth J. Keegan was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph J. Williams, of Los Angeles. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. J. W. Fallon, of Clifton, Ariz., and a grand-daughter of Mrs. Sophia Sutton, one of the pioneers of Portland, who attended the wedding. She was attired in a gown of applique lace over silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid were the Misses Hallie and Mollie Fried, of San Francisco. They were given in charge by Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt, who officiated. The groom holds an important position with the Hudson Bay Company.

Smith-Masterson.

Married, at the First Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. Edgar P. Hill, David A. Smith and Miss Laura Masterson. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. W. Fallon, of Clifton, Ariz., and a grand-daughter of Mrs. Sophia Sutton, one of the pioneers of Portland, who attended the wedding. She was attired in a gown of applique lace over silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid were the Misses Hallie and Mollie Fried, of San Francisco. They were given in charge by Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt, who officiated. The groom holds an important position with the Hudson Bay Company.

Carse-Rutherford.

At the home of the bride's mother, at 21 Jackson street, Ralph L. Carse and Elizabeth J. Rutherford were married on Monday, September 4, at 12:30 P. M. Rev. William S. Gilbert officiating. Miss Etta J. Honeyman was bridesmaid and E. E. Carse best man. Only immediate relatives were present. After luncheon the bride and groom, accompanied by the bride's mother, left for the Sound cities. They will be at home, 211 Jackson street, after October 1.

Friedman-Deters.

The wedding bells sounded at Woodstock on September 6, when Stephen F. Friedman and Anna K. Deters were united in marriage at the Sacred Heart Church, Rev. Father Gregory officiating. The solemn high mass was sung by a special choir of relatives. The choir was directed by Professor R. H. Hunt. Mrs. A. Barniolomy presided at the organ. After the ceremony the happy couple departed to the home of the bride, where a wedding dinner was served to a large number of relatives and friends. The afternoon was spent in music and singing. At 7:30 P. M. a delicious supper was served to 150 people. The lawn and porch were decorated with wreaths of ivy, illuminated with a large number of Chinese lanterns. At half past four the guests departed for their homes. The bride was dressed in cream silk and wore a long veil draped with a wreath of orange blossoms. Mr. Frank Deters, brother of the bride, and Miss E. Deters, sister of the bride, were respectively best man and bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman received many beautiful and costly presents.

Gouliere-Reasoner.

Miss Myrtle Reasoner, of Edmond, Oklahoma, and George H. Janiere, of Ashland, Oregon, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. W. H. Hembree, 240 1/2 Williams avenue. Rev. F. Young, of the Central M. E. Church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends, who came from Ashland. Dr. B. E. Burtette officiated. None but relatives attended. No cards issued in the city.

Gardner-Post.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Sherman W. Walker, corner East Taylor and East Third, when Miss Lettie Gardner, of Portland, was married to John D. Post, of Astoria. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church.

Cunningham-Hadaway.

On Wednesday, September 6, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. W. Vanstone, P. D. Cunningham and Miss M. Hadaway were united in marriage. Dr. True Wilson performed the ceremony. No cards.

Irwin-Gordon.

Mrs. Mary E. Gordon and Oliver C. Irwin, both of San Francisco, Cal., were quietly married, on Friday evening, September 18, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. Francis Burgett Short. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin will reside in Portland.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The St. Louis delegates of the Letter-Carriers' Association were entertained on Thursday evening by Mrs. Ferguson Reeves, of St. Louis, at her home, 33 North Seventeenth street. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and sweet peas. The St. Louis Letter-Carriers' Band opened the evening with several choice selections, after which Mr. Davison, nominee from St. Louis for future president of the National Association of Letter-Carriers, gave a heart-to-heart talk to the band. Several of the delegates contributed to the musical programme of the evening. The youngest of the party from St. Louis, Master Russell Bertram, aged 7 years, sang, accompanied by his father, Mr. Dan Sheehan. Mr. Engle and Mr. Rothert also contributed selections. Mr. Engle provoked much merriment with his song of "Ho, Ho, Ho." Mr. Rothert, Scholmerger gave pleasing numbers. Some of the women contributed to the programme with recitations and singing. Mrs. Davison's "O Promise Me" was especially pleasing.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Davis, of Kewick, Cal., for the marriage of their daughter, Margaretta May, to William Moore Hodgkin. The ceremony will take place at the First Methodist Church of Kewick, at 3 o'clock P. M., on Thursday next. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. W. Fallon, of Clifton, Ariz., and a grand-daughter of Mrs. Sophia Sutton, one of the pioneers of Portland, who attended the wedding. She was attired in a gown of applique lace over silk, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid were the Misses Hallie and Mollie Fried, of San Francisco. They were given in charge by Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt, who officiated. The groom holds an important position with the Hudson Bay Company.

Announcements comes from Aberdeen, Wash., that invitations to the marriage of A. P. Peterson, head of the bookkeeping department of the Panel & Folding Box Company, of Hoquiam, and Miss Mabel Shannon, a school teacher of Aberdeen, have been issued. The ceremony will be performed on September 20 in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, of Aberdeen.

The Auxiliary of the Illinois Society will meet on Wednesday next, in hall, at 2 P. M. at the residence of Mrs. E. F. Prall, Mrs. Greene, 27 Pearl street, Piedmont. Resident and visiting ladies from Illinois are very cordially invited to attend. A literary and musical programme has been prepared. Talk Woodlawn car from Second and Washington streets.

The members of the Penville Camp, No. 1, United Spanish War Veterans, announce a series of dances to be given during the coming season at the W. O. W. Hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. Invitations for the first party will be issued in a few days. The general committee consists of N. Becker, J. H. Burner and C. H. Meuserdorfer, Jr.

After an absence of 26 years, Mrs. Mary Rosenback is again in Portland on a visit. She is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Sol Rosenfeld, at 42 Morrison street, where she will be pleased to see her friends next Tuesday afternoon, September 12.

There will be a meeting of the Forestry Club tomorrow, Monday, at 10 o'clock in the historical rooms at the Oregon State building, Fair grounds. A full attendance is desired, as some federation matters will be brought before the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kunz were moved to their new residence, 188 Twenty-third street North. Mrs. Kunz will be at home as usual on Tuesdays.

Elocution-Dramatic Reading. Miss Gove has returned from San Francisco, where she has been studying with Louise Humphrey Smith, Puget Sound, at her new studio, K. of P. Hall, Marquam building. Hours 1 to 5 P. M., Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Bettinger Piano School. Open to beginners and advanced players. Monthly class musicales. Address E. L. Bettinger, 591 West Park. Phone Main 2214.

William M. Wilder. Teacher of piano and pipe organ. New pupils may begin at any time. Studio, 427 Harrison street. Phone Main 4452.

At the Women's Union. Miss Pearl Willis left on Thursday for a short visit to the Dalles.

Miss Martha Woolley, of Kokomo, Ind., paid us a flying visit this week.

Miss A. E. Ray, of Chalmar, Ia., came on Wednesday, and is making her home here.

Miss Cora Chaffin, of Fern Hill, Wash., was one of this week's transients.

Miss Leonie Charlier, of Green Bay, Wis., came early in the week for an indefinite stay.

Miss Bertha E. Irvine, of Antelope, a guest of several years since, has returned, after a stay in Eastern Oregon.

Physical Culture and Dancing. Professor Ringler's school opens September 18. Apply 306 Alder. Main 1324.

Mrs. Nina Larowe, teacher of dancing, hall Twenty-third and Kearney. Inquire until 4 and after 7 P. M., except Thursday. Phone Main 2323.

Miss Dorothea Nash will receive pupils in piano, harmony and sight singing at her studio, 165 Thirteenth, between Morrison and Yamhill, beginning Friday, Sept. 15. Terms very moderate.

of Mrs. Theodore H. Allen during the past three weeks, returning to Ashland Monday.

Rev. T. A. Hilton of Wenatchee, Wash., is visiting Rev. Robert Hooper, pastor of All Saints' Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pettitt, of Hoquiam, Wash., celebrated their golden wedding on Monday, September 4.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Greene, of 219 Victoria street, have gone to the mountains for a two-weeks' outing.

Miss Elizabeth K. Matthews, of St. Helen's Hall, went down to Seaside on Saturday, September 2, with her mother, who has been her guest during the summer. They have taken a cottage and plan to remain for a fortnight.

Miss Alice Dougherty leaves on the (Continued on Page 31.)

THE WOMAN'S SILVERFIELD'S FOURTH AND MORRISON Fall 1905 The Latest Creations Direct From Styledom All the leading Millinery establishments of the Eastern Fashion Centers have contributed heavily-sent endless varieties of their finest creations to make the Fall showing of Millinery at The Silverfield Co. the finest ever shown in Portland. You are absolutely sure to be highly delighted with any choice made here, as it is evident at a glance that for smartness, style and excellence of materials used in the making our hats surpass your fondest expectations. View the display in our Morrison-Street Window today, and call in tomorrow and talk over your new Fall Hat with Madame Brooke, the greatest authority on Millinery on the Coast. Great Values in Furs A glance at the very special values we are offering in our Morrison-Street window will convince you that while "Silverfield" has the very finest furs, he also has them priced the lowest-thus placing within the easy reach of all Fur garments that are sold with a guarantee showing that there are none better manufactured.

50c EMBROIDERED TURNOVERS 39c We are showing a splendid line of pure linen, hand-embroidered Turnovers in a number of handsome designs; regular 50c values, on sale at... 39c 75c AND 1.00 BELTS 33c We offer you your choice of a splendid line of Silk and Leather Belts in desirable colorings, a fine assortment of buckles; regular 75c and 1.00 Belts, on sale at... 33c CHILDREN'S WHITE DRESSES AT HALF PRICE We find it necessary, in order to make room for our Fall and Winter Stock, to sacrifice our line of Misses' and Children's White Dresses-Splendid Dresses of lawns, organdies and linens, in the French Suspender, Russian Blouse and "Buster Brown" styles. Note the prices: $2.00 Dresses $1.00 $5.00 Dresses $2.50 $3.50 Dresses $1.75 $6.00 Dresses $3.00 $9.00 Dresses $4.50 $10.00 Dresses $5.00

SALE OF NEW FALL SKIRTS We have just received and are placing on sale a splendid collection of New Fall Skirts of a light weight. Skirts of fine Scotch mixtures, shepherd plaids and gray and tan voiles-all made in the latest full plated styles for the Fall season. $15.00 Skirts $8.95 $10.00 Skirts $6.85

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER. Remove Tan, Freckles, Redness, Itch, and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and do not neglect to use it. It has stood the test of 25 years, and is so harmless we state it to be superior to any other. As you will see, it is recommended by the highest authorities. For sale by all druggists and Fancy-Goods Dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe. FERO, T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Grand Street, New York. FOR SALE BY WOODARD, CLARKE & CO.

With Electric Light Electric Broiler The cleanliness, freedom from heat, portability, safety and economy of ELECTRIC LIGHT are advantages that make it use necessary in every home. In ELECTRIC COOKING the contrast is even more sharply defined when comparison is made with all other methods. No match, no flame, no smoke. Quick, silent, effective. REDUCED RATE FOR CURRENT ON METER BASIS. CALL UP PHONE EXCHANGE 13 (We Send Representative) Portland General Electric Co. SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS.

G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS No. 126 Second Street, Bet. Washington and Alder Streets Manufacturing Furriers Our Stock of Fur Garments Includes Exclusive Models in Fur Coats, Fur Stoles Fancy Neckwear, Fur Boas Fur Scarfs, Pillow Muffs Call and see our choice skins in Alaska Sealskins, London Dye; Persian Lambskins, Leipsic Dye; Alaska Sable, Royal Ermine, Etc. Send for Illustrated Catalogue Established 1870.

With Electric Light Electric Broiler The cleanliness, freedom from heat, portability, safety and economy of ELECTRIC LIGHT are advantages that make it use necessary in every home. In ELECTRIC COOKING the contrast is even more sharply defined when comparison is made with all other methods. No match, no flame, no smoke. Quick, silent, effective. REDUCED RATE FOR CURRENT ON METER BASIS. CALL UP PHONE EXCHANGE 13 (We Send Representative) Portland General Electric Co. SEVENTH AND ALDER STREETS.