REPUBLICAN LOVEFEAST VIEWED BY PARTY LEADERS

URGES FAIR PRIMARY TEST

Reunion, He Thinks, Should Adopt Resolution Pledging Party Support to Successful Candi: dates for Nomination.

The letters come from members nmittee, who report the sentiment of their respective counties offeited observations to Mr. Baker. Not one Republican has written in Chairman Baker says that the outlook for a successful "love feast" is highly favorable and that the reunion ntiment is growing rapidly.

Charles H. Carey, of Portland, National mitteeman for Oregon-The reunion at Portland next month has my full approval, and I have no doubt a great deal of good will come from such conference. There is no reason for dissensions in the party. The new primary law will have cordial support of Republicans throughout the state, and it should be given a fair trial; but as it is new in its inuguage, I think a consultation will be necessary to make it possible to party ties. work under the law with satisfaction to

One of the main points is to devise some an by which the supporters of individual codidates at the primary election will give full, cordial and united support to candidate finally selected in the aries. It is to be observed that in Portland last Spring some of the candidates nominated by the people under this new primary system, falled to receive the full party support in the succeeding election and this was apparently due either Committeeman for Washington County to the fact that supporters of other candidates remained at home or actively accord with the sentiments expressed in worked against the successful candidate after he had received the nomination. 1, therefore, would suggest that it would be proper, at the reunion, to sclopt a resolu-tion pledging the party to the united sup-port of the successful quadidates in the

Another point; Much confusion may arise under the new primary law in se-lecting members of the State Central Committee, and in selecting delegates to the state conventions or other conventions who shall be authorized to adopt the party platform. Those voters who vote the Republican ticket upon principle may justly feel some alarm lest, under the new primary law, party principles may be lost sight of, and party organization, which in the past has brought specess, under our present system

A. L. MILLS LIKES PEACE PLAN.

Speaker of Legislature Wants United Party for Next Election.

A. L. Mills, of Portland, Speaker of the House of Representatives-I believe the Republican re-union next month will be of benefit to the party. It will furnish an opportunity not only to discuss the proposed amendments to the constitution, but also to get the Republican Party united before the coming election next June, in order that Republican Oregon may be governed by Republicans, C. A. Danneman, of Clem, State Committeeman for Gilliam County-I cannot see anything wrong about a meeting of the State Committeemen and others for the good of the party by renewing our faith and confidence in the principles we advocate, and stirring up a little patriotism and enthusiasm.

Let us learn the views of the members on public questions for the benefit of one masses, and discuss other matters of importance. I shall be there.

STOP FEUDS-WURZWEILLER.

Committemen Laments

Slaughtering Methods. Will Wurzweller, of Princeille, State Committeeman for Crook County-I think you did a good thing in calling a re-union and I hope that harmony can be realized out of it. It is shameful the way the Re-publican Party has put men up and slaughtered them at the polls.

LOOSEN THORNS-WARNOCK.

Morrow Committeeman Believes Reunion Will Soothe Wounds. Pred Warnock, of Heppner, State Committeeman for Morrow County-I shall be glad to attend the Republican re-union and am heartly in favor of such a meet-ing for the reason that I believe that the results will be for the good of the party in Oregon. The overwhelming majority for Roosevelt last November, I believe, was a fair and true test of public senti-ment, without prejudice. Burely, Republican principles have not changed since

I believe that a meeting where we can get together and talk face to face over our local differences will have a tendency to local differences will have a tendency to local the irritating thoras that now seem to be gooding the party as a whole. I believe that we can get together in the proper spirit to eliminate many real and sented.

"CALL IN ALL REPUBLICANS."

Represent Whole Party.

J. R. Smith of Corvailis, chairman Benton County Central Committee-In my opinion the prospective "love-feast" is the proper thing if the meeting shall be a representative Republican gathering. I PRIMARY LAW am heartily in favor of this meeting, pro vided the whole Republican party is represented; in other words, if all factions are to be recognized—the Simon, th Mitchell, the Furnish the Geer, et al. If C. N. McArthur Says Peace Confer-only one faction is invited, I am not in favor of the meeting. In my opinion the meeting should be as representative as possible. The prominent Republicans of each county should be invited, as well as the state and congressional committees. This will bring together all the brethren thereby injecting hermony and enthusi-asm into the party. By enlarging the gathering you will increase the interest, harmony and enthusiasm aspired for, You

A. C. Marsters, of Roseburg, State Com-mitteerman for Douglas County-I am-pleased that the movement is initiated which will bring together the various elements of the party, that they may ex-change views, and counsel together as to means for the betterment of the party. Unity of principle and action we must have if we are to win success. The many provisions of the direct-primary law are none too clear to many, and we should prepare to carry them out in letter and in spirit, and to secure party unity in support of the nominees. I trust you will be greeted with a large and rep-resentative attendance of party workers from all sections of the state. I am sure

Marion Committeeman Says Peace

Chance Is at Hand. Hal D. Patton, of Salem, State Commitwhich in the past has brought success, that D. Patton, of Salem, State Committenay be wholly lost. This, because it order to formulate the principles and to decide upon party policies, it is necessary to have assemblages of representatives of the party, which are not provided for just restored the peace of the world, is by this law. Either a preliminary convention must be called which will adopt party platform, or else the election of state, county and municipal officers will degenerate in Oregon into a mera scramble of individuals for office. This subject should receive the careful consideration of thoughiful men of all parties in Oregon, for the support of American institutions is maintained by the political parties, and the destiny of the party in his be Bepublicans, and laying aside all subject is maintained by the political parties, and the usualisation of the perty in his because of the work, is certainly a time for Republicans to come together and jubilate. Let Republicans old and young dedicate themselves anew to the foun-dation principles of Republicanism—the rule of the majority, a protective tariff, a sound currency, and no monkeying with a tariff or raliroad rate laws. Coming together in the spirit of true Americans adhering to the old landmarks and branch ing out on as few new wrinkles as possi-ble, we will unite every true Republican solidly with the party of progress and prosperity.

"GOOD RESULTS CAN'T FAIL"

Yambill Committeeman Says All Republicans Are Favorable.

J. M. Crawford, of Crawford, State RENEW OUR FAITH—DANNEMAN Lord's letter in Monday's Oregonian covers the whole ground regarding the Re-Giffiam Committeeman Would Have with whom I have had opportunity to talk express themselves as favorable to the reunion, hoping thereby to unite the different factions of the party throughout the state, so all will raily to the support of the primary nominees, and thereby it sure the election of the entire ticket. I think nothing but good can come of the conference, and trust that your efforts to harmonize the warring elements within our party will be successful, as it certainly will be when the Republicans understand that the conference is not called with intent to subvert the workings of the primary law, but rather to aid it by a better understanding, in that we may proceed with some degree of unity. always necessary to success mitteeman for Union County—The call for the meeting is proper. As you say, the meeting is proper. As you say, the meeting must confine its work to carrying out the new primary laws. I think we sill should arrive at a clear understanding of its provisions, and endeavor correctly to carry them out in the letter and the spirit. It will give me pleasure to be at the meeting and do what little found to bring the party into harmony.

There is room for doubt that the fiew law will do away with the defects of the present convention system has been added to the convention system has a convention system of the convention system and other public questions. C. N. McArthur, member Polk County Central Committee-Ne harm can come from the proposed conference of Republiadvance the interests of any one man or set of men, and that no steps are taken to prevent a fair test of the direct pri-mary law. Leading Republicans of the mary law. Leading Republicans of the state certainty have a right to meet and discuss matters that may affect the future of the party, and if their fictions are im-proper or out of place, they will not find favor with the rank and file of the party. I am in favor of a Republican state con-rention every two years, but there is no reason why such a convention should recommend the nomination (by the direct primary law) of any candidate or set of candidates. Such conventions should adopt party platforms, for it will be necessary for the Republicans of Oregon to take a definite stand on such questions as the normal schools, the proposed constitu-tional amendments and other questions that concern the general public

Notwithstanding the fact that the power of nomination has been granted directly to the people, the party organiza-tion should remain. By this I do not mean that a "machine" should be set up or a party "boss" enthroned. No success attained without organization, and a good, rousing convention can maintain and foster the right kind of spirit among the Republicas of Oregon. In this con-nection let me suggest that the Young Men's League of Republican Clubs be re-organized and that active Republican clube be formed in every precinct in the state. Nothing would do the party more good than a move of this kind.

I am no politician, but merely one of the rank and file of the party, but I am more than anxious to see the dove of peace perch on the standards of Oregon

PERCY KELLY SEES PERIL IN UNORGANIZED EFFORT.

Without Unity and System Republicans Must Give Way to Unterrified Rivals.

Percy R. Kelly, of Albany, State Committeman for Linn County-I cannot unation in party work if they will but think a miunte, they certainly must concede that the lack of organization will imperil the party's existence and place us at the mercy of the unwashed and the unterrified, who are always organized on the allembracing platform of opposition and negation, which, like the other work of the devil, requires no preparation, thought or qualifiation. For one, I am heartly in favor of an organization which, as near as may be, will reduce the primary elec-tion to a system; and if I can't get into that organization, I will get onto it, and local prejudices and support the do my little stunt toward "busting" the nominers, then the Republican same just like all great men have done be a power for good in Oregon.

EX-GOVERNOR APPLAUDS PLANS FOR HARMONY MEETING.

Will Compose Quarrels and Abandon Rivairies.

William P. Lord, of Salem, ex-Governor of Oregon—I hope that you will be successful in your efforts to raily a united party. If our party will compose its quarrels and abandon its rivalries after noneapirit and "yell," there can be no doubt of its success. The people of our party real-ize this, and I think will support any movement that has for its object the bet-terment and success of our party. I believe, therefore, your action will be indorsed by them.

"REUNION SENTIMENT GROWS"

Clatsop Committeeman Says No Reason Will Be Given Against It.

John Fox, of Astoria, State -ommittee man for Clatsop County-Most heartly do I sanction the effort for harmony in the Republican party, and particularly commendable is the object of your call for a reunion, which, as stated by you in your communications received by members of the State Committee, and others, "to take be intrattive to members of the state Committee, and others, "to take "OBEY PRIMARY LAW"—BAKER

An argument to construe such a move as incompatible with the intendment of the direct primary law, or as in any way abrogating its profrom Democratic visions, coming source, or any of its allied forces, could be well understood, for a disorganized and inharmonious Republican party would meet the highest felicitation from such quarters. We want a united party, and we must "get together."
We may fail wholly or in part, but we

J. B. Hosford, State Committeeman for Sherman County-Any movement having for its object a reconciliation between the warring factions of the Republican party meets with my hearty approval. While I do not expect that the Republican reunion to be held next month will result in obliterating the differences between the "irreconcilables" on both sides, yet there is reasonable ground for hoping that party unity, so much needed at the pres e, will be promoted by the meeting. by all in the same laudable and kindly terest of party harmony and in order that we may work more effectively for the principles of true Republicanism, we ought to lay aside skepticism and make an honest effort to end factional strife of minimize it as much as possible before entering upon the approaching cam-

Drop-Forging Plant Assured.

Among the new industries which have been assured for this city is a drop-forging plant, which will be installed and put in operation some time this Winter. The backers of the project are capitalists from Hartford Conn., who have had a representative in the city investigating conditions under the direction of the Board of Trade. So pleased was he with what he found here that he stated before leaving the city that the plant would be installed as soon as the mea interested can incorporate and make the necessary arrangements.

The enterprise will involve an invest-nent of about $15,000. Ten machines will be installed, and more than 40 men em ployed at the start. There is no simila plant in the Northwest, and the machin ery for use in the mining and lumber in-dustries is now manufactured by hand. The drop-forging plant will perform all this work by machinery with a saving of time and labor.

LAND FRAUDS NO DISPROOF

Their Use for Campaign Thunder by Democrats Can Be Forestalled by United Organized

E. Mingus, of Marshfield, member Coes County Central Committee-The jull that has come over the party during the past alx months threatens its success during the coming year, unless something is done to maintain the life and activity of the organization. At the present time the leading democrats throughout the state feel that matters are coming their way rapidly, and the zeal manifested by them is liable to opread and take possession of a large number of electors who are domi-nated in their behavior at the polls by popular clamor and thoughtless senti-party to maintain a solid and vigorous-organization, and to difuse this feeling among the general public from now until next election seems necessary for success. There exists even now among faithful members of the party a feeling of homelessness. This feeling has perhaps grown out of the results of the investigations made by the Federal authorities in this state in reference to land entries. Be this as it may, I do not desire to discuss how the present situation was brought about. but with numerous other members of the party who have its interest at heart, I am willing to do my part toward dissemi-nating a feeling of confidence and assurance that the Republican party in this state is in no way impaired or weakened, and that we intend to serve the best in-terest of the public the same as before. That other political parties will make sordid use and promulgate distorted and exaggerated statements about the conduct of members of the Republican party who now occupy high official positions and are under Federal investigation, there is no doubt. That they will also use this as a strong argument for the support of their nominees, there can be no doubt. It must be frankly admitted and not blindly ig-nored that doubting Thomases will be caught by this species of argument, and there is a possibility of it becoming quite contagious and result in the defeat of some of our party nominees, but much can be done to diffuse a patriotic party feeling which will forestall such an event. Factional differences in the party will have to be relegated to the rear and receive no consideration in formulating our work. Give every one patient attention and promote a feeling of good fellowship throughout the entire state. The best test of a man is in time of adversity, and lie who is not willing to forego personal grievances for the benefit of the whole party to maintain its time-honored prin-ciples cannot under any circumstances be of any value to it. If the public welfare has ruffered at the hands of any Republi-can official or he has been derelict in his duty, the public should be made to un-derstand that the dignity of the party requires that his conduct be deno

COMPLETE ROAD TO DUFUR

Last Spike on Great Southern Will Be Driven Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the last rail will be laid and the last spike driven at the Dufur end of the first division of the Great Southern Railroad, distant 30 miles by the course of the track from The Dailes. This railroad already has along its line, awaiting transportation, an immense tonnage of wheat, other grain and farm crops, and will handle a very large traffic from the day regular train service is established. Tracklaying at the end of the first division has been progressing at the rate of two miles a day, and the last bridge was crossed yesterday, leaving less than 2000 feet to be faid to the end of the division where will be located the depot, with switch tracks to the big warehouses of Dufur, already filed with grain awaiting the coming of the boon of steam trans-portation, without which the farmers have developed great productive powers that will be multiplied with the advantage of facilities for removing their product to market. John Heimrich, president; John G. Heimrich, vice-president, and George W. Joseph, attorney, of the company, are all at the front for the completion of the road.
