GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS PORTLAND DAY, SEPTEMBER 30. A LEGAL HOLIDAY, AND MAYOR URGES ITS OBSERVANCE

Governor Charnelbein yesterday issued the following proclamation, making Portland Day, Saturday, September 30th, a legal holiday.

The idea was conceived of marking the 30th anniversary of the establishment of Lewis and Clark Exploration, one of the most notable events of American History, in this State, and the establishment of an Oregon Territory. Portland, for its part, is to be commemorated as the birthplace of the Oregon Territory.
