WILY OLD CHIEFTAIN

Leaders of Iroquois Are Men of Ability.

WARLIKE FOR PROTECTION

A Race of Four Hundred Thousand People. Skilled in arts of Peace. These Wonderful Savages of Irrigation.

HEAD-CLOTH DRESSING

SPOON-HEADED HORN-CHIEF

Chief of the Cayuga Nation.

The story of the Iroquois Confederacy is a tale of great achievement and endurance. From the very beginning, these people were known for their agricultural skills and their skillful use of the land. They were a people who lived in harmony with nature, and their way of life is a testament to their ingenuity and wisdom.

NORTHWEST DEATH

Mrs. Jane Sayre.

OBERON, OR., Sept. 21.-Jane Sayre, who lived at Oberon, 30 years, was buried in her native town yesterday. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Mr. Sayre.

PROF. SHERLOCK'S FUNERAL

High Mass at St. Patrick's Church.

F. X. SHERLOCK'S FUNERAL.

Rev. Father Twomey said the high mass at St. Patrick's Church on Saturday, and the body was then taken to an unknown place.

STAMPHEDE TUNNEL BLOKED

Wheel-Laden Cars Jam Track and Crush Dead Animals.

The Pacific Express, which was leaving from Portland this morning, was held up by a stampede of horses at the end of the tunnel. The horses stampeded, and the train was held up for several minutes.

NOW COMES THE PIANOLA EXHIBIT

A Wonderfully Complete Exposition That Makes an Epoch in Musical Life.

The pianola exhibit is not only interesting, but also educational. It is a great improvement in musical instruction, and is sure to be a great success.

HARRISON STRIKES BAR

ASSAULT SUMMER A TOTAL LOSS FOR AREA BAR.

There is a total loss for the area bar.

The Pianola Exhibit

The pianola exhibit is not only interesting, but also educational. It is a great improvement in musical instruction, and is sure to be a great success.