Hearing on Coal-Rate Complaint

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 23.-Special.-It is now apparent that the hearing of the Oregon complaint concerning joint freight rates on coal from Roslyn to Colfax must be postponed. The Railroad Commission recently decided to hold the hearing which will open all questions concerning the powers of the commission in Colfax, October 25.

Brisk Fire at Pendleton

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 23.-Special.-Over $2000 worth of property was destroyed by fire this evening. Flames gutted the White lodginghouse on Main street and destroyed the household goods of the proprietor, amounting to about $1400. These were covered by $1100 insurance, and the house was insured, but the amount cannot be recovered by Clark and Warman, who own it, being out of town.

Centralia Votes for Extension

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 23.-Special.-The city extension special election at Centralia today passed by a majority of two votes, 35 voting against and 33 for the extension. This makes the fourth election that has been held for this purpose, and makes the City of Centralia a population of 600. It was cast inside the city limits, none was cast against the proposal.

A Race of Four Hundred Thousand People, Skilled in Arts of Peace.

The securing of the natives exhibited in the Igorrote village at the Lewis and Clark Exposition was a far more formidable undertaking than is realized by the visitor to the interesting colony, and was narrated last night to several edu-ators who had called at the village to obtain scientific data. Mr. Richard Schmedelweid said: "Late in May I heard that the chief of the Ethnological Survey for the Philippine Islands, Dr. Jenks, had agreed to set together a band of Igorrotes for the Lewis and Clark Exposition, provided he could get some one to bring them over."

At St. Patrick's Church by the pastor, Rev. E. P. Murphy, assisted by Deacon McDevitt and Subdeacon Burley. The interment took place at Mount Calvary cemetery.

STAMPEDE TUNNEL BLOCKED

Wheat-Laden Cars Jump Track and Are Crumpled Up.

TACOMA, Sept. 23.-A wreck in the center of the two-mile Northern Pacific tunnel through the Cascade Mountains occurred at 7 o'clock this morning. Eight freight cars loaded with wheat heaped on the track on account of a broken rail and were crushed into bits. No one was hurt, but great difficulty was had in pulling the rear of the train out of the tunnel, where the smoke is stifling. A passenger train from Spokane passed through the tunnel ten minutes before the wreck. Travel through the tunnel will be abandoned at least 24 hours, but dummy trains will be run over the line.

Using Great Northern Track.

SPOKANE, Sept. 23.-A bad freight wreck inside the Stamped tunnel in the Cascade Mountains has blocked the Northern Pacific, which is now sending trains West from Spokane over the Great Northern.

SENTENCED FOR EXTORTION

Berry Doby Had Threatened Eastern Oregon Cattleman.

VALE, Or., Sept. 23.-Special.-The jury in the case of Berry Doby, for extortion, brought in the verdict of guilty as charged, after being out only 20 minutes. The evidence showed that Doby sent letters through the mail to Charles Decker, a prominent cattleman, threatening to burn his property and kill him if he did not let Doby have a telephone pole near the farm of C. W. Mallet, the night of August 26 at 1 o'clock. He was sentenced by Judge Davis to serve a term of six months in the Oregon penitentiary. His attorney, W. R. King, made a motion for a new trial.

PIANOLA EXHIBIT A Wonderfully Complete Exposition That Marks an Epoch in Musical Life.

A Most Comprehensive Display of the Pianos and Weber, Steck, Wheelock and Stuyvesant Pianolas; of Orchestrels and of Aerolias, Which Make Musicians of Everybody. For Coming Two Weeks at Eilers Piano House.

A few years ago an instrument made its appearance at Eilers Piano House which has done more toward the development of piano music education and musical appreciation than has been accomplished by any other agency. It is needless to say that this is the wonderful Pianola, which, with its several kindred instruments of more recent date, make possible the rendering by the choicest of music to any and every member of the household, the unskilled and untutored alike, of the most beautiful and melodious music, the Pianola, a Pianola Piano, or an Orchestrelle, as the most accomplished musician. Nearly every kind of instrument are now to be found in the homes of refinement, culture and wealth of the Pacific Northwest, all of them supplied by the
