Many States Rise in Arms Against Life Insurance Management.

DEMAND M'CALL'S HEAD

Missouri Commissioner Leads in the Movement—Germany May Drive Out American Companies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—With few exceptions the authorities of every state in the West, Middle West and South are up in arms over the revelations of the life insurance companies.

McCall's resignation and his restitution of money diverted from proper channels was demanded in a resolution of the convention of insurance commissioners, which was held Friday in New Hampshire.

Resolved, That the National Association of Insurance Commissioners holds that any effort of a mutual life insurance company to divert the funds of the policyholders of such company to any other business for the purpose of speculation and purposes that do not come within the purview of the law governing insurance companies, or within the purview of the charter under which such company is operating, has violated his most sacred trust.

STATES INVESTIGATE TOO

Five Insurance Commissioners Supplement New York Work.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Insurance Commissioners of five Western States meeting in this city announced today that they had been completed with the New York Life Insurance Company to begin an investigation of the real estate and mortgage departments of the company.

The five commissioners are: E. Folk of Tennessee; H. R. Prewitt, of Kentucky; M. Post, of Wisconsin; L. D. E. Brien, of Michigan; and E. L. Pierce of Nebraska. Mr. Folk said that the investigation of the Western commissioners will not cover the same ground as the New York Legislative inquiry.

H. R. Prewitt, the commissioner from Kentucky, said he favored the regular publication of the earnings of the life insurance companies in the case of defective dividend policies. "If there was this publicity," Mr. Prewitt declared, "a policyholder would know what he might fairly expect instead of waiting for 15 or 20 years to be too often disappointed at the end of that period."

The Western Insurance Commissioners will examine only one company at a time, taking up the affairs of the New York Life Insurance Company first.

EQUITABLE HAS CASH TO LEND

Wants to Put It in Mortgages on High-Class Property.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—President Paul Morton, of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, today gave out a statement, saying that the society would like to take its funds from the banks and loan them on mortgages. He said: "First-class securities are difficult to get. The second-class securities are not so good as loans on high-class New York real estate as rapidly as it would like to get them. It has money to invest and is anxious to take it out of the banks and put it into mortgages. The policy of the society hereafter will be to make it easy for good people to borrow money from it on high-class property."

CAUSES SUSPICION OF ALL

English Financiers Fear Graft in All American Corporations.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—English financiers have viewed with amazement the disclosures affecting the business methods of American insurance corporations, according to Ernest A. Hamill, president of the Corn Exchange National Bank. Mr. Hamill returned to his desk today after a three months' European tour, and said: "While I was in Europe three weeks ago men of finance everywhere were questioning the entire American financial system. They were asking if the directors of the big insurance companies could permit irregularities such as were shown in the Equitable Company, other financial institutions on this side of the water must be held up to the same standard."

GET BEAUTY BY RELIGION

Strange Spell Causes Woman to Elope with Mexican.

Lured From Husband by Promise of Becoming the Most Beautiful Woman in World.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Antonio Aguirre, a Mexican, and Mrs. Cora N. Broughton, a handsome woman of Los Angeles, faced Mr. Broughton, husband of the woman, in Judge Underwood's Court today, charged with the charge of having eloped. Broughton employed Pinkertons to trace the couple, who he says ran away from Los Angeles to this city.

BIG REVOLT AT STANFORD

Enclina Hall Students Find Champion in College Paper.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—The men of the university who have risen in revolt because of the employment of an obnoxious watchman in Enclina Hall, and because of the arbitrary dismissal from the big dormitory of over a score of men for alleged participation in "rough house," have found a champion in the college paper, the Daily Palo Alto, which last night printed the following editorial on the subject: "The men dismissed were selected mainly on account of their past records, and were given no opportunity for a hearing. From the facts, the treatment of the students does not seem to have been fair. In the first place, the manner of selecting the men to be made an example of resulted in a number of men who took no active part in the 'rough house' being unjustly punished. Professors E. L. Green and J. O. Griffin, of the students' affairs committee, held a long conference yesterday with a committee from the Enclina Club, and agreed that every man who had been dismissed from the hall should be accorded a full hearing before the committee and given an opportunity to make a defense."

VENNER OUT AFTER SCALPS

Banker Moves to Drive McCall and Perkins from Office.

TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 30.—Clarence H. Venner, the New York banker, has written a letter to Charles H. Lulling, Superintendent of Insurance, asking that Mr. Lulling refuse to allow the New York Life Insurance Company to do any business in the State of Kansas if John A. McCall and George W. Perkins stay in the

REVEL IN MURDER

Turkish Troops Killing Off the People of Macedonia.

STORY OF EYE-WITNESS

Austro-Russian Gendarmes Powerless to Protect Christians From Savage Asiatics—Turkey Would Expel Bryce.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—W. A. Moore, secretary of the Balkan committee, who has returned from a two months' tour of Macedonia, said to the Associated Press today: "The wanton slaughter of Christians in Macedonia continues under the eyes of Europe's representatives. Crossing the Bulgarian border, the first news to greet me was an unparadise massacre in the little village of Konopitski, which occurred three days before my arrival. On visiting the village I found the bodies of a man, two women, a girl and three children still unburied and laid out in the Christian church. The women had been shot, but I saw one child which had been carried off by the troops in the Monastir district. The Italian officers sleep with the Turkish army in order to observe its methods of 'suppressing insurgents.' This, however, only prevents special detachments from perpetrating crime."

MILWAUKEE GRAND JURY FINISHES GREAT WORK.

Declares Corruption Fully Organized and Syndicated—Police Protect the Favored Gamblers.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 30.—Cornelius Corcoran, president of the Common Council of this city, former Alderman and two private citizens were indicted by the grand jury in its final sitting, which ended tonight at 10 o'clock. Corcoran is charged with selling hay and oats to the city, which is in violation of a city statute, which states that no officer-holder shall enter into a contract to sell goods to any kind to the city. Frank Klode, president of a local furniture company, which sold furniture to the county, is indicted on a charge of perjury. William Murphy, a former Alderman, is charged with bribery, and Fred C. Schultz, a newspaper reporter, with bribery. The total result of the jury's work is 127 indictments, involving 25 persons.

VENGEANCE ON THE UNARMED.

"The village of Mogila, in which an Albanian brigand was assassinated, was punished by the Turkish troops. Nine unarmed peasants were killed and arms were placed beside them in a cornfield in order to deceive the Italian officers who were invited to inspect the 'insurgents.' But the rifles were of the pattern used by the troops in the village, and the 'brigandage' continues flagrantly and business and property are less safe than before Russia and Austria were given the mandate to reform the country two years ago. The general administration's inability to protect the population, and several of them told me they had so reported to their governments. The Macedonians have no money left."

TRYING TO DRIVE OUT BRYCE.

James Bryce, M. P., president of the Balkan committee, is now touring Macedonia and investigating conditions preparatory to laying the results of his tour before the British Parliament. The authorities in Macedonia are said to be employing every means to prevent him from gathering information, and the Porte has requested the British government to permit the expulsion of Mr. Bryce from Turkey.

WAR ON COMPARTMENT CARS

One Good Result of Tunnel Murder Near London.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Nearly a week has passed since the body of Miss Mary Money, of Clapham Junction, was found in the Merisham tunnel of the London & Southwestern Railroad, but the mystery of her death remains unsolved. The outrage, however, has resulted in a crusade against the continued use of the cell-like compartment cars on the British railroads. At least one main line is said to have countermanded a large order for old-type cars in consequence of the crusade.

PORTER LEWIS TO BE TRIED

Negro Brute Taken Back to Rathdrum, Idaho.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—Fearing that an attempt would be made to lynch him, Sheriff Dost, of Rathdrum, Idaho, waited until court was adjourned before coming here to take J. D. Lewis, a wanted porter, to Rathdrum. Lewis is wanted for criminal assault on a white girl. The crime occurred August 25 on a Burlington train in Idaho. His victim, a girl named Riley, of Omaha, she was traveling alone in the tourist sleeper, and Lewis was the porter. During the day his attentions were offensive, and he complained to a conductor. The latter promised protection, but at Trout Creek left the train and another conductor appeared. This was 5 o'clock in the morning, and Lewis then assaulted Miss Riley. Her screams attracted two men, who rushed to her rescue, but Lewis escaped by jumping from the train. Miss Riley has been a nervous wreck ever since the night of the crime. Sheriff Dost says it is doubtful if she will live to testify against Lewis.

WITHOUT REPRESENTATION

(Continued From Page 1.) It is believed that Williamson and Hermann can nominally hold their seats in the House by keeping their cases before the courts on appeal or otherwise. If they can do this to the end of the session, the House will probably be distinguished to unseat them, though it will refuse to allow them to take the oath or perform the active duties of Congressmen. Thus two virtual vacancies will exist, depriving the state of representation in the House, and the state would be denied the privilege of sending to Congress two men who can be seated and who participate in legislation and exercise all the rights of Congressmen.

NO WAY TO FORCE RESIGNATION

In the opinion of law officials there is no way in which Oregon can have representation in the House of Representatives next session unless Hermann and Williamson relinquish their credentials and allow the voters of the two districts at a special election to choose new Representatives. If they are finally adjudged guilty before the second session of the Fifty-ninth Congress assembles, there will be an opportunity for special elections, so that Oregon could have full representation in the House during the Winter of 1907.

resided on the land, but, if their entries are made under the timber and stone law, residences is not required, and these men have not violated the law. Mr. Schwartz was sent to investigate homestead entries in Shoshone County, and in his report, after naming three entries, says: "With these exceptions, none of the lands in the withdrawal have been cultivated, grazed or otherwise used for bona fide homestead purposes." Then, again, after naming the same three settlers, he says: "None of the claimants have complied in good faith with the requirements of the settlement laws as to residence."

Those persons who made timber entries of Shoshone lands have not violated the law in failing to reside on their entries, and if their proof is found regular in every way, they will ultimately receive patents for their lands. To class them as fraudulent entrymen is a manifest error.

HAS HOT SHOT IN RESERVE Heyburn Says Pinchot Did Not Publish His Last Letter.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 30.—Senator Heyburn is slowly improving. He found time today to read the published correspondence on the Idaho forest reserves, and charges the Administration with unfairness in omitting the final "hot" letter which he sent Gifford Pinchot. Mr. Pinchot does not recall such a letter, but Mr. Heyburn says he will produce it in the Senate next Winter and use it in his attack upon the Administration.

Delay on Boise Barracks. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 30.—Upon inquiry of Senator Heyburn, it was learned that work on the new buildings at Boise Barracks is delayed because of dissatisfaction over the location of the officers' quarters. The Department wants them on a level with the parade ground; the specifications placed them 50 feet above on the bluff. Major Ruhlin has been sent to Boise to finally fix the location of all the buildings. When he reports, work will probably be authorized.
