

was a most perfect piece of acting and the tender-hearted minister commissioner had been weary of gushing mamma and shy young maidens ever since.

Among the charming girls who assisted the Walla Walla messengers during the past week were the two daughters of Mayor and Mrs. Gilbert Hunt, Mabel and Marjorie, and Miss Laura Bowles. Miss Mabel Hunt has been for two years a student in Radcliffe College, Cambridge, Mass., and Miss Bowles is a Berkeley girl. Miss M. Grace Jones, whose recital at the Washington building yesterday was so much praised, is a Boston girl, who for two years has been teaching music in Whitman Conservatory, Walla Walla.

Portlanders will be interested to know that in the musical programme of tomorrow afternoon at the Exposition, Mrs. June McCullin Ordway, one of Portland's well-known vocalists will represent the city. Her lively rendition of "Dear Little One Go to Sleep" will be sung by request by Miss Edna R. Gates, daughter of the late Mayor Gates, who has resided in the east from four years of musical study in the East. Both the words and music of this song were composed by Mrs. Ordway. It is now in manuscript and will be published, it will be dedicated to Miss Gates.

The reception given in honor of Mrs. Dunway on Friday afternoon brought together many friends of long years, who were glad to pay tribute to the day's honor guest. Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Colburn and Mrs. Evans received with Mrs. Dunway, many friends of her own, who had followed by friends and societies.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A most enjoyable reception was given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George D. Schalk and Mrs. W. H. Grindstaff in honor of their sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Towne, who has been spending a short time in the city. House and table decorations for the affair were charmingly novel and effective, long trailing clusters of clematis, combined with pink roses, being used. The tables were all in white and green, the clematis alone being used thereon, with white and green china. Mrs. Grindstaff served tea and Mrs. Herbert H. Jones, Judge Schalk, the Schalks, Vernon Kercheval, Lydia Ritter, Corrine Riley, Burbank and Smith.

A delightful party was given last Friday night by Miss Louise J. Slater, 45 Broadway, in honor of her friend, Miss Eleanor C. Rogers, of Newcastle, Pa. Her home was thrown open to about 25 guests, who were entertained in a joyous laughter during the games of snap and sitch. Several selections, both vocal and instrumental, were given. All spent an enjoyable evening, and at a late hour bade a reluctant "good-night."

A family reunion was held at the residence of C. M. McKay, 206 Bancroft avenue, this city, Sunday, September 24, when Mrs. Rachel McKay, a pioneer of 1862, was present. She resides in Washington county, seven miles from Portland, on a donated land claim, where, with her husband, James McKay, she began house-keeping 22 years ago and reared a family. She met her entire family, with one exception, consisting of five children, eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild as follows: Mrs. McKernan, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilshear, Mr. and Mrs. J. German, all of Portland; Miss Lettie McKay, of Hardman, Morrow County; J. W. Russell, of Lewiston, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Miss Pearl Wilshear, Ruby McKay, Merle German, Masters Earl and Kenneth Wilshear and Donald German, Carol C. Robinson representing the fourth generation. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. James German, of Imbler, Union County, Or.

The officers and crew of the steamer "Lady Jane" gave their opening party of a series to be given this winter. The evening was spent with games and music. A few vocal selections were rendered by Mr. Harry Wood and Mrs. King and Miss Sadie Kindred. At 10:30 the guests retired to the dining-room to partake of the bountiful supply of delicacies prepared by the hostesses, Mrs. M. Mitchell, Miss Sadie Kindred, Mr. Harry Wood, Miss Pearl Hampton, Mr. Chester Peterson, Miss Martha Springer, Mr. George Mitchell, Miss Truxton Swain, Mr. Albert King, Miss Lena Deinger, Mr. Herman Buecke, Mrs. Anna Deinger, Mr. Frank Bond, of St. Paul, Miss Nell Dourney, Mr. William Carlson, Miss Jennie Mitchell, Miss Jessie Taylor, Mr. James Mitchell, Miss Arline Lyons, Mr. L. Thompson, Miss Steele, Mr. B. Jamison.

Mrs. E. M. Runyan entertained informally Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Grace Mildred Barrows, of Seattle. Miss Barrows is one of the well-known singers of the Puget Sound city, and during the afternoon favored the company with several vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Kemp. The parlor decorations were green and white, while pink roses were used in the dining-room. The ladies were entertained in a most enjoyable manner and the evening in the person of some noted woman, whom they were left to guess by conversation addressed to them. They then competed for a prize by molding well-known animal figures in wax. A considerable amusement. Miss Barrows was awarded the first prize and Mrs. Ida Heintz was given the second prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. R. Kenna.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the Japanese tea party given on Thursday by Mrs. W. F. Otto, at her home, 462 East Eighth street north. All the guests were kinwood and Kinwood. There were tiny Japanese dolls. The dining-room was as dainty as possible. A tea table stood in each corner and one in the center. Over the tea table was suspended a huge Japanese umbrella, with lanterns swinging from it. Lanterns also were hung from coral rods over the other tables. Sweet cakes and tea were served. Those who were present, Mrs. Scheideman, Louella J. Staver, Amanda Wolfe, Eleanor Rogers, Florence Gallagher, Agusta Brand, Grace Johnson, Cynthia Johnson, Ethel Crockett, Edith Wheeler, Eleanor Abstar, Mrs. W. F. Otto, Mrs. C. Rose, Amanda Otto. The party was given for the Misses Johnson, of Nebraska, and Miss Abstar, of Chicago.

The entertainment given by George Wright Relief Corps at Western Academy Hall Friday evening was the most successful, both social and financial, that the corps has had in a long time. The New England dinner served from 5 to 6 o'clock was much praised by those who were fortunate to get seated at the tables. Three long tables the length of the hall were under supervision of the eldest members, while the young ladies did the serving. A short musical programme was rendered after 8 o'clock, when dancing, whist and social hours followed. The sewing at Mrs. Morrison's on Tuesday was well attended and much work accomplished. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jacques 20 East Thirty-fifth street, Tuesday, October 10.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. The New York State Society is planning an interesting social to be held the evening of November 25. Refreshments will be served and a musical and literary program rendered. The particular date has been chosen for the reason that it marks an important event in the history of New York as well as in that of the Nation. It will be commemorated by the student of history that the British were both to leave our shores, even after the treaty of peace which assured American independence was signed. So important was the occasion of New York not only to the Americans, but to the British as well, that three months were spent in making preparations for this event, instructions for the departure having been given early in August, 1783.

By the courtesy of the captain and officers of the British steamship Knight Errant, lying at Martin's dock, close to the west side of the lower ferry, the vessel will be open to visitors this (Sunday) afternoon. This giant steamship is the largest that has ever entered our port, and an excellent opportunity is thus afforded of inspecting a great ocean carrier before she sails for the Orient.

AT SWEeping REDUCTIONS IN PRICE

As this will be the last week of the Fair, we must make room for our immense Exposition exhibit which will have to be moved next week. To produce this result we have cut the price of every rug in the house and our loss will be your gain.

Come at Once

As this great cut sale will undoubtedly crowd our store while it lasts. The best stock of Rugs and Carpets ever shown in Portland to select from.

The average weight of an Andaman Islander is 90 pounds.

The Ideal Guest.

Harper's Bazar.

It has been said that women may be divided into two classes, that of the "born hostess" and that of the "born guest," and that neither fits into the other's role with any degree of success! There is one charming woman who is known among her friends as "The G.," which mystery appellation means for "Ideal Guest"! She explains her unique title by saying: "It is so silly! Any one can be a perfect guest if she only tries. Any one can do it to be pleased with your entertainment, and try to help your hostess make things agreeable for the others. Yes, I do visit a great deal, and I make it an inviolable rule never to repeat in one house what I have seen or heard in another." It is very modest and quite proper that the "Ideal Guest" should thus make light of her qualifications. Those of us, however, who have a faculty for observation know of other requirements to the character which she
